PROXY STATEMENT

FOR ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD MAY 4, 2006

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of The National Security Group, Inc. (the Company), to be voted at the Annual Meeting of the stockholders of the Company to be held at 10:00 a.m. (Central Time) on May 4, 2006 at the Conference Center located adjacent to the principal executive offices of the Company, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders (Annual Meeting). This Proxy Statement, dated April 4, 2006, is being mailed to holders of the Company Common Stock on or about March 30, 2006.

At the Annual Meeting, the stockholders of the Company will vote on matters noted in the proxy. If the enclosed proxy is properly signed and returned, your shares will be voted on all matters that properly come before the Annual Meeting for a vote. If instructions are specified in your signed proxy with respect to matters being voted upon, your shares will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If no instructions are so specified, your shares will be voted FOR the election of the persons nominated as directors in the proxy statement and FOR the ratification of selection of independent auditors. So far as is now known, there is no business to be acted upon at the Annual Meeting other than as set forth above, and it is not anticipated that other matters will be brought before the Annual Meeting. If, however, other appropriate matters are duly brought before the Annual Meeting, the persons appointed as proxy agents will have discretion to vote or act thereon according to their own judgment.

Whether or not you attend the Annual Meeting, your vote is important. Accordingly, you are asked to sign and return the accompanying proxy, regardless of the number of shares you own. Shares can be voted at the Annual Meeting only if the holder is present or represented by proxy. Shares of Common Stock represented by a properly executed and returned proxy will be treated as present at the Annual Meeting for purposes of determining a quorum without regard to whether the proxy is marked as casting a vote for or against or abstaining with respect to a particular matter. In addition, shares of Common Stock represented by broker non-votes (i.e., shares of Common Stock held in record name by brokers or nominees as to which (i) instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote, (ii) the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power or (iii) the record holder has indicated that it does not have authority to vote such shares on the matter) generally will be treated as present for the purposes of determining a quorum. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company present in person or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote thereon is required for the election of the nominees to the Board of Directors. With respect to this matter, an abstention will have the same effect as a negative vote, but because shares held by brokers will not be considered entitled to vote on matters as to which brokers would hold authority, a broker non-vote will have no effect on the vote.

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on March 30, 2006, as the record date for the determination of stockholders who are entitled to notice of, and to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournments thereof. On the record date, the Company had outstanding 2,466,600 shares of Company Stock, the holders of which are entitled to one vote per share. No shares of any other class of Company stock are issued or outstanding.

REVOCABILITY OF PROXY

A proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise (i) by filing with the Secretary of the Company either an instrument revoking the proxy or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or (ii) by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person. Attendance at the Annual Meeting by itself will not revoke a proxy.

ITEM 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT INFORMATION

The Bylaws of the Company provide that the Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes as nearly equal in number as possible. The term of each director is three years and the terms are staggered to provide for the election of one class of directors each year. A total of three Directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting. The Nominees have been nominated by the Board of Directors for election to serve three-year terms: Fleming G. Brooks, Jack E. Brunson, and Walter Wilkerson. All of the Nominees are currently serving as Directors of the Company.

The persons named in the enclosed proxy intend to vote FOR the election of the Nominees unless the proxy is marked to indicate that such authorization is expressly withheld. Should any of the Nominees be unable to accept nomination or election (which the Board of Directors does not expect) or should any other vacancy have occurred in the Board, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote for the election of the person or persons whom the Board of Directors recommends.

The following tables set forth the names and certain information concerning the Nominees and each other Director who will continue to serve (the Continuing Directors) as a Director of the Company after the Annual Meeting:

ITEM 2: RATIFICATION OF COMPANY INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has selected Barfield, Murphy, Shank & Smith, PC as the Company's independent auditors for the calendar year ending December 31, 2006 and has further directed that management submit the selection of independent auditors for ratification by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting. They have audited the Company's financial statements since 2000. Representatives of the firm are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, will have an opportunity to make a statement if they so desire and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Stockholder ratification of the selection of Barfield, Murphy, Shank & Smith, PC, as the Company's independent auditors is not required by the Company's Bylaws or otherwise. However, the Board is submitting the selection of Barfield, Murphy, Shank & Smith, PC to the stockholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate practice. If the stockholders fail to ratify the selection, the Audit Committee will reconsider whether or not to retain that firm. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit Committee in its discretion may direct the appointment of a different independent auditing firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting at which a quorum representing a majority of all outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company is present and voting, either in person or by proxy, is required for approval of this proposal. Abstentions and broker non-votes will each be counted as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not have any effect on the outcome of the proposal.

REPORT OF COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee has oversight of the compensation paid to officers of the Company and its subsidiaries, whether by salary or under the Company's bonus plan. This Committee also is responsible for recommending officers to the Board of Directors and recommending directors' fees. Compensation Committee members receive director fees as described in this Proxy Statement and do not receive any other compensation from the Company. During 2005, the Committee held two meetings. The current members of the Committee are Fred Clark, Jr., Frank B. O'Neil and Paul C. Wesch, all of whom are independent directors of the Company. The Committee has provided the following report.

It is the policy of the Compensation Committee to establish base salaries and award bonuses to executive officers of the corporation. This policy is designed to attract, motivate, and retain talented executives responsible for the success of the Company. The compensation program is developed and implemented within a competitive framework and takes into account the achievement of overall financial results as well as individual contributions.

The Committee establishes the base salary for the Chief Executive Officer and approves the base salaries for other members of executive management. In setting compensation levels, the Committee and management reviewed independent insurance industry surveys in which the Company participates; other published regional surveys, and informal surveys of surrounding business and industry. The Committee believes that base salaries should be competitive as determined by geographic region and as measured against salaries within insurance companies of similar size or lines of business. It is an objective of the policy that base salaries should be slightly below market, with compensation supplemented by cash bonuses when financial results warrant.

For 2005, the Committee continued its bonus plan as incentive compensation for its executive officers. This plan is based on the company's absolute return on equity and its return on equity relative to a Peer Group of similar companies. Each of these components is one-half of the potential bonus for each executive. The annual bonus for the Chief Executive Officer of the Company is limited to 70% of annual salary. The annual bonus for other members of executive management is limited to 60% of annual salary.

Bonuses awarded in a given year are based on the previous year's results. In 2006, there was no bonus paid based on the company's absolute return on equity. In 2006, a total of $72,148 was awarded based on the Company's return on equity relative to its Peer Group.

During 2005 the Company adopted a Deferred Compensation Plan under which directors and certain executive officers of the Company may elect to defer the receipt of compensation and thereby defer the current income taxation of such compensation until actually received, generally at retirement. The Plan is effective for compensation otherwise to have been received on or after January 1, 2006. Under the Plan, certain executive officers selected by the Committee may defer up to 25% each of base salary and up to 100% each of bonus compensation. Directors may each defer up to 50% of all compensation.

The Committee is aware of the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code which restrict deductibility of executive compensation and hereby confirms that such compensation has and will continue to be tax deductible as no executive officer will earn in excess of the dollar limitations imposed by such provisions.

Contributions to executive officers under the Company's 401(K) Retirement Plan are made on the same basis as are contributions to all other participants in the Plan.

The Committee continues to review the Company's Compensation Policy in an effort to ensure that it continues to accomplish the intended objectives. While the Company does not currently integrate long-term incentives in its structure, certain forms of long-term incentives are being considered and may be implemented in the future to continue to provide appropriate incentives for management to maximize the Company's long term financial results to maximize stockholder value. The Committee believes that the Company's salary and incentive compensation programs are competitive and appropriate for National Security. Fred Clark, Jr., Frank B. O Neil and Paul C. Wesch
