Forward Looking Statements

This current report on Form 8-K contains statements which, to the extent they are not recitations of historical fact, constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws, and are based on Lockheed Martin's current expectations and assumptions, including, among other things, statements regarding the acquisition of Sikorsky and the expected benefits of the acquisition, including expected synergies and costs savings, and future and estimated sales, earnings, cash flows, charges, expenditures, dividends and share repurchases of the Corporation. The words believe, estimate, anticipate, project, intend, expect, plan, outlook, scheduled, forecast, and are intended to identify forward-looking statements. There can be no assurance that future events will occur as anticipated, if at all, or that actual results will be as expected. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially due to factors such as: the Corporation being unable to successfully integrate Sikorsky and generate synergies and other cost savings; the failure of the Corporation to realize the intended tax benefits from the Sikorsky acquisition; unexpected costs, charges or expenses resulting from the Sikorsky acquisition; adjustments required as a result of the ongoing purchase accounting analysis related to the Sikorsky acquisition; potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships from the completion of the Sikorsky acquisition; the availability of funding for the Corporation's products and services both domestically and internationally due to general economic conditions, performance, cost and other factors; and the competitive environment for the Corporation's products and services. These are only some of the factors that may affect the forward-looking statements contained in this current report on Form 8-K. For a discussion identifying additional important factors that could cause actual results to vary materially from those anticipated in the forward-looking statements, see the Corporation's filings with the SEC including, but not limited to, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and Risk Factors in the Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended Dec. 31, 2014 and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q. The Corporation's filings may be accessed through the Investor Relations page of its website, www.lockheedmartin.com/investor, or through the website maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov. Except where required by applicable law, the Corporation expressly disclaims a duty to provide updates to forward-looking statements after the date of this Form 8-K to reflect subsequent events, changed circumstances, changes in expectations, or the estimates and assumptions associated with them. The forward-looking statements in this Form 8-K are intended to be subject to the safe harbor protection provided by the federal securities laws.
