The Annual Meeting is being held for the following purposes:

1. To elect two (2) Class I directors to the board of directors to hold office until their successors are duly elected and qualified;
2. To ratify the appointment of KBA Group LLP as independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006; and
3. To transact any other business as may properly come before the Annual Meeting or any adjournments or postponements of the Annual Meeting.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors

The board of directors unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR the election of each of the two nominees for director and FOR the ratification of the appointment of KBA Group LLP as independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006.

Record Date; Outstanding Shares; Shares Entitled to Vote

The close of business on December 11, 2006 has been fixed as the record date (the Record Date) for determining the holders of shares of our capital stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of the close of business on the Record Date, we had 14,344,230 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting held by approximately 345 holders of record. No shares of preferred stock were outstanding as of the Record Date. Unless otherwise indicated, all share amounts in this Proxy Statement have been adjusted to reflect the one-for-three reverse split of our common stock effected in June 2004 and the one-for-ten reverse split of our common stock effected in April 2006. The presence at the Annual Meeting of a majority of these shares of common stock, either in person or by proxy, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. The Company's Secretary, James J. TerBeest, will act as inspector of elections to tabulate votes cast in person at the Annual Meeting. Each outstanding share of common stock on the Record Date is entitled to one vote on all matters.

A list of Crdentia stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be available for review at the Annual Meeting and at the executive offices of Crdentia during regular business hours for a period of ten days before the Annual Meeting.

Quorum; Vote Required; Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

A quorum of stockholders is necessary to hold a valid Annual Meeting. The required quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting is a majority of the outstanding shares of Crdentia common stock entitled to vote and present, whether in person or by proxy, at the Annual Meeting. All shares of our common stock represented at the Annual Meeting, including abstentions and broker non-votes, will be treated as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Brokers who hold shares of our common stock in street name for a beneficial owner of those shares typically have the authority to vote in their discretion on routine proposals when they have not received instructions from beneficial owners. Brokers are not allowed to exercise their voting discretion with respect to non-routine matters. These non-voted shares are referred to as broker non-votes.

Because directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast, abstentions will not be counted in determining which nominees received the largest number of votes cast. Abstentions will have the same effect as voting against the proposal to ratify the appointment of KBA Group LLP as independent auditors for the Company for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006. Broker non-votes are not expected to result from the vote on either proposal.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting. Votes may be cast in favor of, or withheld from, each nominee. Votes that are withheld will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock represented at the Annual Meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal is required to ratify the selection of KBA Group LLP as our independent auditors.

Voting; Proxies; Revocation

You may vote by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be certified by the inspector of elections appointed for the Annual Meeting.

Voting in Person

If you plan to attend the Annual Meeting and wish to vote in person, you will be given a ballot at the Annual Meeting. Please note, however, that if your shares are held in street name, which means your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee, and you wish to vote at the Annual Meeting, you must bring to the Annual Meeting a proxy from the record holder of the shares authorizing you to vote at the Annual Meeting.

Voting by Proxy

Your vote is very important. Accordingly, please complete, sign and return the enclosed proxy card whether or not you plan to attend the Annual Meeting in person. You should vote your proxy even if you plan to attend the Annual Meeting. You can always change your vote at the Annual Meeting. Voting instructions are included on your proxy card. If you properly give your proxy and submit it to us in time to vote, one of the individuals named as your proxy will vote your shares as you have directed. A proxy card is enclosed for your use.

The method of voting by proxy differs for shares held as a record holder and shares held in street name. If you hold your shares of our common stock as a record holder, you may vote by completing, dating and signing the enclosed proxy card and promptly returning it in the enclosed, pre-addressed, postage-paid envelope or otherwise mailing it to us. If you hold your shares of our common stock in street name, which means your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or nominee, you will receive instructions from your broker, bank or other nominee that you must follow in order to vote your shares. Your broker, bank or nominee may allow you to deliver your voting instructions over the Internet or by telephone. Please see the voting instructions from your broker, bank or nominee.

All properly signed proxies that are received prior to the Annual Meeting and that are not revoked will be voted at the Annual Meeting according to the instructions indicated on the proxies or, if no direction is indicated, they will be voted FOR election of each of the two nominees for director and FOR ratification of the selection of independent auditors.

Revocation of Proxy

You may revoke your proxy at any time before your proxy is voted at the Annual Meeting by (i) taking delivering to our corporate secretary a signed written notice of revocation, bearing a date later than the date of the proxy; (ii) stating that the proxy is revoked or by signing and delivering a new proxy, relating to the same shares and bearing a later date; or (iii) attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person, although attendance at the Annual Meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy. If your shares are held in street name, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker, bank or other nominee. You must contact your broker, bank or other nominee to find out how to do so.

