Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On April 3, 2013, Cooper-Standard Holdings Inc. (the Company) issued $175 million in aggregate principal amount of Senior PIK Toggle Notes due 2018 (the Notes) in an offering to qualified institutional buyers in accordance with Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act) and to non-U.S. persons in transactions outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Escrow Agreement

Pursuant to an escrow agreement dated as of April 3, 2013 (the Escrow Agreement), by and among the Company, U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (the Trustee), and U.S. Bank National Association, as escrow agent (the Escrow Agent), the Company caused the net proceeds of the Notes offering to be deposited into a segregated escrow account with the Escrow Agent until either the escrow release condition is satisfied or waived or a special mandatory redemption is made, in each case as described below. Concurrently with such deposit, the Company deposited additional amounts into the segregated escrow account sufficient to fund the special mandatory redemption, if required, as described below. The Company granted the Trustee, for the benefit of the holders of the Notes, a continuing security interest in, and lien on, the funds deposited into escrow to secure the obligations under the Indenture and the Notes. Upon satisfaction or waiver of the escrow release condition, the proceeds from the Notes offering will be released from escrow to the Company and will be used to finance the Company's previously announced cash tender offer (the Equity Tender) to purchase up to 4,651,162 shares of its common stock (the Shares) and pay related fees and expenses. Any remaining proceeds will be used for general corporate purposes.

Escrowed funds will be released to the Company upon satisfaction or waiver of the escrow release condition that $150 million in value of the Shares are validly tendered and not validly withdrawn in the Equity Tender on or before July 1, 2013. In the event that either (i) the proceeds from the Notes offering are not released to the Company on or before July 1, 2013, or (ii) prior to such date, the Company has determined, in its reasonable discretion, that the escrow condition cannot be satisfied by such date, the funds deposited into escrow will be used to redeem the Notes at a price equal to the sum of 99.5% of the principal amount of the Notes plus accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes from the date of issuance up to but not including the date of such redemption. In addition, if the escrow release condition is satisfied or waived, the Company may, by written notice on or prior to the escrow release date, redeem up to $25.0 million of the Notes at a price equal to 99.5% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but not including, the date of such redemption.
