SUBJECT TO COMPLETION, DATED MARCH 2, 2001

OFFER TO EXCHANGE EACH OUTSTANDING SHARE OF COMMON STOCK
(INCLUDING THE ASSOCIATED PREFERRED STOCK PURCHASE RIGHTS)
OF

GUEST SUPPLY, INC.
FOR SHARES OF COMMON STOCK OF

SYSCO CORPORATION
PURSUANT TO AN EXCHANGE RATIO, AS DESCRIBED BELOW.

THE OFFER AND WITHDRAWAL RIGHTS WILL EXPIRE AT 11:59 P.M.,
NEW YORK CITY TIME, ON MARCH 5, 2001 UNLESS EXTENDED.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

On January 22, 2001, we entered into a merger agreement with Guest Supply. The board of directors of Guest Supply has approved the merger agreement and determined that the offer is fair to, and in the best interests of, Guest Supply stockholders. The Guest Supply board of directors unanimously recommends that Guest Supply stockholders accept the offer and tender their shares.

Through Sysco Food Services of New Jersey, Inc., our wholly owned subsidiary, we are offering to exchange our common stock based on an exchange ratio, as described below, for each outstanding share of Guest Supply common stock that is validly tendered and not properly withdrawn. The exchange ratio will be determined based upon the average of the closing prices per share of our common stock on The New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") for each of the 15 consecutive trading days ending on the trading day that is five trading days prior to the expiration date of the offer, as it may be extended from time to time, which we refer to as the SYSCO average trading price. If the SYSCO average trading price is:

- at least $22.00 but less than or equal to $30.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share a number of SYSCO shares equal to $26.00 divided by the SYSCO average trading price;
- less than $22.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share approximately 1.1818 SYSCO shares; or
- more than $30.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share approximately 0.8667 SYSCO shares.

The SYSCO average trading price cannot be determined with certainty at this time.

If completed, the offer will be followed by a merger in which our common stock will be issued at the same exchange ratio used in the offer. On February 28, 2001, the closing price for our shares was $27.26. If the offer expires on March 5, 2001 and is not extended, the SYSCO average trading price will be $27.187, and a Guest Supply stockholder would receive approximately 0.9564 shares of our common stock for each share of Guest Supply common stock. We urge you to obtain a current quote for our shares. Our obligation to exchange our common stock is subject to the conditions listed under "The Offer -- Conditions of the Offer." Our common stock trades on the NYSE under the symbol "SYY." Guest Supply common stock trades on the NYSE under the symbol "GSY."

SEE "RISK FACTORS" BEGINNING ON PAGE 18 FOR A DISCUSSION OF FACTORS THAT YOU SHOULD CONSIDER IN CONNECTION WITH THE OFFER.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND US A PROXY. IF REQUIRED, ANY SOLICITATION OF PROXIES WILL BE MADE ONLY PURSUANT TO SEPARATE PROXY SOLICITATION MATERIALS COMPLYING WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF SECTION 14(a) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934.

NEITHER THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION NOR ANY STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION HAS APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED OF THESE SECURITIES OR PASSED UPON THE ADEQUACY OR ACCURACY OF THIS PROSPECTUS. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

The date of this prospectus is March , 2001

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE PROPOSED COMBINATION

Q: WHAT ARE SYSCO AND GUEST SUPPLY PROPOSING?

A: SYSCO proposes to acquire all the outstanding shares of Guest Supply common stock including the associated preferred stock purchase rights. We have entered into a merger agreement with Guest Supply pursuant to which we are offering, through Sysco Food Services of New Jersey, to exchange shares of our common stock for the outstanding shares of Guest Supply common stock. After the offer is completed, subject to approval by the stockholders of Guest Supply, if necessary, Sysco Food Services of New Jersey will merge with and into Guest Supply. As a result of the offer and the merger, Guest Supply will become a wholly owned subsidiary of SYSCO.

Q: WHAT WILL I RECEIVE IN EXCHANGE FOR MY GUEST SUPPLY SHARES?

A: If the SYSCO average trading price is:

- at least $22.00 but less than or equal to $30.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share a number of SYSCO shares equal to $26.00 divided by the SYSCO average trading price;
- less than $22.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share approximately 1.1818 SYSCO shares; or
- more than $30.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share approximately 0.8667 SYSCO shares.

The offer will be followed by a merger in which our stock will be issued at the same exchange ratio used in the exchange offer.

The SYSCO average trading prices used to calculate the exchange ratio will be the average of the closing prices per share of our common stock on the NYSE for each of the 15 consecutive trading days ending five trading days prior to the expiration date of the offer, as it may be extended from time to time, which we refer to as the expiration date of the offer.

Q: HOW CAN I FIND OUT THE FINAL EXCHANGE RATIO?

A: We will notify you by issuing a press release announcing the final exchange ratio and filing that press release with the SEC. Guest Supply stockholders can call our information agent, MacKenzie Partners, at any time collect at (212) 929-5500 or toll free at (800) 322-2885 for the SYSCO average trading price and the exchange ratio that would be in effect based on that price. For a table illustrating examples of SYSCO average trading prices, the resulting exchange ratios and illustrations of the approximate value you will receive for your Guest Supply shares, please see "The Offer -- Basic Terms -- Illustrative Table of Exchange Ratios and Value of Offer/Merger Consideration" beginning on page 25.

Q: HOW LONG WILL IT TAKE TO COMPLETE THE OFFER AND THE MERGER?

A: The initial offering period expires at 11:59 p.m., New York City time on March 5, 2001, subject to extension. We hope to complete the offer in March 2001. We expect to complete the merger without a stockholder vote shortly after we complete the offer if we acquire 90% of the Guest Supply shares in the offer. If less than 90% of the shares are tendered in the offer, then the merger will require Guest Supply stockholder approval at a special meeting. If a special meeting is required, we do not expect the merger to close until April 2001. We must also obtain regulatory clearances prior to completion of the offer and the merger.

Q: WILL I HAVE TO PAY ANY FEES OR EXPENSES IF I TENDER MY GUEST SUPPLY SHARES?

A: If you are the record owner of your shares and you tender your shares in the offer, you will not have to pay brokerage fees or incur similar expenses. If you own your shares through a broker or other nominee and your broker tenders the shares on your behalf, your broker may charge you a fee for doing so. You should consult your broker or nominee to determine whether any fees will apply.

Q: DOES GUEST SUPPLY SUPPORT THE OFFER AND THE MERGER?

A: Yes. The Guest Supply board of directors has determined that the offer is fair to, and in the best interests of, Guest Supply stockholders and unanimously recommends that Guest Supply stockholders accept the offer and tender their shares in the offer. The Guest Supply board of directors has also approved and declared advisable the merger agreement and the merger. Information about the recommendation of the Guest Supply board of directors is more fully set forth in Guest Supply's Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9, which is being mailed to Guest Supply stockholders together with this prospectus.

Q: HAS GUEST SUPPLY RECEIVED A FAIRNESS OPINION IN CONNECTION WITH THE OFFER AND THE MERGER?

A: Yes. Guest Supply has received an opinion from U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray, dated January 22, 2001, to the effect that, as of that date, and subject to the assumptions, factors and limitations set forth in their opinion, the exchange ratio to be established pursuant to the merger agreement is fair to the Guest Supply stockholders from a financial point of view. This opinion is included as an exhibit to Guest Supply's Schedule 14D-9 dated February 5, 2001, which was mailed to Guest Supply stockholders together with this prospectus, and Guest Supply stockholders are urged to read such opinion in its entirety, including the assumptions, factors and limitations contained therein.

Q: HAVE ANY GUEST SUPPLY STOCKHOLDERS AGREED TO TENDER THEIR SHARES?

A: Yes. Directors and executive officers, who collectively hold approximately 8.35% of the outstanding common stock of Guest Supply as of January 31, 2001 have agreed to tender shares owned by them at January 22, 2001, as well as all additional shares acquired by them, including those acquired upon exercise of options and warrants. They have reserved the right to sell into the public market up to 15% of the total number of (i) shares held of record, and (ii) shares deemed beneficially owned by such stockholders pursuant to Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Shares deemed beneficially owned include those subject to options and warrants exercisable at January 22, 2001, and those exercisable within 60 days thereafter. In addition, they have agreed to tender all shares not sold into the public market. As of February 26, 2001, they had sold 82,500 shares.

Q: WHAT PERCENTAGE OF OUR COMMON STOCK WILL GUEST SUPPLY STOCKHOLDERS OWN AFTER THE OFFER AND THE MERGER?

A: Because we do not know the final exchange ratio at this time, we cannot determine the exact percentage of our common stock that former stockholders of Guest Supply will own after the offer and the merger. Nonetheless, upon completion of the offer and merger, we believe that former stockholders of Guest Supply will own less than 1.5% of the outstanding shares of our common stock, based upon the number of shares of our common stock and Guest Supply common stock outstanding on January 29, 2001.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

Q: WHAT ARE THE CONDITIONS TO THE OFFER?

A: Completion of the offer is subject to the following conditions:

- a majority of the outstanding Guest Supply shares, on a fully-diluted basis, shall have been tendered and not withdrawn, which we refer to as the minimum tender condition;
- waiting periods under applicable antitrust laws shall have expired or been terminated;
- Guest Supply shall have obtained required approvals under the New Jersey Industrial Site Recovery Act;
- the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part must have been declared effective by the SEC and not be subject to any stop order or proceedings seeking a stop order;
- no federal or state statute, rule, regulation, injunction, order or decree shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any governmental authority making illegal or otherwise prohibiting the completion of the offer or the merger in the United States, Canada or England and no action or proceeding before any governmental authority in the United States by any governmental authority in the United States that seeks to restrain or prohibit the offer or the merger shall have been instituted;

- the fairness opinion of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray shall not have been modified or withdrawn;
- Guest Supply shall not have breached any covenant, representation or warranty of the merger agreement resulting in a material adverse change in the Guest Supply business; and
- no material adverse change in the Guest Supply business shall exist.

These and other conditions to the offer are discussed in this prospectus under "The Offer -- Conditions of the Offer" beginning on page 31.

Q: HOW DO I PARTICIPATE IN THE OFFER?

A: To tender your shares, you should do the following:

- If you hold your shares in your own name, complete and sign the enclosed letter of transmittal and return it with your share certificates to EquiServe Trust Company, N.A., the exchange agent for the offer, at:

EquiServe Trust Company, N.A.
150 Royall Street
Canton, Massachusetts 02021
(781) 575-3170
or call toll free
(800) 730-4001

- If you hold your shares in "street name" through a broker, ask your broker to tender your shares.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

For more information on the procedures for tendering your shares, please refer to "The Offer -- Procedure for Tendering" beginning on page 29.

Q: WILL I BE TAXED ON SYSCO SHARES I RECEIVE?

A: We and Guest Supply have been advised by our respective counsel that it is their opinion that, although the matter is not free from doubt, for U.S. federal income tax purposes the offer and the merger should qualify as a reorganization if:

- the merger is completed promptly after the offer; and
- the offer and the merger are completed under the current terms of the merger agreement.

If the offer and the merger qualify as a reorganization, no gain or loss will be recognized for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and no U.S. federal income tax will be payable, by a Guest Supply stockholder upon receipt of our stock in the offer or the merger, except for cash received in lieu of any fraction of a SYSCO share. You are urged to carefully read the section under "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 46 for a more detailed discussion of the anticipated U.S. federal income tax consequences and to consult your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences to you of your participation in the offer and the merger.

Q: HAS THE OFFER COMMENCED EVEN THOUGH THIS PROSPECTUS IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE AND THE RELATED REGISTRATION STATEMENT HAS NOT YET BEEN DECLARED EFFECTIVE BY THE SEC?

A: Yes. The offer has commenced. The effectiveness of the registration statement is not necessary for you to tender your Guest Supply shares. The SEC recently changed its rules to permit exchange offers to begin before the related registration statement has become effective, and we are taking advantage of this with the goal of combining SYSCO and Guest Supply faster than similar combinations could previously be accomplished. We cannot, however, accept for exchange any shares tendered in the offer until the registration statement is declared effective by the SEC.

Q: IS SYSCO'S FINANCIAL CONDITION RELEVANT TO MY DECISION TO TENDER MY SHARES IN THE OFFER?

A: Yes. Shares of Guest Supply accepted in the offer will be exchanged for shares of our common stock, so you should consider our financial condition before you decide to become one of our stockholders through the offer. In considering our financial condition, you should review this prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus because they contain detailed business, financial and other information about us.

Q: WHERE CAN I FIND MORE INFORMATION ABOUT SYSCO AND GUEST SUPPLY?

A: You can find more information about SYSCO and Guest Supply as described under "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 5.

Q: WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I HAVE QUESTIONS?

A: If you have any questions about the offer and the merger, please contact our information agent, MacKenzie Partners at (212) 929-5500 or call them toll free at (800)322-2885.

THE PROPOSED COMBINATION

We are proposing a business combination of SYSCO and Guest Supply under which SYSCO will acquire all the outstanding shares of Guest Supply common stock, including the associated preferred stock purchase rights. We are offering to exchange shares of SYSCO common stock for shares of Guest Supply common stock validly tendered and not properly withdrawn on or prior to the expiration date of the offer. The expiration date of the offer is currently March 5, 2001. We have also elected to provide a subsequent offering period of five business days beginning the day after the expiration of the offer. We may extend or may be obligated to extend the expiration date of the offer and may extend the subsequent offering period under the circumstances as described in "The Offer -- Extension, Subsequent Offering Period, Termination and Amendment" on page 26. We intend, promptly after completion of the offer, to merge Sysco Food Services of New Jersey, our wholly owned subsidiary, with and into Guest Supply. Each share of Guest Supply common stock which has not been exchanged or accepted for exchange in the offer will be converted in the merger into SYSCO shares at the same exchange ratio used in the offer.

This is not a complete list of all of the factors that our board considered. Each member of our board may have considered different factors and our board did not quantify or assign relative weights to the factors it considered. The reasons for the recommendation by the Guest Supply board of directors are set forth in Guest Supply's Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9, which is being mailed to Guest Supply stockholders together with this prospectus.

SUPPORT OF GUEST SUPPLY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Guest Supply board of directors has determined that the offer is fair to, and in the best interests of, Guest Supply stockholders and unanimously recommends that Guest Supply stockholders accept the offer and tender their shares pursuant to the offer. Information about the recommendation of the Guest Supply board of directors is more fully set forth in Guest Supply's Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9.

SUMMARY OF THE OFFER

We have attached the merger agreement governing the offer and the merger as Annex A to this prospectus. We encourage you to read this agreement because it is the legal document that governs the offer and the merger.

What Guest Supply Stockholders Will Receive. We are offering, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this prospectus and the related letter of transmittal, SYSCO common shares for Guest Supply common shares that are validly tendered on or prior to the expiration date of the offer and not properly withdrawn. The number of shares will be based on the exchange ratio described on the cover page of this prospectus.

Each share of Guest Supply common stock which has not been exchanged or accepted for exchange in the offer will be converted in the merger into SYSCO common shares at the same exchange ratio used in the offer, if completed. SYSCO will not issue any fractional common shares in connection with the offer and the merger. Guest Supply stockholders will instead receive cash for any SYSCO fractional common shares otherwise issuable to them.

The SYSCO common shares to be issued to Guest Supply stockholders in the merger will be listed on the NYSE.

Timing Of The Offer. Our offer is currently scheduled to expire on March

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

5, 2001, but may, in some cases, be extended as described below. In addition, we have elected to provide a subsequent offering period of five business days to begin the day after the expiration of the offer. See "The Offer -- Extension, Subsequent Offering Period, Termination and Amendment" on page 26.

Extension, Subsequent Offering Period, Termination And Amendment. The offer is scheduled to expire on March 5, 2001. We are required to complete the offer at the end of the then current offer period without further extension when the minimum tender condition and all other conditions have been satisfied or, if allowed, waived by us. We are also required to extend the expiration date of the offer in increments of up to 10 business days until the earlier of April 30, 2001 or such time as all conditions, including the minimum tender condition, have been satisfied or waived. Finally, we may extend the offer as required to comply with SEC rules and regulations.

In addition, we have elected to provide a subsequent offering period as described below.

During any extension of the initial offering period (but excluding the subsequent offering period), all Guest Supply shares previously tendered and not properly withdrawn will remain tendered, subject to the right to withdraw them. We will accept and pay for all shares tendered and not withdrawn promptly following the expiration date of the offer, if the minimum tender condition and all other conditions have been satisfied or waived.

Without the prior written consent of Guest Supply, we may not:

- amend or waive the minimum tender condition;
- decrease or change the form of consideration to be paid;
- decrease the number of shares sought in the offer;
- waive the condition that the fairness opinion given by U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray shall not have been modified or withdrawn;
- impose conditions in addition to those set forth in the merger agreement or that would in any other way adversely affect the Guest Supply stockholders; or
- extend the expiration date of the offer except as discussed above.

Subject to the SEC's rules and regulations and the terms of the merger agreement, we also reserve the right to terminate the offer and not accept or exchange any Guest Supply shares not previously accepted or exchanged upon the failure of any of the conditions of the offer to be satisfied.

If, on April 30, 2001, SYSCO has not completed the offer in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, SYSCO will terminate the offer without accepting any shares previously tendered, and if less than 35% of the outstanding shares of Guest Supply on a fully diluted basis have been tendered, the merger agreement will automatically terminate. However, if at least 35% but less than a majority of the outstanding shares on a fully diluted basis have been validly tendered by April 30, 2001, we will terminate the offer and will seek to complete the merger. Immediately following any extension, delay, termination or amendment, we will make a public announcement of the same.

Subsequent Offering Period. We have elected to provide a subsequent offering period of five business days after the acceptance of and payment for Guest Supply shares in the initial offering period. We may elect to extend the subsequent offering period for up to an additional 15 business days if the requirements under Exchange Act Rule 14d-11 have been met. The exchange ratio will be the same as in the initial offering period. You will not have the right to withdraw Guest Supply shares that you tender in the subsequent offering period, if any.

Exchange of Shares. You will receive our common stock for each share of Guest Supply common stock you tender in the offer as described on the cover page of this prospectus. Because the SYSCO average trading price is not yet known, we do not know at this time the number of shares of our common stock you will receive for each share of Guest Supply common stock you tender. We will determine the SYSCO average trading price prior to the expiration date of the offer. We will not deliver shares of our common stock to Guest Supply stockholders who tender their shares in the offer until after the expiration date of the offer. Once the SYSCO average trading price is set, the value of our common stock that you receive will fluctuate with our market price. Therefore, the market value of our common stock that you receive could go up or down between the date the number of shares of our common stock you are to receive is determined and the date your shares are actually delivered to you.

Conditions of the Offer. Our obligation to complete the offer is subject to various conditions described below under "The Offer -- Conditions of the Offer."

Withdrawal Rights. Guest Supply shares tendered pursuant to the offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the expiration date of the offer. During the subsequent offering period, you will not have the right to withdraw Guest Supply shares that you tender in the subsequent offering period.

For your withdrawal to be effective, the exchange agent must receive from you a written or facsimile transmission notice of withdrawal at its address set forth on the back cover of this prospectus, and your notice must include your name, address, social security number, the certificate number(s), the number of Guest Supply shares to be withdrawn and the name of the registered holder, if different from you.

No Dissenters Rights. Under New Jersey law, neither the offer nor the merger entitles you to dissenters rights with respect to your Guest Supply shares.

Procedure for Tendering Shares. For you to validly tender Guest Supply shares pursuant to our offer, either:

- a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal, or manually executed facsimile of that document, along with any required signature

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

guarantees, or an agent's message in connection with a book-entry transfer, and any other required documents, must be transmitted to and received by the exchange agent at its address set forth on the back cover of this prospectus. In addition, certificates for tendered Guest Supply shares must be received by the exchange agent at that address, or those Guest Supply shares must be tendered pursuant to the procedures for book-entry tender, in each case before the expiration date of the offer; or

- you must comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures set forth in "The Offer -- Guaranteed Delivery."

See the procedures for tendering shares under "The Offer -- Procedure for Tendering" for more details.

Merger. We are making the offer to acquire the entire common equity interest in Guest Supply. As soon as possible after completion of the offer, we will cause Guest Supply and Sysco Food Services of New Jersey to complete the merger. The merger requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares present and entitled to vote at a duly called meeting to approve the merger, unless we have acquired 90% or more of the outstanding shares in the offer, in which case the merger can be accomplished without a meeting. If a majority but less than 90% of the shares of Guest Supply common stock is tendered to and purchased by us, approval of the merger by Guest Supply stockholders will be assured, subject to the other conditions to the merger. At the effective time of the merger, each share of Guest Supply common stock, except for shares held by Guest Supply, us, or Sysco Food Services of New Jersey, will be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of our common stock for each share of Guest Supply common stock at the same exchange ratio as in the offer.

