Item 4.02 Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

(b) On May 1, 2012, Synthetic Biologics, Inc. (“the Company”) was informed by Berman & Company, P.A. (“Berman & Company”), its independent registered accounting firm, that during a regular Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) inspection of Berman & Company, the PCAOB issued a comment that the audit opinion included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2011 was issued by a partner at Berman & Company who was not authorized under the PCAOB rules to issue the opinion or act as the Company’s named engagement partner with respect to the Form 10-K audit or subsequent interim reviews after the original engagement partner rotated off of the account under the Securities and Exchange Commission’s (“SEC”) independence rules as it pertains to partner rotation (S-X Rule 2-01 -- Qualifications of Accountants). The Company has been advised by Berman & Company that there are no changes to report to the previously filed December 31, 2011 financial statements, notes to financial statements or any other of the Company’s subsequent Form 10-Q filings with the SEC.

The Company has since received a written confirmation of the original audit opinion for the year ended December 31, 2011, from a licensed CPA at Berman & Company who: (i) was the manager of the Company’s December 31, 2011 audit, (ii) was recently made a partner of the firm, (iii) had performed most of the audit work on the December 31, 2011 audit after the original audit partner rotated off of the account and (iv) will serve as the Company’s engagement partner on a going forward basis.

The Company received funds from the exercise of warrants earlier this week but will not be issuing any shares under any of its outstanding registration statements on Form S-3 until such time as it receives guidance from the SEC whether the issue disclosed herein affects the Company’s ability to continue to issue securities thereunder. The Company has sought guidance from the SEC staff regarding this matter and intends to file a waiver request to the extent it becomes necessary.

The Chairman of the Company’s Audit committee as well as the Company’s Chief Financial Officer have discussed with Berman & Company the subject matter giving rise to this Report on Form 8-K.
