SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

The cost of preparing, assembling, printing and mailing this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy form and the cost of soliciting proxies related to the annual meeting will be borne by the Company. The Company will request banks and brokers to solicit their customers who are beneficial owners of shares of common stock listed of record in names of nominees, and will reimburse those banks and brokers for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of the solicitation. The original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, telegram and personal solicitation by officers and other regular employees of the Company and its subsidiaries, but no additional compensation will be paid to those individuals on account of their activities. In addition, the Company has retained Morrow & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies, for which it will be paid a fee of $2,500 plus reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. Communication With Directors

The board of directors does not provide a formal process by which stockholders may send communications to the board of directors. The Company is small and 64.2% of its voting securities are owned by a single stockholder. Consequently, the board of directors does not believe it is necessary to formalize such a communication process. However, stockholders may communicate with the Company or request information at any time by contacting Ms. Mary Doyle, Vice President Investor Relations at 800.225.0135.

The board of directors as a whole performs the functions of the compensation committee. References to the Company's compensation committee in this proxy statement refer to the board of directors, acting in its capacity as the compensation committee.

During 2004, Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti served on the board of directors of Hallwood Realty, LLC, the general partner of HRP and on the board of directors of HEC. For HRP, the audit committee of the board of directors served as the compensation committee, Mr. Gumbiner was the Chief Executive Officer and Mr. Guzzetti was the Chief Operating Officer.

As general partner of HRP, Hallwood Realty, LLC earned an asset management fee from HRP, which amounted to $335,000 for the year ended December 31, 2004. In addition, HRP reimbursed Hallwood Realty, LLC $4,430,000 for costs incurred by Hallwood Realty, LLC on behalf of HRP during the year ended December 31, 2004. As property manager for HRP, the Company's HCRE subsidiary received management fees, leasing commissions and other fees from HRP and related parties of $2,479,000 during the year ended December 31, 2004. In addition, HRP reimbursed HCRE $2,135,000 for costs incurred by HCRE on behalf of HRP during the year ended December 31, 2004. HRP was merged with HRPT Properties Trust in July 2004.

Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti are also members of the board of directors and executive officers of each of the Energy Affiliates. During 2004, the Company invested a total of $10,443,000 in the Energy Affiliates on the same terms as other affiliated and nonaffiliated investors. In addition, Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti received compensation from HEC, as described in this proxy statement.

Since December 31, 1996, the Company has been a party to an agreement with HIL under which HIL provides international consulting and advisory services to the Company and its affiliates. The agreement currently provides for an annual fee of $996,000 ($954,000 prior to March 1, 2005). According to this agreement, the Company reimburses HIL for reasonable and necessary expenses in providing office space and administrative services used by Mr. Gumbiner. For the year ended December 31, 2004, HIL was also reimbursed $497,000, of which $324,000 was paid by the Company and $173,000 was paid by Hallwood Realty, LLC, as the general partner of HRP, for services rendered to HRP.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORTS ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

General

The Company is a holding company with several subsidiaries and affiliated companies. Of the Named Executive Officers, Mr. Gumbiner was involved in the activities of all of the subsidiaries and affiliated companies, but received no salary directly from the Company. HIL, with which Mr. Gumbiner is associated, received consulting fees from the Company. The independent members of Company's board of directors approved the payments by the Company to HIL. HIL was also involved in the activities of Hallwood Realty, LLC and HCRE during 2004. The bonus paid to HIL by Hallwood Realty, LLC and HRP was determined by the board of directors of Hallwood Realty, LLC. The bonus paid to HIL by HCRE was determined by the board of HCRE, subject to the approval of independent members of Company's board of directors.

Mr. Guzzetti was involved in the activities of Hallwood Realty, LLC and HCRE prior to their sale in July 2004. The compensation of Mr. Guzzetti by Hallwood Realty, LLC was determined by the board of directors of Hallwood Realty, LLC. Mr. Guzzetti's compensation from HCRE was determined by the board of HCRE, subject to the approval of Company's board of directors, acting in its capacity as the compensation committee and his compensation from the Company was determined by the Company's board of directors.

Mr. Melle is involved in the activities of the Company and of certain subsidiaries and affiliated companies, but for 2004 received compensation only from the Company. Accordingly, the compensation of Mr. Melle is determined solely by the Company's board of directors.

