Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

In accordance with the authority vested in the Company's Board of Directors to amend provided under the Company's Amended and Restated Code of Regulations (the Code), on August 20, 2014 the Board approved the further amendment and restatement to the Code in connection with determinations by the Board and management to clarify the role of the Board's Chairman following the retirement from the Board of James W. Everson on April 16, 2014. Prior to his retirement, Mr. Everson had served the combined positions of both Board Chairman and as a senior executive officer of the Company. In the wake of the retirement of Mr. Everson from the Board of Directors, the Board has determined to adopt the practice of appointing non-executive officer directors to serve as Chairman. In keeping with this determination, the Board of Directors adopted revisions to various sections of the Code to clarify that the Chairman of the Company's Board of Directors shall not be designated as, or perform the functions of, an executive officer of the Company, which revisions are described in greater detail below:

Section 12 of the Code was revised to indicate that both the officers of the Corporation and the Chairman are to be appointed by the Board of Directors at each annual organizational meeting thereof, thereby clarifying that the position of the Chairman is distinct from the position of an executive officer of the Company.

Section 14 of the Code was revised to eliminate the specific authority of the Chairman to call a Special Meeting of the Shareholders, thereby making the Chairman's ability to call a Special Meeting of the Shareholder consistent with all other members of the Company's Board of Directors.

A new Section 15 defining the scope of the authority of the Chairman of the Board was added to the general section of the Code which governs the Company's Board of Directors. This new section was included in order to clarify that the position of the Chairman is that of a Board position, as opposed to an executive officer position of the Company. In connection with this amendment, former section 21, which had previously designated the Chairman as an executive officer of the Company and defined the scope of his or her duties as such, was stricken from the Code. Because of the related addition and deletion of these two sections, all sections beginning with former section 15 and going up to former section 21 of the Code were renumbered accordingly.

Sections 23, 24 and 25 of the Code were revised to eliminate the specific authority of the Chairman to delegate additional duties and responsibilities to the various executive officers of the Company, thereby making the Chairman's ability to delegate such duties consistent with all other members of the Company's Board of Directors.

In addition to the amendments related to the powers and responsibilities of the Chairman of the Board, the Board of Directors also amended section 6 of the Code to expand the permissible number of members of the Company's Board of Directors from no less than seven and no more than twenty-five to no less than five to no more than twenty-five.