Written notices of revocation and other communications with respect to the revocation of Crdentia proxies should be addressed to:

Crdentia Corp.

Dallas, Texas 75244
Attn: Corporate Secretary

Proxy Solicitation

The Crdentia board of directors is soliciting proxies for the Annual Meeting from our stockholders. We will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from our stockholders. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, we will request that brokers, banks and other nominees send proxies and proxy materials to the beneficial owners of our common stock held by them and secure their voting instructions. We will reimburse those record holders for their reasonable expenses. We may use several of our regular employees, who will not be specially compensated, to solicit proxies from our stockholders, either personally or by telephone, Internet, facsimile or special delivery letter.

Other Business; Adjournments

As of the date of this proxy statement, we do not expect that any matter other than the proposals presented in this proxy statement will be brought before the Annual Meeting. However, if other matters incident to the conduct of the Annual Meeting are properly presented at the Annual Meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting, the persons named as proxies will vote in accordance with their best judgment with respect to those matters.

An adjournment may be made from time to time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of our common stock represented at the meeting and entitled to vote thereon, whether or not a quorum exists, without further notice other than by an announcement made at the Annual Meeting.

Assistance

If you need assistance in completing your proxy card or have questions regarding the Annual Meeting, please contact the Crdentia Corporate Secretary at (972) 850-0780 or write to Crdentia Corp., 5001 LBJ Freeway, Suite 850, Dallas, Texas, 75244.

CRDENTIA PROPOSAL NUMBER 1

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

General

Our board of directors is currently comprised of three classes of directors with staggered three-year terms. The directors in each class serve for their respective terms or until their successors have been duly elected and qualified. Upon expiration of the term of a particular class, directors elected to the class will serve for a term of three years. Two directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting. Each director will serve in Class I of the board of directors and will hold office until the 2009 Annual Meeting or until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified. The two candidates receiving the highest number of affirmative votes of the shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting will be elected directors.

Thomas F. Herman and C. Fred Toney currently serve as directors with a term expiring at this Annual Meeting. The board of directors has nominated each of Thomas F. Herman and C. Fred Toney for re-election to the board at this Annual Meeting. Each nominee would serve for a three year term expiring at the 2009 Annual Meeting of stockholders.

The nominees for election have agreed to serve if elected, and our management has no reason to believe that the nominees will be unavailable to serve. If any nominee is unable or declines to serve as a director at the time of the Annual Meeting, the proxies will be voted for any nominee who may be designated by the present board of directors to fill the vacancy. Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy holders will vote the proxies received by them FOR the nominees named below. No arrangement or understanding exists between any nominee and any other person or persons pursuant to which any nominee was or is to be selected as a director or nominee. None of the nominees has any family relationship to any other nominee or to any executive officer of Crdentia.

The Crdentia board of directors recommends a vote FOR election of the board s nominees for the Class I directors.

Corporate Governance

Our board of directors has determined that each of its directors, other than James D. Durham, our Chief Executive Officer, is independent as that term is defined under Rule 4200 of the National Association of Securities Dealers listing standards.

Crdentia's board of directors held 16 meetings and acted by written consent three times during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005. The board of directors has an audit committee and a compensation committee. Each director attended 75% or more of the aggregate of (i) the total number of meetings of the board of directors (held during the period for which such person was a director) and (ii) the total number of meetings held by all committees of the board of directors on which the director served (during the periods that he served).

Although the board of directors does not have a formal policy regarding attendance by members of the board of directors at the Annual Meeting, it encourages directors to attend. Each of our then-current directors attended the 2005 Annual Meeting of stockholders.

Our compensation committee currently consists of two directors, Mr. Kenneth, who serves as chairman of the committee, and Mr. Herman, and is primarily responsible for reviewing and approving the company's general compensation policies and setting compensation levels for its executive officers. The committee held six meetings during the 2005 fiscal year.

Our audit committee currently consists of three directors, Mr. Nydam, who serves as chairman of the committee, Mr. Kenneth and Mr. Herman. Each of the members of the audit committee is independent as defined pursuant to Rule 4200 of the National Association of Securities Dealers listing standards and as required by applicable law and the SEC. The board of directors has designated Mr. Herman as the audit committee's financial expert. The audit committee generally meets at least quarterly to review our financial statements and to perform its other functions. The audit committee held nine meetings during the 2005 fiscal year.

