GENOMMA LAB INTERNACIONAL TO NOMINATE SLATE OF FIVE INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS FOR ELECTION AT PRESTIGE BRANDS' 2012 ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

March 15, 2012— Genomma Lab Internacional, S.A.B. de C.V. (“Genomma”) (BMV: LAB.B.) today announced that it provided formal notice to Prestige Brands Holdings, Inc. (“Prestige”) (NYSE: PBH) of its intention to nominate a slate of five independent candidates for election to Prestige’s Board of Directors and present a proposal for shareholder action at Prestige’s 2012 annual meeting of shareholders.

“Though it remains our strong preference to enter into a negotiated transaction with Prestige, we are committed to pursuing a combination of our two companies. To reinforce that commitment, we have notified Prestige of our intention to nominate a full slate of directors at the upcoming annual meeting of Prestige shareholders. We believe our highly qualified nominees will exercise independent judgment in considering Genomma’s proposed transaction,” said Rodrigo Alonso Herrera Aspra, President and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Genomma Lab Internacional, S.A.B. de C.V. “We are confident that these nominees will serve in the best interests of Prestige and its shareholders.”

Genomma’s nominees are: (i) Yvonne Furth, 53, who served as President and COO of Rivet and President and CEO of Draft FCB before retiring from The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc. in 2009; (ii) Harry A. Hamill, 58, who served in several senior finance positions at Wyeth Corporation before retiring in 2010; (iii) Matthew S. Kissner, 57, President and Chief Executive Officer of The Kissner Group who currently serves on the Board of Directors of John Wiley & Sons, Inc. and previously held senior operational and finance roles at Pitney Bowes; (iv) Edward Lowenthal, 67, who serves on several U.S. and international corporate Boards of Directors and has founded and run several real estate investment firms; and (v) J. Matthew Singleton, 59, who retired from CitationAir in 2011 and currently serves on the Board of Directors of Cubist Pharmaceuticals, Inc. He previously held senior operational and administrative positions at CIBC World Markets.

Genomma also intends to seek to repeal any new by-laws or amendments to Prestige’s By-Laws adopted by Prestige’s Board of Directors after September 2, 2009 (which is the date of the last publicly disclosed amendment to Prestige’s By-Laws) and prior to the adoption of this proposal by Prestige’s shareholders.

On February 21, 2012, Genomma announced its non-binding proposal to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Prestige common stock for US$16.60 per share in cash.

Genomma's all-cash proposal represents a premium of 23% over Prestige's closing stock price on February 17, 2012 and a 47% premium over the three month historical average of Prestige's share price, as of February 17, 2012.

In response to Prestige's press release issued on March 12, 2012 announcing the Prestige Board's rejection of Genomma's proposal, Genomma said it was disappointed with the Prestige Board's response. Genomma remains committed to the proposed transaction and would welcome the opportunity to meet with representatives of Prestige to discuss Genomma's compelling proposal.

(“Prestige Brands”) acquisition proposal. Below is a translation of certain information contained in the Information Statement:

DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED TRANSACTION

Detailed Description of the Proposed Transaction

The Acquisition and Prestige Brands Stock

The proposed transaction consists of the possible acquisition by Genomma Lab Americas, Inc. (the “Purchaser”), which will be a subsidiary of Genomma, of (i) all issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Prestige Brands, a Delaware corporation, and (2) the associated rights to purchase shares of Series “A” Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Prestige Brands issued pursuant to a rights agreement, dated as of February 27, 2012 (collectively, the “Shares”), in the terms and subject to the conditions of an Offer to Purchase which Genomma intends to file with the SEC (together with its exhibits and other relevant documents and as may be amended from time to time, the “Offer to Purchase”). According to publicly available information about Prestige Brands, as of February 6, 2012, 50,433,268 Shares were issued and outstanding and, as of December 31, 2011, there were issued and outstanding options to purchase 1,796,500 Shares and 279,300 outstanding restricted shares, of which 54,000 had vested on that date.

The purpose of the proposed transaction is to enable Genomma to acquire control of, and ultimately acquire the entire equity interest in, Prestige Brands. Once an Offer to Purchase is consummated, the Purchaser intends to have Prestige Brands consummate a merger or similar business combination with the Purchaser (the “Prestige Brands Merger”). The Prestige Brands Merger is subject to various corporate acts and authorizations under applicable laws and the relevant provisions of the constitutive and organizational documents of Prestige Brands now in force.