Ms. Brookman is involved in and receives compensation only from Brookwood. The compensation for her services is determined by the board of directors of Brookwood, with the approval of Mr. Gumbiner, the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Compensation by the Company

The Company's board of directors, acting in its capacity as the compensation committee, annually determines the compensation paid by the Company to its executive officers and bases the amount of compensation on the board of directors' determination of the reasonable compensation for that officer. The members of the board of directors, through their business experience, are generally aware of prevailing compensation practices and regularly review and remain informed about the recent financial and operating experience of the Company. Based on this experience and review, the board of directors establishes compensation that it believes to be appropriate for each officer. In general, a substantial portion of the executive officers' compensation from the Company has been paid as salary, although from time to time the Company has awarded substantial bonuses upon completion of significant transactions that provide material benefits to the Company.

Mr. Gumbiner does not receive a salary from the Company. Pursuant to a consulting agreement entered into in 1997, HIL, with which Mr. Gumbiner is associated, receives consulting fees from the Company and reimbursement of out-of-pocket business expenses incurred in the performance of its duties. See Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation. The fees under the consulting agreement had previously been set at $795,000 annually. In March 2004, the members of the board of directors other than Mr. Gumbiner approved an amendment to the consulting agreement to set these fees at $954,000. In approving the amendment, the Board considered that Mr. Gumbiner lives in Europe but that the fees were paid in U.S. dollars, which had declined significantly against the Euro, effectively reducing the value of the fees paid. The Board therefore determined that the increase in fees was appropriate.

In September 2004, the Company paid special bonuses in the amount of $3,000,000 to HIL; $1,908,000 to Mr. Gumbiner and $1,622,000 to Mr. Guzzetti in recognition of benefits to the Company and its stockholders over an extended period of time regarding the operation and sale of the Company's investment in HRP. In April 2005, the Company paid $600,000 to Mr. Guzzetti as special bonus compensation in recognition of benefits to the Company and its stockholders regarding the disposition of the Company's interest in HEC. These bonuses were approved by a committee of the board of directors, consisting solely of the independent members of the Board after receiving advice from an independent consultant that the bonuses were reasonable and within the boundaries of competitive practice. The committee also concluded that the bonuses were reasonable and in the best interests of the Company in light of several factors, including that the Company had received a substantial benefit from the real estate operations and the Company's interest in HEC over a number of years; the compensation philosophy of the Company includes the concept of paying substantial bonuses upon the completion of significant transactions and the increase in the value of the Company's stock over the recent past. The committee also took into account the compensation that Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti had received from the Company's Energy Affiliates and the fact that the bonuses would not be deductible by the Company.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 provides that certain compensation in excess of $1,000,000 paid to the chief executive officer and the other four most highly compensated executive officers of a public company (determined as of the last day of the company's tax year) is not deductible for federal income tax purposes. While the tax impact of any compensation arrangement is one factor considered by the board in determining compensation, the impact of that factor is evaluated in light of the Company's overall compensation goals. Accordingly, from time to time, the board may award compensation that is not fully deductible if it determines that such an award is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. Specifically, in making the awards described above, the independent members of the board determined that the awards were appropriate notwithstanding that the amounts that exceeded $1,000,000 total compensation from the Company to the individual were not deductible by the Company.

Prior to the merger of HRP in July 2004, Hallwood Realty, LLC had contracted with HCRE to manage the properties controlled by Hallwood Realty, LLC. Mr. Guzzetti was the president and was primarily responsible for the operations of HCRE. HCRE's Executive Incentive Plan authorized HCRE to pay annual cash bonuses in an amount up to 10% of HCRE's net operating income for the prior year. The actual amount to be paid and the allocation of the total amount to individual employees was recommended by Mr. Gumbiner, the chief executive officer of HCRE, and was approved by the board of directors of HCRE, which consisted of Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti. Amounts paid to HIL and Mr. Guzzetti, an executive officer of the Company, were subject to the approval of the Company's board of directors.

Compensation by Hallwood Realty, LLC

Prior to the merger of HRP in July 2004, the compensation paid by Hallwood Realty, LLC to HIL and Mr. Guzzetti was determined by the audit committee of the board of directors of Hallwood Realty, LLC in consultation with Mr. Guzzetti, the president of Hallwood Realty, LLC. The compensation was authorized by the entire board of directors upon the approval and recommendation of the audit committee. The compensation paid by Hallwood Realty, LLC consisted of a salary for Mr. Guzzetti, and to the extent that Hallwood Realty, LLC's board of directors determined it to be appropriate, bonuses to Mr. Guzzetti and HIL based on their determination that Hallwood Realty, LLC or HRP had experienced favorable operating results or completed transactions that benefited Hallwood Realty, LLC or HRP. For 2004, the board of directors did not consider any changes in Mr. Guzzetti's salary.

