Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

The Reporting Persons acquired the Preferred Shares for investment purposes. MS Reporting Units acquired the Additional Shares in the ordinary course of business. Consistent with such investment purposes, the Reporting Persons expect to engage in communications with, without limitation, management of the Issuer, one or more members of the board of directors of the Issuer, other shareholders of the Issuer (including, without limitation, XD and Mr. Han) and other relevant parties, and may make suggestions, concerning the business, assets, capitalization, financial condition, operations, governance, management, prospects, strategy, strategic transactions, financing strategies and alternatives, and future plans of the Issuer, and such other matters as the Reporting Persons may deem relevant to their investment in the Issuer, which communications may include proposing or considering one or more of the actions described in subsections (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Depending on various factors (including, without limitation, the Issuer's financial position and strategic direction, actions taken by the board of directors, price levels of the Common Stock, other investment opportunities available to the Reporting Persons, concentration of positions in the portfolios managed by the Reporting Persons, market conditions and general economic and industry conditions), the Reporting Persons may take such actions with respect to their investment in the Issuer as they deem appropriate, including, without limitation, purchasing additional Preferred Shares, purchasing Common Stock or other financial instruments of or related to the Issuer, converting the Preferred Shares or selling some or all of their beneficial holdings, engaging in hedging or similar transactions with respect to the securities of or relating to the Issuer and/or otherwise changing their intention with respect to any and all matters referred to in Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Item 6. Contracts, Arrangements, Understandings or Relationships with Respect to Securities of the Issuer

The responses set forth in Items 3 and 4 of this Statement are incorporated herein by reference in their entirety.

Securities Purchase Agreement. The Issuer, XD, Mr. Han and MSPEA entered into the Securities Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which MSPEA acquired 16,000,000 Preferred Shares of the Issuer for a total consideration of $100,000,000. In accordance with the Certificate of Designation (as defined below), for so long as at least 12,800,000 (adjusted for any dilutive corporate actions) shares of Series D Preferred Stock remain outstanding, if MSPEA and its affiliates hold at least a majority of the shares of Series D Preferred Stock then outstanding, MSPEA has the right to designate two directors to serve on the Issuer's board of directors. If the number of outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Standing is less than 12,800,000 (adjusted for any dilutive corporate actions) but more than 1,600,000 (adjusted for any dilutive corporate actions), to the extent MSPEA and its affiliates hold at least a majority of the shares of Series D Preferred Stock then outstanding, MSPEA has the right to designate one director to serve on the Issuer's board of directors. Mr. Eddy Huang and Mr. Jun Xu were appointed as directors of the Investor effective on September 28, 2011 as designees of MSPEA pursuant to the Certificate of Designation and the Securities Purchase Agreement. If the Issuer fails to achieve an adjusted consolidated net income of RMB 360 million for fiscal year 2011, or RMB 520 million for fiscal year 2012 or RMB 800 million for fiscal year 2013, XD and Mr. Han agreed to transfer to MSPEA a certain number (the "Adjustment Number") of shares of Common Stock at par value of the Common Stock pursuant to an agreed formula as described in the Securities Purchase Agreement. The same economic consequence of such share transfer can also be achieved, at MSPEA's discretion, by the issuance and sale of the Adjustment Number of shares of Common Stock by the Company to MSPEA, in which case the Company will simultaneously redeem at par value the Adjustment Number of shares of Common Stock from XD and/or Mr. Han (subject to certain restriction on the actual redemption date). In no event shall the total number of shares of Common Stock held by MSPEA as a result of the share adjustment arrangement as described above and the number of shares of Common Stock held by MSPEA immediately after the Closing on a fully-diluted basis exceed 33% of the total number of shares of Common Stock of the Issuer on a fully-diluted basis as of the Closing. MSPEA will have the right to purchase, subject to certain customary exceptions, on a pro rata and as-converted basis, prior to any third party, any securities of any type or class of the Issuer to be issued by the Issuer on the same terms and conditions as proposed to the third party. MSPEA may not transfer its rights or obligations under the Securities Purchase Agreement to any person (other than its affiliates) without the Issuer's prior written consent. XD entered into a pledge agreement (the "Pledge Agreement") with MSPEA as described below. XD and Mr. Han entered into a stockholders' agreement (the "Stockholders' Agreement") with MSPEA as described below and the Issuer entered into a registration rights agreement (the "Registration Rights Agreement") with MSPEA as described below.

