CRYPTOLOGIC REPORTS STRONG SECOND QUARTER PERFORMANCE

August 6, 2004 (Toronto, ON) CryptoLogic Inc., a leading software developer to the global Internet gaming market, announced today its financial results for the second quarter and six months ended June 30, 2004. Strong quarterly results reflected solid revenue growth from existing licensees, continued geographic diversification and the increasing returns from online poker – one of the fastest-growing segments in the history of Internet gaming.

It's been another blue chip quarter for CryptoLogic, reflecting our focused strategy and the ongoing investment in our company, said Lewis Rose, CryptoLogic's President and CEO. We are seeing clear benefits from diversifying CryptoLogic's business in key markets and fast-growing product segments. In fact, our licensees' central poker room is now ranked among the top 5 on the Internet. Our financial strength gives us the means to invest strategically for our future to enhance CryptoLogic's leadership in a competitive environment, increase our share in major growth areas, and drive long term, positive returns.

Fiscal 2004 second quarter highlights included:

Quarterly revenue grew 38% to $14.9 million with earnings rising 29% to $3.2 million or $0.23 per diluted share over the same period in 2003. This was ahead of analysts' average consensus of $0.20 per diluted share;

Increasing growth in online poker fees, which now account for 15% of total year-to-date revenue, up from 12% in the previous quarter. A growing number of poker licensees, and investment in the product offering and system scalability contributed to this strong performance. The company's licensees' central poker room has now risen to number four among the top poker sites on the Internet.

The successful launch of Betfairpoker.com, the new poker site for Betfair—the world's largest betting exchange and the company's most recent UK customer. This new poker room site both strengthens CryptoLogic's position in the online poker arena and reinforces the company's reputation for earning the confidence of the world's top gaming brands; and International diversification remained on target for the first half of 2004, with approximately 60% of licensees' revenue coming from overseas markets, up from over 55% and 40% in fiscal 2003 and 2002 respectively.

Strong Second Quarter Performance (All financial figures are expressed in US dollars)

CryptoLogic's solid revenue and earnings performance continued in the second quarter ended June 30, 2004. Revenue rose 38% to $14.9 million (Q2 2003: $10.8 million). EBITDA<sup>(2)</sup> for the quarter grew to $4.4 million (Q2 2003: $2.9 million). This resulted in EBITDA(2) margin for the quarter of 30% as a percentage of revenue, up from 27% last year. Earnings for the quarter rose 29% to $3.2 million or $0.23 per diluted share (Q2 2003: $2.5 million or $0.20 per diluted share).

Solid growth from new and existing licensees and increasing fees from online poker contributed to positive second quarter performance over a year ago.

Revenue for the first six months of 2004 increased 53% to $30.1 million (Q2 2003 YTD: $19.7 million). EBITDA<sup>(2)</sup> for the first six months in 2004 increased by 82% to $9.0 million (Q2 2003 YTD: $5.0 million). Despite increased costs associated with investing in the company to drive revenue growth, EBITDA<sup>(2)</sup> margin increased to 30%, compared with 25% in the same six-month period of 2003. Earnings for the first half of 2004 improved by 65% to $7.0 million or $0.52 per diluted share (Q2 2003 YTD: $4.3 million or $0.35 per diluted share).

Financial Strength

CryptoLogic's positive cash generation continued to add to a strong balance sheet. At June 30, 2004, the company had no debt, and total cash grew to $77.2 million or $5.71 per diluted share (comprising cash and cash equivalents, short term investments, and including security deposits of $7.0 million). CryptoLogic's working capital rose to $54.8 million or $4.06 per diluted share.

On August 4, 2004, CryptoLogic's Board declared its quarterly dividend of $0.03 per share, payable on September 15, 2004 to shareholders of record as at September 8, 2004.

Operating cash flow for the second quarter of 2004 was $2.6 million, compared with $13.5 million in 2003. Last year's operating cash flow was exceptionally high due to more favourable security deposit arrangements beginning in 2003 and the timing of accounts payable.

Global Diversification

CryptoLogic's global diversification strategy continued to result in a favourable geographic mix. Revenue generated from licensees' international players remained on target and approximated 60% of revenue for the first half of 2004, compared with over 55% and 40% in fiscal 2003 and 2002 respectively. The company's efforts to target the UK and Continental Europe have been successful, as those markets continued strong representation at approximately 30% and 20% respectively of overall revenue.

