PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

(ATTACH EXTRA SHEETS IF NEEDED)

On April 13, 2003, the Company and substantially all of its subsidiaries filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of California (jointly administered as Case Nos. 03-03470-All to 03-03535-All). These entities comprise substantially all of the operations of the Company. Each of the debtors has continued to manage its properties and operate its business as a "debtor-in-possession" under the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and in accordance with Sections 1107(a) and 1108 of Chapter 11.

On July 30, 2003, the debtors filed their Fifth Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization (the "Plan") and the accompanying Disclosure Statement. Confirmation hearings for the Plan commenced the week of September 29, 2003, and the hearings relating to such confirmation, including the Company's response to a motion for stay pending appeal, concluded October 21, 2003. On October 22, 2003, the Bankruptcy Court entered an order (the "Order") confirming the Plan.

Since the Company began its Chapter 11 proceedings, the burdens on the Company's management and legal, financial and accounting personnel resulting from such proceedings have been extensive. The activities involved in moving forward through the bankruptcy process have required management to devote substantially all of its time and attention to these matters and to the on-going management of the Company's day-to-day operations. During the last week of September 2003 and the first two weeks of October 2003, the Company's management and legal, financial and accounting personnel were intensely focused on the confirmation hearings for the Plan, which consumed virtually all of the time and attention of key personnel who are closely involved with the preparation and filing of the Company's periodic reports on Form 10-Q. These factors have resulted in the Company's inability to complete and file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2003 by November 14, 2003, and could not have been eliminated without unreasonable effort and expense. The Company is in the process of preparing its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2003 and expects to file such report with the SEC within the next two weeks.