Regulatory Approvals. We and Guest Supply have agreed pursuant to the merger agreement to use all reasonable efforts to take whatever actions are required to obtain necessary regulatory approvals with respect to the offer and the merger. Other than clearance under the antitrust laws applicable to the offer and the merger that are described below under "The Offer -- Conditions of the Offer -- Antitrust Condition," the SEC declaring the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, the filing of certificates of merger under New Jersey and Delaware law with respect to the merger, and obtaining required approvals from the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, we do not believe that any additional material governmental filings or approvals are required with respect to the offer and the merger.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences. We and Guest Supply have been advised by our respective counsel that it is their opinion that, although the matter is not free from doubt, for U.S. federal income tax purposes the offer and the merger should qualify as a reorganization if:

- the merger is completed promptly after the offer; and
- the offer and the merger are completed under the current terms of the merger agreement.

If the offer and the merger qualify as a reorganization, no gain or loss will be recognized for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and no U.S. federal income tax will be payable, by a Guest Supply stockholder upon receipt of our stock in the offer or the merger, except for cash received in lieu of any fraction of a SYSCO share.

The above-described tax treatment of the offer and the merger to Guest Supply stockholders depends on some facts that will not be known before the completion of the merger. Guest Supply stockholders are urged to carefully read the discussion under "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 46, and to consult their tax advisors on the consequences to them of their participation in the offer or the merger.

Accounting Treatment. We will account for the merger using the purchase method of accounting.

Termination of Merger Agreement. We and Guest Supply each have the right to terminate the merger agreement by mutual agreement if the agreement is not timely completed without fault of the terminating party or under the other conditions described in more detail in "The Merger Agreement and the Tender Agreements -- Termination Events; Termination Fee; Expenses," which begins on page 42.

Termination Fee. If the merger agreement is terminated because Guest Supply has entered into an alternative transaction or has received an alternative offer within four months of January 22, 2001 and enters into an alternative transaction with respect thereto within 12 months after January 22, 2001, or otherwise as set forth in the merger agreement, Guest Supply is obligated to pay us a fee in the amount of $5.5 million, plus our reasonable out-of-pocket fees and expenses.

Opinion of Guest Supply Financial Advisor. In deciding to approve the merger, Guest Supply's board of directors considered the opinion of its financial advisor, U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray, to the effect that, as of January 22, 2001, the date of the opinion, and subject to the assumptions, factors and limitations set forth in their opinion, the exchange ratio to be established pursuant to the merger agreement is fair to the Guest Supply stockholders, from a financial point of view. A copy of the U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray fairness opinion is attached as an exhibit to Guest Supply's Schedule 14D-9, which was mailed to Guest Supply stockholders together with a preliminary version of this prospectus, and Guest Supply stockholders are urged to read such opinion in its entirety, including the assumptions, factors and limitations contained therein.

INTERESTS OF GUEST SUPPLY'S OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS IN THE MERGER

When you consider the Guest Supply board's recommendation that Guest Supply stockholders tender their shares in the offer, you should be aware that some Guest Supply directors and executive officers may have interests in the offer and the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, yours. See "Interests of Certain Persons" which begins on page 45.

PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The purpose of pro forma financial information in a merger context is to determine any effect the merger will have on our net income and earnings per share. The differences between SYSCO's unaudited pro forma combined basic and diluted earnings per share for the fiscal year ended July 1, 2000 and the 26 weeks ended December 30, 2000 after giving effect to the merger were de minimis as compared to SYSCO's reported earnings per share for those periods. The unaudited pro forma effect of the merger on SYSCO's net earnings for those periods and on total assets as of December 30, 2000 was de minimis. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information includes the estimated allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on preliminary estimates of fair value and may be revised as additional information concerning the valuation of the assets and liabilities becomes available.

COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The comparative per share data shows how each share of Guest Supply common stock that you hold would have participated in the income from continuing operations, cash dividends and book value of SYSCO if the merger had been effective as of the dates below, and should be taken into account in valuing the SYSCO stock to be received in the offer and the merger. However, these amounts do not necessarily reflect future per share levels of income from continuing operations, cash dividends and book value of SYSCO.

SYSCO and Guest Supply have summarized below per share information for SYSCO and Guest Supply on a historical and equivalent pro forma basis. Guest Supply's earnings and cash dividends per share equivalents assume the merger had occurred at July 3, 1999 (the beginning of Guest Supply's 52-week period ended June 30, 2000), and the book value per share equivalents assume the merger had occurred as of December 29, 2000, and are calculated by multiplying the SYSCO unaudited pro forma per share amounts by an exchange ratio of 0.9564, which is based on an average SYSCO closing price calculated assuming that the expiration date of the offer will be March 5, 2001.

(1) In accordance with the Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 00-14, "Accounting for Certain Sales Incentives," Guest Supply has reclassified incentive rebates from Selling, General and Administrative (S,G&A) expenses to Sales. In addition, certain other S,G&A costs were reclassified to Cost of Sales. RISK FACTORS

In deciding whether to tender your shares pursuant to the offer, you should read carefully this prospectus, the accompanying Schedule 14D-9 of Guest Supply and the documents to which we refer you. You should also carefully consider the following factors:

RISKS RELATED TO THE PROPOSED OFFER AND MERGER

THE SYSCO COMMON SHARES TO BE RECEIVED BY GUEST SUPPLY STOCKHOLDERS IN THE OFFER AND THE MERGER WILL FLUCTUATE IN VALUE

The SYSCO average trading price will be determined five trading days prior to the expiration date of the offer and will be based on the average closing prices during the preceding 15 trading days. Accordingly, it is possible that the market price of our shares at the closings of the offer and the merger will differ from the SYSCO average trading price and, if so, the market value of the consideration to be received by you for each Guest Supply share you surrender, as of the closing of the offer, will be more or less than $26.00 per share depending on the direction of the price movement. For example, if the SYSCO average trading price is less than $22.00, then the number of SYSCO shares that you receive in the offer and the merger for each Guest Supply share you surrender may have a market value of less than $26.00 per share, and such value may be less than the market value of those shares at the completion of the offer and the merger. The price of the SYSCO shares may vary significantly from the market prices used in the calculation of the SYSCO average trading price.

Each stockholder is urged to obtain updated market information. See "Comparative Per Share Market Price Information," and "The Offer -- Basic Terms."

IF WE COMPLETE OUR PROPOSED ACQUISITION OF GUEST SUPPLY, WE MIGHT HAVE DIFFICULTIES INTEGRATING GUEST SUPPLY'S BUSINESS INTO OUR EXISTING OPERATIONS, AS WELL AS FACE NEW RISKS THAT WE HAVE NOT PREVIOUSLY FACED

If we complete the proposed combination, we must integrate the businesses of two companies that have previously operated independently. We might not be able to integrate Guest Supply's business, including its products, services, technologies and personnel, into our existing operations without encountering difficulties. The diversion of management's attention to the integration effort and any difficulties encountered in combining operations could adversely affect the companies' respective businesses following the completion of the merger.

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF GUEST SUPPLY HAVE POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST IN THE OFFER AND THE MERGER

Guest Supply stockholders should be aware of potential conflicts of interest and the benefits available to Guest Supply directors when considering Guest Supply's board of directors' recommendation to approve the transaction. Some of Guest Supply's officers, directors and consultants will have employment or consulting agreements with the surviving corporation that will provide them with interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, interests of Guest Supply stockholders. See "Interests of Certain Persons" on page 45.

THE MARKET PRICE OF OUR COMMON STOCK MAY BE AFFECTED BY FACTORS DIFFERENT FROM THOSE AFFECTING THE MARKET PRICE OF GUEST SUPPLY COMMON STOCK

Upon completion of the offer and the merger, holders of Guest Supply common stock will become holders of our common stock. Our business differs from that of Guest Supply, and our results of operations, as well as the market price of our common stock, may be affected by factors different from those affecting Guest Supply's results of operations and the market price of Guest Supply's common stock. For a discussion of SYSCO's and Guest Supply's businesses and information to consider in evaluating such businesses, you should review our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 1, 18

2000, our subsequent quarterly and current reports, and Guest Supply's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 29, 2000, Amended Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended September 29, 2000 and subsequent quarterly and current reports, all of which are incorporated by reference in this prospectus.

THE RECEIPT OF SYSCO SHARES MAY BE TAXABLE TO YOU, DEPENDING ON FACTS SURROUNDING THE OFFER AND THE MERGER

We and Guest Supply have structured the offer and the merger in a manner intended to qualify as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes and have been advised by our respective counsel that in their opinion, although the matter is not free from doubt, for U.S. federal income tax purposes the offer and the merger should so qualify if:

- the merger is completed promptly after the offer; and
- the offer and the merger are completed under the current terms of the merger agreement.

If the offer and the merger qualify as a reorganization, no gain or loss will be recognized for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and no U.S. federal income tax will be payable, by a Guest Supply stockholder upon receipt of our stock in the offer or the merger, except for cash received in lieu of any fractional SYSCO shares. The ability to satisfy the foregoing assumptions, and therefore the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the offer and the merger, depends in part on facts that will not be available before the completion of the merger. There can be no assurance that the merger will be completed or that the other assumptions will be satisfied.

If any of the assumptions are not correct, a Guest Supply stockholder's receipt of our shares in the offer or the merger could be a taxable transaction. Because satisfaction of the assumptions is dependent in part on facts that will not be available before the completion of the merger, if and when you tender Guest Supply shares in the offer you will not know whether the offer or the merger, or both, will be tax free. You are urged to review carefully the section below entitled "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 47 for a more detailed discussion of the anticipated U.S. federal income tax consequences and to consult your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences and risks to you of your participation in the offer and the merger.

RISKS RELATED TO OUR BUSINESS

SYSCO IS IN A LOW MARGIN BUSINESS AND ITS PROFITABILITY MAY BE NEGATIVELY IMPACTED BY FOOD PRICE DEFLATION AND OTHER FACTORS

The foodservice distribution industry is characterized by relatively high inventory turnover with relatively low profit margins. SYSCO makes a significant portion of its sales at prices that are based on the cost of products it sells plus a percentage markup. As a result, SYSCO's profit levels may be negatively impacted during periods of food price deflation, even though SYSCO's gross profit percentage may remain relatively constant. The foodservice industry is sensitive to national and economic conditions. SYSCO's operating results also are sensitive to, and may be adversely affected by, other factors, including difficulties with the collectability of accounts receivable, inventory control, competitive price pressures, severe weather conditions and unexpected increases in fuel or other transportation-related costs. Although such factors have not had a material adverse impact on SYSCO's past operations, there can be no assurance that one or more of these factors will not adversely affect future operating results.

SYSCO'S SIGNIFICANT INDEBTEDNESS COULD INCREASE ITS VULNERABILITY TO COMPETITIVE PRESSURES, NEGATIVELY AFFECT ITS ABILITY TO EXPAND AND DECREASE THE MARKET VALUE OF ITS COMMON STOCK

As of July 1, 2000, SYSCO had approximately $1.04 billion of long-term indebtedness outstanding. Because historically a substantial part of SYSCO's growth has been the result of acquisitions and capital expansion, SYSCO's continued growth depends, in large part, on its ability to continue this expansion. As a result, its inability to finance acquisitions and capital expenditures through borrowed funds could restrict its ability to expand. Moreover, any default under the documents governing the indebtedness of SYSCO could have a significant adverse effect on the market value of SYSCO's common stock. Further, SYSCO's leveraged position may also increase its vulnerability to competitive pressures.

BECAUSE SYSCO SELLS FOOD PRODUCTS, IT FACES THE RISK OF EXPOSURE TO PRODUCT LIABILITY CLAIMS

SYSCO, like any other seller of food, faces the risk of exposure to product liability claims in the event that the use of products sold by it causes injury or illness. With respect to product liability claims, SYSCO believes it has sufficient primary and excess umbrella liability insurance. However, this insurance may not continue to be available at a reasonable cost, or, if available, may not be adequate to cover liabilities. SYSCO generally seeks contractual indemnification and insurance coverage from parties supplying its products, but this indemnification or insurance coverage is limited, as a practical matter, to the creditworthiness of the indemnifying party and the policy limits of any insurance provided by suppliers. If SYSCO does not have adequate insurance or contractual indemnification available, product liability claims relating to defective products could materially reduce SYSCO's net income and earnings per share.

BECAUSE SYSCO HAS FEW LONG-TERM CONTRACTS WITH SUPPLIERS AND DOES NOT CONTROL THE ACTUAL PRODUCTION OF THE PRODUCTS IT SELLS, SYSCO MAY BE UNABLE TO OBTAIN ADEQUATE SUPPLIES OF ITS PRODUCTS

SYSCO obtains substantially all of its foodservice products from other suppliers. For the most part, SYSCO does not have long-term contracts with its suppliers committing them to provide products to SYSCO. Although SYSCO's purchasing volume can provide leverage when dealing with suppliers, suppliers may not provide the foodservice products and supplies needed by SYSCO in the quantities requested. Because SYSCO does not control the actual production of the products it sells, it is also subject to delays caused by interruption in production based on conditions outside its control. These conditions include:

- job actions or strikes by employees of suppliers;
- weather;
- crop conditions;

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

- transportation interruptions; and
- natural disasters or other catastrophic events.

SYSCO's inability to obtain adequate supplies of its foodservice products as a result of any of the foregoing factors, or otherwise, could mean that SYSCO could not fulfill its obligations to customers, and customers may turn to other distributors.

IF SYSCO CANNOT RENEGOTIATE ITS UNION CONTRACTS, ITS PROFITABILITY MAY DECREASE BECAUSE OF WORK STOPPAGES

As of July 1, 2000, approximately 8,000 SYSCO employees at 34 operating companies were members of 48 different local unions associated with the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and other labor organizations. In fiscal 2001, 14 agreements covering approximately 2,500 employees will expire. Failure to effectively renegotiate these contracts could result in work stoppages. Although SYSCO has not experienced any significant labor disputes or work stoppages to date, and believes it has satisfactory relationships with its unions, a work stoppage due to failure to renegotiate a union contract, or otherwise, could have a material adverse effect on SYSCO.

IF SYSCO CANNOT INTEGRATE ACQUIRED COMPANIES WITH ITS BUSINESS, ITS PROFITABILITY MAY DECREASE

If SYSCO is unable to integrate acquired businesses successfully and realize anticipated economic, operational and other benefits in a timely manner, its profitability may decrease. Integration of an acquired business may be more difficult when SYSCO acquires a business in a market in which it has limited or no expertise, or with a corporate culture different from SYSCO's. If SYSCO is unable to integrate acquired businesses successfully, it may incur substantial costs and delays in increasing its customer base. In addition, the failure to integrate acquisitions successfully may divert management's attention from SYSCO's existing business and may damage SYSCO's relationships with its key customers and suppliers.

PROVISIONS IN SYSCO'S CHARTER AND STOCKHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN MAY INHIBIT A TAKEOVER OF SYSCO

Under its Restated Certificate of Incorporation, SYSCO's Board of Directors is authorized to issue up to 1.5 million shares of preferred stock without stockholder approval. No shares of preferred stock are currently outstanding. Issuance of these shares would make it more difficult for anyone to acquire SYSCO without approval of the Board of Directors because more shares would have to be acquired to gain control. If anyone attempts to acquire SYSCO without approval of the Board of Directors of SYSCO, the stockholders of SYSCO have the right to purchase preferred stock of SYSCO, which also means more shares would have to be acquired to gain control. Both of these devices may deter hostile takeover attempts that might result in an acquisition of SYSCO that would have been financially beneficial to SYSCO's stockholders.

BACKGROUND OF THE OFFER

In early 2000, Guest Supply's management concluded that a combination of

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

Guest Supply with another large company in a complementary industry was likely to result in the greatest value for Guest Supply shareholders as compared to leaving Guest Supply as a stand-alone company. Guest Supply's management reached this conclusion based on a number of factors including that Guest Supply, as a stand-alone microcap company, had no meaningful research coverage by securities analysts, provided limited liquidity to its shareholders due to the lack of trading volume in Guest Supply common stock and, like many microcap companies, was experiencing, over time, a decline in the earnings multiple at which the Guest Supply common stock traded despite improved earnings performance for Guest Supply. The prospect of a combination with a larger company in a complementary industry appeared to offer the prospect of maximizing value and liquidity for Guest Supply's shareholders. While Guest Supply's management considered other options such as combining with a company of comparable size, commencing a broad-based share repurchase plan, effecting a divestiture of assets, pursuing acquisitions with a view to creating greater size and scale for Guest Supply, or undertaking a management-led leveraged buy-out with a financial partner, Guest Supply's management and board of directors concluded that combining with a larger company in a complementary industry would create the greatest value and liquidity for shareholders.

Following preliminary discussions with prospective financial advisors, on June 19, 2000, Guest Supply engaged an investment banking firm, U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray, to act as Guest Supply's financial advisor in connection with a possible sale of Guest Supply or its assets. As part of their services to Guest Supply, U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray reviewed with Guest Supply's management the alternatives considered by management in early 2000.

Guest Supply's management and U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray then identified a number of third parties who might have an interest in combining with Guest Supply.

Commencing in July 2000, representatives of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray contacted 24 potential strategic acquirors and three potential financial acquirors in an effort to ascertain, on a preliminary basis, their level of interest in combining with Guest Supply. U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray then sent public investor packages to 11 potential acquirors who initially expressed interest in a combination with Guest Supply.

Representatives of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray arranged introductory meetings between representatives of Guest Supply and five potential acquirors, including SYSCO.

On July 6 and July 21, 2000, Daniel Donoghue, a managing director of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray, telephoned John Stubblefield, Executive Vice President, Finance and Administration, of SYSCO soliciting SYSCO's interest in pursuing a potential transaction with Guest Supply.

On July 27, 2000, Messrs. Stubblefield and Donoghue discussed the merits of a combination of SYSCO and Guest Supply. Mr. Donoghue also answered preliminary questions posed by Mr. Stubblefield concerning Guest Supply's operations and business prospects. Mr. Donoghue then provided Mr. Stubblefield with Guest Supply's public investor package. Messrs. Stubblefield and Donoghue engaged in occasional preliminary discussions about a possible combination between July

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

2000 and September 2000.

On September 19, 2000, SYSCO executed a confidentiality agreement with Guest Supply in preparation for a meeting with Guest Supply's senior management team.

On September 21, 2000, U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray hosted an introductory meeting in Chicago between Guest Supply and SYSCO. Senior representatives from both companies attended this meeting, including Richard Schnieders, President and Chief Operating Officer, and Mr. Stubblefield of SYSCO, as well as Clifford W. Stanley, President and Chief Executive Officer, and Paul T. Xenis, Chief Financial Officer of Guest Supply. Messrs. Stanley and Xenis made a slide presentation discussing Guest Supply's business, customers, industry and historical financial performance. After this presentation, Messrs. Stanley and Xenis answered questions and provided a broad overview as to how a potential combination might improve both Guest Supply's and SYSCO's future prospects.

From June until September 2000, Guest Supply, with the assistance of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray, had extensive discussions with BFMA Holding Corporation ("BFMA") based upon BFMA's then-stated intention to offer $24.00 per share for Guest Supply's common stock. After over three months of discussions, Guest Supply terminated negotiations based in part on concerns over BFMA's ability to finance the transaction. In November 2000, BFMA commenced a solicitation of proxies for the election at the 2001 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Guest Supply of two Class C Directors nominated by BFMA. BFMA also announced that it was prepared to offer $21.00 per share for Guest Supply's common stock. On January 23, 2001, following announcement of the execution of the merger agreement, BFMA announced that it intended to withdraw its proxy solicitation.

On October 19, 2000, Mr. Stubblefield and Robert G. Culak, Vice President, Financial Reporting & Compliance of SYSCO participated in a conference call with Messrs. Stanley and Xenis of Guest Supply to answer due diligence questions. SYSCO and Guest Supply also discussed the strategic and financial rationale for a possible transaction. In response to this call, Guest Supply sent a package of due diligence materials to SYSCO answering several questions raised on the conference call.

On October 27, 2000, Messrs. Stubblefield and Culak of SYSCO participated in an additional conference call with Messrs. Stanley and Xenis of Guest Supply to discuss the due diligence package previously sent as well as to answer additional questions. Beginning on this date, and continuing until the merger agreement was signed, representatives of SYSCO continued their due diligence investigation of Guest Supply, including the exchange of information regarding the business and operations of Guest Supply.

On November 20, 2000, Mr. Donoghue and Jonathan Leiman, also of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray, telephoned Mr. Stubblefield to advise him of the BFMA proxy solicitation. Later that day, Mr. Stubblefield telephoned Mr. Donoghue to inform him that SYSCO intended to make an offer to acquire Guest Supply on November 27, 2000.

On November 21, 2000, Mr. Donoghue telephoned Mr. Stubblefield to inquire as to whether he had any additional information requests and Mr. Stubblefield advised Mr. Donoghue that SYSCO would make an offer for Guest Supply on November 29, 2000. On November 29, 2000, SYSCO sent a draft proposal to Guest Supply indicating a willingness to acquire Guest Supply for $25.00 per share.

On December 1, 2000, Mr. Donoghue telephoned Mr. Stubblefield to review the value, timing and the structure of the transaction.

On December 5, 2000, U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray participated in a conference call with the Guest Supply board of directors to discuss the proposed offer.

On December 7, 2000, SYSCO provided Guest Supply a written letter of intent indicating its willingness to acquire Guest Supply for $25.00 per share. Guest Supply did not execute this letter.

