This prospectus relates to 46,185,131 shares (which we refer to as the "contributed shares") of our common stock, par value $.01 per share, held in a segregated account in the Lucent Technologies Inc. Represented Employees Post-Retirement Health Benefits Trust (which we refer to as the "trust") created under the Lucent Technologies Inc. Welfare Benefits Plan for Retired Employees (which we refer to as the "plan"). The contributed shares may be offered for sale from time to time by U.S. Trust Company, National Association (which we refer to as the "investment manager"), in its capacity as duly appointed and acting investment manager for the segregated account of the trust, and by Boston Safe Deposit & Trust Company, as duly appointed trustee for the trust (which we refer to as the "trustee," and we refer to the trustee, the trust and the investment manager collectively as the "selling stockholder"). We are registering the contributed shares to provide the selling stockholder with freely tradable securities pursuant to a Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of April 30, 2003 (which we refer to as the "registration rights agreement"), between us and the investment manager. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the contributed shares by the selling stockholder. We are generally required to bear the expenses of the registration of the contributed shares offered hereby, including, without limitation, registration fees under federal and state securities laws, and legal and accounting fees. Any underwriting discounts, brokerage fees and commissions will be the responsibility of the selling stockholder. See "Selling Stockholder."

The selling stockholder may sell all or a portion of the contributed shares from time to time on the New York Stock Exchange, in negotiated transactions or otherwise, and at prices which will be determined by the prevailing market price for the contributed shares or in negotiated transactions.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our securities involves risks. You should carefully consider the risks, uncertainties and assumptions discussed under the caption "Risks Related to Our Business and Investing in Our Securities" included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2002, which are incorporated by reference in this prospectus, and which may be amended, supplemented or superseded from time to time by other reports we file with the SEC in the future.

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This prospectus and other documents we file with the SEC contain forward-looking statements that are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about us, our future performance, the industries in which we operate, our beliefs and our management's assumptions. In addition, other written or oral statements that constitute forward-looking statements may be made by or on behalf of us. Words such as "expects," "anticipates," "targets," "goals," "projects," "intends," "plans," "believes," "seeks," "estimates," variations of such words and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements. Except as required under the federal securities laws and the rules and regulations of the SEC, we do not have any intention or obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements after the distribution of this prospectus, whether as a result of new information, future events, changes in assumptions, or otherwise.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the contributed shares offered by this prospectus. The selling stockholder will receive all of the proceeds.

SELLING STOCKHOLDER

On April 30, 2003, we contributed to the trust 46,185,131 shares of our common stock. We did not receive any cash proceeds from the contribution of the contributed shares.

The investment manager serves in its sole capacity as investment manager pursuant to an investment management agreement with Lucent Asset Management Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Lucent that is a named fiduciary of the trust. In accordance with the terms of the investment management agreement, the investment manager is responsible for the management and disposition of the contributed shares and is a fiduciary of the trust. The investment manager, in exercising its fiduciary duty, will decide whether or not, and under what terms, it will sell the contributed shares offered hereby. Both the trustee and the investment manager receive customary compensation for serving as trustee and investment manager, respectively.

At the date of this prospectus, the trust beneficially owned 46,185,131 shares of our common stock, representing approximately 1.1% of our outstanding shares of common stock. The selling stockholder may sell up to 46,185,131 shares of our common stock pursuant to this offering, and assuming that all such contributed shares are sold, the trust will beneficially own none of the outstanding shares of our common stock after this offering. However, the selling stockholder may sell all, some or none of the contributed shares. Accordingly, we cannot provide you with an estimate of the number of shares of our common stock that the selling stockholder will hold in the future.

In some instances, the contributed shares may be sold by the pledgees, donees, transferees, assignees or other successors-in-interest that receive their shares from the selling stockholder as a gift, pledge or other non-sale transfer after the date of this prospectus. The term "selling stockholder" as used in this prospectus shall include such pledgees, donees, transferees, assignees or other successors-in-interest.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholder may offer the contributed shares from time to time, depending on market conditions and other factors, in one or more transactions on the New York Stock Exchange or any other national securities exchange or automated interdealer quotation system on which shares of our common stock are then listed, through negotiated transactions or otherwise. The contributed shares will be sold at prices and on terms then prevailing, at prices related to the then current market price or at negotiated prices. Subject to the terms of the registration rights agreement, the contributed shares may be offered in any manner permitted by law, including through underwriters, brokers, dealers or agents, and directly to one or more purchasers. Sales of the contributed shares may involve:

- sales to underwriters who will acquire contributed shares for their own account and resell them in one or more transactions at fixed prices or at varying prices determined at the time of sale;
- block transactions in which the broker or dealer engaged will attempt to sell contributed shares as agent, but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- purchases by a broker or dealer as principal and resale by the broker or dealer for its account; or
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker solicits purchasers.