Given our limited operating history, the board of directors has not yet formed a nominating committee for the election of directors. Currently, the full board of directors designates nominees for election to the board of directors at each annual meeting of stockholders.

The board of directors has not adopted a formal policy concerning stockholder recommendations regarding the election of directors. The absence of such a policy does not mean, however, that a recommendation would not have been considered had one been received. Although our board of directors has historically designated nominees for election, the board of directors will consider nominations submitted by its stockholders, and our Bylaws contain provisions which address the process by which a stockholder may nominate an individual to stand for election to the board of directors at the annual meeting. To date, the board of directors has not received any recommendations from stockholders requesting that it consider a candidate for inclusion among the slate of nominees in its proxy statement.

In evaluating director nominees, the board of directors considers a number of factors, including the appropriate size of the board of directors; the knowledge, skills and experience of nominees, including experience in business, finance, administration or healthcare in light of prevailing business conditions and the knowledge, skills and experience already possessed by other members of the board of directors; experience with accounting rules and practices; and the desire to balance the considerable benefit of continuity with the periodic injection of the fresh perspective provided by new members. The board of directors' goal is to assemble a board of directors that brings a variety of perspectives and skills derived from high quality business and professional experience. In doing so, the board of directors also considers candidates with appropriate non-business backgrounds. Other than the foregoing there are no stated minimum criteria for director nominees, although the board of directors may also consider such other factors as it may deem are in the best interests of Crdentia and its stockholders.

The board of directors identifies nominees by first evaluating the current members of the board of directors willing to continue in service. Current members of the board of directors with skills and experience that are relevant to our business and who are willing to continue in service are considered for re-nomination, balancing the value of continuity of service by existing members of the board of directors with that of obtaining a new perspective. If any member of the board of directors does not wish to continue in service or if the board of directors decides not to re-nominate a member for re-election, the board of directors then identifies the desired skills and experience of a new nominee in light of the criteria above. Current members of the board of directors are polled for suggestions as to individuals meeting the desired criteria. Research may also be performed to identify qualified individuals. To date, the board of directors has not engaged third parties to identify or evaluate or assist in identifying potential nominees, although it reserves the right in the future to retain a third party search firm, if necessary.

Historically, we have not adopted a formal process for stockholder communications with the board of directors. Nevertheless, every effort has been made to ensure that the views of stockholders are heard by the board of directors or individual directors, as applicable, and that appropriate responses are provided to stockholders in a timely manner.

Code of Ethics

Crdentia has adopted a Code of Ethics that applies to all of its employees, officers and directors. The Code of Ethics contains general guidelines for conducting the business of the company consistent with the highest standards of business ethics, and is intended to qualify as a code of ethics within the meaning of Section 406 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and Item 406 of Regulation S-B.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee oversees Crdentia's financial reporting process on behalf of its board of directors. Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed the audited financial statements in Crdentia's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB with management, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The Audit Committee reviewed with KBA Group LLP, which is responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of these audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, its judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of Crdentia's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the Audit Committee discussed with KBA Group LLP its independence from management and Crdentia, received from KBA Group LLP the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with KBA Group LLP the overall scope of its audit. The Audit Committee met with KBA Group LLP, with and without management present, to discuss the results of its examination, its evaluation of Crdentia's internal controls and the overall quality of Crdentia's financial reporting.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to Crdentia's board of directors that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2005. The Audit Committee and board of directors also recommended the ratification of the selection of KBA Group LLP as Crdentia's independent auditors for 2006.

This report of the Audit Committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this proxy statement into any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that Crdentia specifically incorporates this information by reference, and shall not otherwise be deemed filed under such acts.

The foregoing report has been furnished by the Audit Committee.

Director Compensation

Non-employee directors receive an annual payment of $50,000, payable quarterly, for their service as members of the board of directors, including attending meetings of the board of directors. Members of the audit committee receive an annual payment of $55,000, payable quarterly, for their service as members of the audit committee. The chairman of the audit committee receives an annual payment of $62,500, payable quarterly, for his service. All directors are reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with serving as a director. The directors have agreed that the cash compensation payable to the directors shall be accrued indefinitely (but not forgiven) and not paid until such time as the board determines that Crdentia has sufficient cash flow.

In addition, non-employee directors are issued 3,333 shares of common stock (or options to purchase such shares) upon their election to the board of directors. Such non-employee directors are thereafter issued 833 shares of common stock (or options to purchase such shares) in each of the next two years of their three year term, except for the chairman of the audit committee, who receives an aggregate of 1,666 shares of common stock (or options to purchase such shares) in each of the next two years. Each such grant will have a purchase price or exercise price per share equal to the fair market value per share of our common stock on the date of such grant.