Compensation by Energy Affiliates

In 2001, a company then named Hallwood Energy Corporation, in which the Company held common and preferred stock, was acquired by a third party and, as a result, the Company disposed of all of its energy interests. During 2002, a group of investors formed HEC as a new energy company to explore a potential opportunity in the Barnett Shale zone of the Fort Worth Basin. This entity was originally capitalized with contributions of $6.2 million. The Company elected to contribute approximately 28% of this amount at the same price as the other affiliated and unaffiliated investors, including Mr. Guzzetti and the outside directors of the Company at that time. The cash of HEC was anticipated to be limited. Therefore, to induce the management of HEC to exert their best efforts on behalf of HEC at a lower salary than they had previously received from old Hallwood Energy Corporation, HEC granted to each of the members of management, including Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti, options to purchase 4% of the stock of HEC outstanding from time to time. The total amount invested in HEC by the Company through the date of its sale was $6,063,000.

In June 2004, HEC sold approximately 48% of its total net acreage to HE III, the interests of which were held pro rata by the HEC shareholders, including the Company. In December 2004 HEC was sold in a transaction in which the Company received total cash proceeds of $54,180,000. The Company also received its proportionate share of the HE III debt in the amount of $1,995,000 and its proportionate interest in the entity that holds the Worthington salt water disposal well in the amount of $1,250,000, both of which were contributed to HE III as additional capital contributions. In connection with this transaction, the investors and option holders in HEC received in the aggregate cash of approximately $239,000,000. As holders of options to purchase 4% of the outstanding stock, each of Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti received as consideration for cancellation of their options their pro rata share of the proceeds, of which each amounted to $9,582,556.

During 2004, the Company has also invested, along with other affiliated and unaffiliated investors, in the other Energy Affiliates. The Company's interest in these entities is approximately 16% to 22% on a fully diluted basis. Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti are directors and officers of each of these entities and, in that capacity during 2004, Mr. Guzzetti received a total salary of $125,000 from the new entities, as determined from time to time by the board of directors of those entities. During 2004, the boards of directors of the Energy Affiliates also awarded to each of Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti the right to receive up to 4% of the profits generated by those entities. Because the Company is a minority investor in the Energy Affiliates, the Company's board of directors did not participate in the Energy Affiliates' determination of compensation paid to Messrs. Gumbiner and Guzzetti.

Compensation by Brookwood

Ms. Brookman's compensation is determined by the board of directors of Brookwood. As described in Employment Agreements, during 2004, Brookwood had a compensation letter with Ms. Brookman and the board of directors of Brookwood did not consider any changes in that Letter. None of the directors of the Company are directors or officers of Brookwood.

Report of the Audit Committee

The audit committee is composed of three directors and operates under an Amended and Restated Audit Committee Charter, adopted by the board of directors according to the rules and regulations of the SEC and the American Stock Exchange, a copy of which is attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex A. The audit committee members are Charles A. Crocco, Jr. (Chairman), A. Peter Landolfo and M. Garrett Smith. The board of directors has determined that each of the members is independent, as defined by the American Stock Exchange's Listed Company Guide. The board of directors has determined that Mr. Smith is an audit committee financial expert, as defined by the SEC.

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and the financial reporting process. Deloitte & Touche LLP (D&T), the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, is responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board generally accepted in the United States of America. The audit committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes. The audit committee also recommends to the board of directors the selection of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm.

In this context, the audit committee reviewed and discussed the audited consolidated financial statements with both management and D&T. Specifically, the audit committee has discussed with D&T matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61.

The audit committee received from D&T the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence - Discussions with Audit Committee), and has discussed with D&T the issue of its independence from the Company.

Management is responsible for the Company's financial reporting process, including its system of internal controls, and for the preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board generally accepted in the United States of America. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for auditing those financial statements. The audit committee's responsibility is to monitor and review these processes. It is not the audit committee's duty or responsibility to conduct auditing or accounting reviews or procedures. Therefore, the audit committee has relied, without independent verification, on management's representation that the financial statements have been prepared with integrity and objectivity and in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board generally accepted in the United States of America and on the representations of the independent registered public accounting firm included in its report on the Company's consolidated financial statements. The audit committee's oversight does not provide it with an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or policies, or appropriate internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the audit committee's considerations and discussions with management and the independent registered public accounting firm do not assure that the Company's financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards or that the Company's independent registered public accounting firm is in fact independent.