On December 15, 2000, the Guest Supply board of directors authorized management to enter into an exclusivity and termination fee agreement with SYSCO. This agreement provided for an exclusive negotiating period through January 20, 2001 whereby Guest Supply agreed not to solicit, initiate or encourage any alternative proposals. The agreement further provided that if Guest Supply violated this provision, accepted an alternative proposal, and subsequently consummated an alternative transaction, Guest Supply would be required to pay SYSCO a termination fee of $5.5 million.

On December 18 and 19, 2000, representatives of SYSCO and SYSCO's counsel, Arnall Golden Gregory LLP, conducted legal due diligence at the offices of Torys, legal counsel to Guest Supply. Legal due diligence activities continued through the execution of the merger agreement.

On December 26, 2000, Charles H. Cotros, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of SYSCO, visited Guest Supply's Orlando, Florida distribution center and met briefly with Mr. Xenis.

On January 2, 2001, Messrs. Cotros, Schnieders and Stubblefield, accompanied by Michael C. Nichols, Vice President and General Counsel of SYSCO, visited Guest Supply's headquarters, distribution and manufacturing facilities in New Jersey. On January 3, 2001, Messrs. Schnieders, Stubblefield and Nichols visited Guest Supply's facilities in Cleveland, Ohio.

On January 2, 2001, Thomas E. Lankford, Executive Vice President, Food Service Operations and a Director of SYSCO, and Larry J. Accardi, Executive Vice President, Merchandising Services & Multi-Unit Sales, visited Guest Supply's facilities in Dallas, Texas. On January 3, 2001, they visited Guest Supply's facilities in Los Angeles, California.

From January 2, 2001 through January 5, 2001, Mr. Culak and representatives of Arthur Andersen conducted a review of Guest Supply's financial records at Guest Supply's headquarters in New Jersey.

On January 15, 2001, members of senior management of SYSCO, members of senior management of Guest Supply, including Mr. Stanley, Mr. Xenis and Thomas M. Haythe, Guest Supply's General Counsel, and representatives of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray participated in a telephone conference during which the SYSCO representatives made a presentation about SYSCO's business, customers, industry, and historical financial performance. After this presentation, the SYSCO representatives responded to questions from the Guest Supply representatives.

On January 16, 2001, SYSCO's board of directors met by telephone conference call to review the terms and conditions of the proposed transaction with Guest Supply. Eleven of the twelve members of SYSCO's board of directors were present at the meeting. By unanimous vote of the directors present, the officers of SYSCO were authorized to proceed with the offer and the merger.

On January 18, 2001, Messrs. Donoghue and Stubblefield had a final telephonic negotiation of the price and terms of the proposed offer during which Mr. Stubblefield agreed to increase the price offered for the Guest Supply common stock from $25.00 to $26.00 per share in SYSCO common stock.

On January 19, 2001, Guest Supply's board of directors met to consider the proposed transaction and merger agreement and related agreements. The meeting was attended by all of the Guest Supply directors. At the meeting, Mr. Stanley, representatives of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray, and Mr. Haythe addressed the board of directors about the business, financial and legal implications, respectively, of a merger between SYSCO and Guest Supply and the terms of the proposed agreements. During that meeting, representatives of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray informed the board that in the opinion of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray, as of January 19, 2001 (subsequently updated on the date of the merger agreement), the exchange ratio under the proposed agreement, the offer and merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Guest Supply stockholders. After discussion, Guest Supply's board of directors unanimously voted to approve the agreement and the merger and unanimously resolved to recommend that Guest Supply stockholders accept the offer and tender their shares of Guest Supply's common stock in the offer. At the meeting, Guest Supply's board of directors approved an amendment to its preferred stock rights plan in order to exempt the offer and merger from the provisions of the rights plan.

On January 20, 2001, SYSCO and Guest Supply executed an extension of the exclusivity agreement, extending the arrangement through January 22, 2001.

On January 22, 2001, SYSCO's executive committee held a telephonic board meeting with its legal advisors and management, and discussed the final terms and conditions of the offer and the merger as set forth in the merger agreement and related agreements. Six of the seven members of the committee were present at the meeting. SYSCO's executive committee approved the merger agreement and the related transactions, including the offer and the merger, by the unanimous vote of the members of the committee present at the meeting.

On January 22, 2001, the parties executed the merger agreement and related documents. Immediately thereafter, SYSCO and Guest Supply issued a press release announcing the proposed offer and merger.

Exchange Of Shares; Exchange Ratio. We are offering to exchange shares of our common stock based on an exchange ratio, as described below, for the outstanding shares of Guest Supply common stock that are validly tendered and not properly withdrawn. If the average of the closing prices per share of our common stock on the NYSE for each of the 15 consecutive trading days ending on the trading day that is five trading days prior to the expiration date of the offer, as it may be extended from time to time, which we refer to as the SYSCO average trading price, is:

- at least $22.00 but less than or equal to $30.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share a number of SYSCO shares equal to $26.00 divided by the SYSCO average trading price;
- less than $22.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share approximately 1.1818 SYSCO shares; or
- more than $30.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share approximately 0.8667 SYSCO shares.

The SYSCO average trading price cannot be determined with certainty at this time.

ILLUSTRATIVE TABLE OF EXCHANGE RATIOS AND VALUE OF OFFER/MERGER CONSIDERATION

The following table shows:

- illustrative values of the exchange ratios that will result if the SYSCO average trading price is within a range of $19.00 to $33.00 per share, representing the number of shares of our common stock that will be issued for one share of Guest Supply common stock at each of the SYSCO average trading prices presented in the table; and
- illustrative values of the approximate consideration that would be issued in connection with the offer and the merger for one Guest Supply common share, which illustrative values are determined by multiplying each of the SYSCO average trading prices presented in the table by the corresponding exchange ratio.

The values of our common shares in the table above are illustrative only and do not represent the actual amounts per Guest Supply common share that might be realized by any Guest Supply stockholder on or after completion of the offer or the merger. The amount any Guest Supply stockholder might realize upon sale in the market of our common shares received in the offer or the merger will depend upon the market price per share of our common shares at the time of sale, which will fluctuate depending upon any number of reasons, including those specific to us and those that influence the trading prices of equity securities generally.

Fluctuations In Market Price. Because the SYSCO average trading price is an average of closing prices, it might be different from the actual market value of a share of our common stock on the date we issue shares to the Guest Supply stockholders. The market value of shares of SYSCO common stock issued in exchange for each share of Guest Supply might actually be less than $26.00 on the date we issue those shares. In addition, prior to the completion of the offer, the number of shares of our common stock to be issued for each share of Guest Supply common stock will change if the trading price of our common stock changes but does not go below $22.00 or exceed $30.00.

More Information About The Exchange Ratio. We will notify Guest Supply stockholders by issuing a press release announcing the exchange ratio and filing that press release with the SEC. Guest Supply stockholders can call our information agent, MacKenzie Partners, at any time collect at (212) 929-5500 or toll free at (800) 322-2885 to request information about the SYSCO average trading price, including the exchange ratio for the offer, once determined.

Transfer Charges. Stockholders tendering shares will not be obligated to pay any charges or expenses of the exchange agent. Stockholders owning shares through a broker or other nominee may be charged a fee. Guest Supply stockholders should consult their broker or nominee to determine whether any charges will apply.

Merger. We are making this offer in order to acquire the entire equity interest in Guest Supply. As soon as possible after completion of the offer, we will cause Guest Supply and Sysco Food Services of New Jersey to complete the merger. At the effective time of the merger, each share of Guest Supply common stock, except for shares held by Guest Supply, us or Sysco Food Services of New Jersey, will be converted into the right to receive the same number of our shares for each Guest Supply share at the same exchange ratio as in the offer. If we obtain all of the shares of Guest Supply pursuant to the offer and the merger, former stockholders of Guest Supply will own less than 1.5% of the outstanding shares of our common stock, based upon the respective number of shares of SYSCO and Guest Supply outstanding on January 29, 2001. The exact percentage of our shares outstanding that former Guest Supply stockholders will hold is dependent on the exchange ratio, which cannot be determined at this time.

Stockholders List. We have relied on Guest Supply's stockholders list and security position listings to communicate with you and to distribute the offer to you. We are sending this prospectus, related letter of transmittal and other relevant materials to you and to brokers, dealers, commercial banks, trust companies and similar persons whose names, or the names of whose nominees, appear on Guest Supply's stockholders list or, if applicable, who are listed as participants in a clearing agency's security position listing.

TIMING OF THE OFFER

The offer is currently scheduled to expire at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on March 5, 2001.

EXTENSION, SUBSEQUENT OFFERING PERIOD, TERMINATION AND AMENDMENT

The offer is scheduled to expire on March 5, 2001. We are required to complete the offer at the end of the then current offer period, without further extension, when the minimum tender condition and all other conditions have been satisfied or, if allowed, waived by us. We are also required to extend the expiration date of the offer in increments of up to 10 business days until the earlier of April 30, 2001 or such time as all conditions, including the minimum tender condition, have been satisfied or waived. Finally, we may extend the offer as required to comply with SEC rules and regulations.

We have elected to provide a subsequent offering period as described below.

During any extension of the initial offering period (but excluding the subsequent offering period), all Guest Supply shares previously tendered and not properly withdrawn will remain tendered, subject to the right to withdraw them. We will accept and pay for all shares tendered and not withdrawn promptly following the expiration date of the offer, if the minimum tender condition and all other conditions have been satisfied or waived.

Without the prior written consent of Guest Supply, we may not:

- amend or waive the minimum tender condition;
- decrease or change the form of consideration to be paid;
- decrease the number of shares sought in the offer;
- waive the condition that the fairness opinion given by U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray shall not have been modified or withdrawn;
- impose conditions in addition to those set forth in the merger agreement or that would in any other way adversely affect the Guest Supply stockholders; or
- extend the expiration date of the offer except as discussed above.

Subject to the SEC's rules and regulations and the terms of the merger agreement, we also reserve the right to terminate the offer and not accept or exchange any Guest Supply shares not previously accepted or exchanged upon the failure of any of the conditions of the offer to be satisfied.

If, on April 30, 2001, SYSCO has not completed the offer in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, SYSCO will terminate the offer without accepting any shares previously tendered, and if less than 35% of the outstanding shares of Guest Supply on a fully diluted basis have been tendered, the merger agreement will automatically terminate. However, if at least 35% but less than a majority of the outstanding shares on a fully diluted basis have been validly tendered by April 30, 2001, we will terminate the offer and will seek to consummate the merger. Immediately following any extension, delay, termination or amendment, we will make a public announcement of the same.

We have elected to provide a subsequent offering period of five business days after the acceptance of and payment for Guest Supply shares in the initial offering period. We may extend the subsequent offering period for up to an additional fifteen business days if the requirements under Exchange Act Rule 14d-11 have been met. The exchange ratio will be the same as in the initial offering period. You will not have the right to withdraw Guest Supply shares that you tender in the subsequent offering period, if any.

EXCHANGE OF GUEST SUPPLY SHARES; DELIVERY OF OUR COMMON STOCK

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the offer, and any extension or amendment, we will exchange Guest Supply shares validly tendered and not withdrawn promptly after the expiration date of the offer and promptly after they are tendered during the subsequent offering period. In addition, subject to applicable SEC rules and the merger agreement terms, we reserve the right to delay acceptance or exchange of Guest Supply shares in order to comply with any applicable law. In all cases, exchange of Guest Supply shares tendered and accepted for exchange pursuant to the offer will be made only after timely receipt by the exchange agent of:

- certificates for those Guest Supply shares or a confirmation of a book-entry transfer of those Guest Supply shares in the exchange agent's account at The Depository Trust Company, which we refer to as DTC;
- a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal (or a facsimile of that document) or agent's message if applicable; and
- any other required documents.

You should read the information under the caption "The Offer -- Procedure for Tendering" for more details on tendering your shares.

For purposes of the offer, we will be deemed to have accepted for exchange Guest Supply shares validly tendered and not withdrawn when we notify the exchange agent of our acceptance of such shares.

The exchange agent will deliver our common stock in exchange for Guest Supply shares tendered pursuant to the offer promptly after receipt of such notice. The exchange agent will act as agent for tendering stockholders for the purpose of receiving our common stock from us and transmitting such stock to you.

If we do not accept any tendered Guest Supply shares pursuant to the terms and conditions of the offer for any reason, or if certificates are submitted for more Guest Supply shares than are tendered, we will return certificates for such tendered Guest Supply shares or untendered Guest Supply shares, as the case may be, without expense to the tendering stockholder. In the case that Guest Supply shares tendered by book-entry transfer into the exchange agent's account at DTC pursuant to the procedures set forth below under the discussion entitled "-- Procedure for Tendering" are not accepted for transfer, those Guest Supply shares will be credited to an account maintained within DTC promptly following expiration or termination of the offer.

If we increase the consideration offered to Guest Supply stockholders in the offer prior to the expiration date of the offer, such increased consideration will be given to all stockholders whose Guest Supply shares are tendered pursuant to the offer, whether or not such Guest Supply shares were tendered or accepted for exchange prior to the increase in consideration. We currently have no intention of increasing the consideration offered.

CASH INSTEAD OF FRACTIONAL SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK

We will not issue certificates representing fractional shares of our common stock pursuant to the offer or the merger. Instead, each Guest Supply stockholder will receive an amount of cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, equal to such fraction multiplied by the SYSCO average trading price or, if applicable, the SYSCO average trading merger price, used in the offer or the merger. Guest Supply stockholders will not receive any interest on the cash to be received for fractional shares, even if there is a delay in making the exchange and payment.

WITHDRAWAL RIGHTS

Guest Supply shares tendered pursuant to the offer may be withdrawn at any time prior to the expiration date of the offer. During the subsequent offering period, you will not have the right to withdraw Guest Supply shares that you tender in the subsequent offering period.

For your withdrawal to be effective, the exchange agent must receive from you a written or facsimile transmission notice of withdrawal at its address set forth on the back cover of this prospectus, and your notice must include your name, address, social security number, the certificate number(s), the number of Guest Supply shares to be withdrawn and the name of the registered holder, if different from you.

A financial institution must guarantee all signatures on the notice of withdrawal. Most banks, savings and loan associations and brokerage houses are able to effect these signature guarantees for you. The financial institution must be a participant in the Securities Transfer Agents Medallion Program, the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. Medallion Signature Program or the Stock Exchange Medallion Program, any of which are an "eligible institution," unless those Guest Supply shares have been tendered for the account of any eligible institution. If Guest Supply shares have been tendered pursuant to the procedures for book-entry exchange discussed under the caption entitled "-- Procedure for Tendering," any notice of withdrawal must specify the name and number of the account at DTC to be credited with the withdrawn Guest Supply shares and must otherwise comply with DTC's procedures. If certificates have been delivered or otherwise identified to the exchange agent, the name of the registered holder and the serial numbers of the particular certificates evidencing the Guest Supply shares withdrawn must also be furnished to the exchange agent, as stated above, prior to the physical release of such certificates. We, working in conjunction with the exchange agent, will decide all questions as to the form and validity (including time of receipt) of any notice of withdrawal, in our sole discretion, and our decision shall be final and binding. Neither we, the exchange agent, the information agent nor any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defects or irregularities in any notice of withdrawal or will incur any liability for failure to give any such notification. Any Guest Supply shares properly withdrawn will be deemed not to have been validly tendered for purposes of the offer. However, you may retender withdrawn

28

Guest Supply shares by following one of the procedures discussed under the captions entitled "-- Procedure for Tendering" or "-- Guaranteed Delivery" at any time prior to the expiration date of the offer.

PROCEDURE FOR TENDERING

For you to validly tender Guest Supply shares pursuant to the offer:

- the enclosed letter of transmittal, properly completed and duly executed (or a manually executed facsimile of that document), along with any required signature guarantees, or an agent's message in connection with a book-entry transfer, and any other required documents, must be transmitted to and received by the exchange agent at its address set forth on the back cover of this prospectus, and certificates for Guest Supply shares tendered must be received by the exchange agent at such address or those Guest Supply shares must be tendered pursuant to the procedures for book-entry exchange set forth below and a confirmation of receipt of such tender received, which confirmation we refer to below as a "book-entry confirmation," in each case before the expiration date of the offer; or
- you must comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures set forth below.

The term "agent's message" means a message, transmitted by DTC to, and received by, the exchange agent and forming a part of a book-entry confirmation, which states that DTC has received an express acknowledgment from the participant in DTC exchanging the Guest Supply shares which are the subject of such book-entry confirmation, that such participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of the letter of transmittal and that we may enforce that agreement against such participant.

The exchange agent will establish accounts with respect to the Guest Supply shares at DTC for purposes of the offer and any financial institution that is a participant in DTC may make book-entry delivery of the Guest Supply shares by causing DTC to transfer such Guest Supply shares into the exchange agent's account in accordance with DTC's procedure for such transfer. However, although delivery of Guest Supply shares may be effected through book-entry at DTC, the letter of transmittal (or facsimile thereof), with any required signature guarantees, or an agent's message in connection with a book-entry transfer, and any other required documents, must, in any case, be transmitted to and received by the exchange agent at its address set forth on the back cover of this prospectus prior to the expiration date of the offer, or you must comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures described below.

Signatures on all letters of transmittal must be guaranteed by an eligible institution, except in cases in which Guest Supply shares are tendered either by a registered holder of Guest Supply shares who has not completed the box entitled "Special Issuance Instructions" or the box entitled "Special Delivery Instructions" on the letter of transmittal or for the account of an eligible institution.

If the certificates for Guest Supply shares are registered in the name of a person other than the person who signs the letter of transmittal, or if certificates for untendered Guest Supply shares are to be issued to a person other than the registered holder(s), the certificates must be endorsed or accompanied by appropriate stock powers, in either case signed exactly as the name or names of the registered owner or owners appear on the certificates, with the signature(s) on the certificates or stock powers guaranteed in the manner we have described above.

The method of delivery of Guest Supply share certificates and all other required documents, including delivery through DTC, is at your option and risk, and the delivery will be deemed made only when actually received by the exchange agent. If delivery is by mail, we recommend that stockholders use an overnight or hand delivery service. In all cases, you should allow sufficient time to ensure timely delivery.

To prevent backup federal income tax withholding with respect to cash, if any, received pursuant to the offer, you must provide the exchange agent with your correct taxpayer identification number and certify whether you are subject to backup withholding of federal income tax by completing the substitute Form W-9 included in the letter of transmittal. Some stockholders (including, among others, all corporations and some foreign individuals) are not subject to these backup withholding and reporting requirements. In order for a foreign individual to qualify as an exempt recipient, the stockholder must submit a Form W-8 or Form W-8BEN, signed under penalties of perjury, attesting to that individual's exempt status.

Each Guest Supply stockholder that receives our common shares in the offer and/or the merger should file a statement with his, her or its federal income tax return setting forth the stockholder's basis in the Guest Supply shares surrendered and the fair market value of our common shares and the proceeds from the sale of fractional shares received in the offer and the merger, and should retain permanent records of these facts relating to the offer and the merger.

GUARANTEED DELIVERY

If you wish to tender Guest Supply shares pursuant to the offer and your certificates are not immediately available or you cannot deliver the certificates and all other required documents to the exchange agent prior to the expiration date of the offer or cannot complete the procedure for book-entry transfer on a timely basis, your Guest Supply shares may nevertheless be tendered, so long as all of the following conditions are satisfied:

- you make your tender by or through an eligible institution;
- the enclosed notice of guaranteed delivery, properly completed and duly executed, substantially in the form enclosed with this prospectus, or an agent's message with respect to a guaranteed delivery that is accepted by SYSCO, is received by the exchange agent as provided below on or prior to the expiration date of the offer; and
- the certificates for all Guest Supply shares to be tendered (or a confirmation of a book-entry transfer of such securities into the exchange agent's account at DTC as described above), in proper form for transfer, together with a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal (or facsimile thereof), with any required signature guarantees (or, in the case of a book-entry transfer, an agent's message) and all other documents required by the letter of transmittal, or a properly transmitted agent's message, are received by the exchange agent within three NYSE trading days after the date of execution of such notice of guaranteed delivery.

You may deliver the notice of guaranteed delivery by hand or transmit it by facsimile transmission or mail it to the exchange agent and you must include a signature guarantee by an eligible institution in the form set forth in that notice.

By executing a letter of transmittal as set forth above, you irrevocably appoint our designees as your attorneys-in-fact and proxies, each with full power of substitution, to the full extent of your rights with respect to your Guest Supply shares tendered and accepted for exchange by us and with respect to any and all other Guest Supply shares and other securities issued or issuable in respect of the Guest Supply shares on or after February 5, 2001. That appointment is effective, and voting rights will be affected, when and only to the extent that we deposit with the exchange agent the shares of our common stock for Guest Supply shares that you have tendered. All such proxies shall be considered coupled with an interest in the tendered Guest Supply shares and therefore shall not be revocable. Upon the effectiveness of such appointment, all prior proxies that you have given will be revoked, and you may not give any subsequent proxies and, if given, they will not be deemed effective. Our designees will, with respect to the Guest Supply shares for which the appointment is effective, be empowered to exercise all of your voting and other rights as they, in their sole discretion, deem proper at any annual, special or adjourned meeting of Guest Supply stockholders or otherwise. We reserve the right to require that, in order for Guest Supply shares to be deemed validly tendered, immediately upon our acceptance for exchange of those Guest Supply shares, we must be able to exercise full voting rights with respect to such Guest Supply shares.

