Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure

On September 7, 2011, our Chief Executive Officer, Fredric J. Tomczyk, spoke to analysts at the Scotia Capital Financials Summit in Toronto (the Summit). The transcript of Mr. Tomczyk's remarks at the Summit is attached as Exhibit No. 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

Some of the statements contained in this report are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as ought, should, will, trends, would, were, tends or see, or the negative of these terms or other terms. Forward-looking statements are based on the opinions and estimates of management at the time the statements are made and are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could affect the Company's actual results include, among others, economic conditions and other securities industry risks, competition in our industry, regulatory uncertainties and other regulatory considerations, risk factors relating to strategic acquisitions and the integration of acquired operations, restrictions in the terms of our revolving credit facility and senior notes and our corporate debt level. More information about these and other factors that could affect our financial results is included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC and in our other public filings with the SEC. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance upon these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this report. The Company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statements, except to the extent required by the federal securities laws.

In accordance with General Instruction B.2 of the SEC's Form 8-K, the information furnished in this report shall not be deemed to be filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section.