Mr. Toney has waived the accrual of any cash and non-cash compensation with respect to himself, including his right to receive common stock or options to purchase common stock.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

There were no interlocking relationships between us and other entities that might affect the determination of the compensation of our directors and executive officers.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth information regarding the beneficial ownership of our common stock as of December 1, 2006 unless otherwise noted, by:

- each of our named executive officers;

Employment Contracts and Severance Agreements

Employment Agreement with James D. Durham

We have entered into an Employment Agreement with James D. Durham, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. Pursuant to the Employment Agreement, as amended to date, we have agreed to pay Mr. Durham a base salary $320,000 for the 2004 calendar year, subject to adjustment each calendar year thereafter by the board of directors. In the event that Mr. Durham becomes subject to an Involuntary Termination, we have agreed to pay severance to Mr. Durham in one lump sum within 30 days of the date of such Involuntary Termination in an aggregate amount equal to two times his then-current rate of base salary. In addition, for a period of 24 months, Mr. Durham would also be provided with life, health and disability plan benefits.

As used in the Employment Agreement, the term Involuntary Termination means the termination of Mr. Durham's employment involuntarily upon his discharge or dismissal or our failure to renew the Employment Agreement. In addition, the term Involuntary Termination also means his termination, voluntarily or involuntarily, provided such termination occurs in connection with (i) a change in his position or any successor which materially reduces his level of responsibility or changes his title from Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, (ii) a reduction in his level of compensation, (iii) a relocation of his principal place of employment by more than 45 miles without his written consent, (iv) our failure to qualify for trading on the OTC Bulletin Board within 90 days of the date of the Employment Agreement or failure to be listed for trading on the OTC Bulletin Board or another national securities exchange continuously at all times thereafter, or (v) the commencement of any action, arbitration, audit, hearing, investigation, litigation or suit conducted or heard by or before, or otherwise involving, the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers or any other federal or state governmental body which has a material adverse effect on the price at which our securities trade and is not principally attributable to his actions or omissions.

Under the Employment Agreement, if Mr. Durham receives the benefit of any payment or distribution of any type from us, any of our affiliates, any person who acquires ownership or effective control of us or ownership of a substantial portion of our assets (within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code and the regulations thereunder) or any affiliate of such person, pursuant to the terms of the Employment Agreement or otherwise (the Total Payments), that is subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or any interest or penalties with respect to such excise tax (collectively, the Excise Tax), then Mr. Durham will be entitled to receive an additional payment (a Gross-Up Payment) in an amount such that after payment by Mr. Durham of all taxes imposed upon the Gross-Up Payment, including any Excise Tax, Mr. Durham will retain an amount of the Gross-Up Payment equal to the Excise Tax imposed on the Total Payments.

In addition, under the Employment Agreement, in the event that, during the term of the Employment Agreement, we close a sale transaction which constitutes a change in control, Mr. Durham will be entitled to receive a bonus in the amount of one and one-half percent (1½%) of the Total Consideration actually paid to our stockholders. The term Total Consideration means the aggregate consideration actually paid to our stockholders and does not include earn-out, escrow, hold back or similar contingent payments unless and until such amounts are actually paid to our stockholders. Payments will be made at the same time and in the same form and combination (whether in cash, securities or other property) as the form and combination in which the Total Consideration is paid to the stockholders.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, we made an advance closing payment of 39,361 shares of our common stock to the former stockholders of Nurses Network, Inc. at the closing. Under the Stock Purchase Agreement, MedCap purchased 101,601 shares of common stock for $762,011 on May 18, 2004. The remaining 75,000 shares of common stock were delivered to an escrow agent. These shares will be released from escrow as follows: (i) beginning on July 1, 2004 and continuing on the first day of each month through and including June 1, 2005, we shall pay $31,250 to the escrow agent, and the escrow agent shall cause 3,125 shares to be transferred to us; and (ii) beginning on July 1, 2005 and continuing on the first day of each month through and including June 1, 2006, we shall pay $46,875 to the escrow agent, and the escrow agent shall cause 3,125 shares to be released to us. The escrow agent shall distribute funds received from us to the stockholders who are parties to the Stock Purchase Agreement. For July 2004 through February 2005, we assigned our right to purchase under the Stock Purchase Agreement to an existing stockholder. Neither we nor our assignee purchased shares subsequent to February 2005, and the escrow agent was authorized to return all remaining shares to the parties who initially tendered their shares to the escrow agent.

Acquisition of iVow, Inc.

