(b) Each of the parties hereto shall report the federal, state, local and other Tax consequences of the purchase and sale contemplated hereby (including the filing of Internal Revenue Service Form 8594) in a manner consistent with Schedule 1.7. Neither of the parties hereto shall, nor shall it permit any of its Affiliates to, take a position (except as required by Applicable Law) on any Tax Return, before any Governmental Body charged with the collection of any Tax, or in any judicial proceeding, that is inconsistent with such allocation schedule.

SECTION 1.8. Closing. The closing of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (the "Closing") shall take place at the New York office of Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP at 10:00 A.M. Edgar Filing: QUADRAMED CORP - Form 8-K

- (b) At the Closing, Buyer shall deliver to Seller the following:
- (i) The Deposit;

ARTICLE 2. OTHER AGREEMENTS

SECTION 2.1. Escrow Agreement. On the Closing Date, Buyer and Seller shall enter into and deliver to each other an escrow agreement with a mutually acceptable escrow agent ("Escrow Agent"), substantially in form and substance as set forth in Exhibit D, attached hereto and incorporated by reference ("Escrow Agreement"). Buyer shall deposit with Escrow Agent the Deposit to hold such funds in escrow for the period set forth therein in order to secure the performance of Seller's obligations under this Agreement, including the indemnification of Buyer by Seller, and to distribute such funds in the manner set forth therein.

SECTION 2.2. Software License Agreement. On the Closing Date, Buyer and Seller shall enter into and each deliver to the other a Software License Agreement, substantially in form and substance as set forth in Exhibit E, attached hereto and incorporated by reference (the "Software License Agreement").

SECTION 2.3. Bankruptcy Protection. If an order for relief under chapter 7 or 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. ss.101 et seq.) (the "Bankruptcy Code") is entered in favor of Seller, Seller agrees, at the request of Buyer, subject to its obligations under the Bankruptcy Code and applicable Law, to use reasonable commercial efforts to obtain as soon as practicable an order of the bankruptcy court approving the sale of the Assets and the other transactions contemplated herein in accordance with the terms of this Agreement pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

SECTION 2.4. Further Assurances. From time to time after the Closing Date, each party shall give the other party and its respective representatives, auditors, and counsel reasonable access upon prior notice during normal business hours to all of the properties, books, records, Tax Returns, contracts, licenses, franchises and all of the documents of such party relating exclusively to the Business and the Assets, and shall furnish to the other party all information with respect thereto as the other party may from time to time reasonably request. From time to time after the Closing, at the other party's request and without further consideration, each party agrees to execute and deliver, at its expense, such other instruments of conveyance and transfer and take such other actions as the other party reasonably may require to more effectively deliver and vest in Buyer, and to put Buyer in legal and physical possession of, or to assign and delegate to Buyer, as appropriate, the Assets.

Edgar Filing: QUADRAMED CORP - Form 8-K

ARTICLE 3. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF SELLER

Seller hereby represents and warrants to Buyer that, except as set forth on the Disclosure Schedule attached hereto, the specific subsections of which are referenced in this Article 3 (the "Seller Disclosure Schedule") and incorporated herein by reference (which Seller Disclosure Schedule makes explicit reference to the particular representation or warranty as to which exception is taken, which in each case shall constitute the sole representation and warranty as to which such exception shall apply):

SECTION 3.1. Organization, Qualification and Power of Seller. Each of QuadraMed and QuadraMed Operating Corporation (a) is a duly organized and validly existing corporation in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware; (b) has the requisite corporate power and authority to carry on the Business; and (c) has all requisite corporate power and authority and licenses, permits, franchises, certificates, authorizations, approvals, consents, and rights to own the Assets and to be a party to the Assigned Contracts.

The execution and delivery by each of QuadraMed and QuadraMed Operating Corporation of this Agreement and the Ancillary Agreements, and the performance of its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and the sale and delivery of the Assets and the assignment and delegation of the Assigned Contracts, do not require any action or consent of any party other than each of QuadraMed and QuadraMed Operating Corporation, and will not violate (i) the organizational documents of each of QuadraMed and QuadraMed Operating Corporation, or, (ii) except as would not result in a Material Adverse Effect, any Law, any order of any Governmental Body, or any indenture, agreement or other instrument to which either of QuadraMed or QuadraMed Operating Corporation, or any of their properties or assets, are bound, or result in a breach of or constitute (with due notice or lapse of time or both) a default under any such indenture, agreement or other instrument, or result in the creation or imposition of any Claim of any nature whatsoever upon any of the Assets.

Seller holds a valid and existing leasehold interest under each of the Real Property Leases for the terms set forth therein. Seller owns or possesses adequate licenses or other rights to use all patents, patent applications, Trademarks, Copyrights and Trade Secrets necessary for the conduct of the Business as conducted. No claim is pending or, to the Knowledge of Seller, threatened to the effect that the conduct of the Business by Seller infringes upon or conflicts with the asserted intellectual property rights of any other Person, and, to the Knowledge of Seller, there is no basis for any such claim (whether or not pending or, to the Knowledge of Seller, threatened). No claim is pending or, to the Knowledge of Seller, threatened to the effect that any of Seller's Intellectual Property included in the Assets is invalid or unenforceable by Seller, and, to the Knowledge of Seller, there is no known basis for any such claim (whether or not pending or, to the Knowledge of Seller, threatened). Seller has made available to Purchaser complete and correct copies of all existing technical, user manuals, design documents, configuration documents, compilation instructions related to the Software and the required operating environment, the absence of which would not have a Material Adverse Effect. Seller has taken all reasonable precautions to protect the secrecy, confidentiality, and value of all Software and Trade Secrets (including the enforcement by Seller of a policy requiring each employee or contractor to execute proprietary information and confidentiality agreements substantially in Seller's standard form, and all current and former employees and contractors of Seller have executed such an agreement). To Seller's Knowledge, Seller has good title to and an absolute right to use the Trade Secrets. To Seller's Knowledge the Trade Secrets are not part of the public knowledge or literature and, to Seller's Knowledge, have not been used, divulged, or appropriated either for the benefit of any person (other than Seller) or to the detriment of Seller. No Trade Secret is subject to any adverse claim or has been challenged or, to the Knowledge of Seller, threatened in any way or infringes any intellectual property right of any other person.

SECTION 3.8. Proprietary Information of Third Parties. No third party has claimed to Seller or, to the Knowledge of Seller, has any reason to claim that any Person employed by Seller in connection with the Business has: (a) violated or may be violating any of the terms or conditions of his/her employment, non-competition or non-disclosure agreement with such third party; (b) disclosed or may be disclosing or utilized or may be utilizing any trade secret or proprietary information or documentation of such third party; or (c) interfered or may be interfering in the employment relationship between such third party and any of its current or former employees. To the Knowledge of Seller, no third party has requested information from Seller which would reasonably suggest that such a claim might be contemplated. To the Knowledge of Seller, no Person employed with Seller in connection with the Business has employed or proposes to employ any Trade Secret or any information or documentation proprietary to any former employer, and, to the Knowledge of Seller, no Person employed by or affiliated with Seller in connection with the Business has violated any confidential relationship which such Person may have had with any third party in connection with the development or sale of any product or the development or sale of any service relating to the Business, and Seller has no Knowledge that there will be any such employment or violation. To the Knowledge of Seller, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement, the carrying on of the Business as employees or agents by any employee of Seller, and the conduct of the Business, has not and will not conflict with or result in a material breach of the terms, conditions or provisions of, or constitute a default under, any contract, covenant or instrument under which any such Person is obligated.

SECTION 3.11. Compliance. Seller has complied with all Laws which are applicable to the Business and Seller's business practices in connection therewith, and to which Seller may be subject, except to the extent such noncompliance would not have a Material Adverse Effect, and no claims have been filed against Seller alleging a violation of any such laws or regulations. Seller will refer to Buyer all inquiries relating exclusively to the Business (other than those related to the Retained Liabilities). Neither Seller nor any of its officers, employees, agents, or shareholders shall intentionally disparage the name or business of Buyer, either before or after the Closing.

SECTION 5.7. Noncompetition. (a) For a period of four years after the Closing Date (the "Seller Noncompetition Period"), Seller promises and agrees that it shall not:

- (i) Engage in any line of business that offers services or sells products that are identical or substantially similar to the services or products provided by the Business as of the Closing Date (the "Seller Competing Activities") anywhere within the continental United States (the "Territory"), in any capacity whatsoever, whether individually or through its employees, officers, independent contractors, consultants, or agents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Seller shall not be precluded from (i) owning as a passive investment 5% or less of the outstanding equity of any publicly-traded company, (ii) entering into a merger, reorganization or other transaction which results in more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting securities or assets of Seller being acquired by any legal entity that is engaged in Seller Competing Activities; provided that Seller shall provide in any such transaction that the acquiror will not use the confidential information of Seller exclusively used in the Business to engage in the Seller Competing Activities during the Seller Noncompetition Period with respect to the customers of the Business as of the Closing Date, and Buyer shall be a third-party beneficiary of such arrangement, (iii) acquiring or merging with a third party (an "Acquired Entity") engaged in the Seller Competing Activities; provided that if the gross revenues the Acquired Company derives from the Seller Competing Activities exceed the lesser of (1) $3,000,000 or (2) 10% of the Acquired Company's gross revenues, Seller will use reasonable commercial efforts to dispose of the competing portion of the Acquired Entity's business within the 12 month period following such acquisition or merger (even if such 12 month period extends beyond the Seller Noncompetition Period), or (iv) engaging in software support, including help desk support and client support, for any of the Excluded Software Assets.

- (ii) Solicit, influence, or encourage, directly or indirectly, anyone who is then currently an employee of, independent contractor for, or consultant to Buyer or any of its Affiliates to leave the employ or discontinue or alter his, her, or its relationship with Buyer or any of its Affiliates; provided that the foregoing restriction shall not apply to (i) employees of Buyer who respond to general solicitations or employment advertisements not specifically directed to such employees (ii) employees of Buyer who independently contact Seller seeking employment.

(b) Seller acknowledges and agrees that the geographic area, time periods, subject matter, and all other aspects of the restrictions set forth in this Section 5.7 are reasonable and are appropriate for the protection of Buyer's legitimate property and business interest. In the event that Seller breaches any of the restrictions contained in this Section 5.7, Buyer will suffer immediate and irreparable harm and injury for which there will not be an adequate remedy at law, and Buyer will be entitled to seek and obtain temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief consistent with, and enforcing the terms of, this Section 5.7. Seller agrees that it will not oppose any request for injunctive relief consistent with the terms of this Section 5.7 and will not, under any circumstances, seek or request that Buyer be required to post any bond or other security as a condition of obtaining such injunctive relief; provided, however, the foregoing shall not prevent Seller from contesting the issuance of such injunction on the ground that no violation or threatened violation of this Section 5.7 has occurred.

