AMENDED AND RESTATED DIVIDEND REINVESTMENT PLAN

The following, in question and answer form, is a summary of the key provisions of the Plan. Those holders of common stock who do not wish to participate in the Plan will continue to receive cash dividends, if and when declared, by check.

PURPOSE

1. What is the purpose of the Plan?

The Plan provides record owners of common stock with a simple and convenient way of investing cash dividends in shares of common stock without payment of any brokerage commissions, service charge or other expense. To the extent such shares are purchased from us, we will receive additional funds to finance our continuing operations. The Plan offers eligible holders an opportunity to invest conveniently for the long-term. The Plan is not intended to provide a mechanism for generating short-term profits or engaging in other strategies involving rapid turnover of shares or proliferation of accounts. We accordingly reserve the right to refuse to allow participation in the Plan and to modify, suspend or terminate participation by otherwise eligible record owners who engage in, or who we believe may engage in, such practices or other practices we deem to be inconsistent with the purposes of the Plan or detrimental to the Plan or other participants.

ADVANTAGES

2. What are the advantages of the Plan?

As a participant in the Plan you may:

Purchase additional shares of common stock by reinvesting all of your cash dividends.

Simplify your record keeping of additional stock purchases, since you will receive a statement after every investment.

Withdraw from the Plan at any time.

PARTICIPATION

3. Who is eligible to participate?

All holders of the common stock are eligible to participate in the Plan. You may participate only with respect to all of your shares.

4. How do I join the Plan?

If you are eligible to participate, you may join the Plan by signing an Authorization Card and returning it to us as follows:

Wilson Bank Holding Company
623 West Main Street
Lebanon, Tennessee 37087
Attention: Lisa Pominski

An Authorization Card may be obtained at any time by written request to us at the above address or by calling Lisa Pominski at (615) 444-2265.

Table of Contents

5. When may I join the Plan?

If you are eligible to participate, you may join the Plan at any time. If we receive your Authorization Card specifying reinvestment of dividends before the record date for a dividend payment, reinvestment will commence with that dividend payment. However, if we receive your Authorization Card on or after a dividend record date, the reinvestment of dividends through the Plan will begin with the dividend payment following the next record date.

6. How does the Plan work?

Cash dividends on all of your shares of common stock may be reinvested automatically for you by us in additional shares of common stock. You may participate in the Plan only with respect to all of the cash dividends you would otherwise be entitled to receive.

ADMINISTRATION

7. Who administers the Plan?

We administer the Plan for participants, keep records and perform other duties relating to the Plan.

Our mailing address is:

Wilson Bank Holding Company
623 West Main Street
Lebanon, Tennessee 37087
Attention: Lisa Pominski

Our telephone number is (615) 444-2265. All completed Authorization Cards, requests for withdrawal, requests for certificates and all other written communications regarding the Plan should be sent to us at the above address (please include your Taxpayer Identification Number or Social Security Number in your correspondence with us).

COSTS

8. Are there any expenses to participants in connection with purchases under the Plan?

No. You will incur no brokerage commissions or service charges for the purchases made under the Plan. We will pay all costs of administration of the Plan. You may incur tax liability as a result of our payment of expenses in connection with open market purchases of shares for you as a Plan participant, as explained under Question 15.

PURCHASES

9. How many shares of common stock will be purchased for my Plan account and what is the source of shares purchased under the Plan?

If you become a participant in the Plan, the number of shares purchased for you will depend on the amount of your dividends and market prices of the common stock. You will receive that number of whole shares equal to the total amount invested, divided by the purchase price per share. No fractional shares will be issued and in lieu of receiving fractional shares you will receive a cash payment.

Shares purchased under the Plan will be, at our discretion, either newly issued shares or shares purchased for Plan participants in the open market, or a combination of the foregoing. Newly issued shares will be purchased directly from us.

Table of Contents

10. When will shares of common stock be purchased under the Plan?

In the months in which dividends are paid, dividends will normally be invested concurrently on the dividend payment date. No interest will be paid on funds held by us pending investment.

PRICE

11. At what price will shares of common stock be purchased under the Plan?

If we elect to sell original issue shares to you, the price at which these shares will be purchased will equal the average of the reported sale prices on our common stock for the next preceding thirty (30) business days in which trades of our common stock took place prior to the investment date; provided that we will not make purchases of original issue shares at less than their par value ($2.00 per share).

If we elect to purchase shares in the open market for your account, we will make these purchases at prevailing open market prices. The price to you will be the average price of all shares purchased. We commingle your funds with the funds of the other participants in making purchases for all participants.