Certificate of Designation. In connection with the Securities Purchase Agreement, the board of directors of the Issuer approved and adopted the Certificate of Designation, Preferences and Rights of Series D Junior Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Certificate of Designation"). Pursuant to the Certificate of Designation, the Series D Preferred Stock has a $0.0001 par value per share and the maximum number of shares of the Series D Preferred Stock is 20,000,000. The Series D Preferred Stock is junior to the Series B Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Issuer, and the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Issuer, and senior to the Common Stock and each other class or series of junior stock of the Issuer created after the Closing. MSPEA also has a right to acquire any equity securities or other property granted, issued or sold pro rata to the holders of Common Stock on the same terms and on an as-converted basis. At any time on or after January 1, 2012 but on or before the third anniversary of the original issuance date of the Series D Preferred Stock, MSPEA will have the right to convert any or all of the outstanding shares of Series D Preferred Stock held by it into such number of shares of Common Stock at the then applicable conversion price. The initial conversion price is US$6.25 per share and is subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments for stock split, stock combination, issuance of shares of Common Stock as a dividend or distribution on shares of the Common Stock or mergers or reorganization. At any time on or after the third anniversary of the original issuance date of the Series D Preferred Stock, if the Issuer has achieved an adjusted consolidated net income of RMB360 million, RMB 520 million and RMB 800 million, respectively, for financial year 2011, 2012 and 2013, respectively, the Issuer will have the right to require MSPEA to convert any outstanding share of Series D Preferred Stock held by it into shares of Common Stock at the then applicable conversion price.

MSPEA as the holder of the Preferred Shares has the right to vote together with the Common Stock on an as-converted basis. In addition, for as long as 1,600,000 (adjusted for any dilutive corporate actions) shares of Series D Preferred Stock remain outstanding, the Issuer may not take the following actions without the consent of the holders of the majority of the shares of the Series D Preferred Stock then outstanding, voting as a separate class:

authorize, issue, increase, redeem or repurchase any class or series of stock, or any other equity securities, of the Issuer or any subsidiary of the Issuer, or the listing or delisting of any equity securities of the Issuer or any subsidiary of the Issuer, or engage any underwriter or financial advisor for such purposes;

declare, pay or set apart for payment any dividend or distribution on the shares of junior stock or parity stock or make any payment on account of, or set apart for payment money for a sinking or other similar fund for, the purchase, redemption or other retirement of, any shares of junior stock or parity stock or any equity securities exercisable for or convertible into any shares of junior stock or parity stock whether in cash, obligations or shares of the Issuer or other property, or permit any corporation or other entity directly or indirectly controlled by the Issuer to purchase or redeem any shares of junior stock or parity stock or any such equity securities;

amend terms of any existing equity securities of the Issuer, the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the Issuer or any charter documents of any of its subsidiaries in a manner so as to adversely affect the holders of the Series D Preferred Stock, or the Certificate of Designation;

authorize or effect any stock dividend, forward stock split, combination or other similar changes with respect to the Issuer or any of its subsidiary;

reclassify the outstanding securities of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries;

enter into any agreement or other arrangement that could, directly or indirectly, preclude or restrict the Issuer from complying with any of its obligations under the Certificate of Designation; and enter into any agreement or other arrangement that would directly or indirectly constitute any “material event.”

Holders of Series D Preferred Stock have the right to designate two directors to serve on the Issuer’s board of directors so long as at least 12,800,000 (adjusted for any dilutive corporate actions) shares of Series D Preferred Stock are outstanding, and one director to serve on the Issuer’s board of directors if the number of shares of outstanding Series D Preferred Stock at such time is less than 12,800,000 (adjusted for any dilutive corporate actions) but more than 1,600,000 (adjusted for any dilutive corporate actions).

Each holder of shares of Series D Preferred Stock has the right to require the Issuer to redeem all or a portion of the outstanding shares of the Series D Preferred Stock at a price that will yield a 15% internal rate of return to such holder (assuming the holder acquired such shares on the original date of issuance of such share at $6.25 per share) upon the occurrence of the following events: (i) the failure of the Issuer to achieve an adjusted consolidated net income of RMB360 million for fiscal year 2011, or RMB468 million for fiscal year 2012, or RMB608 million for fiscal year 2013, (ii) a breach by the Issuer, XD or Mr. Han of any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement in any transaction document that (A) in the case of a breach of a covenant or agreement that is curable, has remained uncured for 30 days after notice and (B) has had or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse impact on (x) the business, operations, properties, financial position (including any material increase in provisions), earnings or condition of the Issuer and its subsidiaries taken as a whole, or (y) the value, marketability or liquidity of the Series D Preferred Stock taking into account any remedies already sought and received in connection with such breach, (iii) the commencement by the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries of any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar applicable law or of any other case or proceeding to be adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent, or the consent by the Issuer or such subsidiary to the entry of a decree or order for relief in respect of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries in an involuntary case, or (iv) the appointment of a custodian, receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, sequestrator or other similar officials of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries for the winding up or liquidation of its affairs.