Based on the audit committee's review of the audited financial statements and its discussions with management and D&T noted above and the report of the independent registered public accounting firm to the audit committee, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004.

PROCEDURES FOR DIRECTOR NOMINATIONS

As discussed above, as a controlled company under the rules of the American Stock Exchange, the Company is not required to have a standing nominating committee or a written charter governing the nomination process. As a result, if the need arises, the full board of directors, of which four members are independent, would serve that function.

The Company's bylaws provide that a stockholder may nominate a person for election as a director at an annual meeting if written notice of the stockholder's intent to make the nomination has been given to the Secretary of the Company at least 90 days in advance of the meeting or, if later, the tenth day following the first public announcement of the date of the meeting. Such notices must comply with the provisions of the bylaws.

In the event that a stockholder meeting the requirements and following the procedures of the bylaws was to propose a nominee, or if a vacancy occurs as a result of an increase in the number of directors, the board of directors will identify candidates with superior qualifications and personally interview them, and if, appropriate, arrange to have members of management interview such candidates. Preferred candidates would display the highest personal and professional character and integrity and have outstanding records of accomplishment in diverse fields of endeavor. Candidates should have demonstrated exceptional ability and judgment and have substantial expertise in their particular fields. Candidates with experience relevant to the Company's business would be preferred. The board of directors, upon evaluation and review of the candidates, would determine who to recommend to the stockholders for approval or to fill any vacancy. The board of directors would use the same criteria for evaluating nominees recommended by stockholders as for those referred by management or any director. The Company does not pay and does not anticipate paying any fees to third parties for identifying or evaluating candidates for director.

Mr. Landolfo and Mr. Smith were each recommended to the board of directors by current officers and directors of the Company.

Pre-Approval Policy

The audit committee's pre-approval guidelines with respect to pre-approval of audit and non-audit services are summarized below.

General

The audit committee is required to pre-approve the audit and non-audit services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm in order to assure that the provision of such services does not impair the registered public accounting firm's independence. Unless a type of service to be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm has received general pre-approval, it will require specific pre-approval by the audit committee. Any proposed services exceeding pre-approved cost levels requires specific pre-approval by the audit committee.

The audit committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its members. The member or members to whom such authority is delegated must report any pre-approval decisions to the audit committee at its next scheduled meeting. The audit committee may delegate its responsibilities to pre-approve services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm to management.

Table of Contents

Audit Services

The annual audit services engagement terms and fees are subject to the specific pre-approval of the audit committee. The audit committee approves, if necessary, any changes in terms, conditions and fees resulting from changes in audit scope, company structure or other matters. In addition to the annual audit services engagement specifically approved by the audit committee, the audit committee may grant general pre-approval for other audit services, which are those services that only the independent registered public accounting firm reasonably can provide.

Audit-related Services

Audit-related services are assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Company's financial statements and that are traditionally performed by the independent registered public accounting firm. The audit committee believes that the provision of audit-related services does not impair the independence of the registered public accounting firm.

Tax Services

The audit committee believes that the independent registered public accounting firm can provide tax services to the Company, such as tax compliance, tax planning and tax advice without impairing the registered public accounting firm's independence. However, the audit committee will not permit the retention of the independent registered public accounting firm in connection with a transaction initially recommended by the independent registered public accounting firm, the purpose of which may be tax avoidance and the tax treatment of which may not be supported in the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations.

All Other Services

The audit committee may grant pre-approval to those permissible non-audit services classified as all other services that it believes are routine and recurring services, and would not impair the independence of the registered public accounting firm.

Pre-Approval Fee Levels

Pre-approval fee levels for all services to be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm are established periodically by the audit committee. Any proposed services exceeding these levels requires specific pre-approval by the audit committee.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

If a stockholder intends to present a proposal for action at the 2006 annual meeting and wishes to have the proposal considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy materials in reliance on Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act, the proposal must be submitted in writing to the Secretary of The Hallwood Group Incorporated, at 3710 Rawlins, Suite 1500, Dallas, Texas 75219 by December 23, 2005. Such proposals must also meet the other requirements of the rules of the SEC relating to stockholder proposals.

The Company's bylaws establish an advance notice procedure with regard to certain matters, including stockholder proposals and nominations of individuals for election to the board of directors. In general, notice of a stockholder proposal or a director nomination for an annual meeting must be received by the Company ninety (90) days or more before the date of the annual meeting and must contain specified information and conform to certain requirements, as set forth in the bylaws.

If you wish to submit a proposal at the annual meeting, other than through inclusion in the proxy statement, you must notify the Company no later than February 10, 2006. If you do not notify the Company of your proposal by that date, the Company will exercise its discretionary voting power on that proposal.

In addition, if you submit a proposal outside of Rule 14a-8 of the Securities Exchange Act for the 2006 annual meeting, and the proposal fails to comply with the advance notice procedure prescribed by the bylaws, then the Company's proxy or proxies may confer discretionary authority on the persons being appointed as proxies on behalf of management to vote on the proposal.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act requires the Company's officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of the Company's securities, to file reports of ownership and changes of ownership with the SEC and the American Stock Exchange. Officers, directors and 10% stockholders of the Company are required by SEC regulation to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms filed by them.

Based solely on review of copies of the forms received, the Company believes that, during the last fiscal year, all filing requirements under Section 16(a) applicable to its officers, directors and 10% stockholders were timely.

OTHER BUSINESS

The Company is not aware of any other business to be presented at the annual meeting. All shares represented by proxies will be voted in favor of the nominee for director set forth in this proxy statement, unless otherwise indicated on the form of proxy. If any other matters properly come before the meeting, the Company's proxy holders will vote on those matters according to their best judgment.

Please note, however, that if your shares of common stock are voted against the nominee for director, the proxy holders will not use their discretion to vote your shares in favor of any adjournment or postponement of the annual meeting.

ANNEX A

THE HALLWOOD GROUP INCORPORATED AMENDED AND RESTATED AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

Serving as an independent and objective party to monitor the Corporation's accounting and financial reporting processes, internal control system and audits.

Reviewing and appraising the audit efforts of the Corporation's independent registered public accounting firm.

Providing an open avenue of communication among the independent registered public accounting firm, financial and senior management and the Board.

The Corporation will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Audit Committee, for compensation to the independent registered public accounting firm, for any advisors that the Audit Committee chooses to engage, and for payment of ordinary administrative expenses of the Audit Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.

Composition

The Audit Committee shall consist of three or more directors as determined by the Board, each of whom shall be independent directors. Independence shall be determined pursuant to the standards set by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) and the requirements of the American Stock Exchange.

Independence

Directors who are affiliates of the Corporation, or officers or employees of the Corporation or of its subsidiaries who have been employed by the Corporation or subsidiaries within the past three years, will not be considered independent. No member of the Audit Committee may receive direct or indirect (as defined by the Commission) compensation of any kind (including consulting and advisory fees) from the Corporation, other than for services rendered as a member of the Board and as a member of committees of the Board.

In addition, Directors falling within any of the categories listed below will not be considered independent:

A Director who accepts (or whose immediate family member accepts) any payment from the Corporation (or any parent or subsidiary of the Corporation) in excess of $60,000 during the current or any of the past three previous fiscal years, other than compensation specifically excluded under Section 121(b) of the American Stock Exchange Company Guide.

In addition, at least one member of the Audit Committee must be financially sophisticated pursuant to American Stock Exchange rules and be a financial expert, as such term is defined by the Commission. Qualifications for such financial expert would include, among other things, whether a member has:

an understanding of generally accepted accounting principles and financial statements;

experience applying generally accepted accounting principles in connection with accounting for estimates, accruals and reserves that are generally comparable to those used in the Corporation's financial statements;

experience preparing or auditing financial statements that present accounting issues that are generally comparable to those raised by the Corporation's financial statements;

experience with internal controls and procedures for financial reporting;

an understanding of audit committee functions;

past employment experience in finance or accounting; and professional certification in accounting.

The Board shall make all determinations as to whether a Director is a financial expert, as defined by rules of the Commission.

The members of the Audit Committee are to be elected by the Board, which shall make all decisions with respect to whether an Audit Committee member is independent and/or a financial expert and shall serve until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Unless the Chair is elected by the full Board, the members of the Audit Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Audit Committee membership.

Meetings

The Audit Committee shall meet no less than once per quarter. As part of its job to foster open communication, the Audit Committee should meet regularly with management and the independent registered public accounting firm in separate executive sessions to discuss any matters that the Audit Committee or either of these groups believe should be discussed privately. In addition, the Audit Committee or its Chair should meet with the independent registered public accounting firm and management quarterly to review the Corporation's financial statements.
