Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 19, 2006, NACCO Industries, Inc. (the Company) received a notice from Applica Incorporated (Applica) in which Applica purported to exercise its right to terminate the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 23, 2006 (the Merger Agreement), between HB-PS Holding Company, Inc. (Holding Company), a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and Applica, and joined in by the Company for the specific purposes therein provided. The notice from Applica alleged that Applica's board of directors authorized Applica to enter into a written agreement with an Applica shareholder that provides for a cash offer to purchase shares of Applica common stock. The notice from Applica stated that the termination of the Merger Agreement was effective immediately.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Applica was to have merged with and into Holding Company (the Merger) following the spin off of Holding Company by the Company to its stockholders. The Merger Agreement provided that the outstanding shares of Applica common stock immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger would have been converted into the right to receive a number of shares of Holding Company Class A common stock equal to 25% of the aggregate number of shares of Holding Company common stock outstanding immediately following the Merger.

On October 19, 2006, the Company issued a press release announcing that it received a notice from Applica in which Applica purported to exercise its right to terminate the Merger Agreement. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1, which is incorporated herein by reference thereto.
