Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On December 21, 2009, Independent Bank Corporation ("IBC") received a letter from The Nasdaq Stock Market ("Nasdaq") notifying IBC that it no longer meets Nasdaq's continued listing requirement under Listing Rule 5450(a)(1) (the "Bid Price Rule") because the bid price for IBC's common stock has closed below $1.00 per share for 30 consecutive business days.

The notification does not result in the immediate delisting of IBC's common stock from The Nasdaq Global Select Market because, pursuant to Listing Rule 5810(c)(3)(A), IBC has 180 days (until June 21, 2010), to regain compliance with the Bid Price Rule. If by June 21, 2010, the bid price of IBC's common stock closes at $1.00 per share or more for at least 10 consecutive business days, Nasdaq will notify IBC that the matter will be closed.

If compliance with the Bid Price Rule cannot be established by June 21, 2010, IBC's common stock will be subject to delisting from the Nasdaq Global Select Market. IBC may, however, be eligible for an additional grace period if it satisfies the initial listing standards (with the exception of the Bid Price Rule) for listing on The Nasdaq Capital Market, and it submits a timely application to Nasdaq to transfer the listing of its common stock to The Nasdaq Capital Market. IBC is evaluating its options following receipt of the notification and, where possible and deemed in the best interests of IBC and its shareholders, currently intends to take appropriate actions in order to retain the listing of its common stock on the Nasdaq stock market.

IBC issued a press release on December 23, 2009 that disclosed its receipt of this notice from Nasdaq. A copy of the press release is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.
