ITEM 8.01 Other Events

On May 9, 2008, the FASB issued FASB Staff Position Accounting Principles Board (APB) 14-1, Accounting for Convertible Debt Instruments That May Be Settled in Cash Upon Conversion (Including Partial Cash Settlements) (the FSP). The FSP requires the issuer of certain convertible debt instruments that may be settled in cash on conversion to separately account for the liability and equity components in a manner that reflects the issuer's nonconvertible debt borrowing rate. The resulting debt discount would be amortized over the period the convertible debt is expected to be outstanding as additional non-cash interest expense. The effective date of the FSP is for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. The FSP did not permit earlier application, however does require retrospective application to all periods presented in the financial statements (with the cumulative effect of the change reported in retained earnings as of the beginning of the first period presented). Our $175 million 3.25% convertible senior notes due 2026 are affected by this new standard.

Goodrich Petroleum Corporation adopted the standard on January 1, 2009 and reported operations with respect to the adoption in the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2009 and for the three and six months ended June 30, 2009.

This Current Report on Form 8-K was prepared to provide revised financial information that retrospectively applies the adopted standard to all periods presented in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008, filed on February 27, 2009 (2008 Form 10-K). It should be noted that cash and operating income (loss) were not impacted by the reclassification as a result of the retrospective application on the adoption of the standard.

Please note, the Company has not otherwise updated the financial information or business discussion for activities or events occurring after the date this information was presented in the Company's 2008 Form 10-K. You should read the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the three months ended March 31, 2009, for the three and six months ended June 30, 2009 and Current Reports on Form 8-K and any amendments thereto, for updated information.