SECTION 5.8. Non-Solicitation. Seller covenants to Buyer that until the Closing, neither Seller nor any of its representatives shall directly or indirectly solicit, initiate, encourage or entertain any inquiries or proposals from, discuss or negotiate with, any Person (other than Buyer) relating to any sale of the Business, the Assets, or the Assigned Contracts. In any merger or consolidation of Seller in which the Business would be included as part of such merger, Seller shall provide for the protection of Buyer's rights hereunder.

SECTION 5.9. Interim Monthly Financial Statements. Between the date hereof and the Closing Date, Seller will provide Buyer with interim monthly financial statements of the Business as soon as practicable after the end of each month, prepared consistently with past practice, and showing the results of the operations of the Business.

SECTION 5.10. Fairness Opinion.

As of or prior to the Closing Date, Seller will obtain a fairness opinion from its investment advisor as to the fairness from a financial point of view to Seller of the consideration received by Seller hereunder.

ARTICLE 6. COVENANTS OF BUYER

SECTION 6.1. Cooperation with Seller. Buyer covenants to Seller that Buyer shall use its reasonable commercial efforts to cooperate with Seller to take all reasonable steps before and after the Closing Date that are necessary for Buyer to obtain all required consents of third parties and approvals to Buyer' purchase of the Assets and assumption of the Assigned Contracts pursuant to this Agreement, and in addressing other matters necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 6.2. Non-Contravention. Buyer covenants to Seller that it shall not take any action, or omit to take any action, which action or omission would have the effect of materially violating any of the covenants of this Agreement or warranties or representations of Buyer in this Agreement.

SECTION 6.3. Customer and Other Business Relationships. After the Closing, Buyer will reasonably cooperate with Seller in its efforts to continue and maintain for the benefit of Seller those business relationships of Seller existing prior to the Closing, including relationships with lessors, employees, regulatory authorities, licensors, customers, suppliers and others, and Buyer will use reasonable commercial efforts to satisfy its Assumed Liabilities in a manner that is not materially detrimental to any of such relationships; provided that nothing set forth herein shall prevent Buyer from asserting any of its rights under this Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements, or agreements with any third party. Buyer will refer to Seller all inquiries relating to the Retained Liabilities. Neither Buyer nor any of its officers, employees, agents, or shareholders shall intentionally disparage the name or business of Seller, either before or after the Closing.

SECTION 6.4. Non-Business Confidential Information(a) Buyer acknowledges that some or all of the Hired Employees, as defined in Section 7.2(c) herein, may have Confidential Information, as defined in Section 7.1, whether in tangible or intangible form, belonging to, about, or concerning Seller's Healthcare Information Management coding, coding compliance, and abstracting software business ("Non-Business Confidential Information"). Buyer agrees that it shall not (i) seek to learn or obtain from any Hired Employee any such Non-Business Confidential Information, or (ii) use any such Non-Business Confidential Information for its benefit or to the detriment of Seller. Buyer shall take reasonable steps to cause the Hired Employees not to use such Non-Business Confidential Information for the benefit of Buyer or to the detriment of Seller so long as they are employed by Buyer.

(b) Buyer acknowledges and agrees that the restrictions set forth in this Section 6.4 are reasonable and are appropriate for the protection of Seller's legitimate property and business interest. In the event that Buyer breaches any of the restrictions contained in this Section 6.4, Seller will suffer immediate and irreparable harm and injury for which there will not be an adequate remedy at law, and Seller will be entitled to seek and obtain temporary, preliminary, and permanent injunctive relief consistent with, and enforcing the terms of, this Section 6.4. Buyer agrees that it will not oppose any request for injunctive relief consistent with the terms of this Section 6.4 and will not, under any circumstances, seek or request that Seller be required to post any bond or other security as a condition of obtaining such injunctive relief; provided, however, the foregoing shall not prevent Buyer from contesting the issuance of such injunction on the ground that no violation or threatened violation of this Section 6.4 has occurred.

SECTION 6.5. Financing Arrangements. Between the date hereof and the Closing Date, Buyer will promptly provide Seller with all information related to Buyer's financing for the transactions contemplated hereunder, including but not limited to commitment letters, completion of due diligence to lender satisfaction, and payment of commitment fees by Buyer.

ARTICLE 7.

JOINT COVENANTS OF THE PARTIES

SECTION 7.1. Confidentiality of Business Information. The parties

heretofore have received and hereafter may receive various financial and other information concerning the activities, business, assets, and properties of the other party hereto that is confidential and/or proprietary in nature ("Confidential Information"). The parties agree that all such Confidential Information thus received by a party hereto shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the Confidentiality Agreement entered into between the parties as of November 24, 2002.

SECTION 7.2. Confidentiality of this Agreement. The existence and contents of this Agreement and all schedules and exhibits attached hereto, and the nature and status of the transactions described herein and therein are confidential. Except as set forth below, without the prior written consent of the other party hereto, no party hereto will disclose to any other Person the existence and contents of this Agreement and the schedules and exhibits attached hereto, and the nature and status of the transactions described herein. Except as set forth below, the timing and content of any announcements, press releases or other public statements concerning the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will occur upon, and be determined by, the mutual agreement and consent of Seller and Buyer, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. This Section shall not apply to:

(a) any disclosure to such party's directors, managers, members, officers, key employees, Affiliates, accounting, investment banking and legal advisers who have a need to know the information being disclosed, provided that such Persons are made aware of the confidentiality obligations hereunder and the disclosing party agrees to remain liable for any disclosure(s) in violation of such obligations;

(b) any disclosure that such party makes to the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other regulatory agency pursuant to that party's obligations of disclosure to such agency;

(c) any disclosure required by or necessary or appropriate in connection with applicable stock exchange or Nasdaq requirements;

(d) any disclosure that is necessary or appropriate in obtaining any consent or approval required for the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement;

(e) any disclosure required by or necessary or appropriate in connection with legal proceedings; or

(f) any disclosure that is required or advisable under applicable Law.

SECTION 7.3. Retention of and Access to Records. After the Closing Date, Buyer shall retain for a period consistent with Buyer's record-retention policies and practices those books and records included within the Assets. Buyer also shall provide Seller and its representatives reasonable access thereto, during normal business hours and on at least three days' prior written notice, to enable them to prepare financial statements or tax returns or deal with tax audits. After the Closing Date, Seller shall provide Buyer and its representatives reasonable access to books and records relating to the Business that are Excluded Assets, during normal business hours and on at least three days' prior written notice, for any reasonable business purpose specified by Buyer in such notice.

SECTION 7.4. Transfer and Similar Taxes. Except as otherwise provided herein, all sales, use, transfer, gains, stamp, duties, recording and similar Taxes incurred in connection with the transfer of the Assets and the assignment and assumption of the Assumed Contracts and the Assumed Liabilities pursuant to the terms of this Agreement ("Transfer Taxes") shall be allocated equally between Seller, on the one hand, and Buyer, on the other hand. Each of Seller, on the one hand, and Buyer, on the other hand, will be responsible for the preparation of any Tax Returns with respect to any Transfer Taxes payable in connection with the transfer of the Assets for which it is primarily liable. Each of Seller and Buyer shall provide the other party with copies of such Tax Returns at least ten business days prior to the due date of each such Tax Return. If the receiving party materially disagrees with such Tax Return as prepared, within three days after receiving the copy of such Tax Return, the receiving party shall deliver to the preparing party a written notice specifying the basis for such disagreement. The parties shall then, in good faith, attempt to reach a mutual resolution prior to the date upon which such Tax Return is due. If the parties are unable to reach a mutual resolution, the preparing party shall timely file such Tax Return as originally sent to the receiving party.

SECTION 7.5. Employees. (a) Except for the Employees listed on Schedule 7.5(a)(i) (the "Non-Transferring Employees"), prior to the Closing Date Buyer shall make good faith offers of employment to each of the Employees, including those Employees who are on military leave, family leave, sick leave, temporary disability, or other temporary leave of absence as of such date. Each employment offer made pursuant to this paragraph shall be effective as of the Closing Date and shall be on the same or greater rate of base salary (which does not include bonuses or commissions) as that in effect with respect to such Employee as of the day immediately preceding the Closing Date (the "Offer Terms") and that will allow such Employee to participate in the employee benefit plans, bonus plans, programs, policies and arrangements of Buyer and/or its Affiliates (collectively, the "Buyer Plans") on terms no less favorable (for a period of at least one year from and after the Closing Date) than those that apply to similarly situated employees of Buyer. For all purposes under the plans identified in Schedule 7.5(a)(ii) hereto (collectively, the "Seller Plans"), Hired Employees (as such term is defined in Section 7.5(c) below) shall be deemed to have terminated employment with Seller as of the Closing Date.

(b) As of the Closing, any Hired Employee who is on leave under the provisions of the Family Medical Leave Act, on leave and receiving workers compensation benefits, or receiving benefits under Seller's short-term or long-term disability programs shall be deemed to be an employee of Seller until such time as the employee is no longer on such leave, receiving workers compensation benefits or eligible for benefits under Seller's short-term or long-term disability programs. At such time Buyer shall offer such Hired Employee employment in accordance with provisions of this Section 7.5; provided, that if at such time as an employee on short-term disability is no longer eligible for benefits under Seller's short term disability program, such employee is eligible for long-term disability benefits, such employee shall receive benefits under Seller's long-term disability program and shall not become an employee of Buyer until following such time as such employee is ready to return to active work.

(c) Any Employee who enters into a written notice of acceptance with Buyer by the Closing Date will be deemed to have accepted employment with Buyer effective as of the Closing Date (each such Employee, a "Hired Employee"). An Employee referenced in Section 7.5(b) will be deemed to be a Hired Employee on the day such Employee enters into a written notice of acceptance with Buyer pursuant to Buyer's offer of employment under Section 7.5(b).

(d) Seller shall pay to Hired Employees all accrued but unpaid vacation time as of the Closing Date, in accordance with Seller's policy as in effect as of the Closing Date. With respect to those employees of the Business who do not accept offers of employment from Buyer in accordance with Section 7.5(a), the employment of such individuals with Seller and its Affiliates shall be terminated as of the Closing Date and Seller will pay to Hired Employees all vacation time accrued but unpaid as of the Closing Date in accordance with Seller's policies as in effect as of the Closing Date.

(e) After the Closing, Seller will determine in its sole discretion whether to pay a bonus to the Employees of the Business for the year ended December 31, 2002. Seller will pay such bonus, if any, to the Employees in accordance with the directions of Buyer.

(f) Buyer will credit each Hired Employee's years of employment with Seller for all purposes under the Buyer Plans; provided, that such crediting of service will not result in a duplication of the benefits that shall have been paid or that shall be payable by Seller to such Hired Employee under any of the Seller Plans. With respect to the participation of any Hired Employee in a Buyer Plan that relates to health, sickness, salary continuation, or short-term or long-term disability benefits, Buyer will (i) waive all waiting periods for participation or coverage to the extent that, as of the day immediately preceding the Closing Date, such waiting period shall have been waived or satisfied with respect to such Hired Employee under the terms of the analogous Seller Plan, (ii) waive all restrictions and limitations regarding pre-existing conditions to the extent that, as of the day immediately preceding the Closing Date, such restrictions and limitations have been satisfied with respect to such Hired Employee under the terms of the analogous Seller Plan, and (iii) reduce any deductible or co-payment amounts payable with respect to calendar year 2002 to the extent of unreimbursed medical expenses paid by such Hired Employee during calendar year 2002 under the terms of the analogous Seller Plan.