On September 21, 2006, we entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of September 20, 2006 (the Merger Agreement), by and among Crdentia, iVOW, Inc. (iVOW) and iVOW Acquisition Corp., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Crdentia (Merger Sub). Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into iVOW, with iVOW surviving as our wholly-owned subsidiary (the Merger). The completion of the Merger is subject to several conditions, including the receipt of applicable approvals from our respective stockholders. At the effective time of the Merger, all shares of iVOW common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted automatically into the right to receive, in the aggregate, approximately $3.5 million in shares of our common stock, subject to reduction based on the iVOW bank and financing debt assumed by us, the value of any uncollected accounts receivable at the effective time and the value of any iVOW warrants assumed by us.

Members of our board of directors, C. Fred Toney and William Nydam, also served on the board of directors of iVOW at the time our board of directors approved the Merger Agreement. Mr. Toney is a Managing Member of MedCap. MedCap beneficially owns more than 76% of the outstanding shares of Crdentia and 26% of the outstanding shares of iVOW, as reported in iVOW's proxy statement for its 2006 Annual Meeting of Stockholders filed with the SEC on May 10, 2006. In addition, Mr. Durham is a former director of iVOW. Our board of directors unanimously approved the Merger Agreement, with Mr. Toney and Mr. Durham abstaining. Mr. Toney voluntarily resigned from the iVOW board of directors immediately following the approval of the Merger Agreement by iVOW.

Right of First Negotiation and Related Agreements

On November 3, 2006, we entered into a Right of First Negotiation Agreement with Mr. Durham, Mr. Toney and MedCap, granting Mr. Durham, Mr. Toney and MedCap Partners L.P. the exclusive right to negotiate with us to acquire Sound Health Solutions, Inc. (SHS), a wholly-owned subsidiary of iVOW, if and when we close our proposed acquisition of iVOW pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger. We entered into the Right of First Negotiation Agreement in consideration for Mr. Durham, Mr. Toney and MedCap's grant of an advance of $1,000,000 to a cash collateral account for benefit of us to facilitate additional borrowing by us from Bridge Healthcare Finance LLC (the Advance). Such funds will be used to cover the operating expenses of both Crdentia and iVOW, pursuant to the Interim Management Agreement entered into by Crdentia and iVOW on September 20, 2006 in connection with the entry into the Merger Agreement. Mr. Durham, Mr. Toney and MedCap were also granted a security interest in the outstanding shares of SHS by iVOW. The agreement granting such security interest was executed by us for iVOW under our authority granted pursuant to the Interim Management Agreement.

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Our audit committee has reappointed KBA Group LLP, independent registered public accounting firm, to audit the financial statements of Crdentia and its subsidiaries for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006. The board of directors is seeking ratification by our stockholders at the Annual Meeting of the selection of KBA Group LLP as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006. We have been advised by KBA Group LLP that no member of that firm, to the best of its knowledge and belief, has any direct or material indirect financial interest in us or our subsidiaries, and that during the past three years no member of the firm has any connection with us or our subsidiaries in the capacity of promoter, underwriter, voting trustee, director, officer or employee.

If our stockholders do not ratify the appointment of KBA Group LLP, the matter of the appointment of independent auditors will be considered by the audit committee. Even if the selection of KBA Group

LLP is ratified, the audit committee, in its discretion, may direct the appointment of a different public accounting firm at any time during the year if the audit committee believes that such a change would be in the best interests of Crdentia and its stockholders. Representatives of KBA Group LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting.

On January 13, 2005 we received a resignation letter from BDO Seidman, LLP. On January 13, 2005 our audit committee approved, and our board of directors ratified, the engagement of KBA Group LLP as our independent auditors. KBA Group LLP reported on our financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2005. BDO Seidman, LLP did not provide a report on our financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2004 or December 31, 2005. During our fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 and through January 13, 2005, there were no reportable events, as such term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-B.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 and the subsequent interim period through January 13, 2005, we did not consult KBA Group LLP with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on our consolidated financial statements, or any other matters that were either the subject of a disagreement (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) of Regulation S-B) or a reportable event (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-B).

The Crdentia board of directors recommends you vote FOR the ratification of the selection of KBA Group LLP as our independent auditors.

Pre-approval is generally provided for up to one year and any pre-approval is detailed as to the particular service or category of services. SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires our executive officers, directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of its common stock to file initial reports of ownership and reports of changes in ownership with the SEC. Such persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms filed by such person.

Based solely on our review of such forms furnished to us and written representations from such reporting persons, Crdentia believes that all filing requirements applicable to its executive officers, directors and more than 10% stockholders were met in a timely manner, except that (i) James D.
