PART III -- NARRATIVE

|X|

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed period.

Registrant is working diligently to complete the documentation, testing and evaluation of its internal control over financial reporting necessary to comply with the management assessment and reporting requirements under Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. These compliance activities have been delayed as a result of the additional effort necessary for management to test the company's internal controls, assess the results of its testing and doing so in connection with preparing year end financial statements. Management is still completing its testing and evaluating the results of individual and aggregate deficiencies identified to date. These activities in turn have impacted the ability of the registrant to complete its annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended June 30, 2005 by the prescribed filing date without unreasonable effort or expense. The registrant anticipates that it will be able to file its complete annual report on Form 10-K by September 28, 2005.

On August 25, 2005, the registrant filed a Current Report on Form 8-K dated August 24, 2005 announcing its operating results for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2005. No changes to the financial statements which were included in this Current Report on Form 8-K are anticipated.
