Item 8.01 Other Events

The Timken Company announced the following statement on September 2, 2005.

The Timken Company and the Steelworkers Union have reached a tentative four-year agreement that covers hourly employees at the Canton and Wooster, Ohio, plants.

The Union Negotiating Committee has unanimously recommended that the membership ratify the early agreement.

Arrangements are now being made for information-ratification meetings. At that time, the Union Bargaining Committee will explain details of the tentative agreement and answer questions.

The current Basic Labor Agreement is scheduled to expire September 26, 2005.