We will determine questions as to the validity, form, eligibility, time of receipt and acceptance for exchange of any tender of Guest Supply shares, in our sole discretion, and our determination shall be final and binding. We reserve the absolute right to reject any and all tenders of Guest Supply shares that we determine are not in proper form or the acceptance for exchange of or exchange for which may, in the opinion of our counsel, be unlawful. To the extent not otherwise prohibited by applicable law, we may waive any of the conditions of the offer, other than the minimum tender condition, the requirement that the merger agreement not have been terminated, and the requirement that the fairness opinion not have been modified or withdrawn, or any defect or irregularity in the tender of any Guest Supply shares. No tender of Guest Supply shares will be deemed to have been validly made until all defects and irregularities in tenders of Guest Supply shares have been cured or waived. Neither we, the exchange agent, the information agent nor any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defects or irregularities in the tender of any Guest Supply shares or will incur any liability for failure to give any such notification. Our interpretation of the terms and conditions of the offer, including the letter of transmittal and instructions thereto, will be final and binding.

The tender of Guest Supply shares pursuant to any of the procedures described above will constitute a binding agreement between us and the tendering stockholders upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the offer.

PURPOSE OF THE OFFER; THE MERGER; NO DISSENTERS RIGHTS

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

Purpose. We are making the offer to acquire the entire equity interest in Guest Supply. The offer is the first step in our acquisition of Guest Supply and is intended to facilitate the acquisition of all Guest Supply shares. As soon as possible after completion of the offer, we will cause Guest Supply and Sysco Food Services of New Jersey to complete the merger. The purpose of the merger is to acquire all Guest Supply shares not tendered and exchanged pursuant to the offer. At the effective time of the merger, each share of Guest Supply common stock, except for shares held by Guest Supply, us, or Sysco Food Services of New Jersey, will be converted into the right to receive the number of shares of our common stock at the same exchange ratio as in the offer. Assuming satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the merger, we are obligated to complete the merger as promptly as practicable.

Approval of the Merger. Under Guest Supply's certificate of incorporation, the approval of the board of directors and the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of its outstanding shares present and entitled to vote at a meeting called for such purpose are required in order to approve the merger. The Guest Supply board of directors has approved the merger. Therefore, unless the merger is completed in accordance with the short form merger provisions under New Jersey law described below, the only remaining corporate action of Guest Supply is the approval of the merger agreement by the Guest Supply stockholders. If we complete the offer, we will own a majority of the outstanding shares of Guest Supply common stock and therefore we will be able to approve the merger without the affirmative vote of any other Guest Supply stockholder.

Possible Short Form Merger. Section 14A:10-5.1 of the New Jersey Business Corporation Act permits the merger to occur without a vote of Guest Supply stockholders (a "short form merger") if we acquire at least 90% of the outstanding Guest Supply shares in the initial offering period, any subsequent offering period or otherwise. If, however, we do not acquire at least 90% of the then outstanding Guest Supply shares, and a vote of Guest Supply stockholders is required under New Jersey law, a longer period of time will be required to effect the merger.

No Dissenters Rights. Guest Supply stockholders do not have dissenters rights in connection with the offer or the merger.

CONDITIONS OF THE OFFER

The offer is subject to a number of conditions, including those described below:

Minimum Tender Condition. There must be validly tendered, and not withdrawn prior to the expiration date of the offer, a number of Guest Supply shares that constitutes at least a majority of the fully diluted Guest Supply shares. Based on information supplied by Guest Supply, the number of shares needed to satisfy the minimum tender condition would have been 3,973,037 as of January 31, 2001.

Antitrust Condition. The waiting period, and any extension thereof, applicable to the offer and the merger under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, which we refer to as the "HSR Act," and any other applicable antitrust law must have expired or been terminated. We call this the "antitrust condition." See "-- Regulatory Approvals" below.

Registration Statement Effectiveness Condition. The registration statement on Form S-4 of which this prospectus is a part must have been declared effective by the SEC and not be subject to any stop order or proceedings seeking a stop order. We call this the "registration statement effectiveness condition."

Other Conditions of the Offer. The offer, at the time of acceptance for exchange of Guest Supply shares is also subject to the following conditions:

- no action or proceeding shall be pending before any governmental authority in the United States by any governmental authority in the United States that seeks to restrain or prohibit the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- no federal or state statute, rule, regulation, injunction, order or decree shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any governmental authority or court in the United States, Canada or England which prohibits the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- Guest Supply shall not have breached its covenants, representations or warranties set forth in the merger agreement, resulting in a material adverse change in the Guest Supply business;
- the merger agreement shall not have been terminated;
- no material adverse change in the Guest Supply business shall exist;
- Guest Supply shall have obtained required approvals under the New Jersey Industrial Site Recovery Act;
- the fairness opinion of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray shall not have been modified or withdrawn;
- Guest Supply shall have delivered to SYSCO a comfort letter from KPMG LLP in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to SYSCO;
- Guest Supply shall have caused an opinion of its counsel to be delivered to SYSCO; and
- Guest Supply shall have delivered to SYSCO a certificate signed by an authorized officer of Guest Supply certifying as to the satisfaction of certain of the conditions set forth above.

The conditions of the offer described above are solely for our and Sysco Food Services of New Jersey's benefit and we may assert them regardless of the circumstances giving rise to any such conditions, including any action or omission by us, other than a material and willful breach of the merger agreement by us. To the extent not otherwise prohibited by applicable law, we may waive these conditions in whole or in part, other than the minimum tender condition, the requirement that the merger agreement not have been terminated and the requirement that the fairness opinion of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray not have been modified or withdrawn. The failure by us at any time prior to expiration of the offer to exercise any of the foregoing rights shall not be deemed a waiver of any such right and each such right shall be deemed an ongoing right which may be asserted at any time and from time to time prior to the expiration of the offer. Accordingly, all conditions of the offer must be satisfied or waived prior to expiration of the offer. The waiver of any such right with respect to particular facts and circumstances shall not be deemed a waiver with respect to any other facts and circumstances. Notwithstanding the fact that we reserve the right to assert the failure of a condition in order to delay exchange or cancel our obligation to exchange properly tendered Guest Supply shares, we will either promptly exchange or return such Guest Supply shares.

32

REGULATORY APPROVALS

We and Guest Supply have agreed in the merger agreement to use all reasonable efforts to take whatever actions are required to obtain necessary regulatory approvals with respect to the offer and the merger. Other than clearance under the antitrust laws applicable to the offer and the merger which are described above under "-- Conditions of the Offer -- Antitrust Condition," the SEC's declaring the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, the filing of certificates of merger under New Jersey corporate law and Delaware corporate law with respect to the merger, and certain approvals from the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection, we do not believe that any additional material governmental filings or approvals are required with respect to the offer and the merger.

Under the HSR Act and the related rules, neither the offer nor the merger may be completed until we and Guest Supply notify and furnish information to the Federal Trade Commission, or FTC, and the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice and specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. In connection with the offer and the merger, on January 26, 2001, we filed with the FTC and the Antitrust Division the required notification and report forms under the HSR Act. Guest Supply shall file its required notification and report forms under the HSR Act as promptly as possible, but not later than February 2, 2001. The applicable waiting period under the HSR Act relating to the offer and the merger is scheduled to expire at midnight on February 25, 2001 unless it is earlier terminated or extended by a request for additional information.

At any time before or after the completion of the offer or the merger, either the Antitrust Division or the FTC could take any action under U.S. antitrust laws as it deems necessary or desirable in the public interest, including seeking to enjoin the completion of the offer or the merger or seeking the divestiture of substantial assets owned by us or Guest Supply. Private parties and state attorneys general may also bring actions under U.S. antitrust laws depending on the circumstances. Although we believe that the offer and merger do not raise significant concerns under U.S. antitrust laws, we can give no assurance that a challenge to the offer or the merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if this challenge is made, that it would not be successful.

The completion of the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement requires compliance with the New Jersey Industrial Site Recovery Act. In order to comply with such act, Guest Supply has agreed to obtain from the New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection with respect to each property owned or leased by it in New Jersey a letter of non-applicability, a remediation agreement or a regulated underground storage tank waiver. Guest Supply has applied for a remediation agreement.

EFFECTS OF OFFER

Reduced Liquidity; Possible Delisting. According to Guest Supply, there were, as of January 31, 2001, 6,848,575 Guest Supply common shares outstanding. The tender of Guest Supply shares pursuant to the offer will reduce the number of Guest Supply stockholders and the number of Guest Supply shares that might otherwise trade publicly and could adversely affect the liquidity and market value of the remaining Guest Supply shares held by the public. Guest Supply shares are listed and traded on the NYSE. Depending on the number of Guest Supply shares acquired pursuant to the offer, following completion of the offer, Guest Supply shares may no longer meet the requirements of the NYSE for continued listing and the shares may be suspended or delisted.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

The NYSE will normally give consideration to delisting a security when:

- the number of total stockholders is less than 400;
- the number of total stockholders is less than 1,200 and average monthly trading volume is less than 100,000 shares for the most recent 12 months;
or
- the number of publicly-held shares is less than 600,000.

33

Shares held directly or indirectly by directors, officers or beneficial owners of more than 10% of the shares are not considered as being publicly held for this purpose. If, following the closing of the offer, the shares of Guest Supply no longer meet the requirements of the NYSE, the market for the shares could be adversely affected.

If the NYSE were to delist the Guest Supply shares, including after the exchange of shares in the offer but prior to the merger, the market for them could be adversely affected. It is possible that Guest Supply shares would be traded on other securities exchanges or in the over-the-counter market, and that price quotations would be reported by such exchanges or by other sources. The extent of the public market for the Guest Supply shares and the availability of such quotations would, however, depend upon the number of holders and/or the aggregate market value of the Guest Supply shares remaining at such time, the interest in maintaining a market in the Guest Supply shares on the part of securities firms, the possible termination of registration of Guest Supply shares under the Exchange Act, as described below under "-- Registration under the Exchange Act," and other factors.

We intend to complete the merger as soon as possible following completion of the offer. No shares of Guest Supply will remain publicly traded upon completion of the merger.

Status as "Margin Securities." The Guest Supply shares are presently "margin securities" under the regulations of the Federal Reserve Board, which has the effect of allowing brokers to extend credit on the collateral of Guest Supply shares. Depending on the factors similar to those described above with respect to listing and market quotations, following the completion of the offer, the Guest Supply shares may no longer constitute "margin securities" for the purposes of the Federal Reserve Board's margin regulations, in which event the Guest Supply shares would be ineligible as collateral for margin loans made by brokers.

Registration under the Exchange Act. Guest Supply shares are currently registered under the Exchange Act. Guest Supply can terminate that registration upon application to the SEC if the outstanding shares are not listed on a national securities exchange or market and if there are fewer than 300 holders of record of Guest Supply shares. Termination of registration of the Guest Supply shares under the Exchange Act would reduce the information that Guest

Supply must furnish to its stockholders and to the SEC and would make certain provisions of the Exchange Act, such as the short-swing profit recovery provisions of Section 16(b) and the requirement of furnishing a proxy statement in connection with stockholders meetings pursuant to Section 14(a) and the related requirement of furnishing an annual report to stockholders, no longer applicable with respect to Guest Supply shares. Furthermore, the ability of "affiliates" of Guest Supply and persons holding "restricted securities" of Guest Supply to dispose of such securities pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be impaired or eliminated. If registration of the shares under the Exchange Act were terminated, they would no longer be eligible for NYSE listing or for continued inclusion on the Federal Reserve Board's list of "margin securities."

RELATIONSHIPS WITH GUEST SUPPLY

Except as set forth in this prospectus, neither we nor, to the best of our knowledge, any of our directors, executive officers or other affiliates has any contract, arrangement, understanding or relationship with any other person with respect to any securities of Guest Supply, including, but not limited to, any contract, arrangement, understanding or relationship concerning the transfer or the voting of any such securities, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guaranties of loans, guaranties against loss or the giving or withholding of proxies. Except as described in this prospectus, there have been no contacts, negotiations or transactions within the last two years between us or, to the best of our knowledge, any of our directors, executive officers or other affiliates on the one hand, and Guest Supply or its affiliates, on the other hand, concerning a merger, consolidation or acquisition, a tender offer or other acquisition of securities, an election of directors, or a sale or other transfer of a material amount of assets.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

Our acquisition of Guest Supply will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting under U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, which means that Guest Supply's results of operations will be included with ours from the closing date and its consolidated assets and liabilities will be recorded at their fair values at the same date.

34

FEES AND EXPENSES

We have retained MacKenzie Partners to act as the information agent in connection with the offer. The information agent may contact holders of Guest Supply shares by mail, telephone or other means, and may request brokers, dealers and other nominee stockholders to forward the offer materials to beneficial owners of Guest Supply shares. The information agent will be paid a customary fee for such services, plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses, and we will indemnify the information agent against certain liabilities and expenses in connection with the offer, including liabilities under federal securities laws.

In addition, we have retained EquiServe Trust Company, N.A. as the exchange agent. We will pay the exchange agent customary compensation for its services in connection with the offer, will reimburse the exchange agent for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and will indemnify the exchange agent against certain liabilities and expenses, including liabilities under the federal securities laws.

We will not pay any fees or commissions to any broker, dealer or other persons (other than the information agent) for soliciting tenders of Guest

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

Supply shares pursuant to the offer.

Guest Supply received an opinion from U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray dated January 22, 2001 to the effect that, as of that date, and subject to the assumptions, factors and limitations set forth in their opinion, the exchange ratio to be established pursuant to the merger agreement is fair to the Guest Supply stockholders, from a financial point of view. The opinion is attached as an exhibit to Guest Supply's Schedule 14D-9, which was mailed to the Guest Supply stockholders with a preliminary version of this prospectus, and Guest Supply stockholders are urged to read such opinion in its entirety, including the assumptions, factors and limitations contained therein.

U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray also provided certain financial advisory services to Guest Supply in connection with the offer and the merger. Under the terms of the engagement letter dated June 19, 2000, Guest Supply has agreed to pay U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray a fee equal to 1.25% of the total sale price of Guest Supply in connection with this transaction for U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray's financial advisory services, a retainer fee of $100,000, $350,000 for rendering the opinion described above, which fee will be credited against payment of the fee for financial advisory services and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray, and to indemnify U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray against liabilities incurred. Details concerning the arrangements between Guest Supply and U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray are disclosed in Guest Supply's Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9, which was mailed to the Guest Supply stockholders with a preliminary version of this prospectus.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE TENDER AGREEMENTS

The merger agreement and the form of the tender agreements are attached as Annex A and Annex B, respectively, to this prospectus. We believe the following summary describes the material terms of the merger agreement and the tender agreements. This summary, however, does not purport to describe all the terms of the agreements. We recommend that you read carefully the complete agreements for their precise terms and other information that may be important to you.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

THE OFFER

Conditions. Our obligation to complete the offer is subject to the conditions described beginning on page 31 of this prospectus and include the minimum tender condition, the antitrust condition and the registration statement effectiveness condition. See "The Offer -- Conditions of the Offer."

THE MERGER

Completion of the Merger. If the conditions to the merger are satisfied or waived in accordance with the merger agreement and in accordance with the New Jersey Business Corporation Act and the Delaware General Corporation Law, at the effective time of the merger, Sysco Food Services of New Jersey will merge with and into Guest Supply. Guest Supply will survive the merger as our wholly owned subsidiary.

Effective Time of the Merger. The merger will become effective upon the filing of certificates of merger with the New Jersey Secretary of State and the Delaware Secretary of State or at such subsequent date or time as Guest Supply and we may specify. The filing of the certificates of merger will take place as soon as practicable after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions described below under "-- Conditions to the Completion of the Merger" on page 42.

Additional Effects of the Merger. Upon completion of the merger:

- each outstanding share of capital stock of Sysco Food Services of New Jersey shall be converted into and become one share of common stock of Guest Supply, as the corporation surviving the merger;
- if the exchange offer is completed, each outstanding share of Guest Supply common stock shall be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of our common stock at the same exchange ratio used in the offer, but if the offer is terminated and the merger is completed, each outstanding share of Guest Supply common stock shall be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of our common stock based on the merger ratio, as described below;
- each share of Guest Supply common stock held in the Guest Supply treasury shall automatically be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist;
- the directors and officers of Sysco Food Services of New Jersey at the effective time of the merger shall become the directors and officers of Guest Supply, as the corporation surviving the merger;
- the certificate of incorporation of Guest Supply at the effective time of the merger shall remain the certificate of incorporation of Guest Supply, as the corporation surviving the merger, except as amended by the certificates of merger; and
- the bylaws of Guest Supply at the effective time of the merger shall become the bylaws of Guest Supply, as the corporation surviving the merger, until amended.

The Merger Ratio. If the offer is terminated and the merger is completed, the outstanding Guest Supply common stock shall be converted into the right to receive shares of our common stock based on a merger ratio, as described below.

If the average of the closing prices per share of our common stock on the NYSE for each of the 15 consecutive trading days ending on the trading date that is five trading days prior to the date of the Guest Supply stockholders' meeting at which approval of the merger is being considered, which we refer to as the SYSCO average trading merger price, is:

- at least $22.00 but less than or equal to $30.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share a number of SYSCO shares equal to $26.00 divided by the SYSCO average trading merger price;
- less than $22.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share approximately 1.1818 SYSCO shares; or
- more than $30.00, Guest Supply stockholders shall receive for each Guest Supply share approximately 0.8667 SYSCO shares.

The SYSCO average trading merger price cannot be determined with certainty

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

at this time.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND MANAGEMENT FOLLOWING THE MERGER

After the merger, SYSCO will continue to be managed by the same Board of Directors and officers of SYSCO as before the merger. Information relating to the management, executive compensation, voting securities, certain relationships and related transactions and other related matters pertaining to SYSCO is contained in or incorporated by reference in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 1, 2000. Such Annual Report is incorporated by reference into this prospectus. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 5.

EXCHANGE AGENT; PROCEDURES FOR EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

Exchange Agent. At the time the merger becomes effective, we will deposit with the exchange agent certificates representing the number of whole shares of our common stock issuable pursuant to the merger agreement in exchange for the outstanding shares of Guest Supply common stock. We will also deposit with the exchange agent a certificate representing the aggregated fractional shares which would otherwise be issued in exchange for the surrendered Guest Supply shares pursuant to the merger agreement. Soon after the completion of the merger, the exchange agent will send a letter to each person who was a Guest Supply stockholder at the time the merger became effective. The letter will contain instructions on how to surrender Guest Supply stock certificates to the exchange agent and receive shares of our common stock. See "The Offer -- Procedure for Tendering."

Dividends. Holders of Guest Supply shares will not be entitled to receive any dividends declared by us or other distributions with respect to our shares until after the effective time of the merger and they have surrendered their Guest Supply stock certificates to the exchange agent. Any dividends declared by us with a record date after the effective time of the merger will be accrued for the benefit of those Guest Supply stockholders who have not yet surrendered their certificates, and paid upon surrender.

Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of our common stock will be issued upon the surrender of certificates representing Guest Supply shares. Guest Supply stockholders will not have any dividend, voting or other rights of a SYSCO shareholder with respect to such fractional shares. Instead, each Guest Supply stockholder will receive an amount of cash in lieu of fractional shares, if any, equal to such fraction multiplied by the SYSCO average trading price or, if applicable, the SYSCO average trading merger price, used in the offer or the merger. Guest Supply stockholders will not receive any interest on the cash to be received for fractional shares, even if there is a delay in making the exchange and payment.

GUEST SUPPLY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Upon acceptance for exchange of Guest Supply shares in the offer, Guest Supply will, subject to applicable law, cause to be placed on the Guest Supply board of directors a number of directors designated by SYSCO. We will be entitled to designate that number of Guest Supply directors, rounded up to the next whole number, such that the percentage of the total number of Guest Supply directors designated by us will be equal to the percentage of total outstanding Guest Supply shares then held by us. However, following such designation and until the merger has been completed, we and Guest Supply shall use best efforts to ensure that the Guest Supply board of directors shall always have at least two members who were directors of Guest Supply prior to the completion of the offer. The merger agreement provides that, prior to the effective time of the merger, if our designees are elected to the Guest Supply board, the affirmative vote of a majority of the continuing Guest Supply directors will be required to:

37

- amend or terminate the merger agreement;
- exercise or waive any of Guest Supply's rights, benefits, or remedies under the merger agreement if such exercise or waiver materially and adversely affects Guest Supply stockholders other than us or Sysco Food Services of New Jersey;
- take action with respect to the retention of counsel and other advisors in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; or
- approve any other action under or in connection with the merger agreement which materially and adversely affects the interests of Guest Supply stockholders, other than us or Sysco Food Services of New Jersey.

