Involvement in Certain Legal Proceedings

On March 29, 1994, a class action was filed in the Circuit Court for the 21st Judicial District, Centerville, Hickman County, Tennessee against National Development Company, Inc. ("NDI") and Sunstates Corporation ("Sunstates") for breach of contract by a class of purchasers (the "Plaintiffs") of real property in a recreational development developed and marketed by NDI. The Plaintiffs brought the class action to recover for the diminution in value of their properties caused by the failure of NDI to complete the primary lake in the development. On January 19, 1999, Mr. Engle, one of our directors, was added as a defendant to the class action, alleging that Mr. Engle operated the two defendant corporations as his alter ego. On January 24, 2000, the court found defendant NDI liable for over $2.5 million to the plaintiffs for the diminution in value of their real property based on a failure to build an adjacent lake as promised. On August 30, 2005, a judgment was entered against Mr. Engle, personally, for the amount of the original judgment plus statutory interest (the "Tennessee Judgment").

In a related case filed on October 29, 2007 in the Circuit Court for the Second Circuit, State of Hawaii, the Plaintiffs pursued a class action against Mr. Engle and others to set aside fraudulent transfers, for declaratory and injunctive relief and for damages. In that complaint, the Plaintiffs claimed they were unable to collect on the Tennessee Judgment and alleged that Mr. Engle engaged in a scheme to aggressively and fraudulently transfer assets and earnings to his wife to hinder, delay and defraud his creditors. Following a trial, a jury verdict was entered against Mr. Engle on March 3, 2010, whereby he was found to have fraudulently transferred shares of stock valued at $10,768,450 and the jury awarded punitive damages to the Plaintiffs in the amount of $43,073,800. Several post-trial motions were filed after the jury verdict, but no material activity has occurred in this case since March 2010.

Narrative Discussion of Summary Compensation Table

Salary, Bonus and Stock Awards. Base salary and cash bonuses for our named executive officers is reviewed on an annual basis by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. Base salary adjustments and cash bonuses are awarded on a discretionary basis based on our company’s overall performance and a subjective review of each named executive officer’s performance. For fiscal year 2014, Mr. Crail and Mr. Merryman recommended to the Compensation Committee that the named executive officers receive no bonus payment for fiscal year 2014 in the interest of the Company and its shareholders. The Compensation Committee approved the recommendation and no bonus compensation was paid in the fiscal year 2014.

During fiscal year 2014, the Company granted an aggregate of 225,000 shares of restricted stock units to Company executives. This grant was made from the 2007 Equity Incentive Plan (“2007 Plan”) and vest in six equal annual installments beginning on the first anniversary of the grant date. The primary factors the Compensation Committee considered when determining the number of shares to grant to each executive included the executives role in the Company, ability to contribute to future performance and the base salary of the executive.

Benefits. Our named executive officers generally receive health and welfare benefits under the same programs and subject to the same terms and conditions as our other salaried employees. Other elements of compensation for our named executive officers are participation in company-wide life insurance, long-term disability insurance, medical benefits and the ability to defer compensation pursuant to a 401(k) plan. The named executive officers also receive matching contributions by us under our 401(k) plan at a rate of 25% to 50% of 6% of base salary, which is the same benefit available to all salaried employees.

Potential Payments on Termination or Change in Control

We have arrangements with each of our named executive officers providing for post-employment payments under certain conditions, as described below.

Employment Agreements. We have entered into employment agreements with certain of our executives which contain, among other things, "change in control" severance provisions. Specifically, we have entered into employment agreements with Franklin E. Crail, Edward L. Dudley and Bryan J. Merryman. The employment agreements generally provide that, if we terminate the executive's employment under circumstances constituting a "triggering termination," the executive will be entitled to receive, among other benefits, 2.99 times the sum of (i) the executive's annual salary and (ii) the lesser of (a) two times the bonus that would be payable to the executive for the bonus period in which the change in control occurred and (b) 25% of the executive's annual salary. The executive will also receive an additional payment of $16,200, which represents the estimated cost to the executive of obtaining accident, health, dental, disability and life insurance coverage for the 18-month period following the expiration of COBRA coverage.

A "change in control," as used in these employment agreements, generally means a change in the control of us following (1) a person acquiring direct or indirect beneficial ownership of 20% or more of our then outstanding voting securities, without the prior approval of two-thirds of the Board of Directors, (2) a merger or other consolidation transaction in which our Board of Directors prior to the transaction constitutes less than a majority of our Board of Directors after the transaction or (3) the members of our Board of Directors during any consecutive two-year period ceasing to be the majority of the Board of Directors at the conclusion of that period. A "triggering termination" generally occurs when an executive is terminated during a specified period preceding a change in control of us, or if the executive or we terminate the executive's employment under circumstances constituting a triggering termination during a specified period after a change in control. A triggering termination also includes a voluntary termination by the executive within five business days before an anticipated change in control with the concurrence of two concurring persons (either the Chairman of the Board of Directors or a member of our Compensation Committee) that the change in control is likely to occur during such five-business day period. In such event, the executive must agree to continue to work on an at-will basis, without compensation, until the change in control occurs. If the change in control does not occur within ten business days, the executive must refund the severance payment to us.