The May launch of Betfair, a major UK customer and the largest betting exchange in the world, will add to CryptoLogic's international reach and expansion in online poker. The early performance of Betfair's new poker site is highly promising and reflects the excellent synergies between online poker and Betfair's player base.

Product Growth

CryptoLogic continued to advance its position in the burgeoning online poker market, and now powers the fourth highest revenue generating poker room on the Internet according to PokerPulse, an independent industry research website. Fees from the company's poker offering have doubled compared with the same six-month period in 2003, and have increased by 35% since Q1 2004. Today, online poker has risen to 15% of overall year-to-date revenue. There are now eight poker licensees contributing favourably to CryptoLogic's financial results through the company's WagerLogic subsidiary. CryptoLogic is also realizing early returns from its investment in a new poker release, which introduced multi-table tournaments as well as enhanced scalability to support thousands of simultaneous players around the clock and from all over the world.

During the quarter, CryptoLogic continued to invest in and expand its core casino product suite with more popular slot games. The company released 11 exciting new video slots all offering animated bonus rounds that provide more chances to win cash, prizes and free spins.

Management Team

In the quarter, Jenifer Cua was promoted to Interim Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer. Cua has been a senior member of the company's financial team for six years, and has played a key role in CryptoLogic's strong financial results. A search is underway for a permanent CFO to contribute to the company's continued success.

Outlook

CryptoLogic's disciplined execution of its strategy and investment in its business continued to translate into profitable and cash generative results for the first half of 2004. The third quarter is seasonally the slowest period of the year as Internet usage softens during the summer. Although this period is expected to benefit from continued momentum in poker, expenditures resulting from investments in strategic initiatives will increase and are expected to affect margins in subsequent quarters this year. Accordingly, Management forecasts third quarter revenue to range from $14.0-$14.3 million, with earnings of $1.9-$2.1 million or $0.14-$0.15 per diluted share.

Edgar Filing: CRYPTOLOGIC INC - Form 6-K

While growth prospects for online gaming are significant, Management remains cautious due to ongoing US regulatory issues, competition and higher expenditures, particularly in the second half of the year. Increased investments in the company's poker product, system scalability, core gaming software, infrastructure and back-office systems remain important priorities. Management is confident that this strategy will strengthen the company's competitive position in both the short and long term, particularly in major growth areas such as poker, and drive revenue generation and sustainable returns for its shareholders.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

As at June 30, 2004

*(All figures are in thousands of US dollars, except per share disclosure and where otherwise indicated)
(Unaudited)*

These consolidated interim financial statements of CryptoLogic Inc. (the Company) have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) using the same accounting policies as were used for the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003. These consolidated interim financial statements do not contain all annual disclosures required by GAAP and, as such, should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements, including the notes thereto, for the year ended December 31, 2003, as set out in the 2003 Annual Report.

1. Stock Option Plan

In accordance with the guidelines of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, the Company has expensed the costs of all stock option grants issued on or after January 1, 2003. The fair value of the options granted in 2003 and 2004 was made using the Black-Scholes option pricing model under the following weighted assumptions:

|                                   |                    |                    |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------|--------------------|
|                                   | 2004 | 2003 |
| Dividend yield                    | 0.75%              | 0.75%              |
| Risk-free rate                    | 2.75%              | 2.75%              |
| Expected volatility               | 50.0%              | 50.0%              |
| Expected life of options in years | 5.0                | 5.0                |

The estimated fair value of options is recorded over the vesting period of the options. The cost of stock options of $274 in Q2 2004 (Q2 2003: $104) is included in operating costs. Consideration paid by employees on the exercise of stock options is credited to share capital.

The impact of expensing stock options on earnings is as follows:

For the year ended December 31, 2002, no compensation cost was recorded on the grant of stock options during that year. In accordance with the transitional provisions of the accounting guideline, additional pro forma disclosure is presented as if the fair value method of accounting had been used to account for stock options. The fair value of the options granted was made using the Black-Scholes option pricing model under the

| Expected volatility               | 100.0% |
| Expected life of options in years | 5.0    |

Had compensation expense been determined based on the fair value of the employee stock option awards for 2002 grants at the grant dates in accordance with the new recommendations, the Company's earnings and earnings per share would have been changed to the following pro forma amounts:
