Revised Defined Term:

Rating Decline means the rating of the notes shall be decreased by one or more gradations (including gradations within categories as well as between rating categories) by each of the Rating Agencies, provided, however, if the rating of the notes by each of the Rating Agencies is Investment Grade, then Rating Decline will mean the rating of the notes shall be decreased by one or more gradations (including gradations within categories as well as between rating categories) by each Rating Agency so that the rating of the notes by each of the Rating Agencies falls below Investment Grade, on any date from the date of the public notice of an arrangement that could result in a Change of Control until the end of the 30-day period following public notice of the occurrence of the Change of Control (which 30-day period shall be extended so long as the rating of the notes is under publicly announced consideration for possible downgrade by either of the Rating Agencies; provided, that the other Rating Agency has either downgraded, or publicly announced that it is considering downgrading, the notes).

Additional Defined Term:

Investment Grade means BBB- or higher by S&P and Baa3 or higher by Moody s, or the equivalent of such ratings by S&P or Moody s, or, if either S&P and Moody s shall not make a rating on the notes publicly available, another Rating Agency.

Note: A securities rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time.