GUEST SUPPLY STOCK OPTIONS

Stock Options. At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding Guest Supply option shall be assumed by SYSCO and thereafter deemed to constitute an option to acquire, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under the Guest Supply stock option, the same number of shares of SYSCO common stock as the holder of the Guest Supply option would have been entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement had the holder exercised the Guest Supply option in full immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, rounded down to the nearest whole number. The price per share shall equal the per share exercise price at which the Guest Supply option was exercisable immediately prior to the effective time, divided by the exchange ratio. All such options shall automatically vest and become immediately exercisable upon the first to occur of the commencement of the offer or 15 days prior to consummation of the merger.

SYSCO has agreed to take all action necessary to implement the above, including the reservation, issuance and listing of a sufficient number of shares of SYSCO common stock for delivery upon exercise of these assumed options. SYSCO shall prepare and file a registration statement on an appropriate form, or a post-effective amendment to a previously filed registration statement, with respect to the shares of SYSCO common stock subject to the above options and, where applicable, shall use its reasonable efforts to have the registration statement declared effective as soon as is reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, to maintain its effectiveness and to maintain the current status of the prospectus contained in it for so long as the options remain outstanding.

Guest Supply has agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all individuals holding options under its 1993 Stock Option Plan to waive all of their respective rights under Section 5(k) of such plan, which provides for the issuance of reload options, effective from and after the date that our designees constitute a majority of the members of the Guest Supply board of directors, pursuant to a waiver agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to us. As of January 31, 2001, holders of all options outstanding under this plan have executed the waivers.

For more information on the treatment of Guest Supply stock options in connection with the offer and the merger, please refer to Item 3 of Guest

In addition, Guest Supply will not, directly or indirectly, do any of the following:

- take any action, except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, with respect to its methods of management, purchasing, distribution, marketing, or operating or make any change in its method of accounting;
- take any action to incur or increase any indebtedness for borrowed money

from banks, other than borrowings under existing credit facilities and trade payables incurred in the ordinary course of business and consistent with its past practice, or cancel without payment in full, any notes, loans or other receivables, except in the ordinary course of business and consistent with its past practice;

GUEST SUPPLY STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

If required by applicable law to effectuate the merger, the merger agreement requires Guest Supply to call a meeting of its stockholders as soon as practicable after the expiration or termination of the offer. Guest Supply has agreed that, through its board of directors and subject to the board's fiduciary duties, it will recommend that its stockholders vote in favor of approving the merger agreement. At any such Guest Supply stockholder meeting, we have agreed to vote all Guest Supply shares beneficially owned by us or any of our subsidiaries in favor of approving the merger agreement. If we or any of our subsidiaries in the aggregate obtain at least 90% of the outstanding Guest Supply shares, we have agreed to effect the merger as soon as practicable after the expiration of the offer without a Guest Supply stockholders meeting pursuant to Section 14A:10-5.1 of the New Jersey Business Corporation Act.

OTHER OFFERS

The merger agreement provides that, from the date of the merger agreement until the effective time of the merger or, if earlier, the termination of the merger agreement, Guest Supply will not, directly or indirectly:

- solicit, initiate, entertain, encourage or respond, except that it may respond to the contested proxy solicitation initiated by BFMA (which has publicly announced that it intends to withdraw its proxy solicitation) for Guest Supply's 2001 Annual Meeting of stockholders, to any inquiries or proposals that constitute or could reasonably be expected to lead to an alternative transaction, which means:
 - the acquisition of Guest Supply by merger or otherwise by any third party;
 - the acquisition by a third party of 20% or more of the assets of Guest Supply and its subsidiaries taken as a whole;
 - the acquisition by a third party of 20% or more of the outstanding Guest Supply common stock or the issuance by Guest Supply of capital stock containing terms which are inconsistent with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

- the adoption by Guest Supply of a plan of liquidation or the declaration or payment by Guest Supply of an extraordinary dividend representing 20% or more of the value of Guest Supply and its subsidiaries taken as a whole; or
- the repurchase by Guest Supply or any of its subsidiaries of more than 20% of its outstanding common stock;
- negotiate, discuss or provide any non-public information to any third party in connection with an alternative transaction, or;
- permit any subsidiary to, and will not authorize any officer, director, employee, any investment bank or other advisor or representative of it or a subsidiary to, and will instruct such persons not to, solicit, initiate or encourage the submission of a proposal for any alternative transaction or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish information with respect to, or take action to facilitate, any alternative transaction or any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or leads to, any alternative transaction; however, the Guest Supply board of directors may furnish information or enter into negotiations with, a third party that makes an unsolicited bona fide written proposal of an alternative transaction if, and only to the extent that:
 - the Guest Supply board of directors, after consultation with legal counsel, determines in good faith that such action is necessary for it to comply with its fiduciary duties,
 - the Guest Supply board of directors determines in good faith, after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation, that such alternative transaction would, if consummated, constitute or be reasonably likely to constitute a superior proposal, which means any bona fide written unsolicited proposal of an alternative transaction, except that, for purposes of a superior proposal, 50% shall be substituted for 20%, that the Guest Supply board of directors determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation and consultation with legal counsel, (i) would result in a transaction that would, if completed, be superior to the Guest Supply stockholders from a financial point of view as compared to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and any alternative proposed by us in accordance with the merger agreement and (ii) to be reasonably capable of being consummated in accordance with its terms, including that any financing required to consummate the transaction contemplated by such proposal is capable of being, and is reasonably likely to be, obtained, in each case taking into account all factors the Guest Supply board of directors considers relevant, including all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal by the third party, and

- prior to taking such action, Guest Supply provides notice to us to the effect that it is taking such action, including, without limitation, the material terms and conditions thereof and the identity of the person making it, and as promptly as practicable, but in no case later than 24 hours, after taking such action, provides us with a copy of any alternative transaction or amendments or supplements thereto and receives from such third party an executed confidentiality agreement in reasonably customary form and in any event containing terms at least as stringent as those between us and Guest Supply.

Subsequent to furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any third party, Guest Supply shall inform us on a prompt basis of the status of any discussions or negotiations with such third party, and any material changes to the terms and conditions of such alternative transaction. Promptly after the execution and delivery of the merger agreement, Guest Supply will, and will cause its subsidiaries to, and will instruct their respective officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants and other agents to, cease and terminate any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties with respect to any possible alternative transaction and shall notify each party with which it, or any officer, director, investment advisor, financial advisor, attorney or other representative retained by it, has had discussions during the 60 days prior to the merger agreement, that the Guest Supply board of directors no longer seeks to engage in any alternative transactions.

Under the merger agreement, Guest Supply has agreed that its board of directors will not withdraw or modify or propose to withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement unless the board of directors determines, after consultation with counsel, that it is required by its fiduciary duties to do so. Guest Supply has also agreed not to approve or recommend an alternative transaction unless the following requirements are met:

- the alternative transaction must be a superior proposal;
- Guest Supply's board of directors must first consult with legal counsel and determine that such action is necessary for it to comply with its fiduciary duties to the Guest Supply stockholders;
- Guest Supply must provide us with written notice advising us that Guest Supply has received a superior proposal, specifying the material terms and conditions of the superior proposal and identifying the person or entity making the superior proposal; and
- Guest Supply's board of directors must allow two business days to elapse after we receive notice of the superior proposal without receiving from us an offer that would cause the Guest Supply board of directors to determine, after consulting with both a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation and legal counsel, in its good faith judgment, that the alternative transaction is not a superior proposal to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Guest Supply can terminate the merger agreement to pursue an alternative transaction only after the second business day following our receipt of written notice from Guest Supply advising us that its board of directors is prepared to accept the superior proposal, and Guest Supply must pay us a termination fee. See "-- Termination Events; Termination Fee; Expenses."

No provision of the merger agreement prohibits Guest Supply from taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act or from making any disclosure to its stockholders which, in the good faith reasonable judgment of the Guest Supply board of directors, based on the advice of legal counsel, is required under applicable law.

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS INSURANCE AND INDEMNIFICATION

The merger agreement provides that, after the date of the merger agreement, the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the corporation surviving the merger will contain provisions that indemnify present or former directors, officers, employees or agents of Guest Supply to at least the same extent as they were indemnified prior to the date of the merger agreement.

We have agreed to maintain Guest Supply's current directors and officers liability insurance and indemnification policies to the extent that they provide coverage for events occurring prior to the effective time of the merger and to provide similar coverage for a period of not less than six years from the effective time of the merger for all persons who are directors and officers of Guest Supply on the date of the merger agreement, provided that we will not be obligated to pay an annual premium for any such coverage in excess of 150% of the premium paid by Guest Supply for its most recent fiscal year, and our aggregate indemnification liability may not exceed the net worth of Guest Supply at December 29, 2000.

CONDITIONS TO THE COMPLETION OF THE MERGER

Each party's obligation to effect the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver, prior to the time the merger becomes effective, of the following conditions:

- if required by applicable law, the merger agreement shall have been duly approved by the Guest Supply stockholders, in accordance with applicable law and the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Guest Supply;
- no federal or state statute, rule, regulation or injunction shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any court or governmental authority which makes the merger illegal or otherwise prohibits completion of the merger;
- Sysco Food Services of New Jersey shall have accepted for exchange all of the shares of Guest Supply common stock tendered pursuant to the offer, unless the failure to complete the offer is the result of a willful and material breach of the merger agreement by the party asserting such condition;
- this registration statement shall have become effective in accordance with the provisions of the Securities Act, and no stop order shall have been issued, and no proceeding for that purpose shall have been initiated or be threatened, by the SEC with respect thereto;
- no action or proceeding shall be pending before any governmental authority by any governmental authority in which it is sought to restrain or prohibit the merger;
- if required, the approval for listing on the NYSE of the shares of SYSCO common stock to be issued in the offer and the merger; and

Supply of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement that is not curable and would give rise to a material adverse effect; unless we are then in breach in any material respect of any of our obligations under the merger agreement;

- by Guest Supply if, prior to the acceptance for payment of Guest Supply common stock under the offer, we materially breach any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement, unless Guest Supply is then in breach in any material respect of any of its obligations under the merger agreement;
- by Guest Supply or us, only if no shares of Guest Supply common stock were purchased by Sysco Food Services of New Jersey pursuant to the offer, and the merger has not been completed by August 31, 2001, provided that the party seeking to exercise such right is not then in breach in any material respect of any of its obligations under the merger agreement;
- by either us or Guest Supply if a meeting of Guest Supply stockholders is required under the New Jersey Business Corporation Act and the merger fails to receive the requisite vote for approval;

- the merger agreement shall automatically terminate if less than thirty five percent (35%) of the outstanding shares of common stock of Guest Supply, on a fully diluted basis, are validly tendered by April 30, 2001; or

 - the approval or recommendation by the Guest Supply board of directors or any committee thereof to the Guest Supply stockholders of any alternative transaction;

We do not have the right to terminate the merger agreement as a result of any action taken by Guest Supply or its agents in connection with the contested proxy solicitation involving Guest Supply's 2001 Annual Meeting of stockholders that is not in breach of any provision of the merger agreement. However, on January 23, 2001, following announcement of the execution of the merger agreement, the party soliciting proxies in opposition to the nominees of Guest Supply announced that it intends to withdraw its proxy solicitation.

Termination Fee; Expenses. Guest Supply has agreed to pay us a termination fee of $5.5 million plus all reasonable out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by us in connection with the merger agreement, including without limitation, all filing fees with all governmental authorities, reasonable out-of-

- if Guest Supply, prior to acceptance for payment of any shares of common stock of Guest Supply under the offer, terminates the merger agreement in order to enter into a written agreement with respect to an alternative transaction with a third party in accordance with the merger agreement;

The termination fee is due to us within ten days of the first to occur of any of the above events.

Except as set forth above, , all expenses incurred by us in connection with the merger agreement and related agreements, including all fees and expenses of agents, representatives, brokers, counsel and accountants for us, shall be paid by us. In connection with the negotiation of the merger agreement, we required that the employment agreements of Clifford W. Stanley, Paul T. Xenis and R. Eugene Biber be replaced with new employment agreements in order to help retain these officers following the earlier to occur of the completion of the offer or the merger. These new agreements have terms that last until 90 days following the end of our 2006 fiscal year and will become effective only upon the earlier of completion of the offer or the merger, which we refer to as the effective date of the agreement. The agreements provide for initial base salaries of $284,000 for Mr. Stanley, $210,000 for Mr. Xenis and $199,000 for Mr. Biber, subject to annual review for merit increases. On the effective date of the agreement, Mr. Stanley will be granted stock options pursuant to our 2000 Stock Incentive Plan to purchase 100,000 shares of our common stock which vest in 33 1/3% increments over three years on each anniversary date of the grant. The options may remain outstanding for 10 years from the date of grant so long as during the first three years, following the effective date, his employment is not terminated with cause and he does not resign (except for good reason). The term may be shortened based on the circumstances surrounding the termination of his employment. Messrs. Xenis and Biber will be granted stock options pursuant to our 2000 Stock Incentive Plan to purchase 30,000 and 20,000 shares, respectively, of our common stock which vest in 20% increments over five years based upon achievement of targeted increases in pre-tax earnings of Guest Supply compared to prior years, but if any such options do not vest because the targets are not met, the options vest nine and one half years after the date of grant provided that Mr. Xenis or Mr. Biber, as the case may be, is still employed by Guest Supply. Each of the options granted have special vesting provisions in the event of and depending upon the reason why the employment agreements are terminated. Each of the agreements also provides for certain restrictive covenants in favor of SYSCO, including noncompetition, nonsolicitation, and nondisclosure of confidential information provisions.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

This summary of the terms of the new employment agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the employment agreements, which are filed as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

Pursuant to an agreement dated August 6, 1997, as amended, between Guest Supply and Thomas M. Haythe, Mr. Haythe acts as general counsel for Guest Supply. The agreement provides for the payment of a monthly retainer of $7,500, credited on a current basis against his fees for services rendered to Guest Supply, and the payment of up to three years of such retainer upon the termination of the agreement in the case of certain change-of-control events involving Guest Supply. The term of the agreement is for a three-year period with automatic yearly extensions. In connection with execution of the merger agreement, Mr. Haythe entered into an amendment to the agreement with Guest Supply which will take effect upon the closing of the offer or the merger. Pursuant to the amendment, Mr. Haythe will continue to receive his monthly retainer through July 2004.

STOCK OPTIONS

As of January 31, 2001, options issued to executive officers and directors of Guest Supply to purchase a total of 472,500 shares of Guest Supply common stock, with a weighted average exercise price of approximately $8.54 per share, were outstanding.

DIRECTORS' AND OFFICERS' INSURANCE; INDEMNIFICATION

The merger agreement provides that for a period of six years from the effective time of the merger, the corporation surviving the merger will maintain in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those persons who were covered under Guest Supply directors' and officers' liability insurance on January 22, 2001. Such insurance shall be no less favorable than Guest Supply existing policies and shall cover events occurring prior to the effective time of the merger. We are not required to expend an amount in excess of 150% of the annual premiums currently paid by Guest Supply for such insurance.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

The surviving corporation of the merger will also indemnify each such officer and director for a period of six years to the fullest extent that those individuals are currently entitled to indemnification under New Jersey law and under the Guest Supply certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

THE TENDER AGREEMENTS

Immediately prior to the signing of the merger agreement, directors and executive officers of Guest Supply, who then collectively held approximately 9.3% of the outstanding Guest Supply common stock, entered into tender agreements with us. Each Guest Supply stockholder who signed a tender agreement all Guest Supply shares owned by them at January 22, 2001, as well as all additional shares acquired by them, including those acquired upon exercise of options and warrants. However, each of those stockholders also reserved the right to sell into the public market up to 15% of the total number of (i) shares held of record, and (ii) shares deemed beneficially owned by such stockholders pursuant to Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Shares deemed beneficially owned include those subject to options and warrants exercisable at January 22, 2001, and those exercisable within 60 days thereafter. Shares sold pursuant to this provision on or before five days prior to the expiration date of the offer will not be tendered. As of February 1, 2001, approximately 8.35% of the outstanding Guest Supply common stock was subject to the tender agreements.

See "The Merger Agreement and the Tender Agreements -- The Tender Agreements."

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion summarizes the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the offer and the merger to Guest Supply stockholders who exchange their Guest Supply shares for our common shares pursuant to the offer or the merger. This discussion does not purport to be a complete analysis or discussion of all potential tax effects relevant to the offer and the merger. Further, this tax discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to Guest Supply stockholders in light of their particular circumstances; nor does the discussion address the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be applicable to Guest Supply stockholders subject to special tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (which we refer to as the Code), such as stockholders:

- who are dealers in securities, traders that mark to market, foreign individuals (i.e., individuals who are not citizens or residents of the United States), foreign corporations, foreign partnerships or other foreign entities, mutual funds, financial institutions, insurance companies or tax-exempt entities;
- who acquired their shares through the exercise of stock options, through stock purchase plans, in other compensatory transactions, or through a tax-qualified retirement plan;
- whose shares are qualified small business stock for purposes of Section 1202 of the Code;
- who hold their shares as part of an integrated investment such as a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or other risk reduction strategy or as part of a conversion transaction;
- who do not hold their shares as capital assets;
- whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar; or

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

- who are subject to the alternative minimum tax.

In addition, the following tax discussion does not address the tax consequences, if any, of the offer or the merger under state, local, foreign, and other tax laws. The tax opinions described below and this tax discussion are based upon the provisions of the Code, applicable Treasury regulations, judicial decisions and Internal Revenue Service (which we refer to as the IRS) rulings, in each case, as in effect as of the date of this document. There can be no assurance that future legislative, judicial or administrative changes or interpretations, which changes or interpretations could apply retroactively, will not affect the accuracy of the statements or conclusions set forth in the tax opinions summarized below or in this tax discussion. No rulings have been or will be sought from the IRS concerning the tax consequences of the offer and the merger and neither this tax discussion nor the tax opinions described below will be binding on the IRS or any court. The IRS could adopt a contrary position, and such contrary position could be sustained by a court.

SYSCO and Guest Supply expect to be advised by Arnall Golden Gregory LLP and Torys, respectively, that in their respective opinions, although the matter is not free from doubt, for U.S. federal income tax purposes the offer and the merger should constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. These tax opinions, when given, will be attached as Exhibits 8.1 and 8.2, respectively, to the registration statement on Form S-4 filed with the SEC, of which this prospectus is a part. The tax opinions described above and the consequences summarized below under "Federal Income Tax Consequences If The Offer And The Merger Qualify As A Reorganization" will be conditioned upon, among other things, all of the following factual assumptions (which we refer to as the supporting conditions):

- the merger is completed promptly after the offer; and
- the offer and the merger are completed under the current terms of the merger agreement.

In addition to these primary supporting conditions, the opinions of Arnall Golden Gregory LLP and Torys will rely upon, and the consequences summarized below under "Federal Income Tax Consequences If The Offer And The Merger Qualify As A Reorganization" are based upon, representations and covenants made by Guest Supply and SYSCO, including those contained in tax representation letters of Guest Supply, SYSCO and Sysco Food Services of New Jersey, and certain other assumptions including the absence of changes in facts or in law between the date of this prospectus and the effective time of the merger. If any of those representations, covenants or assumptions are inaccurate or if the supporting conditions are not satisfied, the tax opinions of Arnall Golden Gregory LLP and Torys described above cannot be relied upon. In addition, the ability to satisfy the supporting conditions, and therefore the federal income tax consequences of the offer and the merger, depend in part on facts that will not be available before the completion of the merger. There can be no assurance that the merger will be completed, or that the supporting conditions will be satisfied. Also, as noted above, it is possible that a court might reach a conclusion contrary to the conclusion reached in the tax opinions. Accordingly, it is possible that the offer and/or the merger may not qualify as a reorganization, and the tax consequences of the offer and/or the merger could differ materially from those summarized below under "Federal Income Tax Consequences If The Offer And The Merger Qualify As A Reorganization." See "Federal Income Tax Consequences If The Offer And/Or The Merger Does Not Qualify As A Reorganization."

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES IF THE OFFER AND THE MERGER QUALIFY AS A REORGANIZATION

Assuming that the offer and the merger qualify as a reorganization, and subject to the assumptions, limitations and qualifications described above, for federal income tax purposes:

- A holder of Guest Supply shares will not recognize any gain or loss upon exchange of the holder's Guest Supply shares for SYSCO shares in the offer or the merger, except for cash received instead of a fractional share of SYSCO common stock.
- A holder of Guest Supply shares will have an aggregate tax basis in the SYSCO shares received in the offer or the merger equal to (1) the aggregate tax basis in the Guest Supply shares surrendered by that holder in the offer or merger, reduced by (2) any tax basis in such Guest Supply shares that is allocable to a fraction of a SYSCO common share for which cash is received.
- The holding period for SYSCO shares received in exchange for Guest Supply shares in the offer or the merger will include the holding period for Guest Supply shares surrendered for them in the offer or the merger.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES IF THE OFFER AND/OR THE MERGER DOES NOT QUALIFY AS A REORGANIZATION

If the offer and/or the merger does not qualify as a reorganization, each Guest Supply stockholder realizing gain on the exchange of Guest Supply shares for SYSCO shares in the offer and/or the merger, as applicable, generally will recognize capital gain or loss, measured by the difference between the fair market value of the SYSCO shares received by such stockholder (together with any cash received by such stockholder instead of a fraction of a SYSCO share) and such stockholder's tax basis in the Guest Supply shares surrendered. This capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if such stockholder held such Guest Supply shares for more than one year at the time such Guest Supply shares are exchanged in the offer or at the effective time of the merger, as applicable.