The selling stockholder and/or purchasers of the contributed shares may pay brokers and dealers for selling contributed shares. These payments may be in the form of underwriting discounts, concessions or commissions. The selling stockholder and any broker dealer who sells or assists the selling stockholder in selling contributed shares may be deemed an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). If they are deemed to be underwriters, any brokerage commissions or discounts may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. We will file, if required, a prospectus supplement when the selling stockholder notifies us that it has entered into an arrangement with an underwriter, broker or dealer for the sale of contributed shares. The prospectus supplement will disclose certain material information, including:

- the number of contributed shares being offered;
- the terms of the offering;
- any discounts, commissions or other compensation paid to underwriters, brokers or dealers;
- the public offering price;

Edgar Filing: LUCENT TECHNOLOGIES INC - Form S-3

- any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid by any underwriters to dealers; and
- other material terms of the offering.

As of the date of this prospectus, there are no selling arrangements between the selling stockholder and any underwriter, broker or dealer. The selling stockholder may also sell contributed shares in reliance upon Rule 144 of the Securities Act, provided it meets the criteria and conforms to the requirements of Rule 144, rather than under this prospectus.

We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of contributed shares by the selling stockholder. We will bear the costs of registering the contributed shares under the Securities Act, including the registration fee under the Securities Act, accounting fees, printing fees, fees and disbursements of our counsel and certain fees and disbursements of counsel to the selling stockholder. The selling stockholder will be responsible for underwriting discounts, brokerage fees and commissions, if any, incurred in connection with the sale of contributed shares.

Under the terms of the registration rights agreement, Lucent and the selling stockholder have agreed to indemnify each other and certain other related parties for certain liabilities in connection with the registration of the contributed shares.

All of the contributed shares are subject to the restrictions on transfer, and other terms, set forth in the registration rights agreement. Under the registration rights agreement, the selling stockholder may only transfer contributed shares in the foregoing types of transactions, under certain circumstances and in accordance with certain volume limitations set forth therein. We have agreed to maintain the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part until April 30, 2005.

The plan is a welfare plan as defined in the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") and is designed to provide participants and their beneficiaries with retiree healthcare related to their years of active service. Prohibited transactions under Title I of ERISA and Section 4975 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), could arise if, absent an available exemption, a person or entity which is a "party in interest," as defined under ERISA, or a "disqualified person," as defined under the Code, were to purchase any of the contributed shares being offered by the selling stockholder. Any such potential purchaser should consult with counsel to determine whether an exemption is available with respect to any such purchase.

LEGAL MATTERS

Richard J. Rawson, our Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, has delivered his legal opinion on behalf of the company to the effect that the 46,185,131 shares offered hereby have been validly issued and are fully paid and nonassessable. As of May 19, 2003, Mr. Rawson owned 334,072 shares of our common stock and vested options and stock units for 2,659,876 shares of our common stock.

EXPERTS

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

The registrant's Certificate of Incorporation provides that a director of the registrant shall not be personally liable to the registrant or its securityholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except, if required by the Delaware General Corporation Law, for liability (1) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the registrant or its stockholders, (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (3) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, which concerns unlawful payments of dividends, stock purchases or redemptions or (4) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. Neither the amendment nor repeal of such provision shall eliminate or reduce the effect of such provision in respect of any matter occurring, or any cause of action, suit or claim that, but for such provision, would accrue or arise prior to such amendment or repeal.

While the registrant's Certificate of Incorporation provides directors with protection from awards for monetary damages for breach of their duty of care, it does not eliminate such duty. Accordingly, the registrant's Certificate of Incorporation will have no effect on the availability of equitable remedies such as an injunction or rescission based on a director's breach of his or her duty of care.

The registrant's Certificate of Incorporation provides that each person who was or is made a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a "proceeding"), by reason of the fact that such person, or a person of whom such person is the legal representative, is or was a director or officer of the registrant or is or was serving at the request of the registrant as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the registrant to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the registrant to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the registrant to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith. Such right to indemnification includes the right to have the registrant pay the expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, subject to the provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Such rights are not exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the registrant's Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws, agreement, vote of securityholders or disinterested directors or otherwise. No repeal or modification of such provision will in any way diminish or adversely affect the rights of any director, officer, employee or agent of the registrant thereunder in respect of any occurrence or matter arising prior to any such repeal or modification.

The registrant's Certificate of Incorporation also specifically authorizes the registrant to maintain insurance and to grant similar indemnification rights to employees or agents of the registrant. The directors and officers of the registrant are covered by insurance policies indemnifying them against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities arising under the Securities Act, which might be incurred by them in such capacities.

ITEM 16. EXHIBITS

See the index to exhibits, which is incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS

(A) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during the period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (A)(1)(i) and (A)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(B) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

II-2

(C) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

II-3

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-3 and has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Murray Hill, State of New Jersey on May 21, 2003.
