of offered securities as could be purchased for the principal amount being converted. The Junior Convertible Promissory Notes have an initial term of 120 days, with an option for the Registrant to extend the term for an additional 60 days, and pay interest at a rate of 10% per annum. Upon the extension of the maturity date of the Junior Convertible Promissory Notes, the interest payable thereunder will be increased to 12% per annum, and the Registrant will be required to issue warrants to purchase such number of shares of the Registrant's Common Stock equal to of a share for each $1.00 of principal amount outstanding. The warrants issuable upon extension of the maturity date of the Junior Convertible Promissory notes will have a term of 5 years and an exercise price of $0.60 per share. In addition, if the Junior Convertible Promissory Notes are not paid in full on or before the extended maturity date, each noteholder will be issued a warrant entitling the holder to purchase 3.84 shares of the Registrant's Common Stock for each $1.00 of principal amount then outstanding. The warrants issuable in connection with the non-payment of the Junior Convertible Promissory Notes may only be exercised by a holder's delivery of its Senior Convertible Promissory Note in payment of the exercise price, the delivery of which will result in the full satisfaction of all amounts of principal and interest due and payable under such Junior Convertible Promissory Note. The Registrant has agreed to file with the Securities and Exchange Commission, a registration statement for the resale of the restricted shares of its Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Warrants.

We sold these securities to seven accredited investors introduced by Laidlaw & Company (UK) Ltd. ("Laidlaw"). Laidlaw acted as a broker in the Bridge Financing. For its services as a broker, the Registrant paid Laidlaw a cash fee of $305,160, including the reimbursement of costs, and issued to Laidlaw and/or its designees warrants to purchase up to 152,580 shares of the Registrant's Common Stock at an exercise price of $0.60 per share.

The issuance and sale of the securities issued or issuable in connection with the Bridge Financing were exempt from the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act as transactions not involving any public offering.