Guest Supply stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisor regarding the recognition of gain or loss, and their basis and holding period in the SYSCO shares if the offer and/or the merger does not qualify as a reorganization.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES IF THE MERGER IS NOT CONSUMMATED

In addition to the limitations, assumptions and qualifications described above, this tax discussion does not address, and no opinion has been given concerning, any tax consequences of the offer if the merger is not completed. If the merger is not completed, the federal income tax consequences of the exchange of Guest Supply shares for SYSCO shares in the offer will depend on facts and circumstances that are not yet known. Such facts and circumstances include the percentage of Guest Supply shares tendered in the offer. You are urged to consult your tax advisor regarding the tax consequences to you of your participation in the offer if the merger is not completed.

The summary of anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences set forth above is intended to provide only a general summary and is not intended to be a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the offer and the merger. In addition, the summary does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. Moreover, the summary does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state, local or other tax consequences of the offer or the merger. The summary does not address the tax consequences of any transaction other than the offer and the merger. Accordingly, each Guest Supply stockholder is strongly urged to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local or foreign income, reporting or other tax consequences of the offer and the merger to such stockholder.

COMPARISON OF RIGHTS OF HOLDERS OF SYSCO SHARES AND GUEST SUPPLY SHARES

The rights of our stockholders are governed by the Delaware General Corporation Law, our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws. The rights of Guest Supply stockholders are governed by the New Jersey Business Corporation Act and Guest Supply's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. Our certificate of incorporation and bylaws differ from the Guest Supply certificate of incorporation and bylaws in several respects. Upon completion of the merger, Guest Supply stockholders will become SYSCO stockholders and their rights will become subject to the provisions of Delaware law and the SYSCO certificate of incorporation and bylaws. The material differences between the rights of Guest Supply stockholders and SYSCO stockholders are summarized below.

The following discussion is not intended to be complete. You should also refer to Delaware corporate law, our certificate of incorporation and our bylaws. Copies of our certificate of incorporation, our bylaws, the Guest Supply certificate of incorporation and the Guest Supply bylaws will be sent to the stockholders of Guest Supply upon request. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 5.

- New Jersey law restricts the ability of certain persons to acquire control of a New Jersey corporation. An interested stockholder is generally a stockholder owning at least a Delaware corporation; provided, however, if such stockholder holds 85% of the outstanding stock, the board approves either the transaction in question or the acquisition of shares by the stockholder, or the transaction is approved by two-thirds of the company's stockholders other than the stockholder in question, then the prohibition against a business combination does not apply.

10% of the voting power of a corporation's outstanding shares. A New Jersey corporation may opt out of the New Jersey anti-takeover provisions and make the anti-takeover provisions of New Jersey law inapplicable to the business combination and related transactions. The Guest Supply certificate of incorporation provides that certain transactions, including a merger, significant asset sales and certain issuances or transfers of securities of Guest Supply require the affirmative vote of the holders of 80% of the outstanding shares of voting stock, unless the Board of Directors of Guest Supply expressly approved in advance the acquisition of outstanding shares of voting stock of Guest Supply that resulted in any related person (as defined) becoming a related person or expressly approved the business combination prior to the related person involved in the business combination having become a related person.

- The Guest Supply certificate of incorporation also provides that certain affiliated transactions with a related person of Guest Supply require, in addition to any vote required by law or in Guest Supply's certificate of incorporation or by-laws, approval by a majority of continuing directors.
- The Guest Supply Board of Directors has taken the necessary action to make the foregoing provisions of the New Jersey anti-takeover laws and Guest Supply's certificate of incorporation inapplicable to the offer and the merger and the related transactions.

 - out of surplus, the amount of net assets of the corporation in excess of all liabilities, or
 - if there is no surplus, out of net profits generated in the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or the preceding fiscal year.

- Under New Jersey corporate law, a corporation's Board of Directors may declare and pay dividends in cash, in property, or in shares of capital stock; provided however, that a corporation may not make a distribution if either:

which stock, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at a meeting to act upon a merger, share exchange or disposition of all or substantially all of a corporation's assets is listed on a national securities exchange, as is Guest Supply's. Thus, Guest Supply's shareholders do not have any appraisal or dissenters' rights with respect to the offer or the merger.

SYSCO RIGHTS PLAN

Under SYSCO's Amended and Restated Rights Agreement, as amended in May 1999, each share of SYSCO common stock has attached to it one-half of one preferred stock purchase right. Each right entitles the holder to purchase from SYSCO one two-thousandth of a share of SYSCO's Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock at a price of $175 per one two-thousandth of a share.

The rights are not exercisable until the earlier to occur of:

- a public announcement that, without the prior consent of the board of directors of SYSCO, a person or group has acquired or obtained the right to acquire beneficial ownership of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of SYSCO common stock; or
- ten business days, or such later date as the board may determine, following the commencement or announcement of an intention, which is not subsequently withdrawn, to make a tender offer or exchange offer which would result in any person or group having beneficial ownership of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of SYSCO common stock without the prior consent of the board of directors.

Upon the occurrence of either of the events described above, each holder of a right will have a 60-day period (or a longer period set by the board of directors) to exercise a right to receive securities. The 60-day (or longer) period will begin on the later of:

- the date of this occurrence; or
- the effective date of any required registration statement.

Upon exercise of this right, each holder will receive that number of units of one two-thousandths of a share of preferred stock, or, in some cases, common stock or other securities, having an average market value during a specified time period of two times the exercise price of the right.

In addition, if SYSCO is acquired in a merger or other business combination transaction or 50% or more of SYSCO's assets or earning power is sold, each right will entitle the holder to receive, upon the exercise of the right, that number of shares of common stock of the acquiring company having a market value of two times the exercise price of the right.

Prior to there being an occurrence described above, SYSCO may redeem the rights at a price of $0.01 per right. The rights will expire on May 31, 2006, unless earlier redeemed by SYSCO.

The rights have certain anti-takeover effects. Because an acquiring person or group is not entitled to exercise purchase rights that relate to its shares, the acquiring person's or group's ownership of SYSCO would be severely diluted if the other stockholders exercise their rights to purchase the preferred stock, which has preferential dividends, liquidation, voting and other rights. Therefore, the effect of the rights agreement is to encourage any person or group who wants to acquire SYSCO to negotiate with the SYSCO board to agree on the terms of the transaction. However, the rights generally should not interfere with any merger or other business combination approved by the board of directors.

GUEST SUPPLY RIGHTS PLAN

On July 14, 1988, as amended on August 6, 1997, the Board of Directors of Guest Supply declared a dividend of one preferred share purchase right for each outstanding share of common stock of Guest Supply and for each share of common stock issued from that date. The dividend was payable on July 26, 1988 to the stockholders of record on that date. Each right entitles the registered holder to purchase from Guest Supply one one-hundredth of a preferred share at a price of $30.00, subject to adjustment.

The rights agreement provides that, until the earlier to occur of (i) 10 days following a public announcement that a person or group of affiliated or associated persons have acquired beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the outstanding common stock, or (ii) 10 days following the commencement or announcement of an intention to make a tender offer or exchange offer, the completion of which would result in the beneficial ownership by a person or group of 20% or more of such outstanding common stock, the rights will be transferred with and only with the common stock.

Each holder of a right will in such event have the right to receive shares of Guest Supply's common stock having a market value of two times the exercise price of the right, which has been set at $30.00; and in the event that Guest Supply is acquired in a merger or other business combination, or if more than 50% of its assets or earning power is sold, each holder of a right would have the right to receive common stock of the acquiring company with a market value of two times the exercise price of the right. Following the occurrence of any of these events, any rights that are beneficially owned by any acquiring person will immediately become null and void.

The rights are not exercisable until the earlier of such date as described above and will expire on July 15, 2008, unless the final expiration date is extended or the rights are earlier redeemed by Guest Supply at $.01 per right. Guest Supply's Board of Directors has taken sufficient action to exempt the offer, the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement from the provisions of the rights plan.

LEGAL MATTERS

The legality of the shares of SYSCO common stock to be issued in the merger will be passed upon for SYSCO by Arnall Golden Gregory LLP. Jonathan Golden, a partner of Arnall Golden Gregory LLP, is a director of SYSCO. As of January 31, 2001, attorneys with Arnall Golden Gregory LLP beneficially owned an aggregate of approximately 160,000 shares of SYSCO common stock. Arnall Golden Gregory LLP and Torys will deliver their opinions to SYSCO and Guest Supply, respectively, as to certain federal income tax consequences of the merger. See "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences."

EXPERTS

The consolidated balance sheets of SYSCO Corporation and subsidiaries as of July 1, 2000 and July 3, 1999, and the related statements of consolidated results of operations, shareholders' equity and cash flows and financial statement schedule for each of the three years in the period ended July 1, 2000, incorporated by reference in this prospectus and elsewhere in the registration statement have been audited by Arthur Andersen LLP, independent public accountants, as indicated in their report with respect thereto, and are incorporated herein in reliance upon the authority of said firm as experts in giving said report.

With respect to the unaudited interim financial information of SYSCO Corporation and subsidiaries for the quarters ended December 30, 2000 and January 1, 2000 incorporated herein by reference, Arthur Andersen LLP has applied limited procedures in accordance with professional standards for a review of that information. However, their separate report thereon states that they did not audit and they do not express an opinion on that interim financial information. NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in this Agreement, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

THE OFFER AND MERGER

1.1 The Offer; Merger Election. (a) Provided that this Agreement shall not have been terminated in accordance with Section 7.1 and none of the events set forth in Annex A hereto shall be existing (other than paragraphs (g), (i) and (k) therein), Merger Sub shall, as promptly as practicable after the date hereof, but in no event later than ten (10) business days after the date hereof, commence (within the meaning of Rule 14d-2 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) the Offer. Each Share accepted by Merger

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

Sub in accordance with the Offer shall be exchanged for the right to receive from Merger Sub the consideration determined in accordance with Section 1.2(A) below (collectively, the "Offer Consideration"). The Offer shall be subject to the condition that there be validly tendered and not withdrawn prior to the expiration of the Offer such number of Shares which, when added to the Shares, if any, beneficially owned by Sysco or Merger Sub, would constitute a majority of the Shares outstanding on a fully diluted basis (the "Minimum Condition") and to the other conditions set forth in Annex A hereto (any of which may be waived in whole or in part by Merger Sub in its sole discretion except as otherwise provided herein). Sysco and Merger Sub shall comply with the obligations respecting prompt payment and announcement under the Exchange Act, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including but not limited to the conditions of the Offer, Merger Sub shall, and Sysco shall cause Merger Sub to, accept for payment and pay for Shares tendered pursuant to the Offer as soon as practicable after expiration thereof. The obligations of Merger Sub to consummate the Offer and to accept for payment and to pay for any Shares validly tendered on or prior to the expiration of the Offer and not withdrawn shall be subject only to the conditions set forth in Annex A hereto. Each of Sysco and Merger Sub expressly reserves the right to waive the conditions of the Offer and to amend any of the terms and conditions of the Offer; provided, that Merger Sub shall not without the prior written consent of the Company (such consent to be authorized by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Company Board") or a duly authorized committee thereof) (i) decrease the Offer Consideration, (ii) decrease the number of Shares sought, (iii) change the form of consideration to be paid pursuant to the Offer as set forth in Section 1.2 below, (iv) impose conditions to the Offer in addition to those set forth in Annex A hereto, (v) amend any other term or condition of the Offer in any manner adverse to the holders of the Shares, (vi) extend the expiration date of the Offer, or (vii) waive the Minimum Condition or the conditions set forth in subsection (f) or (h) of Annex A. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Merger Sub may, without the consent of the Company, (A) extend the Offer, if at the initial scheduled or any extended expiration date of the Offer any of the conditions of the Offer shall not be satisfied or waived, until such time as such conditions are satisfied or waived, (B) extend the Offer for any period required by any rule, regulation, interpretation or position of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") or the staff thereof applicable to the Offer, (C) extend the Offer for up to twenty (20) business days if there have not been validly tendered and not withdrawn prior to the expiration of the Offer such number of Shares that, together with Shares, if any, beneficially owned by Sysco or Merger Sub, would constitute at least 90% of the fully diluted Shares as of the date of determination, provided that all other conditions to the Offer are satisfied or waived and (D) extend the Offer for any reason for up to five (5) business days; provided, that no more than three extensions in the aggregate shall be permitted under clauses (C) and (D) of this sentence; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, unless this Agreement has been terminated pursuant to Section 7.1 and, subject to Section 1.1(c), Merger Sub shall extend the Offer from time to time in the event that, at a then-scheduled expiration date, all of the conditions to the Offer have not been satisfied or waived as permitted pursuant to this Agreement, each such extension not to exceed the lesser of ten (10) additional business days or such fewer number of days that Merger Sub reasonably believes is necessary to permit the conditions to the Offer to be satisfied. In addition, the Offer Consideration may be increased and the Offer may be extended to the extent required by law, in each case without the consent of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision herein to the contrary, in the event that the Minimum Condition has been satisfied and all other conditions set forth in Annex A have been satisfied or waived, then Merger Sub shall, and Sysco shall cause Merger Sub to, accept for payment and pay for all Shares tendered pursuant to the Offer and not withdrawn as soon as practicable after the date that all such conditions have been satisfied or waived, and nothing herein shall prohibit Merger Sub from making a subsequent offer for Shares not so purchased upon the consummation of the Offer subject to and in compliance with Rule 14d-11 of the Exchange Act (a "Subsequent Offer").

(b) As soon as practicable after the date of this Agreement, Sysco shall prepare and file with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-4 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), to register the offer and sale of Sysco Common Stock pursuant to the Offer and any Subsequent Offer (the "Form S-4"). The Form S-4 will include a preliminary prospectus containing the information required under Rule 14d-4(b) promulgated under the Exchange Act (the "Preliminary Prospectus"). As soon as practicable on the date of commencement of the Offer, Sysco and Merger Sub shall (i) file with the SEC a Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO with respect to the Offer and any Subsequent Offer (the "Schedule TO") which will contain or incorporate by reference all or part of the Preliminary Prospectus and form of the related letter of transmittal (together with any supplements or amendments thereto, collectively the "Offer Documents") and (ii) subject to the Company's compliance with Section 1.3(c), cause the Offer Documents to be disseminated to holders of Shares. Sysco, Merger Sub and the Company each agree promptly to correct any information provided by it for use in the Form S-4 or the Offer Documents if and to the extent that it shall have become false or misleading in any material respect. Sysco and Merger Sub agree to take all steps necessary to cause the Offer Documents as so corrected, and any other filings or documents, to be filed with the SEC and to be disseminated to holders of Shares, in each case as and to the extent required by applicable federal securities laws. Sysco further agrees that it shall cause the Offer Documents, Form S-4, and any other documents filed with the SEC, to comply in all material respects with the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, and other applicable laws. The Company and its counsel shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on the Schedule TO, the Form S-4 and the Offer Documents prior to its being filed with the SEC. In addition, Sysco agrees to provide the Company and its counsel in writing with any comments, whether written or oral, that Sysco or its counsel may receive from time to time from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Schedule TO, the Form S-4 and the Offer Documents promptly after the receipt of such comments or other communications.

(c) If, on April 30, 2001 (the "Final Expiration Date"), Merger Sub has not consummated the Offer in accordance with its terms, Merger Sub shall thereupon terminate the Offer (in accordance with all applicable laws) without the acceptance of any Shares previously tendered. If, at the Final Expiration Date, the Minimum Condition has not been satisfied, Merger Sub shall, unless Sysco and the Company otherwise agree, terminate the Offer, and the parties shall, subject to the terms and conditions hereof in accordance with all applicable laws, use all commercially reasonable efforts to consummate the Merger unless the Agreement has been terminated pursuant to Section 7.1(h).

(d) In the event that this Agreement has been terminated pursuant to Section 7.1, Merger Sub shall, and Sysco shall cause Merger Sub to, promptly terminate the Offer (in accordance with all applicable laws) without accepting any Shares for payment or exchange.

1.2(A) Offer Consideration. The consideration per Share due to each holder of Common Stock (a "Stockholder") in connection with the Offer (and any Subsequent Offer) is the "Offer Consideration" and shall be payable by Sysco in the form of shares of Sysco Common Stock as provided in subsection (a) below.

(a) In connection with the Offer (and any Subsequent Offer), the number of shares of Sysco Common Stock which each Stockholder is entitled to receive, and which Sysco shall issue, for each Share owned by a

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

Stockholder shall be determined by dividing $26.00 by the Average Sysco Offer Price (as defined in Section 1.2(A)(b) below).

(b) The "Average Sysco Offer Price" means the average of the closing prices of the Sysco Common Stock as reported on the NYSE Composite Reporting Tape (as reported in The Wall Street Journal, or, if not reported therein, any other authoritative source) on the fifteen (15) trading days ending on the date (the "Offer Determination Date") which is five (5) trading days immediately preceding the expiration date of the Offer as it may from time to time be extended in accordance with this Agreement; provided, however, notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that (x) such average is less than $22.00, then the Average Sysco Offer Price shall be $22.00 and (y) such average is more than $30.00, then the Average Sysco Offer Price shall be $30.00.

(B) Merger Consideration Upon Termination of Offer. In the event that the Offer has been terminated pursuant to Section 1.1(c) and the Agreement has not been terminated pursuant to Section 7.1, the parties shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to consummate the Merger in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The consideration per Share due to each Stockholder in connection with the Merger is the "Merger Consideration" and shall be payable as set forth in subsection (a) below. The Merger Consideration payable to the Stockholders in connection with the Merger upon such termination of the Offer shall be payable by Sysco in the form of shares of Sysco Common Stock.

(a) In the event that the Offer has been terminated pursuant to Section 1.1(c), in connection with the Merger the number of shares of Sysco Common Stock which each Stockholder is entitled to receive, and which Sysco shall issue, for each Share owned by a Stockholder shall be determined by dividing $26.00 by the Average Sysco Merger Price (as defined in Section 1.2(B)(b) below).

(b) The "Average Sysco Merger Price" means the average of the closing prices of the Sysco Common Stock as reported on the NYSE Composite Reporting Tape (as reported in The Wall Street Journal, or, if not reported therein, any other authoritative source) on the fifteen (15) trading days ending on the date (the "Merger Determination Date") which is five (5) trading days immediately preceding the date of the Stockholders Meeting (as defined in Section 1.12) for the Merger following a termination of the Offer pursuant to Section 1.1(c); provided, however, notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that (x) such average is less than $22.00, then the Average Sysco Merger Price shall be $22.00 and (y) such average is more than $30.00, then the Average Sysco Merger Price shall be $30.00. The Average Sysco Merger Price shall be used in determining Merger Consideration payable in connection with the Merger following the termination of the Offer pursuant to Section 1.1(c) and for no other purpose.

(C) Merger Consideration Upon Consummation of Offer. In the event that Merger Sub accepts for payment any Shares in the Offer, the parties shall consummate the Merger in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Merger Consideration payable to the Stockholders in connection with the Merger shall be payable by Sysco in the same form and same amount as the Offer Consideration and there shall be no calculation of the Average Sysco Merger Price.

1.3 Company Actions.

(a) The Company hereby consents to the Offer and represents that the

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

Company Board, at a meeting duly called and held, has unanimously (i) determined that this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Offer and the Merger, are advisable and are fair to and in the best interest of the Stockholders, (ii) approved this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Offer and the Merger, (iii) taken all steps, or will take all steps, at the proper time in connection with this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby, the Offer and the Merger, necessary to comply with any applicable state takeover law, including to ensure that the Offer and the Merger, and the transactions contemplated hereby, do not constitute a "takeover bid" under the New Jersey Shareholders Protection Act (NJSA 14A:10A-1 et seq.) and the New Jersey Corporation Takeover Bid Disclosure Law (NJSA 49:5-1 et seq.) (collectively, the "New Jersey Takeover Acts"), including, without limitation, taking the steps contemplated by the proviso in Section 4.28 hereof, (iv) taken all steps necessary to exempt the Offer (and any Subsequent Offer), the Merger and this Agreement from the Rights Agreement (as defined in Section 4.5), and (v) resolved to recommend acceptance of the Offer

(and any Subsequent Offer) and approval and adoption of this Agreement and the Merger by the Stockholders (the recommendations referred to in this clause (iv) are collectively referred to in this Agreement as the "Company Recommendations").

