LCM and Shapiro disclaim beneficial ownership of the Stock except to the extent of their respective pecuniary interests therein. DAP is filing jointly with the other filers, but not as a member of a group, and expressly disclaims membership in a group. In addition, the filing of this Schedule 13D on behalf of DAP should not be construed as an admission that it is, and it disclaims that it is, the beneficial owner of any of the Stock covered by this Statement.

(b) The business address of the Filers is 591 Redwood Highway, Suite 2345, Mill Valley, CA 94941.

(c) Present principal occupation or employment of the Filers and the name, principal business and address of any corporation or other organization in which such employment is conducted:

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

As disclosed in prior filings, Lawndale has concerns over the composition, independence and functioning of Sparton's Board of Directors and certain of its Board committees.

On July 30, 2004, Sparton filed a preliminary proxy for a special shareholders meeting (the "Special Meeting") to be held September 24, 2004 proposing shareholders approve both removal of shareholders' cumulative voting rights and the creation of an advance notice requirement for shareholders who desire to nominate director candidates.

On August 9, 2004, Lawndale sent a letter to the Sparton board of directors (a copy of which was attached as Exhibit B to Amendment No. 3 to Schedule 13D filed August 10, 2004) in which Lawndale expressed its objections to Sparton's calling the Special Meeting and the proposals themselves, and sought a meeting with Sparton's independent directors to discuss the Special Meeting and other issues. Thereafter, in additional letters sent to Sparton on September 7, 2004, and September 11, 2004, Lawndale informed the board of the findings and opposition of various governance services to Sparton's proposals, and reiterated its request for a meeting with Sparton's independent directors. On September 17, 2004, Lawndale voted 630,179 shares AGAINST BOTH Special Meeting proposals and sent a letter to Sparton's board, informing it of Lawndale's vote and its reasons for that vote, and reiterating its request for disclosure of the Special Meeting vote results and for a meeting with one or more independent directors of Sparton. Copies of those letters were attached as Exhibit B to Amendment Nos. 4, 5 and 6, respectively, to Schedules 13D filed on September 8, 13 and 20, 2004.

On September 24, 2004, Sparton convened the Special Meeting but then promptly announced an "adjournment", continuing the meeting to October 15, 2004. Lawndale views this purported adjournment of the Special Meeting as improper and contrary to fundamental principles of fairness and good governance. In particular, Lawndale believes that Sparton sought to adjourn the meeting because most of the non-affiliated Sparton shareholders have not voted to approve the measures at the Special Meeting, and Sparton is attempting to use the adjournment to unfairly influence the vote on the issues raised at the Special Meeting.

In response to Sparton's improper actions, Lawndale has decided to seek additional information concerning the Special Meeting and Sparton's actions. In particular, on October 1, 2004, Lawndale, as beneficial owner of Sparton stock, has made a demand pursuant to Section 1701.37 of the Ohio Revised Code and Ohio common law (the "Demand Letter") to inspect certain books and records with respect to the Special Meeting vote, costs and deliberations as well as the deliberations relating to the adoption of Sparton's Shareholder Communications Policy to better understand the results, costs and procedures associated with the Special Meeting and to investigate potential wrong-doing of Sparton's officers and/or directors in connection with the Special Meeting and/or adoption of its Shareholder Communications Policy. In addition, the Demand Letter requests a shareholder list and related information to enable Lawndale to communicate with Sparton shareholders with respect to matters relating to their mutual interests as shareholders. A copy of the Demand Letter is attached as Exhibit B to this amendment.

Lawndale incorporates by reference the discussions in its prior Schedules 13D to the extent not inconsistent with the discussion herein.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

The beneficial ownership of the Stock by each Filer at the date hereof is reflected on that Filer's cover page.

The Filers effected the following transactions in the Stock in open market transactions on the dates indicated, and such transactions are the only transactions in the Stock by the Filers since September 17, 2004:

Name	Purchase or Sale	Date	Number of Shares	Price Per Share
DAP	P	9-28-2004	6,000	8.55
DAP	P	9-29-2004	2,200	8.65
LCM	P	9-29-2004	300	8.65
DAP	P	9-30-2004	1,200	8.65
LCM	P	9-30-2004	300	8.65

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangement, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

LCM is the general partner of DAP and other clients pursuant to limited partnership agreements providing to LCM the authority, among other things, to invest the funds of such clients in Stock, to vote and dispose of Stock and to file this statement on behalf of such clients. Pursuant to such limited partnership agreements, the general partner of such clients is entitled to allocations based on assets under management and realized and unrealized gains.