Approvals and Conditions

The Board of Directors of Genomma approved the calling of a Genomma shareholder meeting in order to propose for consideration at that meeting, among other matters, approval of the proposed transaction and the obtaining of financing in order to have the resources necessary to carry out the proposed transaction, and if necessary, to refinance any Prestige Brands debt, in the event that it is declared due and payable in advance as a result of the proposed transaction.

The proposed transaction is subject to approval by the Genomma shareholders, in the terms established in Article 47 of the Mexican Securities Market Law, and the following conditions, and other conditions that are standard in this type of transaction, according to what will be established in the Offer to Purchase, as modified from time to time:

- (1) That in the Offer to Purchase, the Purchaser acquires a least a majority of the shares of Prestige Brands;
- (2) That the Board of Directors of Prestige Brands redeem the preferred share purchase rights or that such rights have been invalidated or are otherwise inapplicable to the Offer to Purchase and the Prestige Brands Merger;
- (3) That the Board of Directors of Prestige Brands approve the offer and the Prestige Brands Merger;

- (4) The obtaining of a favorable outcome from antitrust authorities in the United States, or, as is applicable, the expiration of any applicable waiting period;
- (5) That Prestige Brands has not entered into or effectuated any agreement or transaction with any person or entity having the effect of impairing Genomma's or the Purchaser's ability to acquire Prestige Brands or otherwise diminishing the expected value to Genomma of the acquisition of Prestige Brands; and
- (6) Genomma having available to it proceeds of financings necessary to consummate the offer and our proposed merger, and to refinance all debt of Prestige Brands and Genomma that is or could be required to be repurchased or becomes, or could be declared, due and payable as a result of the offer or our proposed merger.

The Purchaser reserves the right (but is not obligated), subject to SEC rules and regulations, or any other applicable legal rule, to modify or revoke the various conditions mentioned before the termination of the proposed offer.

Consideration and Other Agreements

Genomma intends to offer the shareholders of Prestige Brands, subject to certain conditions, to pay as consideration for the sale of Shares, the amount of $16.60 per share, on the terms and subject to the conditions that will be set forth in the Offer to Purchase, as modified from time to time. Genomma reserves the right to change the price to be offered to shareholders of Prestige Brands.

Terms and Conditions of the Proposed Offer

On the terms and subject to the conditions to be set forth in the Offer to Purchase, the Purchaser will accept and pay for all validly tendered Shares during the period of the offer, including the termination date of the offer.

Subject to the laws and regulations of the SEC and any other statutory provisions applicable, the Purchaser reserves the right to increase the price of each Share to be payable in the offer and to make any other changes in terms and conditions of the proposed offer.

The Purchaser will pay for all Shares validly tendered and will not immediately withdrawn after the acceptance of the Shares for payment pursuant to the offering. Notwithstanding the foregoing, and subject to the laws and regulations of the SEC and any other statutory provisions applicable, and to the terms and conditions to be set forth in the Offer to Purchase, the Purchaser will reserve the right (but is not obliged to) (i) delay payment of all or part of the Shares, to comply with applicable law (and any such delay will be in compliance with the applicable regulations), (ii) to extend or terminate the offer and not accept payment or to pay any Shares that have not been validly delivered, and (iii) modify the offer, in each case, through a verbal or written notice of such delay, extension, termination or amendment to the depositary and to disclose a public announcement of such action in question.

During any extension of the proposed offer period, all Shares previously tendered and not withdrawn will remain subject to the proposed offer and to the right of the shareholders of Prestige Brands to withdraw Shares. Under the applicable regulations, the Purchaser shall pay the consideration proposed to be offered or return the Shares delivered immediately after the termination or withdrawal of the proposed offer.

Purpose of the Proposed Offer

The proposed offer is intended to give Genomma control of Prestige Brands and then to acquire all of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Prestige Brands through the merger of Prestige Brands with a subsidiary of Genomma.

As a result of the proposed offer, Genomma aims to increase its presence and coverage in the U.S. and increase its portfolio of pharmaceutical products sold without prescriptions and personal care.

With the union of Genomma and Prestige Brands, Genomma will add substantial value to its operations, and Prestige Brands would be well positioned for further growth which could be achieved independently. Additionally, the operational partnership of both companies will allow the recouping of corporate and administrative expenses.

Investors can find more information related to the strategic and financial reasoning of the proposed offering is available on Genomma's website

The costs that Genomma incurs in relation to the proposed transaction, including legal advisor fees, will be paid exclusively by Genomma.

As required in article 35 of the Bylaws, this document will be presented to Mexican Securities and Banking Commission, the Mexican Stock Exchange, and to the general public on the next possible day after the publication of the call for the Genomma Shareholders Meeting.