(b) As soon as practicable on the date the Offer Documents are filed with the SEC, the Company shall file with the SEC a Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 (together with all amendments and supplements thereto and including the exhibits thereto, the "Schedule 14D-9") containing the Company Recommendations, subject to the provisions of Section 7.1. At the time the Offer Documents are first mailed to the Stockholders, the Company shall mail or cause to be mailed to the Stockholders such Schedule 14D-9 together with such Offer Documents. The Company further agrees that it shall cause the Schedule 14D-9 to comply in all material respects with the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, and other applicable laws. The Company further agrees to take all steps reasonably necessary to cause the Schedule 14D-9 to be disseminated to holders of Shares, in each case as and to the extent required by applicable federal securities laws. Each of the Company, on the one hand, and Sysco and Merger Sub, on the other hand, agrees promptly to correct any information provided by it for use in the Schedule 14D-9 if and to the extent that it shall have become false and misleading in any material respect and the Company further agrees to take all steps necessary to cause the Schedule 14D-9 as so corrected to be filed with the SEC and to be disseminated to holders of the Shares, in each case as and to the extent required by applicable federal securities laws. Sysco and its counsel shall be given a reasonable opportunity to review the Schedule 14D-9 before it is filed with the SEC. In addition, the Company agrees to provide Sysco, Merger Sub and their counsel in writing with any comments, whether written or oral, that the Company or its counsel may receive from time to time from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Schedule 14D-9 promptly after the receipt of such comments or other communications.

(c) In connection with the Offer (and any Subsequent Offer) and the Merger, the Company shall promptly furnish or cause to be furnished to Merger Sub mailing labels, security position listings and any available listing or computer file containing the names and addresses of the record holders of the Shares as of a recent date, and shall furnish Merger Sub with such information and assistance as Merger Sub or its agents may reasonably request in communicating the Offer (and any Subsequent Offer) to the Stockholders. Except for such steps as are necessary to disseminate the Offer Documents, Sysco and Merger Sub shall hold in confidence the information contained in any of such labels and lists and the additional information referred to in the preceding sentence, will use such information only in connection with the Offer and the Merger, and, if this Agreement is terminated, will upon request of the Company deliver or cause to be delivered to the Company all copies of such information then in its possession or the possession of its agents or representatives.

1.4 Directors.

(a) Subject to compliance with the New Jersey Business Corporation Act (the "NJBCA"), the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and applicable law, promptly upon the payment for Shares by Merger Sub which represent at least a majority of the then outstanding shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Offer, the Company shall, at the request of Sysco, promptly use its commercially reasonable efforts to take all actions necessary to cause the Company Board to include such number of directors designated by Sysco, rounded up to the next whole number, as is equal to the product of the total number of directors on the Company Board (giving effect to the directors designated by Sysco pursuant to this sentence) multiplied by the percentage that the aggregate number of Shares beneficially owned by Merger Sub, Sysco and any of their affiliates (including Shares so accepted for payment) bears to the total number of shares of Common Stock then outstanding, including by accepting the resignations of such number of its incumbent directors as is necessary to enable Sysco's designees to be elected or appointed. At such times, the Company will cause individuals designated by Sysco to constitute the same percentage (rounded up to the nearest whole number) as such individuals represent on the Company Board of (A) each committee of the Company Board and (B) each board of directors (and committee thereof) of each Company Subsidiary in each case to the extent permitted by applicable law or the rules or applicable listing agreement of any stock exchange or over-the-counter market on which the Common Stock is listed or traded. Notwithstanding the foregoing, until the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.7 hereof), the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to retain as members of the Company Board at least two directors that are directors of the Company on the date hereof (the "Independent Directors"). The Company's obligations under this Section 1.4(a) shall be subject to Section 14(f) of the Exchange Act and Rule 14f-1 promulgated thereunder. The Company shall promptly take all actions, and shall include in the Schedule 14D-9 all information with respect to the Company and its officers and directors, required pursuant to such Section 14(f) and Rule 14f-1 in order to fulfill its obligations under this Section 1.4(a), including mailing to Stockholders the information required by such Section 14(f) and Rule 14f-1 as is necessary to enable Sysco's designees to be elected or appointed to the Company Board. Sysco or Merger Sub shall supply the Company any information with respect to either of them and their nominees, officers, directors and affiliates required by such Section 14(f) and Rule 14f-1. The provisions of this Section 1.4 are in addition to and shall not limit any rights which Merger Sub, Sysco or any of their Affiliates may have as a holder or beneficial owner of Shares as a matter of law with respect to the election of directors or otherwise.

(b) In the event that Sysco's designees are elected or appointed to the Company Board as aforesaid, until the Effective Time, the Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to maintain as members of the Company Board at least two directors who are Independent Directors, provided that, in such event, if the number of Independent Directors shall be reduced below two for any reason whatsoever, the remaining Independent Director, if any, shall be entitled to designate a person to fill such vacancy who shall be deemed to be an Independent Director for purposes of this Agreement or, if no Independent Director then remains, the other directors shall designate two persons to fill such vacancies who shall not be stockholders, Affiliates or associates of Sysco or Merger Sub, and each such person shall be deemed to be an Independent Director, for purposes of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that Sysco's designees constitute a majority of the directors on the Company Board (the effective date on which Sysco's designees constitute such a majority shall be hereinafter referred to as the "Control Date"), the affirmative vote of a majority of the Independent Directors shall be required after the acceptance for payment of Shares pursuant to the Offer and prior to the Effective Time, to (a) amend or terminate this Agreement by the Company, (b) exercise or waive any of the Company's rights, benefits or remedies hereunder if such exercise or waiver materially and adversely affects holders of Shares other than Sysco or Merger Sub, (c) take action with respect to the retention of counsel and other advisors in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby or (d) take any other action under or in connection with this Agreement if such action materially and adversely affects holders of Shares other than Sysco or Merger Sub; provided, that if there shall be no such directors, such actions may be effected by unanimous vote of the entire Company Board. The Independent Directors shall have the right to retain, at the expense of the Company, one separate firm of counsel and one investment banking firm to represent them in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby.

1.5 The Merger. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement, and in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL") and the relevant provisions of the NJBCA, Merger Sub shall be merged with and into the Company at the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.7). Following the Effective Time, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub shall cease and the Company shall be the surviving corporation of the Merger ("Surviving Corporation") and shall succeed to and assume all of the rights and obligations of Merger Sub and the Company in accordance with the NJBCA.

1.6 Closing. The closing of the Merger ("Closing") will take place at 10:00 a.m., Eastern time, on a date to be specified by the parties ("Closing Date"), which shall be no later than the tenth business day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article VI, unless another time or date is agreed to by the parties hereto. The Closing will be held at the offices of Torys, 237 Park Avenue, New York, NY, or such other location as may be agreed to by the parties hereto.

1.7 Effective Time. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, as soon as practicable on the Closing Date, the parties shall cause the Merger to be consummated by filing certificates of merger or other appropriate documents (in any such case, the "Certificates of Merger") executed in accordance with the relevant provisions of the DGCL and the relevant provisions of the NJBCA and shall make all other filings or recordings required under the DGCL and the NJBCA. The Merger shall become effective at such time as the Certificates of Merger are duly filed with, and declared effective by the Secretary of State of Delaware and the Secretary of State of New Jersey, or at such subsequent date or time as Sysco and the Company shall agree and specify in the Certificates of Merger (the time the Merger becomes effective being hereinafter referred to as the "Effective Time").

1.8 Statutory Effects of the Merger. The Merger shall have the effects set forth in Section 259 of the DGCL and Section 14A:10-6 of the NJBCA. The laws which are to govern the Surviving Corporation are the laws of the State of New Jersey.

1.9 Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. The Certificate of Incorporation (as amended by the amendments, if any, set forth in the Certificates of Merger) and Bylaws of the Company at the Effective Time shall be the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

1.10 Directors and Officers. The directors and officers of Merger Sub immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the initial directors and officers of the Surviving Corporation, each to hold office in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Surviving Corporation.

1.11 Subsequent Actions. If at any time after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will consider or be advised that any deeds, bills of sale, assignments, assurances or any other actions or things are necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise in the Surviving Corporation its right, title or interest in, to or under any of the rights, properties or assets of either of the Company or Merger Sub acquired or to be acquired by the Surviving Corporation as a result of, or in connection with, the Merger or otherwise to carry out this Agreement, the officers and directors of the Surviving Corporation shall be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of either the Company or Merger Sub, all such deeds, bills of sale, instruments of conveyance, assignments and assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of each of such corporations or otherwise, all such other actions and things as may be necessary or desirable to vest, perfect or confirm any and all right, title and interest in, to and under such rights, properties or assets in the Surviving Corporation or otherwise to carry out this Agreement.

1.12 Stockholders Meeting.

(a) If (x) required by applicable law in order to consummate the Merger following the payment for the Shares pursuant to the Offer, or (y) the Offer has been terminated pursuant to Section 1.1(c), the Company, acting through the Company Board, shall, in accordance with all applicable laws:

(i) duly call, give notice of, convene and hold a special meeting of its Stockholders (the "Stockholders Meeting") as soon as practicable following the acceptance for payment and purchase of Shares by Merger Sub pursuant to the Offer for the purpose of considering and taking action upon the approval of the Merger and the adoption of this Agreement;

(ii) (a) the Company shall prepare and file with the SEC a preliminary proxy or information statement relating to the Merger and this Agreement and shall obtain and furnish the information required to be included by the SEC in the Proxy Statement (as hereinafter defined) and, after consultation with Sysco, to respond promptly to any comments made by the SEC with respect to the preliminary proxy or information statement and cause a definitive proxy or information statement, including any amendment or supplement thereto (the "Proxy Statement"), to be mailed to its Stockholders, provided that no amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement will be made by the Company without consultation with Sysco and its counsel and (b) Sysco shall prepare and file with the SEC any amendments required to be filed, including a post-effective amendment, to the S-4 (the "Post-Effective Amendment"). The Company will advise Sysco, promptly after it receives notice thereof, of any request by the SEC for the amendment of the Proxy Statement or comments thereon and responses thereto or requests by the SEC for additional information. If at any time prior to the Effective Time any information relating to the Company or Sysco, or any of their respective affiliates, officers or directors, should be discovered by the Company or Sysco which should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to either of the Post-Effective Amendment or the Proxy Statement, so that any of such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party which discovers such information shall promptly notify the other parties hereto and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed with the SEC and, to the extent required by law, disseminated to the Stockholders.

(iii) include in the Proxy Statement the recommendation of the Company Board that Stockholders of the Company vote in favor of the approval of the Merger and the adoption of this Agreement; and

(iv) use its commercially reasonable efforts to solicit from holders of Shares proxies in favor of the Merger and shall take all other action necessary or, in the reasonable opinion of Sysco, advisable to secure any vote or consent of Stockholders required by the NJBCA to effect the Merger.

(b) Sysco agrees that it will provide the Company with the information concerning Sysco and Merger Sub required to be included in the Proxy Statement and will vote, or cause to be voted, all of the Shares then owned by it, Merger Sub or any of its other Merger Subsidiaries and Affiliates in favor of the approval of the Merger and the adoption of this Agreement.

1.13 Merger Without Meeting of Stockholders. Notwithstanding Section 1.12 hereof, in the event that Sysco, Merger Sub or any other subsidiary of Sysco shall acquire in the aggregate a number of the outstanding Shares, pursuant to the Offer or otherwise, sufficient to enable Merger Sub or the Company to cause the Merger to become effective under applicable law without a meeting of Stockholders, the parties hereto shall, at the request of Sysco and subject to Article VI hereof, take all necessary and appropriate action to cause the Merger to become effective as soon as practicable after such acquisition, without a meeting of Stockholders, in accordance with the NJBCA.

1.14 Terminated Offer. In the event the Offer is terminated pursuant to Section 1.1(c), the parties hereto shall complete the Merger consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement as amended by the terms and conditions contained in Annex B in lieu of Article VI contained herein, and in such event, upon such termination, this Agreement shall be deemed to be amended to incorporate the terms and conditions contained therein without any further action by Sysco, Merger Sub or the Company.

OPTIONS; EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

2.1 Stock Options. (a) At the Effective Time, each outstanding option to purchase shares of Common Stock (a "Company Stock Option") issued pursuant to any of the Company Stock Plans, whether vested or unvested, shall be assumed by Sysco. Each Company Stock Option shall be deemed to constitute an option to acquire, on the same terms and conditions as were applicable under such Company Stock Option, (i) the same number of whole shares of Sysco Common Stock as the holder of such Company Stock Option would have been entitled to receive pursuant to the Merger had such holder exercised such option in full immediately prior to the Effective Time, (ii) at a price per share (rounded up to the nearest whole cent) equal to (A) the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Common Stock otherwise purchasable pursuant to such Company Stock Option divided by (B) the number of whole shares of Sysco Common Stock deemed purchasable pursuant to such Company Stock Option; provided, however, that in the case of any Company Stock Option to which Section 421 of the Code applies by reason of its qualification under Section 422 of the Code ("incentive stock options"), the option price, the number of shares purchasable pursuant to such Company Stock Option and the terms and conditions of exercise of such Company Stock Option shall be determined in order to comply with Section 424(a) of the Code. As used herein, the term, "Company Stock Plan," shall mean and refer to (as the context requires) any of Long Term Incentive Plan, and the term "Company Stock Plans," shall mean and refer to all of such Plans collectively.

(b) As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Sysco shall deliver to the holders of Company Stock Options appropriate notices setting forth such holders' rights with respect to such Company Stock Options pursuant to the applicable Company Stock Plan and the certificates evidencing the grants of such Company Stock Options shall continue in effect on the same terms and conditions (subject to the adjustments required by Section 2.1(a) after giving effect to the Merger and the assumption by Sysco as set forth above). Sysco shall comply with the terms of the applicable Company Stock Plan and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to ensure, to the extent required by, and subject to the provisions of, such Plan, that Company Stock Options which qualified as incentive stock options prior to the Effective Time continue to qualify as incentive stock options of Sysco after the Effective Time.

(c) Sysco shall take all corporate action necessary to reserve for issuance a sufficient number of shares of Sysco Common Stock for delivery upon exercise of Company Stock Options assumed by it in accordance with Section 2.1(a). As soon as practicable, but in no event more than 20 days, after the Effective Time, Sysco shall file a registration statement on Form S-8 (or any successor or other appropriate form) with respect to the shares of Sysco Common Stock subject to such Company Stock Options assumed by Sysco as aforesaid, and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to maintain the effectiveness of such registration statement or registration statements (and maintain the current status of the prospectus or prospectuses referred to therein) for so long as such Company Stock Options remain outstanding.

(d) The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause all individuals holding options under the Company's 1993 Stock Option Plan to waive all of their respective rights under Section 5(k) of such plan effective from and after the Control Date pursuant to a waiver agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Sysco.

2.2 Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of Sysco Common Stock shall be issued in the Merger or the Offer. If a fractional share results from the calculations set forth in Section 1.2, a Stockholder shall receive an amount in cash in lieu of such fractional share, equal to such fraction multiplied by the Average Sysco Offer Price or, if the Offer has been terminated in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Average Sysco Merger Price.

2.3 Effect on Capital Stock. As of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of Sysco, Merger Sub, Guest Supply or the Stockholders:

(a) Conversion of Common Stock. Each issued and outstanding share of Common Stock shall be converted into solely the right to receive the Merger Consideration paid in connection with the consummation of the Merger and, each share of Common Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and retired and shall cease to exist, and each Stockholder shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration.

(b) Cancellation of Treasury Stock. Each share of Common Stock held in the treasury of the Company shall automatically be cancelled and extinguished and no Merger Consideration shall be paid with respect thereto.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

(c) Merger Sub Common Stock. Each share of common stock, par value $.001 per share, of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into one share of newly issued Common Stock and shall remain outstanding as a validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation.

(d) Sysco Common Stock. At and after the Effective Time, each share of Sysco Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding and shall not be affected by the Merger.

2.4 Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Exchange Agent. As of the Effective Time, Sysco shall enter into an agreement with Sysco's transfer agent or such other bank or trust company as may be designated by Sysco and reasonably satisfactory to the Company (the "Exchange Agent") which shall provide that Sysco shall deposit with the Exchange Agent as of the Effective Time, for the benefit of the Stockholders, for exchange in accordance with this Section 2.4 through the Exchange Agent, certificates representing the shares of Sysco Common Stock to be issued as the Merger Consideration (such shares of Sysco Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto with a record date after the Effective Time or cash payable in lieu of any fractional shares of Sysco Common Stock are collectively the "Exchange Fund").

(b) Exchange Procedures.

(i) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each Stockholder (A) a letter of transmittal ("Letter of Transmittal") (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss of the Common Stock shall pass, only upon delivery to the Exchange Agent of the certificates representing same (collectively, the "Certificates"), and shall be in such form and have such other provisions as Sysco and the Company may reasonably specify) and (B) instructions for use in surrendering the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration.

(ii) Upon surrender of a Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with the Letter of Transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, the holder of such Certificate shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor a certificate representing that number of whole shares of Sysco Common Stock which such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of Section 1.2 and cash in lieu of any fractional share of Sysco Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.2 and the Certificates so surrendered shall forthwith be cancelled.

(iii) If a surrendered Certificate is not registered in the transfer records of the Company under the name of the person surrendering such Certificate, the Merger Consideration may be delivered to the surrendering person only if such Certificate has been properly endorsed for transfer and the surrendering person pays any applicable transfer or other Taxes.

(iv) Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.4(b), each Certificate shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender the Merger Consideration.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

(c) Distributions with Respect to Unexchanged Shares. With respect to any unsurrendered Certificate, any interest, dividends or other distributions otherwise payable to the holder therefor shall be included in the Exchange Fund, in each case until the surrender of such Certificate in accordance with this Section 2.4. Subject to the effect of applicable escheat or similar laws, following surrender of any such Certificate there shall be paid to the holder of the Certificate: (i) a certificate representing whole shares of Sysco Common Stock issued in exchange therefor, (ii) the amount of dividends or other distributions without interest, with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Sysco Common Stock, and (iii) the amount of any cash payable in lieu of a fractional share of Sysco Common Stock to which such holder is entitled.

(d) Further Ownership Rights in Common Stock. All shares of Sysco Common Stock issued and cash paid upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates in accordance with the terms of this Section 2.4 shall be deemed in full satisfaction of all rights of the Stockholders pertaining to the shares of Common Stock theretofore represented by such Certificates, and there shall be no further registration of transfers on the stock transfer books of the Surviving Corporation of any shares of Common Stock other than pursuant to Section 2.2(d). If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to Sysco, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent for any reason, they shall be cancelled and exchanged as provided in this Section 2.4, except as otherwise provided by law.

(e) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund which remains undistributed to the holders of the Certificates for six months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Sysco, upon demand, and any holders of the Certificates who have not theretofore complied with this Section 2.4 shall thereafter look only to Sysco for payment of their claim for Merger Consideration.

(f) No Liability; Escheat. None of the Company, Sysco, the Surviving Corporation or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any person in respect of any shares of Sysco Common Stock, any dividends or distributions with respect thereto, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Sysco Common Stock or any other cash from the Exchange Fund, in each case delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(g) Investment of Exchange Fund. The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund, as directed by Sysco, on a daily basis. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to Sysco.

(h) Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such person of a bond in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent shall issue and pay to such person in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the applicable Merger Consideration.

2.5 Adjustment. If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, as the case may be, (i) the outstanding shares of Common Stock or Sysco Common Stock shall have been changed into a different number of shares or a different class by reason of any classification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares, or readjustment or a stock dividend thereon shall be declared with a record date within such period, or (ii) the Company shall have issued additional shares of Common Stock (other than upon the exercise or conversion of stock options, warrants or other convertible securities issued or granted prior to the date hereof) or Options or warrants to purchase the same, or securities convertible into the same, the number of shares of Sysco Common Stock issued as Offer Consideration or Merger Consideration, as the case may be, shall be adjusted to accurately reflect such change (it being acknowledged that the Company elsewhere herein covenants not to take any of the actions described in (i) or (ii) above).

2.6 Shares of Sysco Common Stock. The shares of Sysco Common Stock delivered as the Offer Consideration or Merger Consideration, as the case may be, are hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Sysco Shares." The Sysco Shares when issued to Stockholders shall be registered under the Securities Act and shall contain no restrictions by Sysco or Merger Sub other than, as to certain Affiliates, pursuant to Rules 144 and 145 of the Securities Act.

(x) do any act or omit to do any act which would cause a material breach of any material contract, commitment or obligation of Guest Supply.