REPORTS TO PARTICIPANTS

12. What reports will be sent to participants in the Plan?

After each investment for your account, you will receive a detailed statement showing the amount invested, the number of shares purchased and the price per share of each share purchased under the Plan. This statement will provide a record of the cost of purchases under the Plan and should be retained for tax purposes.

CERTIFICATES

13. Will stock certificates be issued for shares of common stock purchased under the Plan?

Certificates for shares of common stock purchased under the Plan will not be issued to you unless you request them. All shares credited to your account under the Plan will be issued to us or our nominee, as your agent. The number of shares credited to your account will be shown on your statement of account. This convenience protects against loss, theft or destruction of stock certificates, permits ownership of fractional shares and reduces the costs to be borne by us.

A certificate for any number of whole shares credited to your account under the Plan will be issued on your written request, and the shares represented by that certificate will be withdrawn from your account. We will not hold certificates for shares of common stock issued under the Plan. Your written request should be mailed to us. Any remaining full shares and fractions of a share will continue to be credited to your account. If you have authorized the reinvestment of dividends on all shares registered in your name, dividends on shares represented by the certificate issued to you will continue to be reinvested. Otherwise, dividend reinvestment will continue with respect to the number of shares registered in your name specified for dividend reinvestment on your Authorization Card. Certificates for fractions of a share will not be issued under any circumstances.

TERMINATION OF PARTICIPATION OR THE PLAN ITSELF

14. How do I terminate participation in the Plan?

You may terminate your participation in the Plan at any time by notifying us in writing.

If your notice of termination is received on or after the record date for the next dividend, that dividend will be reinvested for you, but all subsequent dividends on those shares will be paid to you.

Table of Contents

We may suspend or terminate the Plan at any time upon written notice mailed to each of the Plan's participants.

FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

15. What are the principal federal income tax consequences of participation in the Plan?

Even though your dividends on common stock will be reinvested, they are subject to federal income taxes as if they were paid to you in cash. In addition, a participant will be treated for federal income tax purposes as having received a dividend equal to the amount of fees, commissions or other expenses paid by us, if any, in connection with the purchase of shares for the participant's account under the Plan. The tax basis per share of common stock purchased under the Plan is the purchase price per share of the common stock on the date of the purchase plus the amount of any brokerage charges, if any, paid by us on behalf of the participant. Participants should consult their own tax advisors for further information concerning federal income tax consequences and for information relating to any state tax consequences.

Annually, the administrator will provide each participant with information for federal income tax purposes regarding dividends on the shares issued pursuant to the Plan for the participant's account.

INFORMATION

16. Who should be contacted if there is a question about participation in the Plan?

The Plan is administered for the benefit of our shareholders. All notices, correspondence, questions or other communications should be addressed to Wilson Bank Holding Company, Attention: Lisa Pominski, Dividend Reinvestment Plan, 623 West Main Street, Lebanon, Tennessee 37087. The conditions of participation in the Plan will be governed by the laws of Tennessee.

We will not be liable under the Plan for any act done by us in our role as Plan administrator carried out in good faith or for any good faith omission to act including, without limitation, any claims for liability arising out of failure to terminate a participant's participation in the Plan upon the participant's death prior to receipt of notice in writing of such death;

with respect to the prices at which shares are purchased or sold for the participant's account and the time such purchases or sales are made; and relating to the value of the shares acquired for the participant's account.

17. What happens if we have a common stock rights offering, issue a stock dividend or declare a stock split?

Any shares of our common stock distributed as a stock dividend or as a result of a stock split or shares held by the Plan administrator for a participant will be credited to the participant's account. In the event that we make available to holders of common stock rights to subscribe to additional shares, debentures or other securities, the full shares of common stock held for you under the Plan will be added to the other shares held by you in calculating the number of shares to which you have a right to subscribe.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We do not know either the number of shares that will ultimately be purchased under the Plan or the prices at which the shares will be sold, and therefore we cannot determine how the proceeds will be used. We intend to add the net proceeds of sales under the Plan of these shares to our general funds to be available for general corporate purposes.

