PART II - RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

(a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;

(b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and

(c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III – NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Navistar International Corporation (the company) is unable to timely file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q (Report) for the period ended July 31, 2007 because of its ongoing review of a number of complex and technical accounting items relating to its financial statements that are to be filed in its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2005, which report has yet to be filed. As a result of this ongoing review, the company was unable to timely file its Report for the period ended July 31, 2007 with the Commission by September 10, 2007, and was unable to file such Report within the five day extension provided by Rule 12b-25(b). The company expects to file its Report for the period ended July 31, 2007 by early next calendar year following the resolution of the foregoing matters.

If the answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

The company has not filed its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2005, nor its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended January 31, 2006, April 30, 2006, and July 31, 2006, nor its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2006, nor its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended January 31, 2007 and April 30, 2007.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

---

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively, and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

On January 17, 2006, the company filed a Form 8-K announcing that it was delaying the filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K and that it issued a Form 12b-25 "Notification of Late Filing", for the period ended October 31, 2005 because it was reviewing a number of complex and technical accounting items.

On February 21, 2006, the company filed a Form 8-K incorporating a news release by reference, stating that while the company continues to work toward a resolution of the items mentioned above, the review of the accounting matters may result in changes to its previously issued financial statements, including the possibility of a restatement.

On April 12, 2006, the company filed a Form 8-K announcing it will restate its financial results for the fiscal years 2002 through 2004 and for the first nine months of fiscal 2005 and that its audit committee designated KPMG LLP as the company's new independent registered public accounting firm replacing Deloitte & Touche LLP whose engagement with the company was terminated by the audit committee. In that Form 8-K, the company further announced that the need for a restatement has been identified in the ongoing review of accounting matters and that the company has identified items requiring restatement to include accounting for anticipated external funding of product development programs, timing of recognition of amounts deemed to be collectible from certain suppliers, including rebates and warranty recoveries, accounting for warranty to be provided by the company outside of the terms of the contractual arrangements and shifting balances and expense amounts between reporting periods at one of the company's foundry operations. For additional information on this matter, please refer to our Current Report on Form 8-K dated and filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on April 12, 2006 which is hereby incorporated herein by reference.

On June 6, 2007, the company filed a Form 8-K disclosing accounting matters additional to the accounting matters disclosed in its April 2006 filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These accounting matters include the accounting and reporting for derivatives, restructuring related costs, post retirement benefits, the sale of receivables, acquisitions, income tax reserves and foreign currency matters related to its affiliates that operate outside of the United States. Since the company's review process is not yet complete, any assessment of the nature or scope of the financial impact is preliminary and subject to change.

Information provided and statements contained in this report that are not purely historical are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act, Section 21E of the Exchange Act, and the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements only speak as of the date of this report and the company assumes no obligation to update the information included in this report. Such forward-looking statements include information concerning our possible or assumed future results of operations, including descriptions of our business strategy. These statements often include words such as "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "plan," "estimate" or similar expressions. These statements are not guarantees of performance or results and they involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions, including the risk of continued delay in the completion of our financial statements and the consequences thereof, the availability of funds, either through cash on hand or the company's other liquidity sources, to repay any amounts due should any of the company's debt become accelerated, and decisions by suppliers and other vendors to restrict or eliminate customary trade and other credit terms for the company's future orders and other services, which would require the company to pay cash and which could have a material adverse effect on the company's liquidity position and financial condition. Although we believe that these forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions, there are many factors that could affect our actual financial results or results of operations and could cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements. For a further description of these factors, see Exhibit 99.1 to our Form 8-K filed on April 12, 2006. In addition, until the previously announced review by the company of its accounts is concluded, no assurance can be given with respect to the financial statement adjustments, impacts and period resulting for such review, if any, nor can there be any assurance that additional adjustments to the financial statements of the company will not be identified.