(g) Following the Closing Date, Buyer will have sole liability for, and will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless each of the Seller Indemnified Persons (as such term is defined in Section 10.3 hereof) from and against, any and all Damages arising out of or in connection with an actual or constructive termination of employment of any of the Hired Employees by Buyer on or after the Closing Date (or with respect to the Employees referenced in Section 7.5(b), the applicable hire date), and/or in connection with the closing of any facility by Buyer on or after the Closing Date (all of the aforesaid liabilities, collectively, the "Employment Termination Liabilities"). In the event that any such claim, demand, or cause of action is asserted against Seller, Buyer's related indemnification obligations will be subject to the general indemnification provisions set forth in Article 10 hereof, but will not be subject to the provisions of Section 10.4(c) hereof. Any provision of this Section 7.5 to the contrary notwithstanding, Buyer will in no event be liable to Seller for the claims of any Employee (i) who is listed on Schedule 7.5(a) (i) and (ii) who does not become a Hired Employee for any other reason except with respect to claims premised on (A) any action or inaction of Buyer on or after the Closing Date and/or (B) Buyer's failure to extend to such Employee a good faith offer of employment, as contemplated by the terms of this Agreement. Seller shall retain all liabilities under the Seller's severance plans, including with respect to the Hired Employees, provided that the Buyer's Offer Terms comply with the provisions of Section 7.5(a).

(h) Buyer agrees that it shall compensate the Hired Employees who are sales people with respect to the Assigned Contracts in force as of the Closing Date in accordance with the terms of Seller's sales compensation plan for such Hired Employees. The parties will, as of the Closing Date, agree to the estimated amount of compensation payable by each to the Hired Employees who are sales people and adjust the Deposit to reflect the net effect of such agreement (the "Sales Compensation Statement"). Buyer and Seller will, within thirty (30) days after the Closing Date, agree to any adjustments necessary to reflect the total amount of revenue collected under the applicable Assigned Contracts on or prior to the Closing Date. Buyer and Seller agree to cooperate and exchange information as necessary in order to effectuate the intent of the foregoing sentence.

SECTION 7.6. Supplemental Disclosure. Seller shall have the right from time to time prior to the Closing to supplement or amend a schedule attached hereto with respect to any matter hereafter arising or discovered which if existing or known at the date of this Agreement would have been required to be set forth or described in any Section of such Schedule. Any such supplemental or amended disclosure shall not be deemed to have cured any breach of any representation or warranty made in this Agreement for purposes of determining whether or not the conditions set forth in Article 8 have been satisfied. If Buyer provides Seller with written notice, prior to the Closing Date, of its objection to such additional disclosure, Buyer will have the right to bring claims for indemnification under Article 10 hereunder with respect to such additional disclosure; if not, Buyer will be deemed to have cured any such breach of representation or warranty made in this Agreement and to have been disclosed as of the date of this Agreement for purposes of Article 10 hereof.

SECTION 7.7. Accounts Receivable Collection. (a) For a period of 120 days after the Closing, Buyer shall use reasonable commercial efforts to collect the Receivables. To facilitate Buyer's collection of the Receivables, Seller shall deliver to Buyer at Closing a complete report of all Receivables as of the Closing (the "Receivables Statement"). Subject to the fee described in Section 7.7(c) below, all Receivables collected by Buyer after the Closing shall be remitted to Seller within five days of receipt thereof. Within fifteen days after the end of each month, Buyer shall provide Seller with a written report regarding the Receivables. The report will set forth for the preceding calendar month the amount of Receivables collected and the identity of the party from whom collected. The report will also set forth the aggregate amount of Receivables collected as of the end of the previous calendar month. In collecting the Receivables, Buyer agrees to comply with all applicable federal, state and municipal laws and regulations (including, but not limited to, the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and the Fair Credit Reporting Act) and shall secure all permits and licenses required to enable Buyer to render the services called for in this Section 7.7. Buyer will not alter or revise original Seller billing statements without prior approval from Seller.

(b) After expiry of the 120 day period set forth above, Seller will have the exclusive right to pursue collection of any Accounts Receivable that have not been collected by Buyer as of such date. Seller will use reasonable commercial efforts to collect such receivables. Seller will notify Buyer no later than three (3) business days prior to assigning any receivable to a collection agency or equivalent or taking or threatening to take legal action without the prior written consent of Buyer and Buyer shall have the right to purchase the receivable from Seller at face value.

(c) Seller authorizes Buyer to deduct an amount equal to 2% of the collected Receivables as its fee for such collection, plus reasonable one-time costs associated with Buyer obtaining files and other documents necessary for the collection of the Receivables from Seller's office in San Rafael, CA.

(d) Seller agrees that the appointment of Buyer to collect the Receivables is exclusive, and that, except as provided in Section 7.7(b) above, neither Seller nor any of its agent, representative, contractor, or other representative shall attempt to collect any of the Receivables or otherwise make any collection efforts with respect to the Receivables without Buyer's consent.

(e) In addition to any additional right of access that the parties may have pursuant to this Agreement, the parties shall permit reasonable access by authorized representative(s) of the other party, at each party's own expense, during normal business hours and upon reasonable prior request, for the purposes of reviewing such books, records, and other financial information of Buyer and Seller (the "Financial Data"), as the parties may reasonably request from time to time to facilitate accurate and timely collection of the Receivables. The rights of access granted hereunder shall not be construed as conferring any right in or to the other party's Financial Data or any other proprietary or Confidential Information of the other party.

(f) Buyer shall not be required to take any action in connection with the collection of the Receivables which are beyond those usual and customary for the Business, consistent with past practice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer shall not be required to institute any litigation to collect such Receivables and no failure to collect any Receivables shall be deemed a breach of Buyer's obligations hereunder Seller shall and does hereby indemnify and hold Buyer harmless from and against any claims, costs (including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees), causes of action, suits, damages or losses suffered or incurred by or against Buyer arising from or connected with the lawful collection efforts of Buyer under the terms of this Section 7.7.

(g) Buyer may notify, or may require Seller to notify the debtors under the Receivables with respect to the appointment of Buyer hereunder and direct such debtors to pay Buyer directly the amounts due (except where prohibited by applicable law or regulation). Seller agrees to execute any and all documents, or to make any other representations reasonably requested by Buyer, in order to encourage the debtors under the Receivables to make payments directly to Buyer (or one of its Affiliates). Seller further agrees to take all reasonable actions as may be requested by Buyer from time to time in order to assist Buyer with the collection of the Receivables. Buyer agrees to notify Seller within three (3) business days if any Receivable debtor contests the amount owing and, upon written request by Buyer, to transfer such Receivable to Buyer.

(h) In performing the services specified in this Section 7.7, Buyer will be acting as an independent contractor. Buyer and Seller agree that neither Buyer nor any of its employees are employees of Seller, and that Buyer, and not Seller, shall have the sole authority and right to direct and control the activities of Buyer employees. Nothing contained in this Section 7.7 shall be construed to create a partnership or joint venture between Buyer and Seller, nor to authorize either Buyer or Seller to act as a general or special agent of the other party in any respect, except as specifically set forth in this Section 7.7. Buyer shall in no event compromise or settle any Receivable at less than face value without Seller's written consent.

(i) Buyer shall use a first-in, first-out methodology with respect to the collection of Receivables; thus, amounts collected from customers of the Business that are Receivables debtors shall be first applied to the Receivables, then to any amounts otherwise owing to the Business. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Buyer shall not be required to use a first-in, first-out methodology with respect to any customer that has raised a written objection to a Receivable.

SECTION 7.8. Transition Services. (a) Seller shall provide to Buyer certain corporate support services and access to certain Seller systems and telecommunications services which were previously utilized in supporting certain functions of the Business and the Assets but which were not transferred to Buyer, as set forth in Schedule 7.8(a) (the "Services") from the Closing Date up to the time specified on Schedule 7.8(a). The Services to be provided by Seller are limited to providing Buyer: (i) certain Business related financial and human resources data on Seller's PeopleSoft platform for migration to Buyer's Solomon platform, (ii) T1 connectivity and server hosting services, (iii) technical support, (iv) telephony and (v) e-mail migration services, all as set forth on Schedule 7.8(a). Buyer agrees that any access to Seller's software and/or databases shall be used only as the software and databases relate to the Business, and that Buyer shall not access or use any data that does not relate to the Business. Seller agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the Services in the manner and to the extent Seller customarily has provided such Services to the Business based on the ordinary course of business prior to the Closing Date. Buyer shall pay Seller the reasonable costs for each Service as set forth opposite the relevant Service on Schedule 7.8(a).

(b) In providing the Services hereunder, Seller may use such personnel of Seller as it deems necessary or appropriate, provided that they have the requisite skills and knowledge of the Business to render the Services in a commercially reasonable manner. Buyer agrees that its employees and any Hired Employees will cooperate with Seller as is reasonably required for Seller to provide the Services.

(c) Buyer understands that the Services are transitional in nature and are furnished by Seller for the purpose of accommodating the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Buyer further understands that Seller is not in the business of providing Services to third parties and has no interest in providing any Services after the dates specified on Schedule 7.8(a). Buyer agrees to transition to its own internal organization or other third party service providers for the provision of the Services as promptly as reasonably practicable but in no case later than the dates specified on Schedule 7.8(a).

(d) No liability shall result from any delay or failure in performance by Seller resulting from any cause, condition or event beyond the reasonable control of Seller, including but not limited to acts of God, fire, flood, war, government action (including eminent domain), accident, labor trouble or shortage, or inability to obtain material, utilities, equipment or transportation (any such cause, condition or event a "Force Majeure Event"). If Seller is wholly or partially prevented from providing a Service or Services or if Services are interrupted or suspended, in each case by reason of any Force Majeure Event, or if Seller, in the exercise of its reasonable good faith judgment, shall deem it necessary to suspend delivery of a Service hereunder for purposes of inspection, maintenance, repair, or replacement of equipment, parts or structures, Seller shall not be obligated to deliver such Service during such periods, provided that Seller agrees to give, when feasible, written notice of the interruption within a reasonable period of time explaining the purpose and likely duration thereof. Upon cessation of a Force Majeure Event, Seller shall resume its provision of the Services consistent with the terms hereof.

(e) Buyer understands that Seller is not in the business of providing Services to third parties and that the standard of care to which Seller and any of Seller's employees performing Services hereunder shall be accountable shall be the standard of care used by Seller in furnishing these Services to its own internal organization and Affiliates, including the Business prior to the Closing Date, and under no circumstances shall Seller or its employees be held accountable for a greater standard of care.

(f) Aggregate fixed monthly fees set forth on Schedule 7.8(a) shall be paid by Buyer to Seller within five (5) days of the end of each month.