INDEMNIFICATION

The Tennessee Business Corporation Act (TBCA) provides that a corporation may indemnify any of its directors and officers against liability incurred in connection with a proceeding if (i) the director or officer acted in good faith, (ii) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, the director or officer reasonably believed such conduct was in the corporation's best interests, (iii) in all other cases, the director or officer reasonably believed that his or her conduct was not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and (iv) in connection with any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. In actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, however, the TBCA provides that no indemnification may be made if the director or officer was adjudged to be liable to the corporation. In cases where the director or officer is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding instigated because of his or her status as an officer or director of a corporation, the TBCA mandates that the corporation indemnify the director or officer against reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding. The TBCA also provides that in connection with any proceeding charging improper personal benefit to an officer or director, no indemnification may be made if such officer or director is adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the TBCA provides that a court of competent jurisdiction, upon application, may order that an officer or director be indemnified for reasonable expenses if, in consideration of all relevant circumstances, the court determines that such individual is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, whether or not the standard of conduct set forth above was met.

Our bylaws provide that we shall indemnify and advance expenses to each director or officers, or any person who may have served at the request of our board of directors or our Chief Executive Officer, as a director or officer of another corporation (and, in either case, his heirs, executors and administrators), to the fullest extent allowed by the laws of the State of Tennessee, both as now in effect or hereafter adopted. The bylaws also provide that we may indemnify and advance expenses to any employee or agent who is not a director or officer (and his heirs, executors and administrators) to the same extent as to a director or officer, if the board of directors determines that to do so is in the best interests of the Corporation.

Our bylaws also provide that the indemnification rights contained in the bylaws do not exclude other indemnification rights to which a director or officer may be entitled under any statute, charter provision, bylaw, resolution adopted by the shareholders, resolution adopted by the board of directors, agreement, insurance, purchase by us or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity.

We believe that our Charter and Bylaw provisions are necessary to attract and retain qualified persons as directors and officers.

We have in effect a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy which provides coverage for its directors and officers. Under this policy, the insurer agrees to pay, subject to certain exclusions, for any claim made against a director or officer for a wrongful act by such director or officer, but only if and to the extent such director or officer becomes legally obligated to pay such claim.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The shares of common stock sold under the Plan are being distributed directly by us rather than through an underwriter, broker or dealer. There will be no brokerage commissions or other fees charged to participants in connection with the purchase of shares under the Plan.

LEGAL OPINION

The validity of the shares of common stock offered under the Plan has been passed upon for us by Bass, Berry & Sims PLC.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Tennessee Business Corporation Act (TBCA) provides that a corporation may indemnify any of its directors and officers against liability incurred in connection with a proceeding if (i) the director or officer acted in good faith, (ii) in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity with the corporation, the director or officer reasonably believed such conduct was in the corporation's best interests, (iii) in all other cases, the director or officer reasonably believed that his or her conduct was not opposed to the best interest of the corporation, and (iv) in connection with any criminal proceeding, the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. In actions brought by or in the right of the corporation, however, the TBCA provides that no indemnification may be made if the director or officer was adjudged to be liable to the corporation. In cases where the director or officer is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding instigated because of his or her status as an officer or director of a corporation, the TBCA mandates that the corporation indemnify the director or officer against reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding. The TBCA also provides that in connection with any proceeding charging improper personal benefit to an officer or director, no indemnification may be made if such officer or director is adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the TBCA provides that a court of competent jurisdiction, upon application, may order that an officer or director be indemnified for reasonable expenses if, in consideration of all relevant circumstances, the court determines that such individual is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification, whether or not the standard of conduct set forth above was met.

The Registrant's bylaws provide that the Registrant shall indemnify and advance expenses to each director or officer of Registrant, or any person who may have served at the request of Registrant's board of directors or its Chief Executive Officer, as a director or officer of another corporation (and, in either case, his heirs, executors and administrators), to the fullest extent allowed by the laws of the State of Tennessee, both as now in effect or hereafter adopted. The bylaws also provide that the Registrant may indemnify and advance expenses to any employee or agent of the Registrant who is not a director or officer (and his heirs, executors and administrators) to the same extent as to a director or officer, if the board of directors determines that to do so is in the best interests of the Registrant.

The Registrant's bylaws also provide that the indemnification rights contained in the bylaws do not exclude other indemnification rights to which a director or officer may be entitled under any statute, charter provision, bylaw, resolution adopted by the shareholders, resolution adopted by the board of directors, agreement, insurance, purchase by the Registrant or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity.

The Registrant believes that its Charter and Bylaw provisions are necessary to attract and retain qualified persons as directors and officers.

II-1

Table of Contents

The Registrant has in effect a directors and officers liability insurance policy which provides coverage for its directors and officers. Under this policy, the insurer agrees to pay, subject to certain exclusions, for any claim made against a director or officer of the Registrant for a wrongful act by such director or officer, but only if and to the extent such director or officer becomes legally obligated to pay such claim.
