Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 26, 2018, AptarGroup, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Company”), entered into a binding offer letter with CSP Technologies Parent S.A., a public limited liability company (société anonyme) incorporated under the laws of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg (“Seller”), pursuant to which the Company made a binding offer (the “Offer Letter”) to acquire (the “Transaction”) CSP Technologies S.à r.l., a wholly owned subsidiary of Seller and a private limited liability company (société à responsabilité limitée) incorporated under the laws of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg (“CSP”). CSP is a leader in integrated active desiccant and product protection technologies. The purchase price for the Transaction is $555 million, subject to post-closing adjustments.

The Offer Letter expires at the earliest of (i) October 31, 2018, (ii) the fifth business day after the French works council of a subsidiary of CSP has concluded the consultation process in connection with the Transaction (the “Consultation Process”) and (iii) the termination of the Offer Letter, if Seller breaches the exclusivity provision in the Offer Letter described below (the “Expiry Date”). The Expiry Date of the Offer Letter can be extended by either party in certain circumstances, to no later than December 31, 2018. Upon completion of the Consultation Process, the Company expects that Seller will accept the Offer Letter by countersigning the stock purchase agreement between the Company and Seller attached to the Offer Letter (the “Purchase Agreement”). The Offer Letter provides that, until the earlier of (i) the date of acceptance of the Offer Letter by Seller and (ii) March 31, 2019, Seller and its affiliates will be prohibited from soliciting or encouraging proposals from, initiating or participating in negotiations or discussions with, or approving or entering into an agreement with, third parties with respect to an alternative transaction regarding CSP and its subsidiaries. If Seller does not accept the Offer Letter for any reason prior to the Expiry Date, the Offer Letter requires Seller to pay the Company an amount for reimbursement of expenses equal to $11.1 million.

The Purchase Agreement provides that the completion of the Transaction is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of customary closing conditions, including, among other things, (i) clearance under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, (ii) the absence of a material adverse effect with respect to CSP and Seller and (iii) customary conditions regarding the accuracy of the representations and warranties and material compliance by the parties with their respective obligations under the Purchase Agreement.

The Purchase Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants relating to the parties and the Transaction. During the period between the signing of the Purchase Agreement and the closing of the Transaction, Seller will agree to (i) cause CSP and its subsidiaries to conduct their businesses in the ordinary course consistent with past practice, and (ii) refrain from (and cause its affiliates to refrain from) soliciting or encouraging proposals from, initiating or participating in negotiations or discussions with, or approving or entering into an agreement with, third parties with respect to an alternative transaction regarding CSP and its subsidiaries.

The Purchase Agreement also contains customary termination provisions for both the Company and Seller. Each of the Company and Seller will have the right to terminate the Purchase Agreement if the closing has not occurred by December 31, 2018.