2007 Equity Compensation Plan. Our 2007 Equity Incentive Plan provides that in the event of a company transaction in which all of the named executive officer's unvested option awards or restricted stock units are not converted, assumed or replaced by the successor company, such options or restricted stock units will immediately vest and become exercisable and payable immediately prior to the company transaction. In addition, in the event of a change in control, all of the named executive officer's unvested option awards and restricted stock units will immediately vest and become exercisable and payable.

Assuming the applicable triggering event took place on February 28, 2014, the named executive officers would have been eligible for payments set forth in the following table. These payments are estimates. If a specific triggering event had actually occurred, the named executive officer would only receive the payments that applied to that specific triggering event. These payments would come from us if the triggering event occurred before a change in control and from the successor company if after a change in control. As of February 28, 2014, no unvested option awards for our named executive officers were outstanding.

Name of Executive Officer	Change in Control		RSU Acceleration (2)
	Severance Payment ($)(1)	Payment for Insurance Coverage ($)
Franklin E. Crail	$1,326,813	$16,200	$465,304
Bryan J. Merryman	$1,270,750	$16,200	$769,176
Edward L. Dudley	$840,938	$16,200	$313,368

(1) These amounts are based on 2.99 times 125% of each executive's salary in place during fiscal year 2014.

(2) Assumes that the intrinsic value per share is $11.87 per share, the closing price of our Common Stock on February 28, 2014, the last trading day of our fiscal year.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Our directors generally do not receive any compensation for serving on the Board of Directors, except for compensation for their service on the committees of the Board of Directors. Members of our Compensation Committee are paid $750 quarterly, with the chairman of the Compensation Committee being paid $1,500 quarterly. Audit Committee members are paid $500 quarterly, with the chairman of the Audit Committee being paid $1,500 quarterly. ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

Related Person Transactions

We had no transactions with related persons during fiscal year 2014 which are required to be disclosed pursuant to SEC rules. However, we previously entered into Franchise Agreements and a Development Agreement with a member of our Board of Directors. The director operates two Aspen Leaf Yogurt locations (now a franchise of our majority-owned subsidiary, U-Swirl, Inc.) under the Franchise Agreements and the Development Agreement. Total payments made by the director to the Company in fiscal year 2014 under these agreements were approximately $30,000.

Policies and Procedures for Approving Transactions with Related Persons

The independent members of the Board of Directors have the responsibility to review and approve related person transactions, either in advance or when we become aware of a related person transaction that was not reviewed and approved in advance; however, the Board of Directors has not adopted a written policy or procedures governing its approval of transactions with related persons. During fiscal year 2014, the independent members of the Board of Directors reviewed and approved all related person transactions.

Director Independence

NASDAQ listing rules require that a majority of the Board of Directors must be comprised of independent directors. The Board of Directors has determined that Gerald A. Kien, Lee N. Mortenson, Clyde Wm. Engle, and Scott G. Capdevielle are each independent directors as defined in applicable Nasdaq listing rules. The Board of Directors has determined that Gerald A. Kien, Lee N. Mortenson and Scott G. Capdevielle, representing all of the members of the Audit Committee, are all "independent directors" under applicable Nasdaq Stock Market and SEC rules applicable to Audit Committee members. The Board of Directors has determined that Gerald A. Kien, Lee N. Mortenson and Scott G. Capdevielle, representing all of the members of the Compensation Committee, were all "independent directors" under applicable Nasdaq Stock Market and SEC rules applicable to Compensation Committee members. The Board of Directors has determined that Gerald A. Kien, Lee N. Mortenson and Scott G. Capdevielle, representing all of the members of the Nominating Committee were all "independent directors" under applicable NASDAQ listing rules.

ITEM 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING FEES AND SERVICES

Tax fees(2)	$ 38,309	$ 41,630
All other fees	$ 0	$ 0

This category includes fees related to the performance of audits and attest services not required by statute or regulations, audits of the Company's benefit plans, and (1) additional compliance procedures related to performance of the review or audit of the Company's financial statements, and accounting consultations about the application of GAAP to proposed transactions. These services support the evaluation of the effectiveness of internal controls.

(2) Tax fees consist of the aggregate fees billed for professional services rendered for tax compliance, tax advice, and tax planning services.

The Audit Committee is responsible for appointing, setting compensation for and overseeing the work of the independent auditor.