(g) Seller shall not be liable for any Damages arising out of or related to the Services, whether arising out of breach of warranty, strict liability, tort, contract or otherwise, other than Losses which result directly from Seller's willful failure to perform, or gross negligence in performing, the Services. EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, SELLER MAKES NO REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES WHATSOEVER, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, WITH RESPECT TO THE SERVICES TO BE PROVIDED UNDER THIS SECTION 7.8.

(h) Seller's obligation to provide Services hereunder shall terminate upon the earliest to occur of: (A) the expiration of each Service as specified on Schedule 7.8(a); (B) that day set forth in a termination notice delivered by Buyer to Seller (which day shall be at least thirty (30) calendar days following the date of such written notice); or (C) notice by the non-breaching party to the breaching party if the breaching party has breached or defaulted in performing any of its material obligations under this Agreement and the breach or default has not been cured within fifteen (15) business days after notice thereof shall have been given to the breaching party. In the event of a termination of the Services pursuant to this Section 7.8 (h), Seller shall be entitled to the immediate payment of, and Buyer shall within five business days pay to the Seller, all non-disputed accrued amounts for Services under this Agreement as of the date of such termination.

(i) Seller and Buyer are independent contractors and, during the term in which Services are provided hereunder, the relationship between Seller and Buyer is that of vendor and vendee, with respect to the Services. Neither party (nor its agents or employees) shall under any circumstances be deemed agents, partners, joint ventures or representatives of the other party. Neither party shall have the right to bind the other party in any respect except as expressly provided herein.

SECTION 7.9. Retained Software Supplemental Services Agreement. (a) As of the Closing Date, the parties will enter into a Retained Software Supplemental Services Agreement (the "Retained Software Supplemental Services Agreement") that will provide, among other things, for Buyer to provide certain help desk and client visit support services to Seller at the prices, for the duration, and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth therein.

ARTICLE 8.

CONDITIONS TO THE OBLIGATIONS OF BUYER

The obligations of Buyer to purchase and pay for the Assets and assume the Assigned Contracts on the Closing Date, and consummate any other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, are, at its option, subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Closing Date, of the following conditions:

SECTION 8.1. Representations and Warranties. All the representations and warranties contained in Article 3 of this Agreement (considered collectively), and each of those representations and warranties (considered individually), must have been accurate as of the date of this Agreement, and must be accurate as of the Closing Date in all material respects (without giving effect to supplemental disclosure); provided, however, that to the extent any of the representations and warranties contain an express materiality qualification, such representations and warranties shall be accurate as of the date of this Agreement, and must be accurate as of the Closing Date, and provided further, that (i) representations and warranties which are expressly confined to a certain date shall speak only as of such date and (ii) notwithstanding any exceptions or disclosures to those representations and warranties, the Assets shall be conveyed to Buyer free and clear of any Claim whatsoever, except for Permitted Liens, and Seller shall have certified to such effect to Buyer in writing.

SECTION 8.2. Seller's Performance. All of the covenants and obligations that Seller is required to perform or to comply with pursuant to this Agreement at or prior to the Closing (considered collectively), and each of these covenants and obligations (considered individually), shall have been duly performed and complied with in all material respects.

SECTION 8.3. Absence of Regulatory Proceedings; Approvals. No proceeding, regulatory action or litigation shall have been instituted, threatened or proposed that could reasonably be expected to have a Material

Edgar Filing: QUADRAMED CORP - Form 8-K

Adverse Effect, and no order shall have been issued by any Governmental Body to enjoin, restrain or prohibit the transactions contemplated herein or materially adversely affect the Assets or the Business prior to Closing.

SECTION 8.4. No Material Adverse Effect. No event, occurrence, fact, condition, change, development or effect will exist or have occurred, exist or come to exist since the date hereof that, individually or in the aggregate, has constituted or resulted in, or could reasonably be expected to constitute or result in, a Material Adverse Effect, and Seller shall have certified to such effect to Buyer in writing.

SECTION 8.5. Third Party Consents and Waivers. Notwithstanding any disclosure to the contrary in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, Seller shall have obtained and delivered to Buyer, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Buyer, all third party consents and waivers set forth on Schedule 8.5.

SECTION 8.6. Ancillary Agreements. Seller shall have entered into and delivered to Buyer, as of the Closing Date, the Ancillary Agreements.

SECTION 8.7. Employment of Designated Employees. Each of the Employees listed on Schedule 8.7 and not less than 80% of all of the Employees (excluding the Non-Transferring Employees) shall have accepted Buyer's offer of employment prior to or as of the Closing Date.

SECTION 8.8. Accounts Receivable Statement. Seller shall have delivered to Buyer (i) the Receivables Statement, and (ii) the Sales Compensation Statement.

SECTION 8.9. No Proceedings. Except as would not be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, since the date hereof, there shall not have been commenced or threatened against Buyer or Seller any proceeding (a) involving any challenge to, or seeking Damages or other relief in connection with, any of the transactions contemplated herein or (b) that may have the effect of preventing, delaying, making illegal, imposing limitations or conditions on or otherwise interfering with any of the transactions contemplated herein.

ARTICLE 9. CONDITIONS TO THE OBLIGATIONS OF SELLER

The obligation of Seller to sell the Assets and to assign the Assigned Contracts on the Closing Date, and consummate any other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, is, at its option, subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Closing Date, of the following conditions:

SECTION 9.1. Representations and Warranties. All the representations and warranties contained in Article 4 of this Agreement (considered collectively), and each of those representations and warranties (considered individually), must have been accurate as of the date of this Agreement, and must be accurate as of the Closing Date in all material respects (without giving effect to supplemental disclosure); provided, however, that to the extent any of the representations and warranties in this Agreement contain an express materiality qualification, such representations and warranties shall be accurate as of the date of this Agreement, and must be accurate as of the Closing Date, and provided further, that representations and warranties which are expressly confined to a certain date shall speak only as of such date, and Buyer shall have certified to such effect to Seller in writing.

SECTION 9.2. Buyer's Performance. All of the covenants and obligations that Buyer is required to perform or to comply with pursuant to this Agreement at or prior to the Closing (considered collectively), and each of these covenants and obligations (considered individually), shall have been duly performed and complied with in all material respects.

SECTION 9.3. Absence of Regulatory Proceedings; Approvals. No proceeding, regulatory action or litigation shall have been instituted, threatened or proposed that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, and no order shall have been issued by any Governmental Body to enjoin, restrain or prohibit the transactions contemplated herein or materially adversely affect the Assets or the Business prior to Closing.

SECTION 9.4. Ancillary Agreements. Buyer shall have entered into and delivered to Seller, as of the Closing Date, the Ancillary Agreements.

SECTION 9.5. Accounts Receivables Statement. Buyer shall have agreed to (i) the Receivables Statement, and (ii) the Sales Compensation Statement.

ARTICLE 10. INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 10.1. Survival Period. All representations and warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement, or any certificate delivered in connection herewith shall survive the Closing until the eighteen month anniversary of the Closing Date (the "Survival Period"). The parties agree that no claims or causes of action may be brought, or litigation instituted, against Seller or Buyer based upon, directly or indirectly, any of the representations or warranties of the parties contained in this Agreement after the Survival Period or, except as provided in Section 11.2 hereof, any termination of this Agreement; provided, that the representations and warranties (i) of Seller in Sections 3.1, 3.2 and 3.22 and Buyer in Sections 4.1 and 4.2 shall survive indefinitely, and (ii) of Seller in Section 3.12 shall survive until 90 days after the applicable statute of limitations (including any and all valid extensions thereof). The parties expressly acknowledge and agree that the provisions of this Section 10.1(a) are, except as provided herein, intended to shorten the statute of limitations with respect to the breach by either party of any of its representations and warranties set forth in this Agreement.

SECTION 10.2. Indemnification by Seller. Subject to the limitations and conditions set forth herein, Seller hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Buyer, its officers, employees, agents, directors, representatives, members, controlling Persons and Affiliates (collectively, the "Buyer Indemnified Persons") for, and will pay to the Buyer Indemnified Persons the amount of, any Damages incurred by Buyer Indemnified Persons, whether or not involving a third-party claim, arising, directly or indirectly, from or in connection with:

(a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Seller in this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement;

(b) the Retained Liabilities; or

(c) any breach by Seller of any covenant or obligation of Seller in this Agreement.

SECTION 10.3. Indemnification By Buyer. Buyer hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Seller, and its officers, employees, agents, directors, representatives, shareholders, controlling Persons and Affiliates (collectively, "Seller Indemnified Persons") for, and will pay to the Seller Indemnified Persons the amount of, any Damages incurred by Seller Indemnified Persons, whether or not involving a third-party claim, arising, directly or indirectly, from or in connection with:

(a) any breach of any representation or warranty made by Buyer in this Agreement or any Ancillary Agreement;

(b) the Assumed Liabilities; or

(c) any breach by Buyer of any covenant or obligation of Buyer in this Agreement.

SECTION 10.4. Liability and Risk of Loss; Limitation of Liability. (a) Until the Closing, Seller shall remain liable for all obligations and liabilities, costs, and expenses, fixed or contingent, arising out of the operation or ownership of any of the Assets and out of the conduct of the Business prior to the Closing, and shall remain liable for all risk of loss of, and relating to, the Assets, except to the extent assumed by Buyer hereunder. Following the Closing, Seller shall remain liable for all of its obligations and liabilities, costs and expenses, whether fixed or contingent, except to the extent assumed by Buyer hereunder.

(b) Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, the liability of the Indemnifying Party to indemnify the Indemnified Party against any Damages shall be limited to claims for indemnification with respect to which the Indemnified Party has given to the Indemnifying Party written notice thereof, and instituted litigation with respect to, at or prior to the applicable survival date as set forth in Section 10.1. The written notice referred to in the previous sentence must state the basis of the claim for indemnification with reasonable specificity, including the Section or Sections of this Agreement alleged to have been breached.

(c) In no event shall Seller, on the one hand, or Buyer, on the other hand, be liable for indemnification pursuant to Section 10.2 or 10.3 unless and until the aggregate of all Damages which are incurred or suffered by the party seeking indemnification exceeds $100,000, in which case such party shall only be entitled to indemnification for such Damages in excess of $100,000; provided, however, that neither Seller, on the one hand, nor Buyer, on the other hand, shall be required to make payments for indemnification pursuant to Section 10.2 or 10.3 in an aggregate amount in excess of the Purchase Price.

(d) The limitation on indemnification set forth in Section 10.4(c) hereof shall not apply to Damages (i) to Buyer (1) as a result of Seller's breach of Section 5.7 hereof and (2) with respect to the Retained Liabilities, and (ii) to Seller (1) as a result of Buyer's breach of Section 6.4 hereof and (2) with respect to the Assumed Liabilities.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, neither party shall be liable for any Damages to the extent that the Damages suffered by the other party result from any improper or tortious act or omission by the other party or its Affiliates, officers, employees, agents or representatives or to the extent that the other party or its Affiliates, officers, employees, agents or representatives fail to take reasonable and prudent action to mitigate any Damages.