3.5 No Negotiations. The Company hereby agrees that neither Guest Supply nor any of its officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, representatives or agents shall, directly or indirectly:

(i) solicit, initiate, entertain, encourage or respond to any inquiries or proposals that constitute or could reasonably be expected to lead to an Alternative Transaction, as defined below; provided, however, the Company shall not be in breach of this Section 3.5 for responses (but not to an Alternative Transaction) relating to the contested proxy solicitation initiated by BFMA Holding Corporation for the Company's 2001 Annual Meeting of Stockholders, so long as the Company does not breach the covenants of the fourth sentence of Section 3.8; or

(ii) negotiate, discuss or provide any non-public information to any third party in connection with an Alternative Transaction; or

(iii) from and after the date hereof until the termination of this Agreement and except as expressly permitted by the following provisions of this Section 3.5, permit any of its Subsidiaries to, and will not authorize any officer, director or employee of or any investment banker, attorney, accountant or other advisor or representative of, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to (and will instruct such persons not to), directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate or encourage the submission of a proposal for any Alternative Transaction (as hereinafter defined) or (ii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person (which includes a "person" as such term is defined in Section 13(d) (3) of the Exchange Act) (a "Third Party") other than Sysco, Merger Sub or any affiliate thereof any information with respect to, or take any other action knowingly to facilitate, any Alternative Transaction or any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Alternative Transaction; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Section 3.5(iii) or in Sections 3.5(i) or 3.5(ii) shall prohibit the Company Board from furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any Third Party that makes an unsolicited bona fide written proposal of an Alternative Transaction if, and only to the extent that (A) the Company Board, after consultation with legal counsel, determines in good faith that such action is necessary for the Company Board to comply with its fiduciary duties to the Stockholders under applicable law, (B) the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation, that such Alternative

Transaction would, if consummated, constitute or be reasonably likely to constitute a Superior Proposal (as hereinafter defined) and (C) prior to taking such action, the Company (x) provides notice to Sysco to the effect that it is taking such action (including, without limitation, the material terms and conditions thereof and the identity of the person making it) as promptly as practicable (but in no case later than 24 hours) after taking such action, (y) provides Sysco with a copy of any Alternative Transaction or amendments or supplements thereto and (z) receives from such Third Party an executed confidentiality agreement in reasonably customary form and in any event containing terms at least as stringent as those between Sysco and the Company. Subsequent to furnishing information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, any Third Party in accordance with this Section 3.5, the Company shall inform Sysco on a prompt basis of the status of any discussions or negotiations with such Third Party, and any material changes to the terms and conditions of such Alternative Transaction. Promptly after the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the Company will, and will cause its Subsidiaries to, and will instruct their respective officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, attorneys, accountants and other agents to, cease and terminate any existing activities, discussions or negotiations with any parties conducted heretofore with respect to any possible Alternative Transaction and shall notify each party that it, or any officer, director, investment advisor, financial advisor, attorney or other representative retained by it, has had discussions with during the 60 days prior to the date of this Agreement that the Company Board no longer seeks the making of any Alternative Transaction.

(iv) (x) withdraw or modify, or propose to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Sysco, the Company Recommendations or (y) approve or recommend an Alternative Transaction unless the Company Board, after consultation with legal counsel, determines in good faith that such action is necessary for the Company Board to comply with its fiduciary duties to the Stockholders under applicable Law; provided, however, the Company Board may not approve or recommend (and in connection therewith, withdraw or modify the Company Recommendations) an Alternative Transaction unless (i) such Alternative Transaction is a Superior Proposal, (ii) the Company Board shall have first consulted with legal counsel and have determined that such action is necessary for the Company Board to comply with its fiduciary duties to the Stockholders, (iii) the Company Board has provided written notice to Sysco (a "Notice of Superior Proposal") advising Sysco that the Company Board has received a Superior Proposal, specifying the material terms and conditions of such Superior Proposal and identifying the person making such Superior Proposal, and (iv) two business days have elapsed after Sysco's receipt of the Notice of Superior Proposal and Sysco has not made an offer such that the Company Board determines in its good faith judgment (after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation and consultation with legal counsel) that the Alternative Transaction is not a Superior Proposal. If Sysco makes an offer as contemplated by clause (iv) of the preceding sentence, upon the Company's request Sysco shall execute an amendment to this Agreement to implement the terms contemplated by such offer.

Nothing contained in this Section 3.5 shall prohibit the Company from taking and disclosing to the Stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act or from making any disclosure to the Stockholders which, in the good faith reasonable judgment of the Company Board, after consultation with legal counsel, is required under applicable law; provided, that except as otherwise permitted in this Section 3.5, the Company shall not withdraw or modify, or propose to withdraw or modify, the Company Recommendations or approve or recommend, or propose to approve or recommend, an Alternative Transaction. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, any action by the Company Board permitted by, and taken in accordance with, this Section 3.5 shall not constitute a breach of this Agreement by the Company. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary but subject to the proviso contained in the first sentence of Section 3.5(iii) hereof, nothing in this Agreement shall (x) limit the Company Board's ability to make any disclosure to the Stockholders that the Company Board determines in good faith (after consultation with legal counsel) is required to be made to satisfy its fiduciary duties under applicable law or (y) limit the Company's ability to make any disclosure required by applicable law, and such actions shall not be considered a breach of this Agreement.

(v) For all purposes of this Agreement, "Alternative Transaction" means the occurrence of any of the following events: (i) the acquisition of the Company by merger or otherwise by any Third Party, (ii) the acquisition by a Third Party of 20% or more of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, (iii) the acquisition by a Third Party of 20% or more of the outstanding Shares or the issuance by the Company of capital stock containing terms which are inconsistent with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (iv) the adoption by the Company of a plan of liquidation or the declaration or payment by the Company of an extraordinary dividend representing 20% or more of the value of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole or (v) the repurchase by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries of more than 20% of the outstanding Shares.

For all purposes of this Agreement, a "Superior Proposal" means any bona fide written unsolicited proposal of an Alternative Transaction (except that, for purposes of the definition of Superior Proposal, 50% shall be substituted for 20% wherever it appears in the definition of Alternative Transaction) that the Company Board determines in its good faith judgment (after consultation with a financial advisor of nationally recognized reputation and consultation with legal counsel) (i) would result in a transaction, if consummated, that would be superior to the Stockholders from a financial point of view as compared to the transactions contemplated hereby and any alternative proposed by Sysco or Merger Sub in accordance with Section 3.5(iv) and (ii) to be reasonably capable of being consummated in accordance with its terms (including that any financing required to consummate the transaction contemplated by such proposal is capable of being, and is reasonably likely to be, obtained), in each case taking into account all factors the Company Board considers relevant, including all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal by the Third Party. Any change in the terms of an Alternative Transaction shall be deemed to constitute a new Alternative Transaction hereunder, subject to all of the applicable provisions of this Section 3.5.

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

The Company shall notify Sysco promptly if it or, to its knowledge, any of its officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, Stockholders, representatives, agents, or Affiliates receives any indications of interest, requests for non-public information or offers in respect of an Alternative Transaction, and will communicate to Sysco in reasonable detail the terms of any such indication, request or proposal, and will provide Sysco with copies of all written communications relating to any such indication, request or proposal. The Company represents that it is not party to or bound by any agreement with respect to an Alternative Transaction other than this Agreement.

3.6 Expenses.

(a) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all of the expenses incurred by Sysco and Merger Sub in connection with the authorization, negotiation, preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement and other agreements referred to herein, including, without limitation, all fees and expenses of agents, representatives, brokers, counsel and accountants for Sysco, and Merger Sub, shall be paid by Sysco.

(b) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, all expenses incurred by Guest Supply in connection with the authorization, negotiation, preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement and the other agreements referred to herein, including without limitation, all fees and expenses of agents, representatives, brokers, counsel and accountants for Guest Supply shall be paid by Guest Supply. Guest Supply shall be solely responsible for paying the fees owed to U.S. Bancorp Piper Jaffray ("Piper Jaffray") incurred in connection with this transaction. Guest Supply shall be solely responsible for paying any and all sales, use and transfer taxes incurred in connection with the transactions described herein.

3.7 Notification of Certain Matters. The Company shall give prompt notice to Sysco of the following:

(a) The occurrence or nonoccurrence of any event of which it obtains knowledge whose occurrence or nonoccurrence would be reasonably likely to cause either (A) a material breach of any representation or warranty of the Company contained in this Agreement at any time from the date hereof to the Control Date, or (B) directly or indirectly, any Material Adverse Effect. The term "Material Adverse Effect" means any change in or effect that is or may reasonably be expected to be materially adverse to the operations, condition (financial or otherwise) or assets of Guest Supply, or the Business, in either case, taken as a whole, provided, however, that the term "Material Adverse Effect" shall not include any change or effect to the extent attributable to the matters set forth on Schedule 3.7. Sysco's knowledge of any facts obtained by Sysco prior to the date hereof or disclosed herein that may give rise after the date hereof to a Material Adverse Effect shall not affect whether or not a Material Adverse Effect shall have occurred.

(b) Any material failure by the Company to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it hereunder.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 3.7 shall not limit or otherwise affect the remedies available hereunder to Sysco upon receiving such notice.

3.8 Confidentiality and Public Announcements. Until the disclosure contemplated by the next following sentence is made, the parties hereto each agree to, and to direct their respective directors, officers, employees, representatives and agents with a need to know such information to, maintain the confidentiality of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, unless disclosure is required by applicable federal or state laws or regulations or common law. Further, the parties hereto agree to announce the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement simultaneously at a mutually agreeable time as promptly as practicable after the execution and delivery of this Agreement (except as required by applicable law). The content of all announcements and publicity relating to this Agreement will be subject to the mutual approval of the Company and Sysco (except as otherwise required by law), which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed. Guest Supply shall, and shall cause its representatives to, maintain the confidentiality of all non-public information concerning Sysco (other than such information which becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by Guest Supply) which becomes known by Guest Supply or such representatives solely as a result of the negotiation or consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and shall promptly return and cause its agents and representatives to return to Sysco all written materials containing such information in the event that the Closing does not occur within the time limit herein provided for. Without limiting the terms and conditions of the Confidentiality Agreement dated September 19, 2000 between Sysco and the Company, Sysco shall, and shall cause its representatives to, maintain the confidentiality of all non-public information concerning Guest Supply (other than such information which becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of disclosure by Sysco) which becomes known by Sysco or such representatives solely as a result of its due diligence investigations or efforts conducted prior to or after the date hereof or the negotiation or consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and shall promptly return, and cause its agents and representatives to return, to Guest Supply all written materials containing such information in the event that the Closing does not occur within the time limit herein provided for. Nothing contained herein shall limit the right of any such persons to disclose any such information to its subsidiaries, employees, agents, representatives, counsel, accountants, financial advisors, underwriters and sources of financing (and their counsel and accountants) for the purpose of facilitating the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

3.9 Tax Matters.

5.2 Power and Authority; Due Authorization. Sysco and Merger Sub have full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and each of the agreements, documents and instruments referenced in this Agreement to which Sysco or Merger Sub is or will be a party ("Sysco Companies' Transaction Documents") and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The Boards of Directors of Sysco and Merger Sub have duly approved and authorized the execution and delivery of this Agreement and each of the Sysco Companies' Transaction Documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby, and no other corporate proceedings or approvals on the part of Sysco and Merger Sub are necessary to approve and authorize the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the Sysco Companies' Transaction Documents and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. Assuming that this Agreement and each of the Sysco Companies' Transaction Documents constitutes a valid and binding agreement of the Company, this Agreement and each of the Sysco Companies' Transaction Documents constitutes, or will constitute when executed and delivered, a valid and binding agreement of Sysco and Merger Sub, in each case enforceable against Sysco and Merger Sub in accordance with its terms, subject to laws of general application in effect affecting creditors' rights and subject to the exercise of judicial discretion in accordance with general equitable principles.

5.3 No Conflict. Assuming all consents, approvals, authorizations, and other actions listed on Schedule 5.3 have been obtained or taken prior to the date hereof or Closing as indicated thereon, the execution and delivery by Sysco and Merger Sub of this Agreement, the Sysco Companies' Transaction Documents and the consummation by Sysco and Merger Sub of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby do not and will not (a) require the consent, approval or action of, or any filing or notice to, any corporation, firm, person or other entity or any public, governmental or judicial authority; (b) violate the terms of any instrument, document or agreement to which Sysco or Merger Sub is a party, or by which Sysco or Merger Sub or the properties of Sysco or Merger Sub is bound, or be in conflict with, result in a breach of or constitute (upon the giving of notice or lapse of time, or both) a default under any such instrument, document or agreement; (c) violate Sysco's or Merger Sub's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws; or (d) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, judgment, ruling, law or regulation of any Governmental Authority applicable to Sysco or Merger Sub, or the business or assets of Sysco or Merger Sub.

5.5 Offer Consideration and Merger Consideration. The Sysco Shares, when issued and delivered to the Stockholders pursuant to the Offer or the Merger, as the case may be, in accordance with this Agreement, will be duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Sysco Common Stock. Upon delivery of the Sysco Shares, Stockholders will receive good and unencumbered title to the Sysco Shares, free and clear of all liens, restrictions, charges, encumbrances and other security interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, except for restrictions existing under applicable securities laws regarding transferability of the Sysco Shares and the restrictions imposed in this Agreement. Sysco shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Sysco Shares to be approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"), subject to official notice of issuance prior to the delivery of the Shares to the Stockholders.

the case of the Proxy Statement, at the time of the Stockholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading. The Offer Documents the Form S-4 and the Post-Effective Amendment will comply as to form in all material respects with the requirements of all applicable laws, including the Securities Act and the Exchange Act, as applicable, and the rules and regulations thereunder. No representation or warranty is made by Sysco or Merger Sub with respect to statements made or incorporated by reference therein based on information supplied by the Company for inclusion or incorporation by reference therein.

5.7 SEC Filings. (a) Sysco has filed all forms, reports and documents required to be filed by Sysco with the SEC since January 1, 1998, and has made available to the Company such forms, reports and documents in the form filed with the SEC. All such required forms, reports and documents (including those that Sysco may file subsequent to the date hereof) are referred to herein as the "Sysco SEC Reports." As of their respective dates, the Sysco SEC Reports (i) were prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act, or the Exchange Act, as the case may be, and the rules and regulations of the SEC thereunder applicable to such Sysco SEC Reports and (ii) did not at the time they were filed (or if amended or superseded by a filing prior to the date of this Agreement, then on the date of such filing) contain any untrue statement or a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, except to the extent corrected prior to the date of this Agreement by a subsequently filed Sysco SEC Report.

5.8 Absence of Certain Changes or Events. Except as disclosed in the Sysco SEC filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement, there has not been any event, occurrence or development of a state of circumstances that has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material

Prior to the date hereof, Sysco has delivered to the Company copies of the unaudited consolidated statement of earnings of Sysco dated as of December 30, 2000 for the thirteen (13) week and twenty-six (26) week periods then ended (collectively, the "Sysco Historical Financials"). The Sysco Historical Financials have been prepared in accordance with GAAP (except for the absence of footnotes required by GAAP) and fairly present in all material respects the consolidated statement of earnings of Sysco for the periods then ended.

5.10 Brokers' Fees and Expenses. Neither Sysco nor Merger Sub has retained or utilized in the services of any broker, finder or intermediary, or paid or agreed to pay any fee or commission to any person or entity for or on account of the transactions contemplated hereby, or had any communications with any person or entity with respect thereto, which, in any case, obligate Guest Supply to pay any such fees or commissions.

5.11 Full Disclosure. Except as disclosed in the Sysco SEC Reports filed and publicly available prior to the date of this Agreement, since September 30, 2000, there has not been any event, occurrence or development or a state of circumstances that has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition or results of operations of Sysco. Copies of all documents with respect to Sysco or its ongoing business or financial condition which have been delivered or made available to the Company are true, correct and complete copies thereof.

5.12 No Ownership of Company Capital Stock. As of the date hereof, neither Sysco nor Merger Sub owns any shares of Common Stock or has the right to acquire any equity interest in the Company other than pursuant to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6

CONDITIONS TO CONSUMMATION OF THE MERGER

6.4 No Illegality. No federal or state statute, rule, regulation or injunction shall have been enacted, entered, promulgated or enforced by any court or governmental authority which is in effect and has the effect of making the transactions contemplated hereby illegal or otherwise prohibiting the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.5 Form S-4. Form S-4 or the Post-Effective Amendment, as the case may be, shall have become effective under the Securities Act and shall not be the subject of any stop order or proceeding seeking a stop order, if any.

ARTICLE 7

TERMINATION; TERMINATION FEES

7.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated (and, in the case of subsection (h) below, shall be terminated) at any time before the Closing Date (notwithstanding any approval of the Merger and adoption of this Agreement by the Stockholders):

(a) by mutual written consent of Sysco and the Company; or

(b) by Sysco if, prior to the acceptance for payment of any Shares under the Offer, (i) there occurs in respect of the Company or the Business, a Material Adverse Effect or (ii) there has been a breach by the Company of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement that is not curable and such breach would give rise to a failure of the condition set forth in (a) or (b) of Annex A hereof; in either case provided that Sysco is not then in breach in any material respect of any of its obligations under this Agreement; or

(c) by the Company if, prior to the acceptance for payment of any Shares under the Offer, (i) there has been a material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement on the part of Sysco, provided that the Company is not then in breach in any material respect of any of its obligations under this Agreement; or

(d) by the Company or Sysco (only if no Shares were purchased by Merger Sub pursuant to the Offer) if the Merger has not been consummated by August 31, 2001, provided that the party seeking to exercise such right is not then in breach in any material respect of any of its obligations under this Agreement; or

(e) by either Sysco or the Company if a Stockholders Meeting is required under the NJBCA and the Merger shall fail to receive the requisite vote for approval at the Stockholders Meeting; or

(f) by the Company, prior to acceptance for payment of any Shares under the Offer, in order to enter into a definitive written agreement with respect to an Alternative Transaction with a Third Party, provided that, prior to entering into such definitive agreement, the Company shall have given Sysco notice of such Alternative Transaction as required by Section 3.5 and is otherwise not prohibited by Section 3.5 from entering into such agreement; or

(g) by Sysco if a Triggering Event shall have occurred.

For purposes of this Agreement, a "Triggering Event" shall be deemed to have occurred if, (i) the Company Board or any committee thereof shall have approved or recommended to the Stockholders any Alternative Transaction, (ii) the Company Board or any committee thereof shall for any reason have withdrawn or shall have amended or modified in a manner adverse to Sysco the Company Recommendations; (iii) the Company shall have failed to include in the Offer Documents, the Schedule 14D-9 or the Post-Effective Amendment the Company Recommendations; or (iv) a tender or exchange offer relating to 40% or more of the Shares shall have been commenced by a person unaffiliated with Sysco, and Company shall not have sent to its Stockholders pursuant to Rule 14e-2 promulgated under the Securities Act, within 10 business days after such tender or exchange offer is first published sent or given, a statement disclosing that the Company recommends rejection of such tender or exchange offer.

(h) This Agreement shall automatically terminate, without any action on the part of Sysco, Merger Sub or the Company, if there shall be validly tendered at the Final Expiration Date such number of Shares which, when added to the Shares, if any, owned by Sysco or Merger Sub, would constitute less than thirty five percent (35%) of the Shares outstanding on a fully diluted basis.

Sysco shall not have the right to terminate this Agreement as a result of or arising out of any action taken by the Company or its officers, directors, employees, investment bankers, representatives or agents in connection with the contested proxy solicitation involving the Company's 2001 Annual Meeting of Stockholders that is not in breach of any provision hereof.

7.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) Termination Fee. The Company shall pay to Sysco in cash the sum of $5,500,000 ("Termination Fee") plus all reasonable out-of-pocket fees and expenses incurred by Sysco in connection with this Agreement, including, without limitation, all filing fees with all Governmental Authorities, reasonable out-of-pocket legal fees and expenses incurred by Sysco for accounting advice and environmental due diligence if:

(i) within four (4) months after the date of this Agreement, the Company receives a proposal for an Alternative Transaction (including the commencement of a tender offer made directly to the Stockholders) from any person or entity (other than Sysco or its Affiliates) and such Alternative Transaction (including such tender offer) is consummated within twelve (12) months after the date of this Agreement (a "Covered Alternative Transaction"); or

(ii) (A) this Agreement is terminated by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(f), or (B) this Agreement is terminated by Sysco pursuant to Section 7.1(g).

(b) Timing of Payment of Termination Fee. The Termination Fee shall be due and payable to Sysco within ten (10) days of the first to occur of (i) the consummation of a Covered Alternative Transaction and (ii) the events set forth in Section 7.2(a)(ii).

(c) Effect of Termination. Termination of this Agreement pursuant to

Edgar Filing: SYSCO CORP - Form S-4/A

Section 7.1 shall terminate all obligations and liabilities of the parties to each other hereunder, except for the obligations under Sections 3.6, 3.8, 7.2(a), 7.2(b) and 8.14 hereof.

(d) Sole and Exclusive Remedy. Each party hereto acknowledges and agrees that such party's sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any losses, liabilities, costs, expenses or damages of any kind and all claims for any breach or liability under this Agreement or otherwise relating to the subject matter hereof and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be solely in accordance with, and limited by, Section 7.1, subsections (a), (b) and (c) of Section 7.2 and Section 8.17 hereof, provided, however, if all conditions to the obligations to the applicable party hereto at Closing contained in Article 6, Annex A or Annex B, as applicable, have been satisfied (or waived by the party entitled to waive such conditions) and such party does not proceed with the Closing, all remedies available to the other party, at law or in equity, on account of such failure to close, shall be preserved including, without limitation, specific performance. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the parties hereto agree that the payment provided for in Section 7.2(a) shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of Sysco and the Merger Sub upon termination of this Agreement under the circumstances set forth in Section 7.2(a) and such remedies shall be limited to the sum stipulated in Section 7.2(a) regardless of the circumstances (including willful or deliberate conduct) giving rise to such termination. The provisions of this Section 7.2 shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 8

1. Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

2. That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of
