Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Amendment to Agreement and Plan of Merger

On March 24, 2008, JPMorgan Chase & Co. ( JPMorgan Chase ) and The Bear Stearns Companies Inc. ( Bear Stearns ) entered into an Amendment No. 1 (the Amendment ) to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of March 16, 2008, by and between JPMorgan Chase and Bear Stearns (as amended, the Merger Agreement ). Under the revised terms, each share of Bear Stearns common stock will be exchanged for 0.21753 of a share of JPMorgan Chase common stock.

Among other things, the Amendment provides for the following:

The definition of Superior Proposal has been amended to state that only a Qualifying Party may make a Superior Proposal under the Merger Agreement. A Qualifying Party is a third party that (i) enters into one or more guaranties of the obligations of Bear Stearns and its subsidiaries that are at least equivalent (and no less comprehensive) to each of the Guaranty and the Fed Guaranty (which guaranties shall take effect simultaneously with the termination of, and shall supersede, the Guaranty and the Fed Guaranty), (ii) has capital, liquidity and financial strength sufficient that such replacement guaranties will enable Bear Stearns and its subsidiaries to conduct business in the ordinary course as then conducted and (iii) enters into financing and support arrangements with the Federal Reserve as are necessary to enable Bear Stearns and its subsidiaries to conduct business in the ordinary course as then conducted.

Under the terms of the Amendment, upon failure to obtain the requisite vote of Bear Stearns's stockholders for the consummation of the merger, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by either party after 120 days have elapsed from the date of the stockholder meeting. The parties, however, may by mutual agreement extend the 120-day period. In addition, the Merger Agreement no longer provides that the parties must use reasonable best efforts to restructure and resubmit the transaction to the Bear Stearns stockholders for approval if the requisite vote of the Bear Stearns stockholders for the consummation of the merger is not obtained at a duly held stockholder meeting.

As amended, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by JPMorgan Chase on the later of (i) if the transactions contemplated by the Share Exchange Agreement (as described below) or JPMorgan Chase's ability to vote the shares it acquires under the Share Exchange Agreement are enjoined or otherwise prohibited and the injunction or prohibition is final and nonappealable, the 120th day after the final and nonappealable injunction or prohibition is issued and (ii) the earlier to occur of (a) the 60th day following the date of the Bear Stearns stockholders meeting specified in the first definitive proxy statement mailed to Bear Stearns's stockholders in connection with the meeting to be held for the purpose of approving and adopting the Merger Agreement and (b) the 180th day after a final and nonappealable injunction or prohibition is issued.

The terms of the asset option related to Bear Stearns's headquarters building have been amended to add a provision that the option would be exercisable by JPMorgan Chase if the approval of Bear Stearns's stockholders has not been obtained at the first duly held meeting of stockholders convened for the purpose of approving and adopting the Merger Agreement, as amended. In such an event, the option would be exercisable by JPMorgan Chase for 120 days following the date of such stockholder meeting.

The Amendment provides that JPMorgan Chase will have custody of and the immediate right to manage a specified collateral pool described in the Amendment and any related hedges, with such custody and management rights to be delegated to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York effective immediately.

Bear Stearns and JPMorgan Chase also agreed to terminate and revoke in all respects the Stock Option Agreement filed as Exhibit 99.2 to JPMorgan Chase's Current Report on Form 8-K dated March 20, 2008.

The foregoing description of the Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 2.1 hereto, and incorporated into this report by reference.

Share Exchange Agreement

On March 24, 2008, JPMorgan Chase and Bear Stearns, in connection with entering into the Amendment, entered into a Share Exchange Agreement, under which JPMorgan Chase will purchase 95 million newly issued shares of Bear Stearns common stock, or 39.5% of the outstanding Bear Stearns common stock after giving effect to the issuance, in exchange for the issuance of 20,665,350 shares of JPMorgan Chase common stock to Bear Stearns and the entry by JPMorgan Chase into the Amended and Restated Guaranty Agreement and the Fed Guaranty Agreement (each as described below).

While the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) generally require shareholder approval prior to the issuance of securities constituting 20% or more of the outstanding shares of a listed company, the NYSE's Shareholder Approval Policy provides an exception in cases where the delay involved in securing shareholder approval for the issuance would seriously jeopardize the financial viability of the listed company. In accordance with the NYSE's rule providing that exception, the Audit Committee of Bear Stearns's Board of Directors has expressly approved, and the full Board of Directors has unanimously concurred with, Bear Stearns's use of the exception.

The closing of the issuance of the shares of Bear Stearns common stock to JPMorgan Chase under the Share Exchange Agreement is expected to be completed upon the expiration of a ten-day shareholder notice period required by the NYSE rule described above, which is expected to occur on or about April 8, 2008.

The foregoing description of the of the Share Exchange Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Share Exchange Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2.2 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.

Amended and Restated Guaranty Agreement

On March 24, 2008, JPMorgan Chase, in connection with the Amendment and the Share Exchange Agreement, entered into an Amended and Restated Guaranty Agreement (the Guaranty), effective retroactively from March 16, 2008, which replaces the Guaranty Agreement entered into on March 16, 2008 in connection with the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Guaranty, JPMorgan Chase will guarantee certain liabilities of Bear Stearns and certain of its operating subsidiaries (the Guaranteed Bear Entities) to the extent such liabilities arise prior to the end of the specified Guaranty Period, including (1) the revolving and term loan obligations of the Guaranteed Bear Entities, (2) certain brokerage and trading contract obligations of the Guaranteed Bear Entities (including obligations arising under prime brokerage agreements, securities contracts, commodity contracts, securities lending and borrowing arrangements, swaps, options, other derivatives, futures, forward contracts, repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements, settlement and clearing obligations, margin loan agreements and similar contracts and transactions) and (3) certain obligations of the Guaranteed Bear Entities to deliver cash, securities or other property to customers pursuant to customary custody arrangements.

The Guaranty Period will end (subject to provision of further notice by JPMorgan Chase posted on its website at least three days prior to the end of the Guaranty Period), no sooner than the earliest to occur of (i) the date that is 120 days following the failure of Bear Stearns to receive the approval of its stockholders for the Merger Agreement at a meeting of Bear Stearns stockholders convened for that purpose, (ii) the date that is 120 days following closing of the Merger and (iii) the date of termination of the Merger Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Guaranty does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Guaranty, which is filed as Exhibit 99.1 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.

Guarantee and Collateral Agreement

On March 24, 2008, JPMorgan Chase, in connection with the Amendment and the Guaranty, entered into a Guarantee and Collateral Agreement (the Collateral Agreement) with Bear Stearns and certain of its subsidiaries (collectively, the Collateral Parties) pursuant to which the Collateral Parties agreed to guarantee the obligations of each of them to repay to JPMorgan Chase (1) any loans or other advances of credit by JPMorgan Chase and its affiliates to Bear Stearns and its affiliates and (2) any amounts paid by JPMorgan Chase to creditors of Bear Stearns and its affiliates under the Guaranty and the Fed Guaranty. Each of the Collateral Parties secured their guarantee by granting a lien on substantially all of their respective assets, subject to certain carveouts.

Inc. and certain of its affiliates to the New York Fed. Such guaranty will apply with respect to transactions entered into prior to the termination of the Merger Agreement and may be terminated by JPMorgan Chase in accordance with the terms thereof. The foregoing description of the Fed Guaranty does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Fed Guaranty, which is filed as Exhibit 99.2 hereto, and is incorporated into this report by reference.
