Forward Looking Statements

Discussions in this Current Report on Form 8-K that are not statements of historical fact (including statements that include terms such as will, may, should, believe, expect, anticipate, estimate, intend, and plan) are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. A forward-looking statement is not a guarantee of future performance and actual results could differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking information. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the business combination transaction involving Radian and MGIC, including future financial and operating results, the new company s plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: the ability to obtain regulatory approvals of the transaction on the proposed terms and schedule; the failure of Radian or MGIC to approve the transaction; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; customer attrition and disruption from the transaction making it more difficult to maintain relationships with customers, employees or suppliers; the risk that the cost savings and any other synergies from the transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; competition and its effect on pricing, spending, third-party relationships and revenues; movements in market interest rates and secondary market volatility; potential sales of assets in connection with the merger; legislative and regulatory changes affecting demand for private mortgage insurance or financial guaranty insurance; downgrades of the insurance financial-strength ratings assigned by the major ratings agencies to Radian s and MGIC s operating subsidiaries and unfavorable changes in economic and business conditions. Additional factors that may affect future results are contained in Radian s and MGIC s filings with the SEC, which are available at the SEC s website <http://www.sec.gov>. Radian and MGIC disclaim any obligation to update and revise statements contained in these materials based on new information or otherwise.
