This admonition is incorporated herein by reference as is the statement therein that the Court "may, in its discretion", order any dissenting stockholder's expenses to be charged against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal, but that "... a dissenting stockholder must be prepared to pay his or her own expenses in connection with the proceeding." The penultimate sentence of the first paragraph under "Summary Information in Question and Answer Format - What rights do stockholders have to dissent from the Merger?" in the Proxy Statement indicating no provision has been made to grant Public Stockholders access to files of the Company or the Continuing Stockholders or to obtain counsel or appraisal rights at their expense is incorporated by reference.

Company's value if it were to liquidate. After performing this and other analyses, Houlihan Lokey opined that the $3.12 per share "buy-out" price was fair from a financial point of view to the Public Stockholders and each member of the Special Committee, each member

(e) None of the Company's eight directors are employees of the Company.
