Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement

On January 20, 2005, Antigenics Inc. (Antigenics) entered into a definitive agreement to sell an aggregate of $50 million of its 5.25% convertible senior notes due 2025 (the Notes) in a private placement pursuant to the exemption from the registration requirements afforded by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Act). The closing of the sale of the Notes occurred on January 25, 2005. In addition, Antigenics has granted the initial purchasers of the Notes a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional $10.0 million of Notes.

The notes will bear an annual interest rate of 5.25 percent and be initially convertible into Antigenics common stock at a conversion price of approximately $10.76 per share (92.9023 shares per $1000 principal amount of the notes), as may be adjusted. On or after February 1, 2012, Antigenics may redeem all or a portion of the Notes at a redemption price of 100% of the principal amount of the Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest. Holders of Notes may require Antigenics to repurchase all or part of their Notes on February 1, 2012, February 1, 2015, and February 1, 2020 and in the event of certain fundamental changes in Antigenics, at a price of 100% of the principal amount of Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest. Holders of notes that surrender their notes for conversion in connection with certain fundamental changes that occur before February 1, 2012 may in certain circumstances be entitled to an increase in the conversion rate for the notes surrendered. If not converted, redeemed by Antigenics or repaid pursuant to the holders right to require a repurchase, the Notes mature on February 1, 2025.

The Notes will be Antigenics senior unsecured obligations and will rank equally with all of its existing and future senior unsecured indebtedness, and will be effectively subordinated to all of Antigenics existing and future secured indebtedness and all existing and future liabilities of Antigenics subsidiaries, including trade payables. It is contemplated that the notes will be convertible into common stock of the company. The Notes are issued pursuant to the provisions of an Indenture, dated January 25, 2005, between Antigenics and HSBC Bank USA, National Association, as trustee, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.1.

In connection with the sale of the Notes, Antigenics entered into a registration rights agreement with the initial purchasers, under which Antigenics has agreed to prepare and file a shelf registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission covering the resale of the Notes and the common stock issuable upon conversion of the Notes no later than 120 days following the first date of original issuance of the Notes, and thereafter to use its reasonable best efforts to cause such shelf registration statement to be declared effective within 180 days of the first date of original issuance of the Notes. The registration rights agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.2.

Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Unregistered Securities

On January 18, 2005, Antigenics announced its intent to offer up to $60 million aggregate principal amount of convertible senior notes due 2025 (the Notes) in a private placement pursuant to the exemption from the registration requirements afforded by Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Act). On January 20, 2005, Antigenics announced that it had priced its offering and entered into a definitive agreement to offer and sell $50 million aggregate principal amount of convertible senior notes in such private placement. Antigenics was advised that the Notes were resold by the initial purchasers to qualified institutional buyers in accordance with Rule 144A under the Act. In addition, Antigenics has granted the initial purchasers a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional $10.0 million of Notes. Aggregate estimated offering expenses in connection with the transaction, including discounts and commissions, were approximately $1.9 million.

The Rule 135c press release relating to the offering is filed as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