If MSPEA holds any shares of Series D Preferred Stock that remain outstanding on the third anniversary of the original issuance date of the Series D Preferred Stock, MSPEA shall require the Issuer to redeem each share of Series D Preferred Stock it holds in cash at a price that will yield a 15% internal rate of return for MSPEA on the consideration paid for such shares.

If the Issuer declares, pays or sets apart for payment any dividend or makes any distribution on any shares of Common Stock or junior stock, then at the time of such dividend or distribution the Issuer shall simultaneously pay a dividend or distribution on each outstanding share of the Series D Preferred Stock in an amount equal to the product of (i) the dividend or distribution payable on each share of Common Stock or junior stock multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of a share of Series D Preferred Stock.

Stockholders' Agreement. MSPEA, XD and Mr. Han entered into the Stockholders' Agreement, which provides for (i) restrictions on transfer or encumbrance of shares of Common Stock currently owned by XD and Mr. Han, (ii) certain tag-along right of MSPEA with respect to transfers by XD or Mr. Han of the Issuer's equity securities held by XD or Mr. Han that may result in a change of control of the Issuer, (iii) obligation of XD and Mr. Han to make certain payments to MSPEA, if the Issuer does not pay the applicable full amount of the voluntary or mandatory redemption price to MSPEA within 6 months after the relevant redemption date pursuant to the Certificate of Designation, so that MSPEA will receive the applicable full amount of the voluntary or mandatory redemption price, (iv) agreement of XD and Mr. Han to transfer shares of Common Stock, pay relevant price or take other means to transfer the economic interest to MSPEA, if any provision of the Certificate of Designation is not enforceable or alleged to be unenforceable by any person or entity, to the effect that MSPEA will enjoy the full economic benefit under the Certificate of Designation as if such unenforceability or alleged unenforceability had not occurred, and (v) the right of MSPEA to purchase certain number of shares of Common Stock from XD and/or Mr. Han at par value if the Issuer issues or sells any shares of Common Stock or other equity securities (other than certain customary exempted issuances), at a price per share of Common Stock, or in the case other equity securities convertible or exchangeable into shares of Common Stock, at a conversion or exercisable price less than the then effective conversion price of the Series D Preferred Stock

(in each case, the “New Issuance Price”) so that MSPEA will be put in the same economic position as if the conversion price of the Series D Preferred Stock is lowered to be equal to the New Issuance Price.

Registration Rights Agreement. In connection with the Securities Purchase Agreement, MSPEA and the Issuer entered into the Registration Rights Agreement. The Registration Rights Agreement provides for registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, under various circumstances, of the shares of Common Stock issued upon conversion of the Preferred Shares or transferred or issued to MSPEA, whether by the Issuer, Mr. Han or XD in accordance with the transaction documents. The Issuer agreed to provide demand, underwritten offering and piggy-back registration rights with respect to such shares of Common Stock.

Pledge Agreement. MSPEA and XD entered into the Pledge Agreement, pursuant to which XD granted a security interest to MSPEA in 16,000,000 shares of Common Stock currently owned by XD. The shares of Common Stock owned by XD serve as collateral for the performance of the obligations of XD and Mr. Han under the transaction documents.

This Item 6 (and other Items of this Statement) does not provide complete descriptions of the Securities Purchase Agreement, Registration Rights Agreement, Stockholders’ Agreement, Certificate of Designation and Pledge Agreement, and such descriptions are qualified in their entirety by reference to the agreements that are listed in Item 7 and are incorporated by reference in this Item 6.

SCHEDULE B

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Unless the context otherwise requires, the term “Morgan Stanley” means Morgan Stanley and its consolidated subsidiaries. Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated (“MS&Co.”) and Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC (“MSSB LLC”), referenced below, are Morgan Stanley’s primary U.S. broker-dealers.