(f) In calculating amounts payable to an Indemnified Party, the amount of the indemnified Damages shall be computed net of (i) payments that the Indemnified Party is entitled to receive under any insurance policy with respect to such Damages, (ii) any prior or subsequent recovery by the Indemnified Party from any Person with respect to such Damages and (iii) any Tax benefit to the Indemnified Party with respect to such Damages.

SECTION 10.5. Procedure for Indemnification: Third Party Claims.

(a) Promptly after receipt by a Buyer Indemnified Person or Seller Indemnified Person (the "Indemnified Party") under either Section 10.2, 10.3, or 10.4 of notice of the commencement of any proceeding against it, such Indemnified Party will, if a claim is to be made against a party required to provide indemnification under either such Section (an "Indemnifying Party"), give notice to the Indemnifying Party of the commencement of such claim, but the failure to notify the Indemnifying Party will not relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability that it may have to any Indemnified Party, except to the extent that the Indemnifying Party is prejudiced by the Indemnified Party's failure to give such notice.

(b) If any proceeding is brought against an Indemnified Party and it gives notice to the Indemnifying Party of the commencement of such proceeding, the Indemnifying Party will be entitled to participate in such proceeding and, to the extent that it wishes to assume the defense of such proceeding with counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party and, after notice from the Indemnifying Party to the Indemnified Party of its election to assume the defense of such proceeding, the Indemnifying Party will not, as long as it diligently conducts such defense, be liable to the Indemnified Party under this Section 10 for any fees of other counsel or any other expenses with respect to the defense of such proceeding subsequently incurred by the Indemnified Party in connection with the defense of such proceeding. If the Indemnifying Party assumes the defense of a proceeding, (i) no compromise or settlement of such claims may be effected by the Indemnifying Party without the Indemnified Party's consent unless the sole relief provided is monetary Damages that are paid in full by the Indemnifying Party; and (ii) the Indemnified Party will have no liability with respect to any compromise or settlement of such claims effected without its consent but will execute releases at the request of the Indemnifying Party if the settlement may be effected without its consent. The Indemnifying Party will have no liability for any compromise or settlement of claims effected without its consent.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if an Indemnified Party determines in good faith that there is a reasonable probability that a proceeding may adversely affect it or its Affiliates other than as a result of monetary Damages for which it would be entitled to indemnification under this Agreement, the Indemnified Party may, by notice to the Indemnifying Party, participate in the defense of such proceeding at its expense, but the Indemnifying Party will not be bound by any determination of a proceeding so defended or any compromise or settlement effected without its consent (which may not be unreasonably withheld).

SECTION 10.6. Procedure for Indemnification: Other Claims. A claim for indemnification for any matter not involving a third-party claim may be asserted by notice to the party from whom indemnification is sought within the applicable time periods set forth herein.

SECTION 10.7. Other Matters. (a) Subject to the provisions of Sections 5.7(b) and 6.4(b), if the Closing shall occur, the indemnification provisions of this Article 10 shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of Seller and Buyer for any breach of any covenants, representations or warranties made by the other party in this Agreement and each party hereby waives all statutory, common law and other claims with respect thereto, other than claims for indemnification pursuant to this Article 10.

(b) There shall be no indemnification by Seller or Buyer for any special, incidental, punitive or consequential damages.

(c) Upon making any payment to an Indemnified Party for any indemnification claim pursuant to this Article 10, the Indemnifying Party shall be subrogated, to the extent of such payment, to any rights which the Indemnified Party or its Affiliates may have against any other Persons with respect to the subject matter underlying such indemnification claim and the Indemnified Party shall take such actions as the Indemnifying Party may reasonably require to perfect such subrogation or to pursue such rights against such other Persons as the Indemnified Party or its Affiliates may have.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, in no event shall the directors or officers of Seller incur any personal liability as a result of any statements made and documents delivered in connection with this Agreement.

(e) Any indemnification payment by Seller or Buyer pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as an adjustment to the Purchase Price hereunder.

SECTION 10.8. Right of Setoff; Escrow. Upon notice to Seller specifying in reasonable detail the basis therefore, Buyer may set off any amount to which it may be entitled under this Article 10 against any amount otherwise payable by Buyer to Seller under the Note or pursuant to Section 1.6(d) hereof.

ARTICLE 11. TERMINATION

SECTION 11.1. Termination Events. By notice given prior to or at the Closing, subject to Section 11.2 hereof, this Agreement may be terminated as follows:

(a) by Buyer if a material breach of any provision of this

Edgar Filing: QUADRAMED CORP - Form 8-K

Agreement has been committed by Seller and such breach has not been waived by Buyer;

(b) by Seller if a material breach of any provision of this Agreement has been committed by Buyer and such breach has not been waived by Seller;

(c) by mutual consent of Buyer and Seller;

(d) by Buyer, if the Closing has not occurred by the close of business on January 31, 2003 (the "Abandonment Date"), or such later date as the parties may agree upon, unless Buyer is in material breach of this Agreement; or

(e) by Seller, if the Closing has not occurred by the close of business on the Abandonment Date, or such later date as the parties may agree upon, unless Seller is in material breach of this Agreement.

SECTION 11.2. Effect of Termination. Each party's right of termination under Section 11.1 is in addition to any other rights it may have under this Agreement or otherwise, and the exercise of such right of termination will not be an election of remedies. If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 11.1, all obligations of the parties under this Agreement will terminate, except that the obligations of the parties in this Section 11.2 and Sections 7.1 and 7.2 and Article 12 will survive, provided, however, that, if this Agreement is terminated because of a breach of this Agreement by the non-terminating party or because one or more of the conditions to the terminating party's obligations under this Agreement is not satisfied as a result of the party's failure to comply with its obligations under this Agreement, the terminating party's right to pursue all legal remedies will survive such termination unimpaired.

WHEREAS, Buyer and Seller have entered into an Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of December __, 2002 (the "Asset Purchase Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, the Asset Purchase Agreement contemplates that Buyer and Seller, as a condition to the Closing, will enter into this Agreement in connection with the indemnification obligations set forth in Article 10 of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual promises herein made, and in consideration of the representations, warranties, and covenants contained herein and in the Asset Purchase Agreement, each Party agrees as follows:

SECTION 1. Asset Purchase Agreement. Undefined capitalized terms used herein are defined in the Asset Purchase Agreement. The Escrow Agent hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Asset Purchase Agreement, but, except for referring to definitions of certain undefined capitalized terms herein, the Escrow Agent is not charged with any knowledge of the contents of, or any duties or responsibilities under the Asset Purchase Agreement.

SECTION 2. Purpose; Effectiveness. This Agreement has been executed and delivered, and the deposit of the Escrow Assets (as defined below) is made, for the purpose of reimbursing and providing compensation for the Damages referred to in Article 10 of the Asset Purchase Agreement that any Buyer Indemnified Person incurs, subject to the terms, limitations and conditions set forth therein. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Agreement to the contrary, Buyer's right to recover from Seller for Damages shall not be limited to the Escrow Fund, but shall be subject to the terms, limitations and conditions set forth in Article 10 of the Asset Purchase Agreement.

Edgar Filing: QUADRAMED CORP - Form 8-K

SECTION 3. Escrow Fund.

3.1 Escrow Assets. Upon execution of this Agreement, Seller will deposit with the Escrow Agent one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000) (the "Escrow Assets"). The "Escrow Fund" means the Escrow Assets that, as of the date of determination, remain subject to this Agreement. Accumulated interest on the Escrow Assets will not be part of the Escrow Fund and will be paid to Seller in accordance with Section 6.3 hereof. The Escrow Agent hereby agrees to act as escrow agent and to invest, safeguard, and disburse the Escrow Assets pursuant to the terms and conditions hereof.

3.2 Tax Liability. (a) Any tax liability attributable to the payment of any interest or other amounts payable to Seller with respect to the Escrow Assets will be Seller's responsibility. Buyer and Seller, jointly and severally, agree to assume any and all obligations imposed now or hereafter by any applicable tax laws with respect to the transfer of Escrow Assets under this Agreement, and to indemnify and hold the Escrow Agent harmless from and against any liability on account of taxes to which the Escrow Agent may be or becomes subject in connection with, or that arises out of, this Escrow Agreement, including costs and expenses (including reasonable legal and experts' fees and expenses), interest, and penalties. To the extent that Buyer is required to make any payments of taxes which would otherwise be the responsibility of Seller under this Section 3.2, Seller agrees to reimburse Buyer for any such payment promptly upon written notice.

(b) To the extent required by law, the Escrow Agent annually will file information returns with the United States Internal Revenue Service. Seller and Buyer will provide the Escrow Agent with all forms and information necessary to complete such information returns, including completed, executed Forms W-9 for Seller and Buyer, which Forms W-9 (or any successor form thereto) will be delivered to Escrow Agent at the time of execution of this Escrow Agreement. SECTION 4. Escrow Period and Distribution Upon Termination. The Escrow Fund will remain in existence for eighteen months from the date hereof, or until ____, 2004 (the "Escrow Period"). At the close of business on the date the Escrow Period terminates (the "Termination Date"), the Escrow Period will terminate with respect to the Escrow Fund and the Escrow Agent shall distribute to Seller the Escrow Fund, except as set forth in Section 5 hereof

SECTION 5. Assertion of Claims.

5.1 Assertion of Claims. At any time during the Escrow Period, Buyer may deliver a certificate signed in good faith (an "Officer's Certificate") to the Escrow Agent, stating that one or more of the Buyer Indemnified Persons or any of their respective successors and assigns has paid Damages in an amount specified in such Officer's Certificate (the "Asserted Damages"), with the basis for such claim set forth in reasonable detail, including the relevant section of the Asset Purchase Agreement to which such item is related. After receiving an Officer's Certificate, the Escrow Agent will promptly deliver a copy of such certificate to Seller.

5.2 Response of Seller to Assertion of Claims. (a) Within 45 days after receipt by Seller of Officer's Certificate, Seller may deliver to Buyer and to the Escrow Agent a written response (the "Response Notice") in which Seller: (i) agrees that funds equal to the Asserted Damages may be released from the Escrow Fund to Buyer; (ii) agrees that funds equal to part, but not all, of the Asserted Damages (the "Agreed Amount") may be released from the

Escrow Fund to Buyer or (iii) indicates that no part of the Asserted Damages may be released from the Escrow Fund to Buyer. Any part of the Asserted Damages that is not to be released to Buyer shall be the "Contested Amount." If a Response Notice is not received by the Escrow Agent within such 45-day period, then Seller shall be deemed to have contested the amounts set forth in the Officer's Certificate, and such amounts shall be deemed a "Contested Amount."

(b) If Seller delivers a Response Notice agreeing that funds equal to the Asserted Damages as set forth in the Officer's Certificate may be released from the Escrow Fund to the Buyer, the Escrow Agent shall promptly following the receipt of the Response Notice, deliver or cause the Escrow Agent to deliver to Buyer funds out of the Escrow Fund equal to the Asserted Damages (or the balance of the Escrow Fund, if less), against a receipt therefor signed by Buyer.

(c) If Seller delivers a Response Notice agreeing that funds equal to part, but not all, of the Asserted Damages may be released from the Escrow Fund to Buyer, the Escrow Agent shall promptly following the receipt of the Response Notice deliver to Buyer funds equal to the Agreed Amount (or the balance of the Escrow Fund, if less), against a receipt therefor signed by Buyer.

(d) If Seller delivers a Response Notice indicating that there is a Contested Amount, Seller and Buyer shall attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute related to the Contested Amount. If Seller and Buyer are not able to resolve such dispute within 30 days of receipt by Buyer of the Response Notice, the dispute shall be resolved in accordance with Section 8.1 hereof and until released in accordance with subsection (e) all Contested Amounts shall be held by the Escrow Agent.

(e) In connection with any Contested Amount, upon the receipt of the Escrow Agent of either (i) a certificate executed by Buyer and Seller and indicating the amount of funds agreed by Buyer and Seller to be released from the Escrow Fund (a "Resolution Certificate") or (ii) a certificate executed by Buyer and Seller and stating that (1) a final order, judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, which order, judgment or decree is not subject to appeal, or (2) a final and unappealable award or decision of an arbitrator, together with a copy of such order, judgment, decree, award or decision, has been entered with respect to the Contested Amount and has not been stayed (a "Litigation Certificate"), the Escrow Agent shall release the amount of funds from the Escrow Fund as is specified by Buyer and Seller in the Resolution Certificate or Litigation Certificate, as the case may be (or the balance of the Escrow Fund, if less), against a receipt therefor signed by Buyer. Buyer and Seller will promptly deliver the Litigation Certificate to the Escrow Agent upon receipt of (1) or (2) above.

(f) Upon the Termination Date, following the payment to Buyer out of funds available in the Escrow Fund of any amounts payable that have not been paid as of the Termination Date to Buyer in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Escrow Agent will promptly disburse to Seller the remaining balance, if any, of the Escrow Fund. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, prior to the Termination Date, Buyer has given an Officer's Certificate containing Asserted Damages which has not been fully resolved prior to the Termination Date in accordance with this Section 5, the Escrow Agent shall retain in the Escrow Fund after the Termination Date to the extent not so resolved funds equal to 100% of the Contested Amount or the Asserted Damages (if no Response Notice has been given to an Officer's Certificate), as the case may be (or the balance of the Escrow Fund, if less), with respect to all claims which have not then been resolved until such time as such claims have been resolved, and thereafter funds will be disbursed in accordance with the terms of this Section 5.

Edgar Filing: QUADRAMED CORP - Form 8-K

SECTION 6. Investment of Escrow Assets.

6.1 Permitted Investments. Escrow Agent will deposit the Escrow Assets in such Permitted Investments (as defined below) as instructed in writing by Seller. Such written instructions will specify the type and identity of the Permitted Investments to be purchased and/or sold and will also include the name of the broker-dealer, if any, that the Seller directs Escrow Agent to use in respect of such Permitted Investment. If no such broker-dealer is specified, Escrow Agent may use a broker-dealer of its own selection, including a broker-dealer owned by or affiliated with Escrow Agent or any of its affiliates. Escrow Agent or any of its affiliates may receive compensation with respect to any investment directed hereunder. "Permitted Investments" means (i) certificates of deposit, bankers acceptances, time deposits, Eurocurrency deposits, and similar types of investments routinely offered by commercial banks with final maturities of one year or less issued by commercial banks having capital and surplus in excess of $100 million; (ii) commercial paper issued by any corporation, if such commercial paper has credit ratings of at least "A-1" by S&P and at least P-1 by Moody's; (iii) U.S. Government obligations with a maturity of one year or less; (iv) repurchase obligations for instruments of the type described in clause (iii); and (v) shares of money market mutual or similar funds having assets in excess of $100 million; provided that "Permitted Investments" exclude any security or instrument that would subject any of the Escrow Fund to any early withdrawal or termination penalty, for any investment which is not liquid.

6.2 Receipt of Instructions. Unless written instructions from Seller are received by the Escrow Agent, the Escrow Funds will be invested in shares or other units of Reich & Tang Funds - Cortland General Money Market or any successor fund thereto, which is a money market fund registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, the portfolio of which is limited to obligations of the United States or any state or instrumentality thereof.

6.3 Interest. All interest on the Escrow Funds shall be for the account of Seller and paid to Seller no later than five (5) business days after the end of each month.

6.3 Liquidation. Escrow Agent will have the right to liquidate any Permitted Investments held to provide funds necessary to make any required payments under this Agreement. Escrow Agent will not have any liability for any loss sustained as a result of any Permitted Investment made pursuant to the instructions of Seller or as a result of any liquidation of any Permitted Investment prior to its maturity or the failure of the Seller to give Escrow Agent instructions to invest or reinvest the Escrow Assets or any earnings thereon.

6.4 Delivery Instructions. Delivery of the Escrow Fund is subject to the sale and final settlement of directed Permitted Investments. Delivery instructions must be delivered to Escrow Agent by 11:00 a.m. (New York time) if the Escrow Fund is to be delivered by the close of business that business day; absent instructions by that time, the Escrow Fund will be delivered on the next business day.

SECTION 7. Escrow Agent's Provisions.

7.1 Limitation on Escrow Agent's Liability. In performing any of its duties under this Agreement, Escrow Agent will not be liable to any Party for damages, except in the event of gross negligence or willful misconduct on Escrow Agent's part. Escrow Agent will not incur any such liability for (a) any act or failure to act made or omitted in good faith or (b) any action taken or omitted in reliance upon any instrument, including any written statement or affidavit provided for in this Escrow Agreement, that Escrow

Agent in good faith believes to be genuine, nor will Escrow Agent be liable or responsible for forgeries, fraud, impersonations, or determining the scope of any agent's authority. In addition, Escrow Agent may consult with legal counsel in connection with its duties under this Agreement and will be fully protected in any act taken, suffered, or permitted by it in good faith in accordance with the advice of counsel. Escrow Agent is not responsible for determining and verifying the authority of any person acting or purporting to act on behalf of any Party. In no event shall Escrow Agent be liable for special, consequential, indirect or punitive damages.

7.2 Indemnification of Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent shall have a lien on the Escrow Fund to secure payment of any such amounts, prior to the interest of the other Parties thereto.

7.3 Right of Interpleader. Should any controversy arise involving the Parties or any of them or any other person with respect to this Escrow Agreement or the Escrow Fund, or should a substitute escrow agent fail to be designated as provided in Section 7.5 below, or if Escrow Agent should be in doubt as to what action to take, Escrow Agent will have the right, but not the obligation, either to (a) withhold delivery of the Escrow Assets until the controversy is resolved, the conflicting demands are withdrawn or its doubt is resolved or (b) institute a petition for interpleader in any court of competent jurisdiction to determine the rights of Buyer and Seller. If the Escrow Agent is a party to any dispute, Escrow Agent will have the additional right to refer such controversy to binding arbitration to be conducted in accordance with Section 8.1.

7.4 Escrow Agent Fees. Reasonable fees and expenses for the services Escrow Agent renders pursuant to this Agreement (including reasonable fees and disbursements of its counsel incurred in connection with its performance of such services) will be paid to Escrow Agent. Buyer will pay the Escrow Agent's fees and expenses. Escrow Agent's fee schedule is set forth on Exhibit A. The Escrow Agent shall have a lien on the Escrow Fund to secure payment of such fees and expenses, prior to the interest of the other Parties thereto.

7.5 Successor Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent, or any successor to it hereafter appointed, may at any time resign by giving thirty (30) days notice in writing to Buyer and Seller and will be discharged of its duties hereunder upon the appointment of a successor Escrow Agent as hereinafter provided. In addition, Seller and Buyer acting jointly, will have the right to terminate the appointment of the Escrow Agent by giving it notice in writing of such termination, specifying the date upon which such termination will take effect. Upon any such resignation or termination, Buyer and Seller will appoint a successor Escrow Agent. Any such successor Escrow Agent will deliver to Buyer and Seller a written instrument accepting such appointment hereunder, and thereupon it will succeed to all the rights and duties of Escrow Agent hereunder and will be entitled to receive the Escrow Fund. Any entity with which the Escrow Agent is merged, consolidated or converted or which may acquire all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Escrow Agent will be the successor of the Escrow Agent under this Agreement without the execution or filing of any further document or the taking of any further act.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, by agreeing to arbitration, Buyer and Seller do not intend to deprive any court of its jurisdiction to issue a pre-arbitral injunction, pre-arbitral attachment, or other order in aid of arbitration proceedings and the enforcement of any award. Without prejudice to such provisional remedies as may be available under the jurisdiction of a court, the arbitrators shall have full authority to grant provisional remedies and to direct Buyer and Seller to request that any court modify or vacate any temporary or preliminary relief issued by such court, and to award damages for the failure of Buyer and Seller to respect the arbitrators' orders to that effect.

2.2 License to Documentation. Subject to the Terms, QuadraMed grants to Customer, and Customer accepts, a non-exclusive, nontransferable (except as otherwise provided herein) right and License to use the Documentation solely in connection with the Software. Customer may not copy the Documentation, but may purchase additional copies of the Documentation at QuadraMed's then current prices.

2.3 Limitations. Except as specifically permitted in this Agreement, Customer shall not directly or indirectly (a) use any Confidential Information to create any software or documentation that is in any way similar to the Software or Documentation; (b) encumber, transfer, rent, lease, time-share or use the Software in any service bureau arrangement; (c) copy (except for archival purposes), distribute, manufacture, adapt, create derivative works of, translate, localize, port, or otherwise modify Software; (d) use the Products in any nuclear, aviation, mass transit, life support, or other inherently dangerous applications or support thereof; (e) use any Third Party Products delivered by QuadraMed for any purpose other than to implement and use the Software; or (f) permit any third party to engage in any of the acts proscribed in clauses (a) through (e) herein. 2.4 Reverse Engineering. Except as described in this Section 2.4, Customer is not permitted: (a) to decompile, disassemble, reverse compile, reverse assemble, reverse translate or otherwise reverse engineer the Software; (b) to use any similar means to discover the source code of the Software or to discover the trade secrets in the Software; or (c) to otherwise circumvent any technological measures that control access to the Software. Customer may reverse engineer or otherwise circumvent the technological measures protecting the Software for the sole purpose of identifying and analyzing those elements that are necessary to achieve Interoperability only if: (i) doing so is necessary to achieve Interoperability and does not constitute infringement under Title 17 of the United States Code; (ii) such circumvention is confined to those parts of the Software and to such acts as are necessary to achieve Interoperability; (iii) the information to be gained thereby has not already been made readily available to Customer or has not been provided by QuadraMed within a reasonable time after Customer's written request to QuadraMed to provide such information; (iv) the information gained is not used for any purpose other than to achieve Interoperability and is not disclosed to any other person except as may be necessary to achieve Interoperability; and (v) the information obtained is not used (A) to create a computer program substantially similar in its expression to the Software including, but not limited to, expressions of the Software in other computer languages, or (B) for any other act restricted by QuadraMed's intellectual property rights in the Software.

2.5 License to the Government. If any Software or Documentation is acquired by or on behalf of a unit or agency of the United States Government, the Government agrees that such Software or Documentation is "commercial computer software" or "commercial computer software documentation" and that, absent a written agreement with QuadraMed to the contrary, the Government's rights with respect to such Software or Documentation are, in the case of civilian agency use, Restricted Rights, as defined in FAR ss.52.227.19, and if for Department of Defense use, limited by the terms of this Agreement, pursuant to DFARS ss.227.7202.

Edgar Filing: QUADRAMED CORP - Form 8-K

Minimum Requirements specified and modified from time to time by QuadraMed. Use of any Product on any system that does not meet the Applicable Minimum Requirements or is not a Designated System is a breach of this Agreement, voids all QuadraMed warranties as to the Product, and relieves QuadraMed of any obligation to provide Customer Support Services for the Product. Customer shall conform its Designated System(s) within ninety (90) days after notice of revised Applicable Minimum Requirements. Customer may, by prior written notice to QuadraMed and by payment of QuadraMed's Fees then in effect for the necessary Services, change the Designated System if the new Designated System also meets the Applicable Minimum Requirements. Each Designated System must be controlled exclusively by Customer or its Qualified Contractor and used exclusively for Customer's own internal business. In the event of a disaster or a failure of any Designated System, Customer or its Qualified Contractor may, for the duration of the emergency, use the applicable Product on a backup system that meets the Applicable Minimum Requirements, subject to all of the Authorized User and other limitations herein; provided that Customer provides written notice to QuadraMed of the use within a reasonable period after the onset of the emergency.

2.9 Designated System Sites. Upon written notice to QuadraMed and with QuadraMed's express written permission, which may be withheld in its sole discretion, Customer may relocate or change the Designated System Site; provided that without QuadraMed's express written permission Customer shall not relocate Designated Systems or change or add a Designated System Site (a) to any location other than a Designated System Site that is controlled exclusively by Customer or its Qualified Contractor and used exclusively for operation of Customer's own internal business; or (b) to any country outside the United States. Customer acknowledges that Fees vary by country and that proposed Designated System Sites in some countries cannot currently be supported because of inadequate intellectual property laws or logistics. The written notice shall in all cases indicate the location of the proposed new Designated System Site and the former Designated System Site. Customer acknowledges and agrees that the designation of a new Designated System Site if approved in writing by QuadraMed, shall not cause any change to the limitations on Authorized Users or the Customer Support Services terms set forth on the Order Form(s) then in effect.

2.10 Transfers. Customer may transfer a License within its Customer Group upon written notice to QuadraMed; and subject to the terms and fees, if any, of QuadraMed's transfer policy then in effect; provided that such transfer shall be subject to the limitation on Authorized Users and other limitations set forth on the Order Form(s) then in effect. Such a transfer shall not relieve Customer of any of its obligations hereunder, including without limitation, obligations specific to the transferred License; nor will the transfer effect an assignment in whole or in part of this Agreement to any third party (even if such third party is an Affiliate) without the prior written consent of QuadraMed, and any such attempt shall be void. All assignments are subject to Section 14.9 herein.

2.11 Data Protection. Customer will take appropriate steps, both before Installation and at all times thereafter, to copy, back-up and protect Customer's own data and programs; and to protect Customer's equipment from any damage. Customer will be solely responsible for reconstruction, replacement, repair, or re-creation of lost programs, data, or equipment in the event of hardware or software failure. Where a loss of data is caused by a confirmed failure of the Software, QuadraMed agrees to provide reasonable assistance to Customer in the recovery of data for the period from the latest Customer backup of the data until the failure, such period not to exceed twenty-four (24) hours. The foregoing states QuadraMed's sole responsibility to Customer with respect to data loss.

2.12 Updates. If Customer subscribes to Customer Support Services during any period when QuadraMed makes an Update available, the Update shall be provided solely in accordance with the Customer Support Service terms as set forth on the Order Form. QuadraMed shall have no obligation to revise or update the Software or to support any version of the Software other than the then current version and the immediately previous version.

2.13 Problem Reporting. Customer will notify QuadraMed promptly regarding any Product malfunction. During the warranty period and so long as Customer subscribes to Customer Support Services, Customer will allow QuadraMed, in person or via modem, full and unrestricted access to all equipment and facilities used in connection with the Products. QuadraMed will make appropriate arrangements with a representative of Customer prior to such access. Customer will perform problem determination procedures prescribed by QuadraMed including, but not limited to, running diagnostic procedures and Customer will not modify, maintain, enhance or attempt repairs to the Products unless approved by QuadraMed.

2.14 Qualified Contractors. Customer shall indemnify QuadraMed for any breach of this Agreement by any Qualified Contractor of Customer or the Customer Group.

3. PROFESSIONAL SERVICES.

3.1 Customer Support Services. Customer Support Services ordered by Customer will be provided on an annual subscription basis (unless otherwise specified on an Order Form) subject to the Customer Support Services terms as set forth on the Order Form and the Fees in effect on the date such Services are ordered or renewed. Reinstatement of lapsed Customer Support Services is subject to payment by Customer of QuadraMed's Customer Support Services reinstatement fees in effect on the date Customer Support is re-ordered. Customer may obtain Customer Support Services for Limited Production Products on a time and materials basis at the fees in effect at the time such services are rendered. Any revisions or updates to the Software delivered by way of Customer Support Services shall be treated for all purposes under this Agreement as Software and all intellectual property rights therein shall be retained by QuadraMed. Customer is required to purchase the first year of Customer Support Services for each Product licensed and such Services shall begin on the Commencement Date applicable to each Product ordered. QuadraMed agrees to make all Products delivered under this Agreement compliant with Federal and State regulatory requirements, as is technically feasible, including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"). If, after Installation, any law or regulation applicable to Customer is enacted with which the Product does not comply, QuadraMed shall undertake modification of the Product and shall provide Customer, within a reasonable period of time, with Updates or Upgrades as necessary, subject to the Terms of this Agreement. QuadraMed reserves the right in its sole discretion to charge Customer for additional functionality, modifications, or additions to the Product to comply with Federal or State requirements.

3.2 Installation, Training, Consulting and Education Services. QuadraMed will provide installation, training, consulting, and education services agreed to by the parties in an Order Form. Except as otherwise specifically provided on the Order Form, (a) all such Services shall be billed on a time and materials basis; (b) all work product delivered in connection with the Services shall be provided to Customer pursuant to a nonexclusive license to use the work product solely for Customer's own internal business purposes and any revisions or updates to the Software delivered by way of Installation, such Services or otherwise by QuadraMed shall be treated for all purposes under this Agreement as Software and all intellectual property rights therein shall be retained by QuadraMed; and (c) the Services shall be delivered in accordance with the Terms of this Agreement and the applicable Order Form.

5. Proprietary Rights.

5.1 Software. QuadraMed retains all rights, title and interest in the Products and Customer shall not take any action inconsistent with such title and ownership. Customer acknowledges that the License is subject to any and all applicable rights of third parties in the Products. The Products are licensed only to the extent that QuadraMed is legally and contractually entitled to license the same to Customer and Customer shall comply with all third party restrictions on use of the Products that are made known to Customer.

5.2 Intellectual Property Protection. Customer shall not alter or remove any printed or on-screen copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret, proprietary, or other legal notices contained on or in copies of any Software or Documentation. Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Software may contain code or require devices that detect or prevent unauthorized use of the Software.

5.3 Confidentiality. Each party acknowledges that Confidential Information of the other party may be disclosed to the other party during the term of this Agreement. Each Recipient agrees that during the term of this Agreement and for a period of seven (7) years after any termination of this Agreement, except as expressly permitted hereunder or by a writing executed by Discloser making specific reference to Confidential Information, Recipient will (a) not disclose the Discloser's Confidential Information to anyone except to perform the Recipient's obligations hereunder; (b) take measures at least substantially equivalent to the measures it takes to protect its own proprietary information, but in no event less than commercially reasonable measures, to prevent unauthorized access to Discloser's Confidential Information; and (c) use the Confidential Information only for the purposes specifically permitted hereunder or if not stated herein, solely to perform the Recipient's obligations hereunder.

5.4 Required & Permitted Disclosure. 5.5 Return/Destruction. Within ten (10) days after request of the Discloser, and in the Discloser's sole discretion, the Recipient shall either return to the Discloser originals and all copies of any Confidential Information and all information, records and materials developed therefrom by the Recipient, or destroy the same, other than such Confidential Information as to which this Agreement expressly provides a continuing right to the Recipient to retain at the time of the request.

5.6 Relief. Money damages will not be an adequate remedy if this Section 5 is breached and, therefore, either party shall, in addition to any other legal or equitable remedies, be entitled to seek an injunction or similar equitable relief against such breach or threatened breach without the necessity of posting any bond.

6. HIPAA Assurances.

14.3 Waiver. The waiver by either party of a breach or a default of any provision of this Agreement by the other party shall not be construed as a waiver of any succeeding breach of the same or any other provision, nor shall any delay or omission on the part of either party to exercise or avail itself of any right, power or privilege that it has, or may have hereunder, operate as a waiver of any right, power or privilege by such party. Terms set forth in any purchase order of Customer (or other similar document) that are in addition to or at variance with the terms of this Agreement are specifically waived by Customer. All such terms are considered by QuadraMed to be proposed material alterations of this Agreement and are rejected. Customer's purchase order is only effective as Customer's unqualified commitment to pay for a license to the Software upon the terms (and only the terms) set forth herein. This Agreement supersedes the terms of any QuadraMed unsigned or shrinkwrap license included in any QuadraMed package, media, or electronic version of QuadraMed software, provided that the use limitations contained in such license agreement shall be effective for the specified license. All notices shall be in English and shall be effective upon receipt.

14.11 Authority. The parties and each individual executing this Agreement on behalf of the parties hereto represent and warrant that such individual is duly authorized to execute and deliver this Agreement on behalf of his or her party.

(o) such other documents as we have deemed necessary or appropriate as a basis for the opinions set forth below.

We express no opinion as to the laws of any jurisdiction other than (i) the Applicable Laws of the State of New York, (ii) the Applicable Laws of the United States of America, and (iii) the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL").

The Purchase Agreement, the Bill of Sale and the Escrow Agreement shall hereinafter be referred to collectively as the "Transaction Agreements". "QuadraMed Applicable Contracts" mean those agreements or instruments set forth on Schedule A to the QuadraMed Certificate and which have been identified to us as all the agreements and instruments which are material to the business or financial condition of QuadraMed. "Applicable Laws" shall mean those laws, rules and regulations, other than the Excluded Laws, which, in our experience, are normally applicable to transactions of the type contemplated by the Transaction Agreements, without our having made any special investigation as to the applicability of any specific law, rule or regulation, and which are not the subject of a specific opinion herein referring expressly to a particular law or laws. "Governmental Approval" means any consent, approval, license, authorization or validation of, or filing, recording or registration with, any Governmental Authority pursuant to the DGCL and the Applicable Laws of the State of New York. "Governmental Authorities" means governmental authorities of New York and Delaware. "Excluded Laws" means any laws, rules or regulations relating to the regulation of the healthcare industry or to payment for services rendered by healthcare providers, including without limitation: (i) Sections 1877, 1128A, 1128A or 1128B of the Social Security Act; (ii) the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act; (iii) any prohibition on the making of any false statement or claim, or misrepresentation of material facts to any governmental agency that administers a federal or state healthcare program (including, but not limited to Medicare, Medicaid, and the federal Civilian Health and Medical Plan of the Uniformed Services); (iv) the licensure, certification, or registration requirements of healthcare facilities, services, or equipment; (v) any state certificate of need or similar law governing the establishment of healthcare facilities or services or the making of healthcare capital expenditures; (vi) any state law relating to fee-splitting or the corporate practice of medicine; (vii) any state physician self-referral prohibition or state anti-kickback law; (viii) any criminal offense relating to the delivery of, or claim for payment for, a healthcare item or service under any federal or state healthcare program; (ix) any federal or state law relating to the interference with or obstruction of any investigation into any criminal offense; and (x) any criminal offense under federal or state law relating to the unlawful manufacture, distribution, prescription, or dispensing of a controlled substance.

Based upon the foregoing and subject to the limitations, qualifications, exceptions and assumptions set forth herein, we are of the opinion that:

1. QuadraMed is validly existing and in good standing under the DGCL.

2. QuadraMed Operating Corporation is validly existing and in good standing under the DGCL.

Edgar Filing: QUADRAMED CORP - Form 8-K

3. QuadraMed has the corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform all of its obligations under each of the Transaction Agreements to which it is a party under the DGCL. The execution and delivery of each of the Transaction Agreements and the consummation by QuadraMed of the transactions contemplated thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate action on the part of QuadraMed under the DGCL. Each of the Transaction Agreements has been duly executed and delivered by QuadraMed under the DGCL.

4. Each of the Transaction Agreements constitutes the valid and binding obligation of QuadraMed, enforceable against QuadraMed in accordance with its terms under the Applicable Laws of the State of New York.

5. The execution and delivery by QuadraMed of the Transaction Agreements and the performance by QuadraMed of its obligations under each of the Transaction Agreements, each in accordance with its terms, do not (i) conflict with the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or the Amended and Restated By-Laws of QuadraMed, or (ii) constitute a violation of or default under any QuadraMed Applicable Contracts. We do not express any opinion, however, as to whether the execution, delivery or performance by QuadraMed of the Transaction Agreements will constitute a violation of, or a default under, any covenant, restriction or provision with respect to financial ratios or tests or any aspect of the financial condition or results of operation of QuadraMed.

6. QuadraMed Operating Corporation has the corporate power and authority to execute, deliver and perform all of its obligations under each of the Transaction Agreements to which it is a party under the DGCL. The execution and delivery of each of the Transaction Agreements and the consummation by QuadraMed Operating Corporation of the transactions contemplated thereby have been duly authorized by all requisite corporate action on the part of QuadraMed Operating Corporation under the DGCL. Each of the Transaction Agreements has been duly executed and delivered by QuadraMed Operating Corporation under the DGCL.

7. Each of the Transaction Agreements constitutes the valid and binding obligation of QuadraMed Operating Corporation, enforceable against QuadraMed Operating Corporation in accordance with its terms under the Applicable Laws of the State of New York.

8. The execution and delivery by QuadraMed Operating Corporation of the Transaction Agreements and the performance by QuadraMed Operating Corporation of its obligations under each of the Transaction Agreements, each in accordance with its terms, do not conflict with the Certificate of Incorporation or the By-Laws of QuadraMed Operating Corporation.

9. Neither the execution, delivery or performance by QuadraMed of the Transaction Agreements to which it is a party nor the compliance by QuadraMed with the terms and provisions thereof will contravene any provision of the DGCL, any Applicable Law of the State of New York or any Applicable Law of the United States of America.

10. Neither the execution, delivery or performance by QuadraMed Operating Corporation of the Transaction Agreements to which it is a party nor the compliance by QuadraMed Operating Corporation with the terms and provisions thereof will contravene any provision of the DGCL, any Applicable Law of the State of New York or any Applicable Law of the United States of America.

11. No Governmental Approval, which has not been obtained or taken and is not in full force and effect, is required to authorize, or is required in connection with, the execution or delivery of any of the Transaction

Edgar Filing: QUADRAMED CORP - Form 8-K

Agreements by QuadraMed or the enforceability of any of the Transaction Agreements against QuadraMed.

12. No Governmental Approval, which has not been obtained or taken and is not in full force and effect, is required to authorize, or is required in connection with, the execution or delivery of any of the Transaction Agreements by QuadraMed Operating Corporation or the enforceability of any of the Transaction Agreements against QuadraMed Operating Corporation.

Our opinions are subject to the following assumptions and qualifications:

(a) we express no opinion as to the enforceability of any rights to contribution or indemnification provided for in the Transaction Agreements which are violative of the public policy underlying any law, rule or regulation (including any federal or state securities law, rule or regulation);

(b) we express no opinion as to the applicability or effect of any fraudulent transfer or similar law on the Transaction Agreements or any transactions contemplated thereby;

(c) enforcement may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, or other similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and by general principals of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in equity or at law);

(d) we have assumed that each of the Transaction Agreements constitutes the valid and binding obligation of each party to such Transaction Agreement (other than QuadraMed and QuadraMed Operating Corporation) enforceable against such other party in accordance with its terms;

(e) we express no opinion as to the effect on the opinions expressed herein of (i) the compliance or non-compliance of any party (other than QuadraMed and QuadraMed Operating Corporation) to the extent expressly set forth herein to the Transaction Agreements with any state, federal or other laws or regulations applicable to it or (ii) the legal or regulatory status or the nature of the business of any party to the Transaction Agreements (other than QuadraMed and QuadraMed Operating Corporation);

(f) we express no opinion on the enforceability of any provision in a Transaction Agreement purporting to prohibit, restrict or condition the assignment of rights under such Transaction Agreement to the extent such restriction on assignability is governed by the Uniform Commercial Code;

(g) we note that under applicable law, for various reasons, including the public policy of the applicable jurisdiction, certain claims may not be found to be legally arbitrable. Accordingly, for purposes of this opinion, we have assumed (i) that any claim sought to be arbitrated does not involve either (x) a matter of statutory interpretation or (y) a matter of public policy or illegality, which would preclude the arbitrability of such claim and (ii) that the public policy of the applicable jurisdiction is to favor compelling the parties to arbitrate, provided that based on the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. Section 1, et seq, and its interpretation in Allied Bruce Terminix Companies, Inc. v. Dobson, 513 U.S. 265 (1995), the assumption in this clause (ii) is not being made with respect to any agreement to arbitrate sought to be enforced in a federal court or in the courts of the State of New York. We further wish to note that we have based our opinion upon an assessment of legal authorities which would be applicable to judicial proceedings, and we call to you attention the existence of differences between arbitral and judicial processes;

Edgar Filing: QUADRAMED CORP - Form 8-K

(h) we express no opinion as to the enforceability of any section of the Purchase Agreement to the extent it purports to waive any objection a person may have that a suit, action or proceeding has been brought in an inconvenient forum; and

(i) our opinion with respect to the enforceability of the choice of New York law and choice of New York forum provisions of the Transaction Agreements is rendered in reliance upon the Act of July 19, 1984, ch. 421, 1984 McKinney's Sess. Laws of N.Y. 1406 (codified at N.Y. Gen. Oblig. Law ss.ss. 5-1401, 5-1402 (McKinney 1989) and N.Y. CPLR 327(b) (McKinney 1990)) and is subject to the qualifications that such enforceability may be limited by public policy considerations of any jurisdiction, other than the courts of the State of New York, in which enforcement of such provisions, or of a judgment upon an agreement containing such provisions, is sought.

In rendering the foregoing opinions, we have assumed, with your consent, that:

(a) the execution, delivery and performance of any of the obligations of QuadraMed Operating Corporation or QuadraMed under the Transaction Agreements do not and will not conflict with, contravene, violate or constitute a default under (i) any lease, indenture, instrument or other agreement to which QuadraMed or QuadraMed Operating Corporation is subject (other than the Applicable Contracts as to which we express our opinion in paragraph 5 herein), (ii) any rule, law or regulation to which QuadraMed and QuadraMed Operating Corporation are subject (other than the DGCL, Applicable Laws of the State of New York and Applicable Laws of the United States of America as to which we express our opinion in paragraphs 9 and 10 herein) or (iii) any judicial or administrative order or decree of any governmental authority, provided, that for the purposes of our non-contravention opinion, to the extent any of the Applicable Contracts are not governed by the laws of the State of New York, we will assume that the laws of the jurisdiction governing such Applicable Contract are substantially similar to that of New York law; and

(b) no authorization, consent or other approval of, notice to or filing with any court, governmental authority or regulatory body (other than Governmental Approvals as to which we express our opinion in paragraph 11 and 12 herein) is required to authorize or is required in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by QuadraMed or QuadraMed Operating Corporation of any of the Transaction Agreements to which they are a party or the transactions contemplated thereby.

This opinion is being furnished only to you in connection with the Transaction Agreements and is solely for your benefit and is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise referred to for any other purpose or relied upon by any other person or entity for any purpose without our prior written consent.

Very truly yours,

On Healthcare IT Software for Hospitals --

San Rafael, California - December 9, 2002 - QuadraMed Corporation (Nasdaq: QMDCE) today announced that it has entered into an agreement to sell its Health Information Management Services division for $14.3 million to Precyse Solutions LLC, a leading provider of outsourced health information management services. In addition to the purchase price, which will be paid with $14 million in cash (of which $1.5 million is to be escrowed for 18 months) and a $300,000 promissory note with a two year term, QuadraMed has the opportunity to receive an additional $400,000 in cash based on the division's 2002 year-end revenues. The transaction is expected to close by year-end and is subject to customary closing conditions, including the final receipt of financing by Precyse.

As a result of the sale, QuadraMed expects to record a fourth quarter 2002 after-tax gain of between approximately $8 million to $9 million, thereby strengthening shareholders' equity.

Lawrence P. English, QuadraMed's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, said, "The sale of our HIM Services business is consistent with our strategic direction to invest in our Affinity(R), Quantim(R) and Chancellor(TM) product lines where we have an existing competitive advantage and the greatest growth potential. Precyse is an industry-leading provider of outsourced health information management services. Our HIM Services business will add to their competitive advantage in that arena. They are a strong, well managed company who will assure a continuation of outstanding service to our customers and an excellent career opportunity for our employees."