(a) In May 2007, MS&Co. consented, without admitting or denying the findings, to a censure, the entry of an order (the “Order”) that resolved the SEC’s investigation into violations of MS&Co.’s duty to obtain the best price possible for certain retail orders for over-the-counter securities processed by Morgan Stanley’s computerized market-making system from October 24, 2001 through December 8, 2004. Pursuant to the Order, Morgan Stanley was ordered to (1) cease and desist from committing any violations and any future violations of Section 15(c)(1)(A) of the Exchange Act, which prohibits broker-dealers from using manipulative, deceptive or fraudulent devices or contrivances to effect securities transactions, (2) pay disgorgement of $5,949,222 and pre-judgment interest thereon of $507,978 and (3) pay a civil money penalty of $1.5 million. Morgan Stanley also agreed to retain an independent distribution consultant to develop and implement a distribution plan for the disgorgement ordered, and to retain an independent compliance consultant to conduct a comprehensive review and provide a report on its automated retail order handling practices.

(b) On September 27, 2007, the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”) announced that Morgan Stanley entered into a Letter of Acceptance, Waiver and Consent (the “AWC”) to resolve charges filed by FINRA on December 19, 2006. In the AWC, FINRA found that, among other things, Morgan Stanley provided inaccurate information regarding the existence of pre-September 11, 2001 emails and failed to provide such emails to arbitration claimants and regulators in response to discovery obligations and regulatory inquiries, failed adequately to preserve books and records, and failed to establish and maintain systems and written procedures reasonably designed to preserve required records and to ensure that it conducted adequate searches in response to regulatory inquiries and discovery requests. The AWC also included findings that Morgan Stanley failed to provide arbitration claimants with updates to a supervisory manual when called for in discovery. FINRA found that Morgan Stanley violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Rule 17a-4 thereunder, NASD Conduct Rules 2110, 3010 (a) and (b) and 3110, NASD Procedural Rule 8210 and Interpretative Material 10100 under the NASD Code of Arbitration Procedure. In the settlement, Morgan Stanley neither admitted nor denied these findings. The settlement established a $9.5 million fund for the benefit of potentially affected arbitration claimants to be administered by a third party at the expense of Morgan Stanley. In addition, Morgan Stanley was censured and agreed to pay a $3 million regulatory fine and to retain an independent consultant to review its procedures for complying with discovery requirements in arbitration proceedings relating to Morgan Stanley’s retail brokerage operations.

SCHEDULE B

(c) Starting in July 2003, Morgan Stanley received subpoenas and requests for information from various regulatory and governmental agencies, including the SEC, the NYSE and various states, in connection with industry-wide investigations of broker-dealers and mutual fund complexes relating to possible late trading and market timing of mutual funds. In December 2007, Morgan Stanley settled all claims with the SEC concerning late trading and market timing of mutual funds in the retail system over the period from January 2002 to August 2003. Under the terms of the settlement, Morgan Stanley will, among other things, be censured and pay a monetary fine.

(d) On September 30, 2009, Morgan Stanley entered into an administrative settlement agreement with the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (“EPA”) to resolve certain violations of the U.S. environmental laws allegedly committed by Morgan Stanley during 2005. These alleged violations included: distribution of approximately 2.7 million gallons of reformulated gasoline that failed to comply with maximum benzene content limitations; failure to report volume and property information for each batch of gasoline blendstock imported and reformulated gasoline produced; failure to conduct an annual attest engagement; and failure to provide product transfer documents for each transfer of reformulated gasoline and each batch of previously certified gasoline. Without admitting or denying the EPA’s allegations, Morgan Stanley agreed to resolve these matters for a civil penalty of $405,000.

(e) On June 24, 2010, Morgan Stanley and the Office of the Attorney General for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts (“Massachusetts OAG”) entered into an Assurance of Discontinuance (“AOD”) to resolve the Massachusetts OAG’s investigation of Morgan Stanley’s financing, purchase and securitization of certain subprime residential mortgages. The AOD provides for Morgan Stanley to make payments totaling approximately $102.7 million, and for Morgan Stanley to use its best efforts to implement certain business practices related to such activities on a prospective basis.

In addition, MS&Co. has been involved in a number of civil proceedings and regulatory actions which concern matters arising in connection with the conduct of its business. Certain of such proceedings have resulted in findings of violation of federal or state securities laws. Such proceedings are reported and summarized in the MS&Co. Form BD filed with the SEC, which descriptions are hereby incorporated by reference. The MSSB LLC Form BD filed with the SEC is also hereby incorporated by reference.
